Feasibility and risk

This section helps us to understand how you will successfully deliver your project.

We need to know your plans for managing the project, what your budget is and how you will respond to any risks or challenges.

You don't need to have managed a project before, but you need to be able to demonstrate that you have given consideration to how you will manage the project, the budget, and any risks/challenges, and that you or your project partners have the skills to ensure it is delivered successfully.

When we look at your answers to the questions in this section we will think about:

- whether the budget is appropriate for the scale and type of activity?
- how appropriate are the areas of income and spending?
- whether all items in the budget are relevant and reasonable [are fees or wages appropriate to the context? Have quotes for assets/equipment been appropriately researched for any purchases?]
- whether the activity is attracting income from other sources; - is any other income confirmed? If not, are your potential income sources realistic?
- if appropriate financial controls are in place - Do you or the people you're working with have the necessary skills to manage the budget?
- if the activity is realistic and well-planned, and if you have demonstrated that you or the people you are working with are able to deliver the project

Project timeline

GFF have gained £5000 of sponsorship from Unigold who are a local IT business. They will advertise via the events and in the brochure in exchange for this sponsorship.

GFF have successfully applied for £3500 of funding from Experience Guildford who are the Business Improvement District (BID) for Guildford.

Other income for GFF will come from a share of ticket sales, this is carefully calculated based on 2019 sales with commensurate activities & allows for a reduction of 40% from initial sales to cover other major artists fees, splits & venue costs. This is calculated on a conservative estimate of sales targets to ensure no under funding or cashflow issues. These fees are not replicated in this budget therefore & removed for the income at source.

GFF is supported by private income from Guildford Fringe Theatre Company Ltd, this is confirmed & in place.

The Mill Studio & Guildford Arts Exhibition is curated & organised by Guildford Arts - they offer this service, pay room hire & in return keep any arts sales income.

Venues are a mix of paid & gifted, those that are gifted are described here as relative hire costs, & include staff/hire/insurance costs.

Budget - Expenditure

Expenditure table

Please complete the expenditure table below with all your cash expenditure.

Remember:

- Your budget must balance. This means your total expenditure needs to be the same amount as your total income.
- Only include expenditure that will be spent between the start and end date of your project.
- The table already includes any Support in kind you added on the Income screen so you do not need to add this.
- Breakdown your expenditure so we can understand your costs, for example: Artist fee (2 x Creative specialists @ £150 per day for 10 days = £3,000)

Expenditure questions

How have you worked out the costs of the artistic spending included in your budget?

Up to 1500 characters

The artistic fees are devised in consultation with past contributors, partners; the artistic, technical, production & delivery freelancers. The PM's - Nick & Charlotte, examine industry standards, union rates, & quotes from quality artists & practitioners. Previously, emergent artists who were platformed contributed £75 to support the marketing & venue/PR costs. With ACE support this is removed & all emergent artists are offered a flat fee of £150 per performance referencing MU rates / Equity rates.

- The creative team receives a minimum of 2 quotes from service providers, & supports local artists & PR as part of their ethos

- BSL - direct quote from BSL union regulated org. Theatre Sign.

Overall artistic spending is calculated by experienced manager/festival director. Nick & Charlotte successfully administered a CRF grant in 2020/21 & have explored similar work both in the festival's own history & are across the current trends in the ecology. The core team agree the expenditure in advance & calculate the fees as part of a strategy for overall spend targets for each year.

How have you worked out the costs of making your work accessible included in your budget?

Up to 1500 characters

Quotes for accessible work include the development & integration of work in specific spaces:

- using relaxed performance guidelines & paying artists to offer subsidised ticketing

- training in access & inclusion - direct quote

- outreach into homeless shelter venues - paying artists so tickets are free

- integrating BSL - direct quote from Theatre Sign

- paying for brochure distribution to capture families without internet access

- using large print in some brochure pages.

The festival promotes work in non - normative spaces & ensures all PR is inclusive in tone, language & format. Paying for shows such as the Opera from the Balcony to enable free tickets for families & vulnerable individuals / under represented communities.

How have you worked out the costs of developing your organisation included in your budget?

