

Introduction

National Lottery Project Grants

We will ask you questions about different parts of your activity:

- Some basic details about your project – when it's happening, what it's called
- What you want to do, why, and what you want it to achieve
- Who your project will engage, and how they'll engage with it
- How you will manage the project
- The budget for the project

We will use the information you give us in this application to decide whether we will offer you a grant.

The first few screens are autofilled with information you have already provided in your applicant profile. If you need to make any amendments, go back to the 'Applicants' section and edit your applicant profile.

Throughout Grantium, any questions marked with an asterisk (*) must be answered otherwise you won't be able to submit your form.

All our text boxes have a character limit. Please stick to this character limit as any additional text won't be saved.

Essential information

In this section we'll ask you some basic details about you and your project.

What do we mean by 'project'?

- A series of activities or a piece of work.
- A project has a start and an end date
- A project has a set of measurable aims that you'd like to achieve in that time.

Amount requested

Tell us the total amount you are applying to us for, including any personal access costs* (£): £80,573

How much of this request is for your / your collaborators' personal access costs?* (£): £1,710

*If you, or the people you are working with, are:

- deaf or disabled,
- neurodivergent,
- experience learning difficulties,
- have a mental health or
- long term health condition,

there may be extra costs relating to your access needs. These could be to help you deliver the project, or for the online management of your grant.

Some examples are a BSL interpreter, a notetaker or specialist tutor for admin support, counselling costs during your project.

Do you, or does your organisation object to receiving National Lottery funding for religious reasons? No

Fair pay

Arts Council England is committed to ensuring proper and fair payment to artists and those who work in the creative industries. Please read the Fair pay section of our How to apply guidance for more information.

Have you used a recognised industry standard to work out how to pay artists and professionals involved in your project (including you)? Yes - If so, which one?

Please explain in more detail.

Up to 600 characters

Musicians Union & Equity rates are used in conjunction with National Living Wage standards & industry norms to calibrate all fees.

Up to 800 characters

Harambee Pasadia (HP: Harambee, Swahili meaning 'let's get together' & Pasadia, Spanish meaning 'to spend the day') is a Black female led, 4-day music & arts festival, celebrating its 7th iteration & most ambitious programme to date.

The festival offers a roster of world renowned creatives, cultural practitioners & activists, wellbeing experts & academics, delivering:

- Panel talks & discussions
- Multi entry, inclusive, music, dance & visual art wkshps with representative teaching
- Outdoor activities
- Culturally adaptive therapeutic support.

Pre/post event work comprises researched & co-devised performances, wkshps, skills sharing, & talks with community partners; to engage under represented communities & embed the events in the hyper-local / national ecology.

Who and how

Estimate how many people will experience your project?
Please enter a '0' if any type is not relevant to your project.

Type	Description	How many people will experience this project?
Creative practitioners	People taking part in the project to deliver creative activity or directly benefitting from the project in their role as a creative or cultural practitioner	334
Active participants	People taking part in or contributing to the project, going beyond being audience members. This might include taking part in a workshop, performing in a community show, or joining a class	887
Volunteers	Those supporting or benefitting from the project in a voluntary role	90
Live audiences/ visitors	Those who are present during the live presentation of a creative product such as a live show or an exhibition	585
Streaming audiences	Those who experience a recording or broadcast of a live presentation through a digital platform	3,500
Digital audiences	Those who experience a creative product designed to be experienced through digital technology	575
Total		5,971

How have you worked out these figures?

Up to 800 characters

1. 275 - creative practitioners at the festival; 21 artists - pre/post wkshps & photographer/videographer; 7 - mentors / coaches / strategist; 23 - festival crew; 8 - accessibility focused artists
2. Based on prev. iterations - 100% of attendees 'take part' - (2019 - 475 attendees - 2022 outreach & line up predicts increase to 585 with confidence). Pre & post events - skill share x (av. 15) = 45. Curious Monkey sessions / wmns refugee grp / yng wmns network etc (13, 13, 27, 150, 18, 35, 23, 10) = 575 + 302 = 877
3. 62 - during the festival; 16 - construction & take down; 12 - outreach = 90
4. 585 (235 costed + 350 from partner grps)
5. 3500 based on previous 2019/2020 streaming reach of Thurs night 'speakers corner sessions'
6. Multi Lingual Library - digital installation.

How many of the people taking part in/contributing to you project are employed on a freelance basis? 333

How will people experience your project?
You can select more than one option if your project is going to have multiple ways of experiencing it. Tick all that apply.

Select	Type	Description
☒	Live event(s) – static	A creative event where there is a live audience present, happening in one location over a single or multiple number of events
☐	Live event(s) – multiple locations/touring	A creative event that is happening in multiple locations either simultaneously or consecutively. For example, touring shows and exhibitions visiting multiple venues, or purpose-built structures that are moved from one location to another
☒	Streaming or Broadcasting	A creative event that is presented live but either streamed live or broadcast as a recording of a live event
☒	Digital Experience - static	A creative product that is designed to be distributed and experienced through digital platforms or hardware such as headsets or personal devices
☐	Longer term public engagement in England	This activity will allow you to engage individuals and communities in England in the future rather than during your project. For example if your project solely focuses on research and development, organisational development, creating a product or only touring outside of England

Please click the 'Save' button below after you have answered the question.

Where

Using the tool below, please enter the location(s) where activity is happening. To add a location, click the 'Add new item' icon on the left of the screen. To add more than one location, use the 'Save and Add another' button.

The location(s) you add to this list need to match what you've selected on the previous screen (Who and how) in answer to the question 'How will people experience your project'

If your project is not happening in a specific place, select 'Longer term public engagement in England' on the previous screen (Who and how) and delete any locations you have added to this list.

Feasibility and risk

This section helps us to understand how you will successfully deliver your project.

We need to know your plans for managing the project, what your budget is and how you will respond to any risks or challenges.

You don't need to have managed a project before, but you need to be able to demonstrate that you have given consideration to how you will manage the project, the budget, and any risks/challenges, and that you or your project partners have the skills to ensure it is delivered successfully.

When we look at your answers to the questions in this section we will think about:

- whether the budget is appropriate for the scale and type of activity?
- how appropriate are the areas of income and spending?
- whether all items in the budget are relevant and reasonable [are fees or wages appropriate to the context? Have quotes for assets/equipment been appropriately researched for any purchases?]
- whether the activity is attracting income from other sources; - is any other income confirmed? If not, are your potential income sources realistic?
- if appropriate financial controls are in place - Do you or the people you're working with have the necessary skills to manage the budget?
- if the activity is realistic and well-planned, and if you have demonstrated that you or the people you are working with are able to deliver the project

As you are applying for over £30,000:

- if the cash flow is appropriate for the project

Project timeline

Project dates

Tell us the start and end dates for your project.

Please allow enough time to plan your project and for us to process your application, as well as enough time for us to make a payment before your start date if your project is successful. See our How to apply guidance for more details.

The dates you give here should be the dates for the full project you're asking us to fund.

We need twelve weeks to process applications for over £30,000.

Project start date: 25/04/2022

Project end date: 05/09/2022

Please use the tool below to list the main stages and tasks of the project from the start date onwards, and to show who will lead on each element of the project. Please add each project stage in order. You must enter at least one stage.

To create the table, click the 'Add new item' icon on the left of the screen to add a project stage. To add more than one stage, use the 'Save and Add another' button.

The table at the bottom of the page will populate with the information you enter about the stages of your project.

Budget - Income

Income table

Please complete the income table below with all your cash income, as well as any support in kind you will receive. (By support in kind we mean goods or services that you would otherwise have to pay for, but are being provided for free.)

Remember:

- Your budget must balance. This means your total income needs to be the same amount as your total expenditure.
- Only include income that relates specifically to this project.
- Do not include personal access costs in the income table. These are automatically included in the total amount you are requesting from us.
- For any earned income you should include how these amounts have been calculated in the description field, for example:
 Ticket sales (7 dates @ 60% of 100 capacity x £8 ticket price) £3,360

To add an income line

To add each income line, click the 'Add new item' icon on the left of the screen. To add more than one line of expenditure, use the 'Save and Add another' button.

- Ticket sales, stalls & food vendors from previous festivals adjusted by 10% (as per current position, engaged partners & community interest - confident of achieving target with ease)
- Vendor fees: calculated percentage growth for the festival & adjusted the price to reflect projection
- Adjusted ticket prices thru researched strategies at comparable festivals; worked in collaboration with partners & community grps to define 'affordable' for their constituents
- Factored in income from the Harambee Pasadia bar, kitchen, & merchandise sales, maintained at 2019 sales figures
- Scheduled fundraising events at World Headquarters (various dates) & income based on 2019 figures
- As in 2019 the advertisement sponsorship scheme allows orgs, vendors, & attendees to advertise during the festival & in the programme
- Devised a funding plan to assist Stand4, & Idle Women to fundraise in order to attend the festival
- Parking, showers, camper van, & outdoor activities sales based on 2019 sales & adjusted by a 10% as per overall attendance
- Gateshead Council awarded £1000 (confirmed)
- 2019 - Durham County Council awarded £500 for 2 day skill share wkshps at the Hub, 2022 asked for support for 4 days. (Confident of receiving this)
- Dance city is confirmed to fund the outreach event
- Jack Drum Arts, Angelou Center & Leading Link pay each year, for a wkshp at the festival (or pre/post) that their constituents would like to see (co-design process)

Budget - Expenditure

Expenditure table

Please complete the expenditure table below with all your cash expenditure.

Remember:

- Your budget must balance. This means your total expenditure needs to be the same amount as your total income.
- Only include expenditure that will be spent between the start and end date of your project.
- The table already includes any Support in kind you added on the Income screen so you do not need to add this.
- Breakdown your expenditure so we can understand your costs, for example: Artist fee (2 x Creative specialists @ £150 per day for 10 days = £3,000)

Expenditure questions

How have you worked out the costs of the artistic spending included in your budget?

Up to 1500 characters

The artistic fees are devised in consultation with past contributors, partners; the artistic, technical, production & delivery freelancers. HP examine industry standards, union rates, & receive quotes from quality artists & practitioners.

- Artists' fees agreed with musicians & performers referencing MU rates
- Freelance staff fees reached in consultation with the North East Cultural Freelancers
- The creative team receives a minimum of 2 quotes from service providers, & champions local industry as part of the HP ethos

Overall artistic spending is calculated by experienced admin managers/festival directors. The small core creative team meticulously examine it on order to support industry standards, in recognition of excellence & quality & a sustainable approach. HP has explored similar work both in its own history & responds to ecology feedback concerning the proper remuneration of artists & those in positions of cultural authority. The team agree the expenditure in advance & calculate the fees as no more than an agreed maximum of overall spend targets for each year against the HP strategic plan.

Director's monitor expenditure, forecast cash flow, receive invoices & make payments for the production & outreach budgets, ensuring that the calculation & setting of professional fees is consistent. HP employs a producer to manage the external fundraising activities.

How have you worked out the costs of making your work accessible included in your budget?

Up to 1500 characters

This year HP are targeting grps with additional needs, & have therefore expanded the inclusion & access finance provision, adding an inclusion officer to develop work with partners as well as providing support during the festival to staff & volunteers.

Costs:

- Sensory spaces Tent & performers, workshop leaders
- Sensory friendly space; created for people who need quiet retreat
- BSL fees as per guidance from the BSL union
- Larger print program
- New initiative to provide vehicle access to the festival for volunteers / staff who have wheelchairs (in access costs)

HP Afro Fusion Festival is continuously working to improve accessibility, & to ensure a better customer journey for disabled customers.

- All areas are step free
- HP offer all disabled customers an additional free ticket for a carer / personal assistant to accompany them to the festival
- Disabled parking & camping areas are reserved at the closest point to the main arena & campsite
- Site coordinators are access trained
- Registration coordinators prioritise those with access needs.

How have you worked out the costs of developing your organisation included in your budget?

Up to 1500 characters

Org development is centred in 2022 to accommodate growth, orient to sustainability & embed inclusion/access. The directors have identified funded opportunities to embed learning; costs as per each course/mentorship.

Development costs include:

- Time for Hannabiell Sanders, HP festival Artistic Director, to be coached (by Tamara Gal-On & Fiona Cameron) on music business strategy, organisational development & sustainability of the event.
- Northern Stage will lead a series of sessions with Yilis Suriel, HP Festival Executive Director, on: developing an in depth strategy/logistical frameworks to support successful socially engaged practice, this will reference partnership development, planning, preparation & implementation. It will further consider understanding relational methodologies, how to discover, support & empower the expression of community & participant voice; local knowledge building: getting to know a community's strengths, challenges & complexities; understanding who you're working with & assessing need; approaches to effective recruitment & diversifying reach.

Strategist Saskia Coburn will support both directors in assuring that the scale of the work is delivered, evaluation is fit for purpose & national ecologies (for Black Led/African diasporic networks) are referenced to offer the festival improved visibility.

How have you worked out the costs of marketing and developing audiences included in your budget?