Up to 1500 characters

Costs for supporting emergent artists is an important factor in the application, previously the festival has been forced to charge an 'entry fee' to acts/performers to help cover the venue, PR, marketing & safeguarding/insurance costs. Aiming to keep tickets at a low threshold to gain larger, more diverse audiences; the application enables the festival to platform acts/performers offering MU/Equity guidance with a £150 fee being offered to 70 grassroots performers. Larger acts receive direct payments quoted in the budget / a percentage of door take (removed at source from income tally) etc. Venues across the city, in an emulation of Edinburgh fringe style, take on the festival for 3 weeks. This ensures that work is showcased in a number of local, non-normative & familiar non-arts spaces to encourage audience development. This support grow the organisations ability to platform emergent/grassroots artists in the Guildford ecology.

How have you worked out the costs of marketing and developing audiences included in your budget?

Up to 1500 characters

The social media partner is commissioned to lead on social PR & marketing, this fee is quoted & based on pervious iterations which were successful in their approach.

Festival brochures, banners & posters for local venues are created by trusted suppliers with distribution directly playing a large part in creating new audiences. These quotes are based on 2019 & have been verified for 2022.

How have you worked out the costs of the overheads included in your budget?

Up to 1500 characters

Event & public liability insurance are essential for event safety & are based on existing quotes, with a small allowance made for changes due to scale & amount of final confirmed venues etc.

How have you worked out the costs of expenditure listed as 'other' in your budget?

Up to 1500 characters

A 2% contingency is allowed to cover unforeseen variables.

How much of your total project budget is being spent on International costs (such as visas, carnets, freight, travel, accommodation, per diems)? £0

What experience do you have of managing a project budget of this size? I have managed a project budget of this size or larger before

Up to 2000 characters integration. Apollo Theatre Company was founded in 2010 by Tim Astley upon graduating from the Guildford School of Acting. Tim trained at the Guildford School of Acting and, shortly after graduating in 2010, founded Apollo Theatre Company and made his directorial debut with their first production, Sir Harold Pinter's The Dumb Waiter. The following year he directed Apollo's first touring production, Dennis Potter's Blue Remembered Hills, followed by the 75th Anniversary UK Tour of Thornton Wilder's Our Town and Nina Bawden's Carrie's War in which he also played the role of Billy. Alongside his wife, Amy, Tim created Apollo Theatre Company's first original production, Keep the Home Fires Burning, which told the oft-forgotten roles women played in World War II. He also directed another original piece, The Code Breaker, which celebrated the life and work of Alan Turing. A lifelong fan of radio comedy, Tim fulfilled a long-time dream in 2015 when he produced and directed the 50th Anniversary Tour of his all-time favourite radio show, Round the Horne which toured the UK three times and played for eight weeks in London's Museum of Comedy. Following this wonderful experience, Tim collaborated with Colin Elmer, who played Kenneth Williams in the show, to create an original production about the great man. Entitled Cult Figure, the production toured the country in 2017 and 2018. Bitten by the bug of recreating comedy classics, Tim produced and directed another classic radio comedy to the stage in The Goon Show and yet another, Hancock's Half Hour in 2019.

Risks and challenges

What are the main risks and challenges to your project meeting its aims?
What will you do to manage these risks?

Up to 1500 characters

The capacity to support audiences of interest (homeless, yng families, neurodiverse, those experiencing socio/economic deprivation, BIPOC, d/Deaf communities) appropriately is tackled through a series of measures with apposite partners. The festival works in locations that are appropriate, offers a relaxed performance, BSL integration, work in a homeless shelter, free events etc. & collaborates with orgs embedded in the social infrastructure of the region, i.e. Guildford Arts, the Guidhall.

This is the 1st iteration that tackles inclusion more directly; risk is managed by:

- consulting closely with relevant venues, artists, organisations (e.g. RNID, Theatre Sign)

- awareness training for Nick & Charlotte

- employing a consultant, ensuring best practice

Successfully reaching homeless communities is supported by work with the shelter & using venues such as the Castle for the picnic & The Keep Pub & The Britannia Pub & The Star Inn to keep art in the heart of the community.

Working with appropriate orgs & marketing teams will develop plans to make sure communities are aware of the full programme which will be available in an accessible format on the festival website & distributed directly.

All contracts contain a clause re. lockdowns; postponing the event & safeguarding funding until delivery is possible. CRF funding enabled continuous, albeit reduced, delivery by the team who have gained vast experience in managing risk & being responsive.

Delivering the Outcomes

Your Project and the Outcomes

Our strategy sets out three outcomes; Creative People, Cultural Communities and A Creative and Cultural Country. We do not expect every project to address all three outcomes, but we do want projects to align to at least one and to set out in detail how particular components are being addressed.