Up to 1500 characters

- Increased print/part of the digital marketing budget & adapted marketing strategies focus on community partners's outreach events, workshops & talks, digital marketing, & targeted audience development in a hyper local approach. Social media, evaluation, & meet the artists series etc look across the local horizon to grow the national contact for the festival.

- Promotions reflect the quality of the programme & its wider aspirations. The social media associate is a key growth area to communicate with the wider public. This role will support the inclusion officer to reach a broader audience.

Costed sufficient capital to aid:

- Key delivery of printed materials
- Strategic dissemination to partners & venues; engagement with partners who advertise to their members & surrounding communities
- A well-designed website & programme with clear details of facilities, travel information & access to the site; artists & partners involvement in social media; targeted media coverage in regional publications & national press; newsletters; streaming of videos & photos of artists on website; promotional videos of previous festivals released strategically
- Targeted audience development by providing community outreach; wkshps & performances, skill share events, co-hosted events with World Headquarters.

How have you worked out the costs of the overheads included in your budget?

Up to 1500 characters

Note: Event Insurance - included as part of the venue hire costs (note: existing director's personal insurance covers loss of investments & all artists must provide public liability insurance in their contract).

All quotes have been received from reputable businesses & based on previous engagements. The fees have been calculated by the executive director in consultation with the delivery team. All costs & fees support the festival sustainability plan. The executive director monitors expenditure against cash flow, receives the invoices & in accordance with its contracts makes payments for production elements within 30 days.

HP works with Northern Production, who provide equipment & engineers. With the festival expanding & the addition of an outdoor stage, its costed to provide additional sound equipment, generators, & fencing to support the growth.

Travel & food have been calculated with the onsite caterer taking into account projected growth of the festival.

Security provider is from 2019, & St Johns Ambulance is the First Aid provider. All service providers chosen from at least 2 quotes. Portaloo, shower, & skip hire have been booked with recommendation from TCR Hub. The purchase of Volunteer T-shirts, wrist bands, & other consumables have been calculated by researching local companies & finding online quotes.

How have you worked out the costs of expenditure listed as 'other' in your budget?

Up to 1500 characters

Based on a percentage of ACE funding to cover small fluctuations in insurances, travel, other direct outlay. Figure based on the variance experienced in the 2019 programme.

Extra note: re income - if sales do fall below expected levels, the target income will be readdressed through partner / external funding applications. HP has never failed to reach its funding targets, sales are conservative estimates & partners are confirmed to fund the involvement of over 70% of participants. Ticket sales are conservative estimates & priced to accommodate a solid cashflow projection, not to extend the festival into precarious positions. Artists fees will not be compromised in themselves, in extreme circumstances - digital delivery will be considered & cutting elements of the programme rather than asking any artists to compromise their fees.

How much of your total project budget is £0 being spent on International costs (such as visas, carnets, freight, travel, accommodation, per diems)?

What experience do you have of managing a project budget of this size? I have managed a project budget of this size or larger before

Risks and challenges

What are the main risks and challenges to your project meeting its aims? What will you do to manage these risks?

Up to 1500 characters

- Covid & government guidelines: venue has multiple & appropriate spaces & ventilation for the number of attendees with appropriate distancing & reiteration of public awareness. PPE for all the HP team.
- Safety & public health concerns: in 2019, 90% of respondents felt safe during their visit, all measures are in a policy document to be reimplemented
- Illness, incapacity amongst key performers or HP organisers: appropriate deputising across key roles has been discussed
- Equipment/ supplies failures: back up plan for any suppliers. Follow up prior to event
- Trip/fall/allergic reactions – First Aiders on site
- Legacy & evaluation not fit for scale up: extensive embedded plan & collated evaluation informs new proposal & embedded support from partners prevents any lack of capacity
- Insufficient funding: HP has grown its funding capacity significantly - in the last full delivery year, turnover was £70K+, most supplementary income is confirmed
- Accessibility: all staff chosen from partnerships trained in access & inclusion for neurodiverse / disabled / invisible impairments
- Not securing a strong participatory / final audience: extensive outreach & existing embedded partnerships & PR visibility is in place. Targeting orgs who work with people from the global majority through emails, phone & physical flyers. Marketing strategy has a bespoke FB & Insta plan, to attract people interested in Afro Fusion arts.

Delivering the Outcomes

Your Project and the Outcomes

Our strategy sets out three outcomes; Creative People, Cultural Communities and A Creative and Cultural Country. We do not expect every project to address all three outcomes, but we do want projects to align to at least one and to set out in detail how particular components are being addressed.

You can read about our three outcomes here: <https://www.artscouncil.org.uk/outcomes-0>

When we look at your answers to the questions in this section, where relevant we will think about:

- How your project is supporting people at all stages of their lives to design, develop and increase their participation in high quality creative activities
- If your project focuses on children and young people:
 - If your project reaches families from a wide range of backgrounds
 - If you are widening and improving opportunities for children and young people to take part in creative activities outside schools
 - if your project is supporting children and young people to develop their creative skills and potential
- If you are working with communities to better understand and respond to their needs and interests, resulting in increased cultural engagement and the wide range of social benefits it brings
- If your project is exploring new types of creative practice, new forms of cultural content and new ways of reaching new and existing audiences and participants
- If you are collaborating with other cultural organisations and/or with the commercial creative industries and/or with further and higher education that focuses on innovation, research and development and training, especially in relation to the use of new technologies
- If your project is strengthening the international connections of cultural organisations and creative and cultural practitioners, including co-production and touring
- If your project is bringing world-class culture to audiences in England
- If your project helps to ensure people have opportunities to sustain their careers and fulfil their potential in the creative industries, especially those who are currently under-represented
- If your project is connecting people and places, nationally and internationally

How will your project contribute to the delivery of at least one of our Outcomes, including which, if any, of the Outcome components?

A Creative and Cultural Country: England's cultural sector is innovative, collaborative and international, Cultural Communities: Villages, towns and cities thrive through a collaborative approach to culture, Creative People: Everyone can develop and express creativity throughout their life

HP works with rural, marginalised, & vulnerable communities throughout the year; bringing performances, wkshps, & opportunities to experience something new, to hyper local grps. HP centralises the notion of intercultural empathy, play, health & wellbeing & interdisciplinary arts to explore the African Diaspora as a device for cultural enrichment, social cohesion & female empowerment. The outreach programme offers consultation, research, confidence building, skill sharing & creative output/outcome analysis; both formally & informally, to then shape the festival programme, ensuring inclusion & access are central to delivery. Examples of such are listed here.

1. HP conduct outreach to support YP to gain creative skills, leadership skills, & access to events management training, e.g.:

- Recruiting 2 interns from Newcastle University - to share knowledge of events management prior / during the festival
- Supporting young leaders from Jack Drum Arts (13-20 yrs) to volunteer during the festival alongside HP volunteers as part of a co-devised festival project, supporting their learning to devise, produce, curate & manage an event of this scale
- Supporting Leading Link & Stand4 to lead on a panel in 'Speakers Corner'
- Employing an inclusion officer to further reach out to a broader community & (new to HP) organisations that work with YP.

Pre & post events, wkshps & talks are co-designed with partner organisations (see extensive list) to help participants feel activated pre & post festival, in order to allow them to design, participate & lead sessions within the festival.

2. Support for neurodiverse (ND) participants:

- Sensory Space - featuring ND performers & activity leaders
- Inclusive wkshps
- Sensory Friendly quiet spaces
- Fully accessible spaces & venues.

3. Womxn centric programming:

- Women's House, female led artistic prog. lead a weekend residency to create a communal art piece about womxn & domesticity
- 50%+ of all staff, creatives & volunteers are female.

4. BIPOC communities:

- The Angelou centre support BIPOC womxn in pre-festival wkshps
- The entire festival is led by & focused on Black womxn, exploring cultural activities in music, dance & folklore that have been identified as central to de-codifying the modern Black experience.

5. LGBTQ+ communities:

- Sister Shack programme music & creative practitioners for the event.

6. Older people:

- Art Diamond Group run wkshps for older people at the Gateshead Library prior to the festival so they feel empowered to participate in modern cultural experiences at the festival.

Cultural Communities:

Collaboration is at the core of the festival, organisation & outreach strategy; a shared vision with representative partners (see extensive list), informs each iteration & expansion of the festival, ensuring HP's communities of interest are represented & served.

Multiple entry/access mediums:

HP explores a myriad of interdisciplinary routes enabling all types of neurotypical & neurodivergent learning styles in creativity: performances, participatory workshops in dance, music & visual arts, outdoor activities, BMX, water sports, exercise, high ropes, & the Speaker's Corner - where talking becomes action. This year HP further delivers a health & wellbeing village & a cabaret night.

Working across the range of engagement & access points in the local area ensures that district/regional cultural strategy is implemented in the work schemes. HP is presenting a holistic approach to cultural consumption, mental wellbeing & social prescription within the private & public sector. Working with the local library & other stakeholders such as Cultures CIC & Dr. Jordan Mullard (social anthropologist) enables a programme that responds to local demographics & indices of deprivation for the ward/district & county level.

HP evaluation shows that it develops a more diverse audience than the local population stats; offering cultural cohesion & community wellbeing from witnessing & participating in community art experiences together. In 2019 - 100% attended to do an activity, 92% of those asked, said HP 'improved their quality of life'. HP 2022 builds on this feedback & creates spaces for low income, racially diverse & neurodiverse people alongside the wider population to try new ways of consuming culture, & experience different pedagogies.

HP employs a significant number of female & BIPOC animateurs & grp /session leaders; world class performers, directors & musicians/creatives. Creative grps, theatre grps, dancers, mentees & emerging artists are platformed with outstanding facilitators to build cultural capital for the community & opportunities to explore their creative narratives in subsequent ventures with a newly developed autonomy.

HP delivers a microcosm of integration; a safe, Black led space that orients away from white centric perceptions of Black culture. It is a grassroots/ground up evolution of meta work that both delivers & reviews new practice & pedagogy. The theme of AfroFuturism & Afro Bubblegum define the event, to bring joy & hope to the centre.

HP is a metaspace, a medium through which communities connect & relate.

A Creative and Cultural Country:
How will your project contribute to this outcome?

HP programming orients around the idea of fusion, ethnocultural empathy & collaboration. Exploring the many ways that modern, white centric culture has borrowed from Majority World cultures & traditions.

The Speaker's Corner Conference explores Black feminist thought; Patricia Hill Collins expounds ideas about intellectual activism by placing the most vulnerable at the centre of the conversation, redefining scholarship, empowering marginalised people & their narratives, bridging the gap between academia & activism; weaving critical thinking through the main programme. Speaker's Corner live stream, "Feminism is for Everyone" (an accessible introduction to feminist theory) coincides with the culmination of the online "Regional Consciousness Raising Reading Group". The festival conference allows participants to share their experience.

HP innovates & re-codifies. It platforms academics alongside inclusive participatory arts to dispel cultural tropes associated with Black led arts. It uses Djembe, Samba, Pan African dance styles, Afrobeat, RnB, Latin Percussion, photography, visual arts, electronica, Jazz & classical music (& much more) to build cultural synergy & social cohesion in alignment with modern cultural theory.

With funding, HP now seeks to introduce the festival to the national African diasporic arts ecology; working with artists from London, Bristol, Manchester etc, who are known & respected internationally, to raise the visibility of the region.

HP is committed to improving the wellbeing of all festival attendees; recognising the intersectionality for Black communities around health & culture (disconnected & underrepresented in both medicine & cultural provision historically). This year, a wellbeing village offers practitioners who specialise in culturally adapted therapeutic support (intuition/coaching/nutrition); to help participants feel happier & healthier.

HP expounds strategies developed through the global pandemic by:

- Live streaming portions of the Speaker's Corner
- Dami & Daps, (a journalist & podcaster), interview artists & guests to create a collaborative podcast which also acts as an evaluation asset
- Stand4 lead a podcast during the festival on their experience
- During the festival, HP recruits sound engineers/producers/performing artists to come into the studio & collaborate on an EP.

HP is part of the newly formed Wear & Tyne Festival Network, ACE funded it aims to engage world-class live performance on multiple sites from traditional venues to community hubs & site responsive work. Collaboration fosters cross-disciplinary exchange between the member festivals, providing crucial opportunities for knowledge exchange & professional development.

The artforms are curated to offer a new perspective on international pedagogies, emergent from the African Diaspora.

The Investment Principles

Your Project and the Investment Principles

The Investment Principles are an important part of our strategy and we encourage you to use them to strengthen the planning and delivery of your project.

Our Investment Principles are:

- Ambition and Quality
- Dynamism
- Environmental Responsibility
- Inclusivity and Relevance

You can read about our Investment Principles here

In this section you can use the Investment Principles to build up a more in-depth picture of your project, which in turn will give us a stronger understanding of your intentions and plans, and how your project will contribute to delivering our Strategy.

- applications for £100,000 and under

You need to complete the section on Inclusivity and Relevance.