You can read about our three outcomes here: <https://www.artscouncil.org.uk/outcomes-0>

When we look at your answers to the questions in this section, where relevant we will think about:

- How your project is supporting people at all stages of their lives to design, develop and increase their participation in high quality creative activities
- If your project focuses on children and young people:
  - If your project reaches families from a wide range of backgrounds
  - If you are widening and improving opportunities for children and young people to take part in creative activities outside schools
  - if your project is supporting children and young people to develop their creative skills and potential
- If you are working with communities to better understand and respond to their needs and interests, resulting in increased cultural engagement and the wide range of social benefits it brings
- If your project is exploring new types of creative practice, new forms of cultural content and new ways of reaching new and existing audiences and participants
- If you are collaborating with other cultural organisations and/or with the commercial creative industries and/or with further and higher education that focuses on innovation, research and development and training, especially in relation to the use of new technologies
- If your project is strengthening the international connections of cultural organisations and creative and cultural practitioners, including co-production and touring
- If your project is bringing world-class culture to audiences in England
- If your project helps to ensure people have opportunities to sustain their careers and fulfil their potential in the creative industries, especially those who are currently under-represented
- If your project is connecting people and places, nationally and internationally

How will your project contribute to the delivery of at least one of our Outcomes, including which, if any, of the Outcome components?

A Creative and Cultural Country: England's cultural sector is innovative, collaborative and international, Cultural Communities: Villages, towns and cities thrive through a collaborative approach to culture, Creative People: Everyone can develop and express creativity throughout their life

Please click the 'Save' button below after you have answered the question.

GFF support people at all stages of their creative lives. GFF host many first time, grassroots & emergent performers; sharing a platform with more established artists, many of the acts use GFF to develop their shows before taken them on tour & to larger festivals.

GFF strive to create a safe space for artists to explore ideas & create new work as well as building on existing work. GFF offer seminars & surgeries on production, platforming & development in the lead up to & during the festival, offering advice on to how to develop new work.

GFF 2022 will orient around the inclusion of work with homeless, d/Deaf, neurodiverse, marginalised, socio/economically deprived & vulnerable communities; bringing performances, & opportunities to experience something new, to hyper local grps. GFF explores the notion of interdisciplinary arts as a tool for social cohesion, platforming new work with empathy, as a device for cultural enrichment, & social cohesion.

In 2022 the directors offer an artists surgery; consultation, confidence building, skill sharing & creative output/outcome opportunities & analysis; both formally & informally, with artists & partners to then shape the festival programme in the future, ensuring inclusion & access are central to delivery. By offering a professional setting, GFF builds confidence & quality, increasing participation at the festival & developing new acts for the wider ecology.

Cultural Communities:*How will your project contribute to this outcome?

Up to 1500 characters

The main goal for 2022 is to make GFF accessible to everyone, ensuring the whole community can watch, experience, sing, dance along & interact with the arts in their community & develop cross sector cohesion which builds resilience in the arts. Following in-depth consultation at previous iterations & CRF funded activity developing feedback, GFF offers:

- a series of wider interactive wkshps & events that are platformed through the fringe (not directly part of this application) but supporting involvement in the accessible activities described here
- year round consultation with families, artists & partners to devise new concepts.

This has led to:

- Partnering with a homeless shelter to provide free shows
- Offering a relaxed performance, widely advertised, to encourage, families & neurodiverse, socially anxious audiences
- Free events i.e. picnic at the Castle which introduce new artists
- BSL integrated theatre
- Free shows i.e. Opera on the Balcony at the Guildhall
- Partnerships with the Guildhall & Guildford Castle - prominent spaces to embed the work in the calendar
- Networking with support organisations to reach new audiences directly.

A Creative and Cultural Country:

How will your project contribute to this outcome?

GFF events began in 2012, each year GFF have produced more events for longer runs due to demand. GFF have developed a regional significance & national influence by forming part of the ecological chain for artist development. This application will enable the team to remove the final barrier to that participation by enabling the payment of emergent artists. GFF is offering them development advice & union rates of pay, platforming them alongside nationally significant artists, & combining interdisciplinary work across town centre, high profile & community venues; in order to take scratch work into production by testing it in the GFF model.

GFF builds new ways to consume culture in response to DCMS directives; attracting many families & offering a first glimpse in to the world of Opera, producing events that local theatres can't host as they aren't scaled or produced to the standard needed, GFF use non-normative spaces to invite people into the arts, building new audiences for touring work etc.