You can answer any of the other questions in this section to help you develop your own approach to adopting the Investment Principles. If you do answer any of the other questions we'll take that information into consideration when we make a decision on your application

When we look at your answers to the questions in this section, where relevant, we will think about:

- If the Investment Principles you have responded to are relevant to the scale of your project, and what you want it to achieve
- If you have used the Investment Principles to give an in-depth picture of your project
- If the target audiences for the activity are clearly identified
- If you have thought about how your project could help you to make a contribution to the Creative Case for Diversity
- how the activity might align with our Equality Objectives
- If there is meaningful engagement
- If the project will develop you and your work, or the work/skills of the people/organisations involved
- the quality of the experience for the people taking part in the project
- if the activity increases opportunities for people who don't currently get involved in the creativity and culture or are involved a little in creative and cultural activity
- if the activity increases opportunities for people already taking part in creative and cultural activity
- if plans to market the activity to audiences are well-defined, and are likely to achieve your aims
- if there is no immediate opportunity to involve people (for example, research and development), whether there is potential for the public to get involved in the future; and
- If you are you taking steps to improve the environmental responsibility of your project

All applicants need to complete the section on Inclusivity and Relevance.

Inclusivity and Relevance

This Investment Principle is about England's diversity being fully reflected in the organisations and individuals we support and the culture they produce through:

Communities

YP: Identified through working in communities & outreach activities in 2019-22.

Initiatives inc:

- Rural communities: in collaboration with Leading Link' co-designed Skill Share wkshps (30 YP from Blyth, Bedlington, Ashington, Alnwick, Hexham)
- Outreach wkshp & Skill Share wkshp at the Hub (Barnard Castle) in collaboration with Sarah Gent, Family Activities Coordinator
- Inclusion in festival program: Jack Drum Arts Runaway Samba, 18 performers, 12-60 yrs old
- Urban communities: collaboration with Stand4 Youth Group (Newcastle upon Tyne) grp of 18 YP co-design a session pre-festival & receive support leading a session during the festival & attend the full weekend (transportation, camping equipment).

BIPOC:

- Engaging with partners who advertise to their members & surrounding communities (see list)
- Targeted audience development through wkshps & performances, Skill Share events, co-hosted events with World Headquarters
- Curious Monkey - co-design pre festival creative activities for newly arrived grps & newly formed women's support grp for sanctuary seekers
- Partnering specific grps who work with refugee/asylum seekers, cultural orgs who work with people from the Global Majority, supporting different levels of engagement & support though subsidised & free tickets.

Socio/economic deprivation:

- A sponsorship scheme to support those who might not be able to attend due to expense
- Free / assisted places for partner participants
- Free for under 10's.

Womxn:

- Women's House: co-design pre-festival creative activity
- Young Women's Network - co-design pre-festival creative activities with young womxn.

HP work closely with various orgs who support audience development through meetings, social media posts, newsletter inclusions & physical presence in pre/post festival activities, to inc: Angelou Center, Sister Shack (Bend & Shake), Women's House, NEEACA, Imkaan, Culture CIC, Taste of Africa, World Headquarters, Bridge & Tunnel.

Workforce

- If you're engaging a team of people to work on your project, or are working in partnership with other individuals or organisations, tell us:
- How you will ensure they reflect the communities you wish to reach
- How you will ensure access to opportunities are open and accessible
- If you're not working with anyone else on your project you should explain why and consider how working with others would help you to reflect the communities you wish to reach.

LGBTQI+/BIPOC:

HP have met with & confirmed the attendance of womxn & non binary leaders & activists from the Northeast, Manchester, Bristol, Leeds, Nottingham, London & Wales. At the festival, they will raise awareness about the work they do in their communities, engage in panel discussions to help educate & share best practice, & inspire creative activities. The workforce demographic offers visual representation to a diverse range of non-conformist, gender bending activists. Key partners that support & promote the festival for inclusion of the LGBTQI+ community are: Black Angel, Kiki Bristol, Shit Lesbian Disco, Young Women's Network, Ajah UK, Curious Festival.

HP has commissioned & set to tender various opportunities that are positively restricted to Black artists from the African Diaspora.

50%+ of all creative & non creative partners are womxn, this is a commitment to redressing gender bias in the creative industries, particularly at gatekeeper level & its further intersection with systemic racial prejudice at director & producer level. The 'see it to be it' principle is employed across the programme to ensure that HP gives visibility to BIPOC in positions of cultural authority; widening the horizon line of the local ecology.

This year's artistic quality will allows patrons to interact with & experience performances from local, national, & international artists. Enriching the cultural landscape by hosting artists from culturally diverse backgrounds who use innovative & traditional pedagogies in their teaching & performance.

Free, localised & responsive programming born of in-depth outreach ensures a fit for purpose programme with flexible & multiple access points.

Participation of those with visible & invisible impairments, BIPOC, LGBTQI+ YP & older people, is encouraged through translation, multilingual projects, BSL support, non-normative language & PR policies. Safe guarding, equality policies & child protection alongside the usual festival insurances create safe spaces for participation. HP's partner orgs support attendance by engaging with fundraising & creating a stronger bridge for future collaborations.

Work in dance, drum, song, visual art & folkloric contextualisation enables 'every - body' to find a creative pathway & build autonomy through creativity.

HP understands national cultural policy, Let's Create & ACE investment principles. Since DCMS initiatives to reduce 'arms length' agencies have been implemented; ACE, RDA's etc. have understood that representation requires the devolution of participatory triage to local orgs. The 2016 Government white paper on culture, inspiring the Cultural Citizens initiative details the importance of equality of access; HP orients to the understanding that equality of access is determined by the nature of programming.

HP identified festival attendee grps:

- Members of the wider African Diaspora living in the UK, primarily those living in the northern region
- Musicians & music audiences
- Those attracted by the known quality of artists
- Those attracted by the adventurous nature of the programme & musicians looking for more opportunities
- Family audiences, primarily, but not exclusively, those from the locality looking for a celebration that is safe, accessible & entertaining
- Targeted grps & partner orgs who support disadvantaged & excluded people who do not have access or engage with the arts
- Funded commissions that attract over 50 artists.

HP 2022 accommodates varied pedagogies & offers agency to every creative journey to ensure its participatory work is future facing, embedded & responsive.

TCR the Hub, the HP festival venue, is a unique building centred in a natural landscape which merges into the environment due to the progressive architecture. The roof is covered in grass, wild flowers & plants; an eco-climate for a range of wildlife and plants. The habitat is managed sustainably & boasts a variety of wildlife, trees & shrubs which support finches, thrushes, blackbirds & more. It is an environmentally responsible building with its own water recycling plant.

The sustainable nature & vision of the venue will be discussed in the HP Speaker's Corner session led by Graham Moore (Volunteer Groundsman) & Rachel Tweedle (Chief Executive officer). HP Festival will work with Graham Moor, TCR Hub Groundsman to make sure the event works to reduce its carbon & environmental footprint, as well as advocating for sustainable transport to the venue.

All traders must use recyclable materials to serve food & drinks.

All rubbish bins are segregated & visible. The skip provider is able to recycle waste, & the programme includes educational wkshps:

- Foraging & eating seasonal foods
- Creating skincare products from local vegetation
- A garden wkshp/tour
- A walking tour exploring the local wildlife, plants & herbs.

HP promotes a holistic approach to culture consumption, that integrates responsibility, innovation & education.

HP have devised a successful method of evaluating the festival based on previous evaluation & suggestions from partners. The 2022 evaluation will include: questionnaires to musicians, audiences, wkshp leaders, participants, key stakeholders & service providers.

Consultant strategist, Sasolo will conduct a formal evaluation in partnership with HP, considering the impact & effectiveness of the outreach, partnership structure, delivery methods, peer impact & wider ecological fit. HP will work with Sasolo to formally investigate & evaluate the framework of delivery, building in capacity for growth, identifying gaps & understanding hidden benefits, impacts & opportunities for scalability for 2023-2025.

Demographics, hidden & visible impairments, socio/economic status & gender will be used to divide feedback collation, in order to better understand how the festival & outreach offer contributes to skills development, cultural cohesion, confidence building & access to the arts, & whether that access is likely to convert to a sustained appetite for culture.

There will be informal conversations with 'critical friends' & face-to-face video interviews during the festival period, plus opportunities for comments via blackboards, 'stickies' boards & feedback forms (pinpointing information of where people have traveled from, expectations from the festival, & suggestions for future events).

Leading Link YP will become Citizen Scientists & engage in a performative way evaluating activities that measure the social impact of the event.

HP is concerned with the development of 'conditions for excellence', focusing this year on how access ensures creative growth. Initiatives inc:

- A programme & audience development strategy co-devised with the venue & partner orgs, based on research from audience development in past festival assessments. This drives the accessibility focus & decision to employ an inclusion officer to ensure feedback is actioned directly.
- The festival targets artistic development within & represented by the global majority, 2022 ensures orgs have transportation to facilitate their engagement & a new policy on accessible tickets & a ticket sponsorship scheme on the website, supports attendance for those who may not be able to attend otherwise.
- Though the Wear & Tyne Festival collective HP's social media target audiences is increasing, therefore this iteration employs a marketing associate to deliver a digital 'meet the artist' series. Interactive posts about activities, & posts focusing on Afro Fusion theme will define & clarify the quality & ambition of the festival.
- Post-festival HP will conduct a final evaluation meeting with key artists, community partners & volunteers to consider the outcomes of the festival. HP will work with the Bowes Museum & Witham Gallery (Local cultural orgs in Barnard Castle) for short & long-term evaluation of the impact on their attendance over the festival weekend. All relevant data will be shared with contributing agencies. This will measure the audience development for the wider sector, & local legacy as a direct result of HP's work.
- Both directors have a funded) coaching & capacity development programme in place to support growth, & a confirmed consultant to build the delivery repertoire.
- Harambee Pasadia Next Steps: a live conversation at the festival with artists, practitioners & funders; hosted by the directors, it will inform the future of the festival.

Measuring Your Progress

- National visibility - a key aim is to improve the festival horizon line, embedding it & the work of artists from the African Diaspora in the North East within the national picture; drawing attendees from wider geographical origins is a key target & will be the focus of quantitative evaluation.

- Financial stability - all funding is secured & all percentage target increases are achieved, further increases are set for 2023.

- Scalability - evaluation reports solid partner & stakeholder reviews that confirm a scalable model for ongoing development, with 90%+ reporting a desire to continue working at the event.

- LGBTQI+/BIPOC engagement - 50%+ target for female led activity across all deliverables & baseline targets for LGBTQI+ is set at 10%, BIPOC at 20%.

Qualitative measures & legacy impact:

- New cultural grps remain engaged for 2023
- National artists receive visibility & work offers in the region
- Low income families report positive experiences
- People from outside North East view HP as a cultural destination event.

Measures & targets:

- 60%+ of attendees cite it as a summer highlight
- Child & vulnerable adult safeguarding, lost & found child & H&S policies are all in place & registered / co-devised with partners; measure - approved & signed off pre event
- Improve on pre-pandemic attendance numbers & hit 575 over the festival itself
- Social media targets new, wider participation in addition to the hyper local audience, 500+ interactions are recorded.

Dynamism

This Investment Principle is about being dynamic and able to respond to the challenges of the next decade.

HP is multi faceted, adaptive & responsive; having delivered a festival in 2019, the directors continued a strong digital presence, developing streaming & digital assets to maintain contact through the pandemic. Initiatives like:

- Streaming Speakers Corner
- The multi lingual library
- On site multi media & dual platformed work (live streamed & archived)
- Recording work live on site with artists who have never met
- In festival live podcasting
- Meet the artists digital series.

All these emerge from the HP capacity to evolve, respond & mitigate. In 2021 HP converted their Darlo Drum festival from outdoors to online due to Covid restrictions & were successful developing an online audience (3400). 2022 tests the participatory model for future iterations & new partnerships & delivery mechanisms; planning explores how Covid, finance, local organisations, partnerships & weather can make a plan spiral if not properly tested, consulted & backed up, as such 2022 sees HP instituting :

- Contingency planning
- Policy review meetings
- RE-action plans; to cope with unseen changes - loss of staff, Covid, safeguarding issues etc
- Collective learning tables - online spaces for partners to offer short term suggestions that require immediate action - overseen by the co-directors
- Improved communication strategies: using social media & partners to spread PR & programming info & ethos. Establishing communication with the public to account for any short term changes to avoid disappointment & loss of public faith.

Developing People

If you plan to develop you/your organisation's skills and knowledge, tell us about it here:

HP is developing its skills & knowledge by:

- Testing work with new organisations each year
- Attracting new artists
- Evolving the programme
- Commissioning professional strategists & evaluators
- Growing the digital footprint in partnership with orgs like Stand4 to ensure HP can move quickly & nimbly & avoid prescriptive delivery.

HP festival builds skills by:

- Delivering digital engagement & maintaining these diversifications to embrace a more resilient future
- Employing a minimal core team, that adapts & learns fast
- Learning about local & national ideas for cultural development to increase knowledge.

The festival is a hot house for the interdisciplinary model HP has developed, employing art as a tool for social change & organisational skills development. HP festival model aims to:

- Increase ethnocultural empathy
- Build creative capacity
- Familiarise audiences with ethnography, language & pedagogies that are other to the white centric focus.

An example of the integrated skills development HP will offer:

- Introduce a new '15 minute conversations project' a collaboration with the Multilingual Library
- Co-produce a program of 15-25 languages that everyone in attendance can try. Multilingual library staff, artists, volunteers, & speakers with members of the local community choose a word, phrase, greeting, or sentence they want to share from their language or culture & prepare a short 15 minute lesson for everyone who attends their session.

You must read the Freedom of Information (FOI) guidance on our website (<https://www.artscouncil.org.uk/freedom-information#section-6>) before you sign your application.

By signing this application form, you acknowledge the following:

1. That we will use this application form and the information you give to us, including any personal data as referred to in our Privacy Notice, for the following purposes:
 - a) To decide whether to give you a grant.
 - b) To provide copies to other individuals or organisations who are helping us assess and monitor grants, including local authorities, other lottery distributors and organisations that award grants. After we reach a decision, we may also tell them the outcome of your application and, if appropriate, why we did not offer you a grant.
 - c) To hold in our database and use for statistical purposes.
 - d) If we offer you a grant, we will publish information about you relating to the activity we have funded, including the amount of the grant and the activity it was for. This information may appear in our press releases, in our print and online publications, and in the publications or websites of the Department for Digital, Culture, Media and Sport (DCMS) and any partner organisations who have funded the activity with us.
 - e) If we offer you a grant, you will support our work to campaign for arts and culture, contributing (when asked) to important publicity activities during the period we provide funding for. You will also give us, when asked, case studies, images and audio-visual materials that we can use to celebrate artistic and cultural excellence.
 - f) As an organisation that gives out public funds, we may carry out checks on the personal and financial information you provide us. If you provide false, fraudulent or inaccurate information in your application or at any point in the lifetime of any funding agreement we enter into with you, we may share the information about you with other National Lottery distribution bodies and relevant external bodies to prevent fraud and money laundering. If we identify or suspect fraudulent activity we will report this to the police and take appropriate action.

I confirm that, as far as I know, the information in this application is true and correct.

4. Subsidy Control

The Subsidy Control rules are the new legal requirements that apply to the award of subsidies in the United Kingdom with effect from 11pm 31 December 2020. They have largely replaced EU State aid rules.

Where a "Subsidy" is present as per the definition of subsidy set out in the Subsidy Control Act 2022 ("the Act") then it is necessary for the award to comply with requirements set out in the Trade and Cooperation Agreement with the EU (and in due course those further requirements set out in the Act).

A "Subsidy" only exists when the following cumulative characteristics are present (only tick those that apply):

- financial assistance which is given, directly or indirectly, from public resources by a public authority; and
- confers an economic advantage on one or more enterprises; and
- is specific, that is, is such that it benefits one or more enterprises over one or more other enterprises with respect to the production of goods or the provision of services; and

- has, or is capable of having, an effect on —
 - (i) competition or investment within the United Kingdom,
 - (ii) trade between the United Kingdom and a country or territory outside the United Kingdom, or
 - (iii) investment as between the United Kingdom and a country or territory outside the United Kingdom.

If awarded, do you believe that your request for public funding meets all the necessary criteria to be classed as a "Subsidy"? No

Where a "Subsidy" is declared you will be required to provide further information to establish whether the "Subsidy" would be considered lawful.

5. Tick the relevant box if any person involved in the project or writing the application:

I am happy to be contacted by Arts Council England, or by a third-party organisation on behalf of Arts Council England, for feedback to help evaluate the programme.

SCHEDULE	13

Articles of Association
of
Harambee Pasadia C.I.C.
INTERPRETATION

1 Defined Terms

1.1 The interpretation of these Articles is governed by the provisions set out in the Schedule at the end of the Articles.

2 Community Interest Company

2.1 The Company shall be a Community Interest Company

3 Asset Lock

3.1 The Company shall not transfer any of its assets other than for full consideration.

3.2 Provided the conditions in Article 3.3 are satisfied, Article 3.1 shall not apply to:

- a. the transfer of assets to any specified asset-locked body, or (with the consent of the Regulator) to any other asset-locked body; and
- b. the transfer of assets made for the benefit of the community other than by way of a transfer of assets into an asset-locked body.

3.3 The conditions are that the transfer of assets must comply with any restrictions on the transfer of assets for less than full consideration which may be set out elsewhere in the memorandum and Articles of the Company.

3.4 If:

- a. the Company is wound up under the Insolvency Act 1986; and
- b. all its liabilities have been satisfied

then any residual assets shall be given or transferred to the asset-locked body which has similar objects to that of the Company as the directors shall determine with the consent of the Regulator (as per articles 3.5 below).

3.5 If on the winding-up of the company any property remains after satisfaction of all the company's debts and liabilities, such property shall not be paid to or distributed among the members of the company but shall instead be transferred to some other community interest company or companies, charity or charities (whether incorporated or unincorporated) or other asset locked body whose objects are altogether or in part similar to the objects of the company.

- a. The community interest company or companies, charity or charities or asset locked body to which property is transferred under article 3.5 shall be determined by the directors of the company at or before the time of dissolution in consultation with the Regulator or, failing such determination, by such court as may have jurisdiction at that time.
- b. To the extent that effect cannot be given to the provisions of articles 3.5 and 3.5.a, the relevant property shall be applied to some other charitable purpose or purposes.

4. Not for profit

4.1 The Company is not established or conducted for private gain: any profit or assets are used principally for the benefit of the community.

OBJECTS, POWERS AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

5. Objects

5.1 The objects of the Company are to carry on activities which benefit the community and in particular (without limitation) to:

- a. Promote and advance the arts and the appreciation of the arts, including, but not restricted to, music, theatre, drama, dance, film, fine art and crafts through the provision of festivals, associated outreach, community projects, activities, and performances that celebrate and value the contributions from the African and Pan African Diaspora;
- b. Educate, support, advise, and encourage those who participate in the arts;
- c. Promote the arts at all levels of cultural and educational life in the North East of England, the wider UK, and internationally;
- d. Create, compose, commission, document and record artistic endeavors;
- e. Advance community development and social inclusion through Harambee Pasadia festival, events, other projects and volunteering (exclusively or in partnership with community organisations, creative, cultural and educational institutions);
- f. Advance such similar purposes, promote, establish, operate, collaborate and/or support others in and develop any other projects, initiatives or activities for the benefit of the community as the directors may consider appropriate.

6. Powers

6.1 To further its objects the Company may carry out any activity and do all such lawful things as may further the Company's objects and, in particular, but, without limitation, may borrow or raise and secure the payment of money for any purpose including for the purposes of investment or of raising funds.

6.2 To further its objects the company may purchase, develop, construct and manage buildings, lands, other assets, and property of any kind necessary or convenient to enable greater participation, education and appreciation.

7. Liability of members

The liability of each member is limited to £1, being the amount that each member undertakes to contribute to the assets of the Company in the event of its being wound up while he or she is a member or within one year after he or she ceases to be a member, for:

7.1 payment of the Company's debts and liabilities contracted before he or she ceases to be a member;

7.2 payment of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up; and

DIRECTORS

DIRECTORS' POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

8. Directors' general authority

Subject to the Articles, the Directors are responsible for the management of the Company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the Company.

9. Members' reserve power

9.1 The members may, by special resolution, direct the Directors to take, or refrain from taking, specific action.

9.2 No such special resolution invalidates anything which the Directors have done before the passing of the resolution.

10. Chair

The Directors may appoint one of their number to be the chair of the Directors for such term of office as they determine and may at any time remove him or her from office.

11. Directors may delegate

11.1 Subject to the Articles, the Directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the Articles or the implementation of their decisions or day to day management of the affairs of the Company:

- a. to such person or committee;
- b. by such means (including by power of attorney);
- c. to such an extent;
- d. in relation to such matters or territories; and
- e. on such terms and conditions;

as they think fit.

11.2 If the Directors so specify, any such delegation of this power may authorise further delegation of the Directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated.

11.3 The Directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

12. Directors to take decisions collectively

Any decision of the Directors must be either a majority decision at a meeting or a decision taken in accordance with Article 18. In the event of the Company having only one Director, a majority decision is made when that single Director makes a decision.

13. Calling a Directors' meeting

13.1 Two Directors may (and the Secretary, if any, must at the request of two Directors) call a Directors' meeting.

13.2 A Directors' meeting must be called by at least seven Clear Days' notice unless either:

- a. all the Directors agree; or
- b. urgent circumstances require shorter notice.

13.3 Notice of Directors' meetings must be given to each Director.

13.4 Every notice calling a Directors' meeting must specify:

- a. the place, day and time of the meeting; and
- b. if it is anticipated that Directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.

13.5 Notice of Directors' meetings need not be in Writing.

13.6 Notice of Directors' meetings may be sent by Electronic Means to an Address provided by the Director for the purpose.

14. Participation in Directors' meetings

14.1 Subject to the Articles, Directors participate in a Directors' meeting, or part of a Directors' meeting, when:

- a. the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the Articles; and
- b. they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.

14.2 In determining whether Directors are participating in a Directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any Director is or how they communicate with each other.

14.3 If all the Directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.

15. Quorum for Directors' meetings

15.1 At a Directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.

15.2 The quorum for Directors' meetings may be fixed from time to time by a decision of the Directors, but it must never be less than two, and unless otherwise fixed it is [two].

15.3 If the total number of Directors for the time being is less than the quorum required, the Directors must not take any decision other than a decision:

- a. to appoint further Directors; or
- b. to call a general meeting so as to enable the members to appoint further Directors.

16. Chairing of Directors' meetings

The Chair, if any, or in his or her absence another Director nominated by the Directors present shall preside as chair of each Directors' meeting.

17. Decision-making at meetings

17.1 Questions arising at a Directors' meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes.

17.2 In all proceedings of Directors each Director must not have more than one vote.

17.3 In case of an equality of votes, the Chair shall have a second or casting vote.

18. Decisions without a meeting

18.1 The Directors may take a unanimous decision without a Directors' meeting in accordance with this Article by indicating to each other by any means, including without limitation by Electronic Means, that they share a common view on a matter. Such a decision may, but need not, take the form of a resolution in Writing, copies of which have been signed by each Director or to which each Director has otherwise indicated agreement in Writing.

18.2 A decision which is made in accordance with Article 18.1 shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting duly convened and held, provided the following conditions are complied with:

- a. approval from each Director must be received by one person being either such person as all the Directors have nominated in advance for that purpose or such other person as volunteers if necessary ("the Recipient"), which person may, for the avoidance of doubt, be one of the Directors;
- b. following receipt of responses from all of the Directors, the Recipient must communicate to all of the Directors by any means whether the resolution has been formally approved by the Directors in accordance with this Article 18.2;
- c. the date of the decision shall be the date of the communication from the Recipient confirming formal approval;
- d. the Recipient must prepare a minute of the decision in accordance with Article 32.

19. Conflicts of interest

19.1 Whenever a Director finds himself or herself in a situation that is reasonably likely to give rise to a Conflict of Interest, he or she must declare his or her interest to the Directors unless, or except to the extent that, the other Directors are or ought reasonably to be aware of it already.

19.2 If any question arises as to whether a Director has a Conflict of Interest, the question shall be decided by a majority decision of the other Directors.

19.3 Whenever a matter is to be discussed at a meeting or decided in accordance with Article 18 and a Director has a Conflict of Interest in respect of that matter then, subject to Article 20, he or she must:

- a. remain only for such part of the meeting as in the view of the other Directors is necessary to inform the debate;
- b. not be counted in the quorum for that part of the meeting; and
- c. withdraw during the vote and have no vote on the matter.

19.4 When a Director has a Conflict of Interest which he or she has declared to the Directors, he or she shall not be in breach of his or her duties to the Company by withholding confidential information from the Company if to disclose it would result in a breach of any other duty or obligation of confidence owed by him or her.

20. Directors' power to authorise a conflict of interest

20.1 The Directors have power to authorise a Director to be in a position of Conflict of Interest provided:

- a. in relation to the decision to authorise a Conflict of Interest, the conflicted Director must comply with Article 19.3;
- b. in authorising a Conflict of Interest, the Directors can decide the manner in which the Conflict of Interest may be dealt with and, for the avoidance of doubt, they can decide that the Director with a Conflict of Interest can participate in a vote on the matter and can be counted in the quorum
- c. the decision to authorise a Conflict of Interest can impose such terms as the Directors think fit and is subject always to their right to vary or terminate the authorisation.

20.2 If a matter, or office, employment or position, has been authorised by the Directors in accordance with Article 20.1 then, even if he or she has been authorised to remain at the meeting by the other Directors, the Director may absent himself or herself from meetings of the Directors at which anything relating to that matter, or that office, employment or position, will or may be discussed.