Art in the pub, on the historic Guildhall balcony, on the high street, in shopping centres brings culture to places where it is not normally consumed & re-orientates the public perception of elitist tropes around theatre & opera.

Outreach with RNID/ATLAS connects the festival to nationwide infrastructures that support the communities of interest regionally, embedding learning from this iteration for the future, by opening channels of evaluation & feedback.

GFF have devised a successful method of evaluating the festival based on previous evaluation & suggestions from partners. The 2022 evaluation will include:

- Web based easy feedback questionnaires to acts, audiences, key stakeholders
- Specific partner forum meetings to assess the learning / gaps within accessible provision
- Artists development - surgery feedback
- Collation of blogs from ATLAS
- Consultant led formal evaluation in partnership with GFF, considering the effectiveness of the outreach, partnership structure, peer impact & national significance.

Demographics, impairments, socio/economic status & gender will be used in feedback collation, to better understand how the festival & outreach offer contributes to skills development for emergent artists, & which areas of growth the festival best stimulates - e.g. theatre, comedy, music etc.

Social cohesion & cultural capital, building confidence in vulnerable & under represented communities targeted within the accessibility initiative will be tested to understand how that engagement can be sustained. Key members will receive direct mailout forms assessing their likelihood to re-engage.

All feedback from partners, peers, participants & stakeholders will be collated for the final report & more importantly used to inform programming decisions.

Every time the directors produce GFF so much is learnt; whether that is how to use new tech (like during COVID - live streaming everything instead of live) or finding & implementing new box office systems to streamline customer experience & generate more sustainable income streams; the team can now use QLAB & manage PA's & lighting desks - this development continues every year as there are always new updates & systems.

This year sees a major shift in artists programming to offer a free platform & increase sustainability in the wider market by paying grassroots artists to work alongside nationally profiled acts; in order to improve the festival access, feed the fringe pipeline & develop corridors to success for new work. Payment will mean that scratch work comes to public attention more quickly, more innovative work is developed, experimental work can be tried & integrated audiences can witness new work together.

Artists surgeries will offer support on production & the training around inclusion passed down, informing artists at development stage to ensure their work is aware of the barriers that staging, lighting, language & depiction within a production can create. Removing them in development phase creates a more inclusive ecology long term.

Qualitative measures & legacy impact:

- Emergent artists receive new work offers nationally
- Low income families report positive engagement & the free ticket offer grows
- People from outside Guildford begin to view GFF as culturally significant
- LGBTQ+ performers increase from 2019 levels.
- Regional visibility - improve the festival brand, embedding it & the work of artists from the South/South East within the national picture; feeding work to wider geographical platforms
- Finance - all funding is secured & all sales targets achieved
- Positive impact - artists, partners & stakeholder reviews confirm a good model for ongoing development.

4. Subsidy Control

The Subsidy Control rules are the new legal requirements that apply to the award of subsidies in the United Kingdom with effect from 11pm 31 December 2020. They have largely replaced EU State aid rules.

Where a "Subsidy" is present as per the definition of subsidy set out in the Subsidy Control Act 2022 ("the Act") then it is necessary for the award to comply with requirements set out in the Trade and Cooperation Agreement with the EU (and in due course those further requirements set out in the Act).

A "Subsidy" only exists when the following cumulative characteristics are present (only tick those that apply):

- financial assistance which is given, directly or indirectly, from public resources by a public authority; and
- confers an economic advantage on one or more enterprises; and
- is specific, that is, is such that it benefits one or more enterprises over one or more other enterprises with respect to the production of goods or the provision of services; and

|--------------------------|
| <input type="checkbox"/> |
| <input type="checkbox"/> |
| <input type="checkbox"/> |

- has, or is capable of having, an effect on —
  - (i) competition or investment within the United Kingdom,
  - (ii) trade between the United Kingdom and a country or territory outside the United Kingdom, or
  - (iii) investment as between the United Kingdom and a country or territory outside the United Kingdom.

If awarded, do you believe that your request for public funding meets all the necessary criteria to be classed as a "Subsidy"? No

Where a "Subsidy" is declared you will be required to provide further information to establish whether the "Subsidy" would be considered lawful.

5. Tick the relevant box if any person involved in the project or writing the application:

I am happy to be contacted by Arts Council England, or by a third-party organisation on behalf of Arts Council England, for feedback to help evaluate the programme.