20.3 A Director shall not be accountable to the Company for any benefit which he or she derives from any matter, or from any office, employment or position, which has been authorised by the

Directors in accordance with Article 20.1 (subject to any limits or conditions to which such approval was subject).

21. Register of Directors' interests

The Directors shall cause a register of Directors' interests to be kept. A Director must declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which he or she has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the Company or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by the Company which has not previously been declared.

APPOINTMENT AND RETIREMENT OF DIRECTORS

22. Methods of appointing Directors

22.1 Those persons notified to the Registrar of Companies as the first Directors of the Company shall be the first Directors.

22.2 Any person who is willing to act as a Director, and is permitted by law to do so, may be appointed to be a Director by a decision of the Directors.

23. Termination of Director's appointment

A person ceases to be a Director as soon as:

- (a) that person ceases to be a Director by virtue of any provision of the Companies Act 2006, or is prohibited from being a Director by law;
- (b) a bankruptcy order is made against that person, or an order is made against that person in individual insolvency proceedings in a jurisdiction other than England and Wales or Northern Ireland which have an effect similar to that of bankruptcy;
- (c) a composition is made with that person's creditors generally in satisfaction of that person's debts;
- (d) the Directors reasonably believe he or she is suffering from mental disorder and incapable of acting and they resolve that he or she be removed from office,
- (e) notification is received by the Company from the Director that the Director is resigning from office, and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms (but only if at least two Directors will remain in office when such resignation has taken effect); or
- (f) the Director fails to attend three consecutive meetings of the Directors and the Directors resolve that the Director be removed for this reason.
- (g) the Director ceases to be a member.

24. Directors' remuneration

24.1 Directors may undertake any services for the Company that the Directors decide.

24.2 Directors are entitled to such remuneration as the Directors determine:

- a. for their services to the Company as Directors; and
- b. for any other service which they undertake for the Company.
- c. for the avoidance of doubt, directors will be employees of the company, and will be entitled to retain all remunerations, and pension and/or other benefits, paid or provided to them in their capacity as employees of the company.

24.3 Subject to the Articles, a Director's remuneration may:

- (a) take any form; and
- (b) include any arrangements in connection with the payment of a pension, allowance or gratuity, or any death, sickness or disability benefits, to or in respect of that director.

24.4 Unless the Directors decide otherwise, Directors' remuneration accrues from day to day.

24.5 Unless the Directors decide otherwise, Directors are not accountable to the Company for any remuneration which they receive as Directors or other officers or employees of the Company's subsidiaries or of any other body corporate in which the Company is interested.

25. Directors' expenses

25.1 The Company may pay any reasonable expenses which the Directors properly incur in connection with their attendance at:

- (a) meetings of Directors or committees of Directors;
- (b) general meetings; or
- (c) separate meetings of any class of members or of the holders of any debentures of the Company,

or otherwise in connection with the exercise of their powers and the discharge of their responsibilities in relation to the Company.

MEMBERS BECOMING AND CEASING TO BE A MEMBER

26. Becoming a member

26.1 The subscribers to the Memorandum are the first members of the Company.

26.2 Such other persons as are admitted to membership in accordance with the Articles shall be members of the Company.

26.3 Each member of the company shall be a Director.

26.4 No person shall be admitted a member of the Company unless he or she is approved by the Directors.

26.5 Every person who wishes to become a member shall deliver to the company an application for membership in such form (and containing such information) as the Directors require and executed by him or her.

27. Termination of membership

27.1 Membership is not transferable to anyone else.

27.2 Membership is terminated if:

- a. the member dies or ceases to exist;
- b. otherwise in accordance with the Articles; or
- c. a member ceases to be a Director.

DECISION MAKING BY MEMBERS

28. Members' meetings

28.1 The Directors may call a general meeting at any time.

28.2 General meetings must be held in accordance with the provisions regarding such meetings in the Companies Acts.

28.3 A person who is not a member of the Company shall not have any right to vote at a general meeting of the Company; but this is without prejudice to any right to vote on a resolution affecting the rights attached to a class of the Company's debentures.

28.4 Article 28.3 shall not prevent a person who is a proxy for a member or a duly authorised representative of a member from voting at a general meeting of the Company.

29. Written resolutions

29.1 Subject to Article 29.3, a written resolution of the Company passed in accordance with this Article 29 shall have effect as if passed by the Company in general meeting:

- a. A written resolution is passed as an ordinary resolution if it is passed by a simple majority of the total voting rights of eligible members.
- b. A written resolution is passed as a special resolution if it is passed by members representing not less than 75% of the total voting rights of eligible members. A written resolution is not a special resolution unless it states that it was proposed as a special resolution.

29.2 In relation to a resolution proposed as a written resolution of the Company the eligible members are the members who would have been entitled to vote on the resolution on the circulation date of the resolution.

29.3 A members' resolution under the Companies Acts removing a Director or an auditor before the expiration of his or her term of office may not be passed as a written resolution.

29.4 A copy of the written resolution must be sent to every member together with a statement informing the member how to signify their agreement to the resolution and the date by which the resolution must be passed if it is not to lapse. Communications in relation to written notices shall be sent to the Company's auditors in accordance with the Companies Acts.

29.5 A member signifies their agreement to a proposed written resolution when the Company receives from him or her an authenticated Document identifying the resolution to which it relates and indicating his or her agreement to the resolution.

- a. If the Document is sent to the Company in Hard Copy Form, it is authenticated if it bears the member's signature.
- b. If the Document is sent to the Company by Electronic Means, it is authenticated [if it bears the member's signature] or [if the identity of the member is confirmed in a manner agreed by the Directors] or [if it is accompanied by a statement of the identity of the member and the Company has no reason to doubt the truth of that statement] or [if it is from an email Address notified by the member to the Company for the purposes of receiving Documents or information by Electronic Means].

29.6 A written resolution is passed when the required majority of eligible members have signified their agreement to it.

29.7 A proposed written resolution lapses if it is not passed within 28 days beginning with the circulation date.

ADMINISTRATIVE ARRANGEMENTS AND MISCELLANEOUS

30. Means of communication to be used

30.1 Subject to the Articles, anything sent or supplied by or to the Company under the Articles may be sent or supplied in any way in which the Companies Act 2006 provides for Documents or information which are authorised or required by any provision of that Act to be sent or supplied by or to the Company.

30.2 Subject to the Articles, any notice or Document to be sent or supplied to a Director in connection with the taking of decisions by Directors may also be sent or supplied by the means by which that Director has asked to be sent or supplied with such notices or Documents for the time being.

30.3 A Director may agree with the Company that notices or Documents sent to that Director in a particular way are to be deemed to have been received within an agreed time of their being sent, and for the agreed time to be less than 48 hours.

31. Irregularities

The proceedings at any meeting or on the taking of any poll or the passing of a written resolution or the making of any decision shall not be invalidated by reason of any accidental informality or irregularity (including any accidental omission to give or any non-receipt of notice) or any want of qualification in any of the persons present or voting or by reason of any business being considered which is not referred to in the notice unless a provision of the Companies Acts specifies that such informality, irregularity or want of qualification shall invalidate it.

32. Minutes

32.1 The Directors must cause minutes to be made in books kept for the purpose:

- a. of all appointments of officers made by the Directors;
- b. of all resolutions of the Company and of the Directors (including, without limitation, decisions of the Directors made without a meeting); and
- c. of all proceedings at meetings of the Company and of the Directors, and of committees of Directors, including the names of the Directors present at each such meeting;

and any such minute, if purported to be signed (or in the case of minutes of Directors' meetings signed or authenticated) by the chair of the meeting at which the proceedings were had, or by the chair of the next succeeding meeting, shall, as against any member or Director of the Company, be sufficient evidence of the proceedings.

32.2 The minutes must be kept for at least ten years from the date of the meeting, resolution or decision.

33. Records and accounts

The Directors shall comply with the requirements of the Companies Acts as to maintaining a members' register, keeping financial records, the audit or examination of accounts and the preparation and transmission to the Registrar of Companies and the Regulator of:

33.1 annual reports;

33.2 annual returns; and

33.3 annual statements of account.

33.4 Except as provided by law or authorised by the Directors or an ordinary resolution of the Company, no person is entitled to inspect any of the Company's accounting or other records or Documents merely by virtue of being a member.

34. Indemnity

34.1 Subject to Article 34.2, a relevant Director of the Company or an associated company may be indemnified out of the Company's assets against:

- (a) any liability incurred by that Director in connection with any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the Company or an associated company;
- (b) any liability incurred by that Director in connection with the activities of the Company or an associated company in its capacity as a trustee of an occupational pension scheme (as defined in section 235(6) of the Companies Act 2006); and
- (c) any other liability incurred by that Director as an officer of the Company or an associated company.

34.2 This Article does not authorise any indemnity which would be prohibited or rendered void by any provision of the Companies Acts or by any other provision of law.

34.3 In this Article:

- (a) companies are associated if one is a subsidiary of the other or both are subsidiaries of the same body corporate; and
- (b) a "relevant Director" means any Director or former Director of the Company or an associated company.

35. Insurance

35.1 The Directors may decide to purchase and maintain insurance, at the expense of the Company, for the benefit of any relevant Director in respect of any relevant loss.

35.2 In this Article:

- (a) a "relevant Director" means any Director or former Director of the Company or an associated company;
- (b) a "relevant loss" means any loss or liability which has been or may be incurred by a relevant Director in connection with that Director's duties or powers in relation to the Company, any associated company or any pension fund or employees' share scheme of the company or associated company; and
- (c) companies are associated if one is a subsidiary of the other or both are subsidiaries of the same body corporate.

36. Exclusion of model articles

The relevant model articles for a company limited by guarantee are hereby expressly excluded.

SCHEDULE

5 Ways to Better Wellbeing

Scottish Association for Mental Health

Connect

Staying in touch with loved ones can make us feel happier and more secure; and often just having a chat can help to lift our mood. Put five minutes aside to ask someone how they are. Arrange to meet up with friends that you haven't seen in a while. Join a local group or club and meet new people in your community.

Be Active

Being active isn't just good for our physical health; it's also proven to have a positive effect on our mental health and wellbeing.

Go for a short walk at lunchtime.

Discover a physical activity you enjoy and one that suits you.

Take Notice

Whether you're spending time with friend or taking a moment for yourself, try to stop to take notice and be aware of the present.

Set aside time to practice mindfulness or take up yoga.

Take notice of how your friends or colleagues are feeling.

Spend time outdoors, enjoy the fresh air and notice what's around you.

Learn

Learning enhances your self-esteem and confidence, and can be a great way to meet new people.

Sign up for a class and learn something new.

Rediscover an old interest, such as cooking or gardening.

Take on a new challenge to make or fix something.

Give

It feels great to give – in fact those who report a greater interest in helping others are more likely to rate themselves as happy. Volunteer your time for a cause you are passionate about. Spend time with someone who you know has been having a difficult time.

Vulnerable Person & Child Protection Policy, Procedure and Guidance

Owner/s:	Harambee Pasadia CIC
Companies House Reg	11309255
Author/s:	Yilis del Carmen Suriel
Version:	3
Review Frequency:	Full review every 2 year, annual interim checks to identify amendments required due to changes in legislation.
Next Review Date:	April 2022
Sensitivity:	Open
Circulation:	Public (via website) All Staff (via email) Executive Directing Team

Introduction

1. Protecting Children¹ and Vulnerable persons is everyone's responsibility. Disabled children are particularly vulnerable to abuse, so it is especially important to keep a watchful eye for signs of abuse or neglect.
2. Staff and Volunteers have a duty to be vigilant in monitoring the welfare of Children, Vulnerable persons and families who are receiving services or participating in any project/event/workshop lead by Harambee Pasadia CIC.
3. This policy applies to everyone who works for Harambee Pasadia CIC whether in a paid or voluntary role.

What this Document Contains and How to Use it

4. Harambee Pasadia CIC Vulnerable Person & Child Protection Policy, Procedure and Guidance should support your work in protecting children and Vulnerable Persons. It will also help you to developing good practice and safeguard children and vulnerable persons.
5. In order to do this effectively, you should also undertake awareness raising or child protection training appropriate to your role. Some roles will require you to undertake more detailed training.
6. This documents outlines the Policy about protecting children and vulnerable persons and the principles the organization supports. It tell you about the procedures that you must follow if you do have a concern about a child or vulnerable persons, and what your responsibilities are and how to respond.
7. It also states Harambee Pasadia CIC procedures to running safe activities and events.

¹ The definition of a child in England and Wales and in Northern Ireland is a person aged 0 years to their 18th birthday. In Scotland a child is a person aged 0 years to their 16th birthday, though there are variations to this in relation to different functions. In child protection guidance, in all of the UK countries, a child is defined as a person under the age of 18 years. In Scotland, in some circumstances, a 16 or 17 year old is considered a "vulnerable adult". To Harambee Pasadia CIC a Child is anyone that looks 0-25 years of age.

Policy Statement and Overview

- 8. Harambee Pasadia CIC recognizes that the welfare of all children, young people and vulnerable persons is of paramount importance. All children have the right to be protected from abuse. Harambee Pasadia CIC will not unfairly discriminate in any way for example on the grounds of age, disability, gender, reassignment, marital or civil partner status, pregnancy or maternity, race, colour, nationality, ethnic or national origin, religion or belief, sex or sexual orientation.
- 9. Safeguarding their welfare is the responsibility of every Harambee Pasadia CIC worker, whether salaried or voluntary, whatever their role or status. It is also the responsibility of our partners, in the UK and overseas. In accordance with the NSPCC Safeguarding Standards and Guidance for the Voluntary and Community Sector 2017, we have adopted the term Designated Safeguarding Officer (DSO) and designated a role for every event/activity.
- 10. Safeguarding to Harambee Pasadia CIC means:
 - a. Protecting children and vulnerable persons from maltreatment;
 - b. Preventing impairment of children's and vulnerable persons health or development;
 - c. Taking action to enable all children and vulnerable persons to have the best outcomes
- 11. Harambee Pasadia CIC staff, volunteers and workers have a responsibility to report concerns of suspected abuse or poor practice to a designated person for child protection within Harambee Pasadia CIC.
- 12. Harambee Pasadia CIC are committed to promoting the following:
 - a. Being healthy
 - b. Staying safe including being free from: abuse, victimization and exploitation, negligent treatment, physical or emotional abuse, accidental death or injury, bullying or harassment, discrimination, extremism and radicalization, crime and anti-social behavior
 - c. Enjoying, learning, and achieving
 - d. Making a positive contribution and being listened to
 - e. Achieving economic well-being
 - f. Security, stability, and a respect for the human rights of children
- 13. Each child and vulnerable persons should be treated as an individual, encouraged to express its own needs and wishes, and be listened to by the worker.
- 14. Children's and vulnerable person's complaints and concerns should be taken seriously and responded to swiftly and appropriately.
- 15. All workers who have direct contact with children and vulnerable persons and their families will be recruited, trained and supervised to ensure that they are properly equipped to:
 - a. Identify where there may be a concern
 - b. Know how to obtain speedy and professional advice
 - c. Refer concerns appropriately to specialist workers as necessary
 - d. Contribute to the maintenance of a safe working environment and protect themselves from allegations of abuse

16. Harambee Pasadia CIC will ensure that those who work with children and vulnerable persons and their families are subject to the appropriate level of criminal records and other checks prior to their appointment, in line with government policy.
17. Everyone working, Volunteering or applying to work for Harambee Pasadia CIC is to be made aware of our policy for children's welfare. Furthermore, this document should be issued to all staff and other people who are likely to have contact with children as part of their work with us.
18. This policy and procedure will be reviewed annually.

What to do if a child tells you about abuse or if you are concerned about a child's welfare?

19. The meaning of 'tell' is very broad in this context. Often, it is not what a child says or signs, but what s/he does, or does not do, that alerts you. A child may be frightened to talk or sign about what is happening at home. Sometimes, communication difficulties have made speech impossible. A child may display sudden or strange changes of behaviour, for example angry outbursts or complete withdrawal. A child might become unusually dirty or dishevelled, may lose weight dramatically or look exhausted. Changes in behaviour or appearance that worry you must be passed on. It may be that what is happening has nothing to do with child protection, but there may still be a need for support in other ways. So the agencies that can offer this help need to be alerted.
20. Listen Carefully. Most children find it difficult to talk about abuse. If they have summoned up the courage to talk to you, it is because they believe you can help. Now is not the time to be working out whether what you hear can possibly be true.
21. Let the child lead the pace. Try not to ask questions. Don't jump in to fill pauses. Keep the conversation going with encouraging nods, attentive eye contact and repetitions of what has been said or signed.
22. Once is enough. Once you know you will have to report what you have been told, don't ask the child to repeat what s/he has said. Make sure the child knows that s/he is not alone, and that you are taking what s/he says seriously. You will be getting help from someone who knows what to do in this kind of situation.
23. Be honest. Answer the child's questions as honestly as you can; if you don't know the answer, say so, but say you will try to find out.
24. Don't investigate, don't confront. Your job will be to pass on the information, not to investigate. Don't confront the alleged abuser; this will not be helpful and may cause difficulties for any investigation.
25. Remember the boundaries of confidentiality. Never promise total confidentiality if you are told about possible abuse. You will almost certainly have to share the information in order to help keep the child safe. If a child wants to tell, but wants a promise of confidentiality first, tell the child that you will keep a secret if you possibly can, but if you believe that the child or anyone else might be harmed, you will have to tell someone. If the child is not able to say anything more, you can help them find some privacy and a telephone to contact Childline (0800 1111 or Textphone 0800 056 0566 for hearing impaired children). This is a totally confidential service.
26. Seek advice. Explain to the child that this kind of thing happens to a lot of children; that's why you are able to talk to people who know what to do to help. Enlist the support of your Designated Person in making a confidential report. Even if the account the child has given seems vague or unlikely, still take advice from the Children's Social Care service in the area where the child lives. You can do this, if necessary, by discussing the situation without mentioning any names.

27. Keep contact numbers handy. Some general contact numbers are given at the end of this document. But it's useful to have the numbers for your local police, social workers and other useful organizations in your area ready to hand.
28. In conclusion, your job is to listen, support and pass information on. Then let the experienced professionals take over, and cooperate with them in any way that you can to protect the child.

What To do if you think a Child is harming another Child.

29. Be Aware of what is happening between children and young people. Good, but unobtrusive, supervision can prevent many problems from escalating.
30. Don't Overreact. However distressing the situation, stay calm and keep your language and behaviour neutral. The outcome for both children can be affected by the way that adults respond.
31. Gather Information. It will be important to record the detail of what the alleged victim, the alleged perpetrator and any other children who were present have to say, without taking an investigative approach.
32. Consider whether there is a need to make an immediate referral to the Police and Children's Social Care. This might be important in the case of a very serious allegation of assault.
33. Consider whether both children can remain at the event. This will depend to a large extent on whether both children can be kept safe. The views of the alleged victim (and their parents in the case of a young child) should be consulted and a risk assessment conducted.
34. Consider, with the Designated Person, the need to report the matter to Children's Social Care and the Police in respect of each child. If the alleged victim wishes a report to be made to the Police then this is what should happen. If they express a wish for this not to happen, this should still be considered, in the interests of the alleged perpetrator and other children.
35. The needs of children and young people who abuse other children should be considered separately from the needs of their victims, and an assessment should be carried out by the statutory agencies in each case. They may also be in need of protection. The perpetrator of abuse should therefore also be referred to the statutory child protection agencies. Children who harm others should be considered as children in need but should also be held responsible for their actions.

Standard on how to run safe activities and events

1. In order to carry out safe activities and events we have put the following steps in place:
 - a. Provide an accident prevention policy and plan in our health and safety policy, which allows for a risk-benefit analysis of activities, and an up to date risk-benefit assessment prior to event/activity.
 - b. Carry out regular checks on equipment used by vulnerable person and children.
 - c. Policy on parental consent to activities where appropriate: asking for details about needs, keep details of parent/carers easily available, have access to phone.

- d. Keep a Lost children and Vulnerable adult Policy in place
- e. Have a designated Designated Safeguarding Officer (DSO) and First aider at every event/activity.
- f. Have adequate insurance for all circumstances.
- g. Provide guidance to staff, service users, volunteers on safe use of equipment. Provide guidance on accident prevention and health and safety to staff and volunteers.
- h. Comply with regulations on fire safety, first-aid, food hygiene, hazardous substances, reporting injuries and diseases, staff ratios and transport.

How to Report Child Protection Concerns

1. If you have concerns about a child's Welfare
2. Discuss with the designated person for child protection/ Safety co-ordinator as soon as possible. Log the Concern and action.
3. If there is no more cause for concern, there may be other decisions to provide support services, make sure to record concern and actions taken.
4. If the concern continue:
 - a. Parents or those with parental responsibilities should be informed of any decisions, unless this would endanger the child or the staff member/volunteer.
 - b. Staff member/Volunteer should report to the designated person who would refer to Children's social care/Police, with a follow-up in writing within 48hrs (with a copy to the manager.
 - c. Children's social care acknowledges referral and decides next action.
 - d. Assessment by children's Social Care
 - e. Make sure to record every step

Procedures

All newly appointed staff who will work directly with children, whether as volunteers or employees, and whose work meets the definition of regulated work are required to undergo an Enhanced DBS check. Regulated work means: care or supervision of children if carried out by the same person frequently (once a week or more often) or on 4 or more days in a 30-day period or overnight.

This policy should be read alongside our organisational policies and procedures, including:

- Role of the designated safeguarding officer
- Lost Children and Vulnerable Adults Policy
- Anti-bullying policy and procedures
- Online safety policy and procedures for responding to concerns about online abuse
- Online privacy policy (which can be found on our website)
- Photography and image sharing guidance

Designated Safeguarding Officer Roles and Responsibilities

1. The Designated Person takes responsibility for the overview of child protection cases. Because of the 'jigsaw' nature of child protection work, it is important that the Designated Person can keep clear up-to date records and be able to co-ordinate any information that is received from staff/volunteers and other sources. Confidentiality is important and fine judgements are necessary in many cases to assess what the staff/volunteers as a whole need to know and what needs to be kept confidential for the sake of the child and the family in line with data protection and information sharing protocols.
2. Provide advice and guidance to employers and voluntary organisations
3. Liaise with the Police and other agencies
4. Monitor the progress of cases
5. Provide data to correct agencies within the area Harambee Pasadia CIC is working in

They ensure that all allegations or concerns about professionals or adults working or volunteering with children are recorded appropriately, monitored and progressed in a timely and confidential way. This is so that children are protected from those that might harm them. It gives all agencies a central point of contact for them to discuss and make notifications falling within the Designated Safeguarding Office threshold criteria.

Responsibilities of Designated Safeguarding Officer:

1. All policies and procedures related to child protection within Harambee Pasadia CIC including making sure that the child protection policy is reviewed and update every 2 years, annual interim checks to identify amendments required due to changes in legislation.
2. Making sure that all employees and volunteers within Harambee Pasadia CIC is using the child protection policy when there are concerns about the welfare of children.
3. Gathering, managing and securely keeping all copies of child protection concerns from all employees or volunteers if necessary so that she/he has an overview of how the whole of Harambee Pasadia CIC is managing such concerns
4. Intervening with any agency outside Harambee Pasadia CIC where there may be worries that concerns are not being taken seriously or managed in a timely way.

Who can contact the Designated Safeguarding Officer?

Anybody who has concerns about professionals or volunteers working with children should inform the Designated Safeguarding Officer.

When should the Designated Safeguarding Officer be contacted?

The Designated Safeguarding Officer needs to be informed when a person who works with children has:

- Behaved in a way that has harmed, or may have harmed a child
- Possibly committed a criminal offence against or related to a child
- Behaved towards a child or children in a way that indicates that he or she would pose a risk of harm if they work regularly or closely with children

The allegation can be:

- In connection with employment, voluntary activity or work placement
- Regarding the individual's own children

- Related to the community or private life of a partner, family member or other member of their household

Following an allegation the Designated Officer, in consultation with the Senior Manager, will determine the action required. There are three potential courses of action

- A police investigation
- Enquiries and assessment by social care
- Consideration by Harambee Pasadia CIC

Allegation Meetings are also convened by the Designated Safeguarding Officer to manage specific situations.

How to Contact the Designated Safeguarding Officer?

Please contact harambeepasadia @ gmail . com or see our event producer on site at our event or activity if you need to create a referral.

Vulnerable Adult Procedures

1. A person is described as a vulnerable adult if they have attained the age of 18 and receive any service or participate in any activity specifically for persons who have any form of disability. Protection procedures apply if someone is in receipt of a service where staff or volunteers are in a position of trust and people have a right to expect that trust will not be abused. The purpose of the term 'protected adult' is to distinguish the category of adult requiring protection and to avoid labelling adults solely on the basis of having a specific condition or disability.
2. If an Harambee Pasadia CIC employee or volunteer was concerned that someone aged 18 or over who is in receipt of a service might be being abused by someone in their lives (outside of the Harambee Pasadia CIC setting) then it would be for the vulnerable adult to determine whether or not they wanted support or referral to the Police or Adult Social Care. It is not possible to make a referral without the consent of the person involved unless other people are at risk or the person is not able to act to protect himself or herself or does not have the mental capacity to make the specific decision to seek support.
3. Where there is an allegation that an Harambee Pasadia CIC employee or volunteer or worker has harmed a vulnerable adult then action similar to that within the child protection policy should be undertaken. This should be with the consent of the vulnerable adult unless other people are at risk or the person does not have the capacity to make the specific decision. This means that the same processes should be followed as in the child protection policy but with the consent of the vulnerable adult being sought before referral unless other people are at risk or the person does not have capacity to make that decision. Referral would be to adult social care or the police. Advice can be sought from adult social care if the situation is unclear.

Harambee Pasadia CIC & Harambee Pasadia: Afro Fusion Arts Festival

Health and Safety Policy

Policy statement

Harambee Pasadia CIC is committed to minimising the health and safety risk of everyone involved & associated – volunteers, festival-goers, performers and workshop leaders – with respect to activities directly associated with its workshops, events, and festivals, and in the venues in which these take place. Our Policy is to provide and maintain safe and healthy working conditions, equipment, and systems of work for all our volunteers, employees and to provide such information and supervision, as they need for this purpose.

What is Harambee Pasadia: Afro Fusion Arts Festival?

Harambee Pasadia festival is a 4-day family camping extravaganza in celebration of diverse cultures, foods, music, artists, and fusions of African and Latino Cultures. We are committed to engage festival attendees through a wide range of arts, including music, dance, and workshops representing the diversity of styles and cultural influences from the African diaspora. Our vision is to create a community and network of artists, thinkers, activists, community leaders, and volunteers that can come together, inspire one another, and work together in a sustainable way.

Harambee Pasadia festival takes place Barnard Castle, Durham County (TCR Hub) over the last bank holiday in May, from Friday evening to Monday morning. It is a ticketed event held at TCR Hub, the building consists of a dance, drama, and music studio, accommodation for 32, a hair and beauty salon, cafe and kitchen area, meeting rooms and a workshop. The outside space features a large bespoke high ropes course, canoeing and fishing lake, BMX track, BBQ, cooking and seating areas, an outdoor gym and a nature area. The lower field of the Teesdale School is used as our camping grounds.

Responsibility for H&S Management

Overall responsibility for formulating and implementing the Health and Safety policy lies with the Festival's Organizer, Site Manager and TCR Hub venue staff members. Members of Harambee Pasadia Afro Fusion Arts Festival will be consulted on the formulation of H&S policy.

The Festival has Public Liability Insurance, TCR Hub has Public Liability Insurance and Employee Liability Insurance, all artist and workshop leaders have Public liability insurance unless otherwise stated in their contracts. Food vendors must provide their Liability Insurance and Hygiene Training certificates as applicable.

Dissemination

The Policy will be made available to all members, and will be published on the Festival's website, where it will be available to the public. In addition, the policy may be inspected at the Festival's office (when open). Individuals may request a copy of the policy by email (harambeepasadia@gmail.com). The Policy can be supplied on request to Funding Bodies via the above email address, or from the Festival's website, www.harambeepasadia.com.

Communication

- a) Telephone numbers for all services and key personnel are to be kept in the staff office.
- b) Emergency services have been previously informed of event and all staff know the procedures to call them.
- c) Radios are issued and should be used efficiently.
- d) A good system of communication should be developed with all contractors on site.
- e) Good communication at all levels is essential to reduce risks and encourage good standards of safety.

Fire Safety and Equipment

Staff and contractors should be informed where extinguishers and other safety related equipment is positioned. This is as important prior and after the festival as it is during it. A fire risk assessment will be carried out by the TCR Hub Staff before the festival to identify the level of provision required.

Fire risks should be kept as low as reasonably practicable by minimising the quantities of flammable materials stored on site. Fuels, flammable liquids and gas cylinders should be kept to a minimum, stored in a secure area and adequately signed to warn of the hazard.

Medical Assistance

Prior to the festival contractors or employees should be informed of the position of first-aid kits and the nearest first-aider. All should know the procedures to call further medical assistance if required.

Contractors

Contractors should not be asked to undertake work, which will endanger the Festival's employees, the contractor himself or any other persons including the public. All contractors engaged to render services for the festival are to be issued with the Health and Safety policy.

Contractors should inform Area Organisers of all dangerous substances and articles brought onto site e.g. hazardous chemicals, flammables, gas cylinders, explosives etc. All such materials should be kept to a minimum and correctly stowed in a secure area. The position of toilets and washing facilities should be notified to contractors. With ample facilities available contractors and employees should use them.

Contractors are to be advised that they are responsible for the provision of Safety Equipment and Protective clothing for their own employees, that this is a condition of our contract with them and will be enforced and that it is to be brought with them to site. Contractors are responsible for making their own reports duties under the Reporting of Injuries or Dangerous Occurrences Regulations 1995. All reportable accidents to contractors are to be reported to the Event Staff on duty immediately.

A contractor seen not following good safety practice or failing to comply with the Terms of this Policy should be advised and assisted with a view to eliminating that danger. Should the necessary remedial action not be taken the contractor will be warned that they could be held in breach of contract, which could effect payment otherwise due. If this does not gain compliance the Event Safety Co-ordinator and/or Site Manager should be contacted.

Erection of Marquees

Large Marquees can only be erected by approved contractors - authorised by the site manager. Contractors should maintain a safety zone during erection if the public are on site. All other persons should be kept clear until work is completed. Structural safety calculations are to be available and inspections made to ensure that the standards are met.

Food Preparation and Waste Disposal

All food preparation areas should comply with legislative requirements and best practice. Procedures for waste disposal and recycling are to be disseminated to all relevant personnel. Inspections should be made to ensure procedures are being adhered to. Bins, containers, skips, are available for solid waste, recycling points for organic waste, cardboard etc. and fluid waste containers are sited throughout the site. Free rubbish bags are available from the staff, who will also advise on separating waste and recovery operations.

Accident Reporting

Site manager offices should contain an accident book, all accidents should be entered and the festival organizer and TCR Hub Staff notified of serious or dangerous occurrences. In the event of a major incident, materials and equipment should be left undisturbed, providing they do not create a hazard. The Festival organizer and TCR Hub Staff should be contacted and an investigation will be started. On vacating the site accident books are to be handed in at the site office for analysis.

Volunteers/Stewards - Responsibilities and functions

Volunteers/Stewards can perform a variety of duties from crowd management, parking and marshalling traffic, monitoring entrances exits and security, fire prevention to generally assisting members of the public. The training and competencies necessary for stewards to be effective will depend on the particular area of work and the range of duties to be undertaken. Consequently, clearly defined duties need to be established for stewards. It is recommended that stewards receive written details of their duties, including; a checklist, if appropriate and a plan showing key features of the site.

They should receive a briefing prior to the event, particularly about communicating with supervisors and others in the event of an emergency. To be effective it is important for stewards to be well trained and located at key positions. The Site manager should ensure an assessment is undertaken to identify the number of stewards required and where best to locate them. All stewards need to be fit to undertake the duties allocated to them. Whilst on duty they should:

- concentrate only on their duties and not on the performance;
- not leave their place of work without permission;
- not consume or be under the influence of alcohol or drugs; and
- remain calm and be courteous towards members of the audience.

Volunteers/Stewards should not be stationed for long periods near to loudspeakers and arrangements should be made for them to have rest periods at reasonable intervals. All stewards should wear distinctive clothing, such as Hi Vest or clearly printed T-shirts.

Duties and competencies include:

- Knowing the layout of the site and being able to assist the public by giving information about the available facilities being aware of the location of entrances and exits and first aid points;
- Ensuring that no overcrowding occurs in any part of the venue by managing and directing the audience
- Keeping gangways and exits clear at all times;
- Controlling unruly behaviour and investigating immediately any disturbances or incidents, immediately contacting head of security;
- Communicating with the Site manager in the event of an emergency; and
- Knowing and understanding the arrangements for evacuating the audience, and undertaking specific duties in an emergency including knowing and understanding the arrangements for contacting medical control

All stewards should be trained to carry out their duties effectively and the type of training will depend on the individual functions to be performed. A record should be kept of all training and instruction provided.

The names of all stewards and their record of training should be kept by the Site Manager. The Site Fire training should include the following:

- The action to take on discovering a fire;
- How to raise the alarm, and the procedures this sets in motion;
- The action to be taken upon hearing the fire alarm;
- The procedures for alerting members of the public including, where appropriate, directing them to exits;
- The evacuation procedures for the venue to an assembly point at a place of safety;
- The location of the escape routes, including those not in regular use;
- The importance of general fire precautions and good housekeeping.

Site Managers are to ensure that all stewards have had sufficient training and are competent to perform the duties required of them. Advice and assistance can be sought from the relevant Festival Organizer. Site Managers should be aware of their obligations under the Management of Health and Safety at Work Regulations 1999 towards young persons (under 16), nursing mothers and pregnant women and if these people are employed, a separate risk assessment must be carried out.

Planning for Safety

All areas complete and compiler 'risk assessments' for activities to be performed. Identifying the level of risk and safety control measures early on will help in planning safe systems of workers, performers and the festival public.

Risk assessments, certification documents and insurance details are compiled and can be found in the staff office.

Sources of Risk & Precautions

Sound & Equipment

TCR Hub and North East Audio supply sound and lighting equipment for Harambee Pasadia. It is supervised by Fred Hollingsworth and festival volunteers, kept separate from members of the public, and turned off when no performances are taking place. The sound engineer who supplies it supervises hired equipment. The back line is provided to the performances, bands are contractually obliged to bring their own equipment for which they are responsible.

The festival volunteers involved in sound and lighting are supervised in this activity.

Working at Height

Wherever possible the need to conduct work at height should be avoided. Any contractor carrying out work above head height must employ a safe system of work. Wherever possible platforms, ladders and cherry-pickers should be used in preference to free-climbing.

Under no circumstances should crew undertake free-climb work.

Whenever overhead operations are undertaken, a safe working area must be cleared to exclude other staff or members of the public. Essential staff who must remain in the work area should wear hard hats.

Introduction:

The aim of this anti-bullying policy is to ensure that attendees specially young people of any workshops, events, festivals, and activities facilitated by Harambee Pasadia CIC are a supported, cared for and are in a safe environment without fear of being bullied. Bullying is anti-social behaviour and affects everyone; it is unacceptable. We are committed to providing a caring, friendly, and safe environment for all our attendees. If bullying does occur all attendees should be able to tell and know that incidents will be dealt with promptly and effectively.

The negative effects of bullying can have an impact on a person for their entire life. Harambee Pasadia wants to promote a secure and happy environment free from threat, harassment, and any type of bullying behaviour. This policy promotes practices to reinforce our vision, and to remove or discourage practices that negate them.

What is Bullying?

Bullying occurs when an individual or a group uses strength or power to hurt, either physically or emotionally, by intimidating or demeaning others. Bullying can be emotional, physical, racist, homophobic, biphobic, transphobic, verbal or cyber. It is usually persistent and is often covert, and is a conscious attempt to hurt, threaten or frighten someone. Anyone who is being bullied, may show changes in behaviour, such as becoming shy and nervous, feigning illness, taking unusual absences or clinging if a child to adults. There may be evidence of changes in work patterns, lacking concentration or disengaging from participation. Bullying can take many forms including:

- Physical bullying which can include kicking, hitting, pushing and taking away belongings.
- Verbal bullying which includes name calling, mocking and making offensive comments.
- Emotional bullying which includes isolating an individual or spreading rumours about them.
- Cyber-bullying where technology is used to hurt an individual – for instance text messaging or posting messages/images on the internet or any form of social media.
- Racist bullying occurs when bullying is motivated by racial, ethnic or cultural prejudice.
- Sexual bullying is where someone makes unwanted physical contact or makes sexually abusive comments;
- Homophobic and biphobic bullying occurs when bullying is motivated by a prejudice against lesbian, gay or bisexual people.
- Transphobic bullying occurs when bullying is motivated by a prejudice against people who identify as trans

- Disablist bullying occurs when bullying is motivated by a prejudice against people with any form of disability.
- Sexist bullying occurs when bullying is motivated by a prejudice against someone because of their gender.

How to get help:

Who can attendees and young people talk to if they have any concerns about bullying?

Activity or workshop leader
Event producer
Designated Safeguarding officer
Site Manager
Mentor
First Aid Officer

Attendees and young people who have been bullied will be supported by:

1. Offering an immediate opportunity to discuss the experience with a member of staff of their choice
2. Reassuring the attendees and young people
3. Offering continuous support
4. Restoring self-esteem and confidence

Attendees and young people who have bullied will be helped by:

1. Discussing what happened
2. Discovering why the attendees and young person became involved
3. Establishing the wrongdoing and need to change
4. Informing parents or guardians of young person

Responses will vary depending on the nature of the incident, but may include:

1. Suggestion for Counselling
2. Involvement of external agencies
4. If an ongoing project monitoring by staff member
5. Formal recording (racism)
7. If an ongoing project Liaison with parents/guardian/social worker
9. Internal exclusion
10. Permanent exclusion

Anti-Bullying Procedures:

It is made clear that bullying in any form is unacceptable. It will be taken seriously and dealt with promptly.

Staff Responsibilities

- To implement procedures to confront bullying in any form
- To listen to all parties involved in incidents
- To investigate incidents promptly and as fully as possible
- To take appropriate action
- To record the incident in the appropriate documents
- To share with parents/guardian/social worker of the victim and bully, incidents of persistent and/or serious bullying

- To implement appropriate procedures for a member of staff
- To promote the use of strategies which challenge bullying behaviour
- To promote open management styles which facilitate communication and consultation within Harambee Pasadia and relevant outside agencies when appropriate
- To model the values from Harambee Pasadia's mission statement
- To promote the use of interventions which are least intrusive and most effective.

Our main Anti-Bullying Strategy is to have open and clear communication routes to report any incidents of bullying.

This document is created to ensure safeguarding is at the heart of our activities.

Harambee Pasadia works with children and families as part of its activities.

The purpose of this policy statement is to:

- protect children and young people who take part in our events and activities, specifically those where photographs and videos may be taken
- set out the overarching principles that guide our approach to photographs/videos being taken of children and young people during our events and activities
- to ensure that we operate in line with our values and within the law when creating, using and sharing images of children and young people.

This policy statement applies to all staff, volunteers and other adults associated with Harambee Pasadia CIC.

We recognise that:

- sharing photographs and films of our activities can help us celebrate the successes and achievements, provide a record of our activities and raise awareness of our organisation
- the welfare of the children and young people taking part in our activities is paramount
- children, their parents, and carers have a right to decide whether their images are taken and how these may be used
- consent to take images of children is only meaningful when children, their parents and carers understand how the images will be used and stored, and are fully aware of the potential risks associated with the use and distribution of these images
- there are potential risks associated with sharing images of children online

We will seek to keep children and young people safe by:

- always asking for consent from a child and their parents or carers before taking and using a child's image
- always explaining what images will be used for, and how they will be stored
- never publishing personal information about individual children and disguising any identifying information
- only using images of children in appropriate clothing (including safety wear if necessary)
- using images that positively reflect young people's involvement in the activity.

If we hire a photographer or videographer for one of our events, we will seek to keep children and young people safe by:

- providing the photographer or videographer with a clear brief about appropriate content and behaviour
- ensuring the photographer or videographer wears identification at all times
- informing children, their parents and carers that a photographer or videographer will be at the event and ensuring they give consent to images which feature their child being taken and shared
- not allowing the photographer or videographer to have unsupervised access to children

If consent to take photographs is not given:

- If children, parents and/or carers do not consent to photographs being taken, we will respect their wishes.
- We will agree in advance how they would like to be identified so the photographer knows not to take pictures of them, and ensure this is done in a way that does not single out the child or make them feel isolated.
- We will never exclude a child from an activity because we do not have consent to take their photograph.

Storing images

- We will store photographs and videos of children securely, in accordance with our safeguarding policy and data protection law.

January 2022

We are ecstatic about our 7th year of Harambee Pasadia Afro Fusion Arts Festival. Our 6th festival in 2019 allowed for us to expand in many ways, create new partnerships, try new commissions, develop our Speaker's Corner conference and overcome many challenges.

In the past two years we had to overcome many hurdles in producing events during various stages of lockdown due to Covid-19. We produced the Darlo Drum Festival 2020 mixing live performances in Darlington Town Centre and a spectacular program of online workshops, performances, discussions, and DJs. In 2021 we ran our Joy is Freedom mini festival, a celebration to acknowledge our progress, diversity, and commitment to support, learn, and grow together. It was a colourful socially distanced event that took place outdoors on Juneteenth (also known as Liberation or Freedom Day) at the Cumberland Arms in Newcastle upon Tyne. We also created a new strand of performances which we called Doorstep Gigs, with a program of 39 performances across Byker in Newcastle upon Tyne, care homes in Durham County, and sheltered housing and extra care schemes in Darlington Borough Council. All these activities allowed for us to explore various ways of producing music events at a time when we physically needed to remain apart.

This year we are working hard, together with our partners, to make our event more inclusive, accessible, and inspiring. Securing funding will allow us to carry out a series of outreach activities that will be co-created with our partners and their constituents. These outreach activities will extend our offer to reach broader demographics and act as audience development for the festival. To support our goal of reaching audiences we are putting in place an inclusion officer, marketing coordinator and administrator to support all the work we do. The community outreach offer is very important as it allows for our target demographic to engage and feel ownership over the event and its activities.

To expand our reach, we will live stream our Speaker's Corner Conference which will celebrate the work of bell hooks and her fight for gender equality. Prior to the live streaming we will run a consciousness raising reading group that will read Feminism is for Everybody.

The festival line-up this year is fantastic and multifaceted, offering experiences for artists and participants to collaborate on site with visual art installations, music and dance workshops, outdoor activities (canoeing, kayaking, stand up paddle boarding, high ropes, BMX), live performances, a community studio album recording project, live podcasts, discussions, interviews, and 1 to 1 coaching in canoes with our resident Creative Industries and Intuition coach, Tamara Gal-On. As a commitment to redressing gender bias in the creative industry we have worked hard to ensure that more than 50% of all creative and non-creative partners are womxn.

Unity, equality and collaboration are the driving force for Harambee Pasadia Festival and has become a platform where we are in charge of our story, imagine a better future, and achieve greatness by bringing diverse people together through entertainment, learning and whimsy. We are proud of the work we are doing with our partners and are looking forward to the new experiences in the coming months.

Sincerely,

Dr. G. Hannabiell Sanders

Re: Harambee Pasadia: Afro fusion Arts Festival - Letter of Support

I am writing on behalf of Jack Drum Arts to express our full support to Harambee Pasadia Afro Fusion Arts Festival in their application for funding.

Jack Drum Arts is County Durham's longest established performing arts company having been in business as social enterprise for over 30 years. Our provision includes a large-scale youth arts programme, creative apprenticeships, leadership training, volunteering opportunities and employment in the creative and cultural industries. We work with some of the most at need and vulnerable individuals in County Durham supporting the improvement of the emotional wellbeing and confidence of our participants using creativity with a focus on high quality carnival and outdoor arts projects and events. Engagement in our arts and wellbeing activities supports individuals to improve their mental health and emotional resilience alongside developing a sense of pride in making a meaningful contribution to the local and wider community.

Our partnership with Harambee Pasadia Festival 2022 will allow us to showcase our new Carnival Arts Bloco 'Nordestinos' to a new and diverse audience sharing our love for both Brazilian and north east music and dance. The festival will also provide us with the opportunity to widen our reach across the northeast, to network with exciting and diverse musicians and artists and offer our young leaders unique opportunities to share their skills within a safe supportive environment.

We look forward to working with the team at Harambee Pasadia in 2022 to support them in the delivery of a fantastic festival here on our doorstep in County Durham.

Yours Sincerely,

Helen Ward

Dear Sir/Madam,

Re: Harambee Pasadia: Afro fusion Arts Festival - Letter of Support

I'm writing on behalf of Leading Link to express our support to Harambee Pasadia Afro Fusion Arts Festival.

We are a children and young people's charity supporting individuals to maximise their potential by offering real experiences through our trusted partners to raise aspirations and a 'can do' approach.

Our partnership with Harambee Pasadia festival this year will allow our young leaders to learn all behind the scenes of organising a festival as well as the opportunity to experience a wealth of cultural diversity during the actual festival.

We have worked with Harambee Pasadia for a number of years now and the impact of their energy, passion and culture on our young people is absolutely amazing. They are always very professional and curious in their approach which ensures an ongoing developing relationship between partners too.

We would very much welcome the opportunity to work alongside Harambee Pasadia in the near future and I know the young people will be queuing up to join us at every juncture.

I sincerely wish this team the very best to be able to continue this fantastic work.

Yours Sincerely,

Support for Harambee Pasadia: Afro Fusion Arts Festival

I am delighted to write in support of the application for funding for Harambee Pasadia.

2022 will be the first time we have collaborated with Harambee Pasadia to bring a taste of this amazing festival to ARC and our communities. We see this as the start of a longer term relationship and have already discussed plans for how we can build on this year's work in 2023 and beyond.

We know we can benefit from the extensive skills and expertise of the festival organisers to enhance and diversify our music programme, and associated audiences here at ARC. This feels like a fabulous opportunity to broaden our programme and provide audiences with a range of Afro inspired cultural activity, with music at its core. We know this is a gap in our programme, and the credibility and reputation of the festival will help us address this in an authentic way.

Given our proximity to the main festival location, we also believe that the festival can benefit from the additional promotion we can offer across the Tees Valley.

We have committed £2,000 in cash support, along with full technical and marketing support and will be looking to undertake significant audience development activity to support the event and longer term collaboration.

Best wishes

Dear Sir/Madam,

Re: Harambee Pasadia: Afro fusion Arts Festival - Letter of Support

I'm writing on behalf of Success4All's STAND4 Youth Group to express our support for Harambee Pasadia Afro Fusion Arts Festival.

Success4All was established in 2006 by our Founder, Caroline Afolabi-Deleu, with the founding purpose – to prepare children and young people for a brighter future. For 15 years, we have been driven by our passion and commitment to ensure that every child has a fighting chance at success no matter their circumstances. STAND4 is our youth group at Success4All. It has been running for 10 years and was first known as WEYDA (West End Young Digital Artists). Over time, the group evolved to tackling lots of social issues and creating change in their communities based on this. Therefore, the group have recently been renamed to STAND4. STAND4 welcomes young people in the Northeast to work as a community to become activists for positive change. The group often discusses prominent issues young people are facing today and thinks of creative ways to resolve this and bring about change.

Our partnership with Harambee Pasadia festival this year will allow us to bring 18 young leaders from Newcastle to the festival, co-creating a creative activity with the STAND4 group. The STAND4 group would also lead in creating a Podcast at the festival and screening a short film.

Yours Sincerely,

SCHEDULE	13

Articles of Association
of
Harambee Pasadia C.I.C.
INTERPRETATION

1 Defined Terms

1.1 The interpretation of these Articles is governed by the provisions set out in the Schedule at the end of the Articles.

2 Community Interest Company

2.1 The Company shall be a Community Interest Company

3 Asset Lock

3.1 The Company shall not transfer any of its assets other than for full consideration.

3.2 Provided the conditions in Article 3.3 are satisfied, Article 3.1 shall not apply to:

- a. the transfer of assets to any specified asset-locked body, or (with the consent of the Regulator) to any other asset-locked body; and
- b. the transfer of assets made for the benefit of the community other than by way of a transfer of assets into an asset-locked body.

3.3 The conditions are that the transfer of assets must comply with any restrictions on the transfer of assets for less than full consideration which may be set out elsewhere in the memorandum and Articles of the Company.

3.4 If:

- a. the Company is wound up under the Insolvency Act 1986; and
- b. all its liabilities have been satisfied

then any residual assets shall be given or transferred to the asset-locked body which has similar objects to that of the Company as the directors shall determine with the consent of the Regulator (as per articles 3.5 below).

3.5 If on the winding-up of the company any property remains after satisfaction of all the company's debts and liabilities, such property shall not be paid to or distributed among the members of the company but shall instead be transferred to some other community interest company or companies, charity or charities (whether incorporated or unincorporated) or other asset locked body whose objects are altogether or in part similar to the objects of the company.

- a. The community interest company or companies, charity or charities or asset locked body to which property is transferred under article 3.5 shall be determined by the directors of the company at or before the time of dissolution in consultation with the Regulator or, failing such determination, by such court as may have jurisdiction at that time.
- b. To the extent that effect cannot be given to the provisions of articles 3.5 and 3.5.a, the relevant property shall be applied to some other charitable purpose or purposes.

4. Not for profit

4.1 The Company is not established or conducted for private gain: any profit or assets are used principally for the benefit of the community.

OBJECTS, POWERS AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

5. Objects

5.1 The objects of the Company are to carry on activities which benefit the community and in particular (without limitation) to:

- a. Promote and advance the arts and the appreciation of the arts, including, but not restricted to, music, theatre, drama, dance, film, fine art and crafts through the provision of festivals, associated outreach, community projects, activities, and performances that celebrate and value the contributions from the African and Pan African Diaspora;
- b. Educate, support, advise, and encourage those who participate in the arts;
- c. Promote the arts at all levels of cultural and educational life in the North East of England, the wider UK, and internationally;
- d. Create, compose, commission, document and record artistic endeavors;
- e. Advance community development and social inclusion through Harambee Pasadia festival, events, other projects and volunteering (exclusively or in partnership with community organisations, creative, cultural and educational institutions);
- f. Advance such similar purposes, promote, establish, operate, collaborate and/or support others in and develop any other projects, initiatives or activities for the benefit of the community as the directors may consider appropriate.

6. Powers

6.1 To further its objects the Company may carry out any activity and do all such lawful things as may further the Company's objects and, in particular, but, without limitation, may borrow or raise and secure the payment of money for any purpose including for the purposes of investment or of raising funds.

6.2 To further its objects the company may purchase, develop, construct and manage buildings, lands, other assets, and property of any kind necessary or convenient to enable greater participation, education and appreciation.

7. Liability of members

The liability of each member is limited to £1, being the amount that each member undertakes to contribute to the assets of the Company in the event of its being wound up while he or she is a member or within one year after he or she ceases to be a member, for:

7.1 payment of the Company's debts and liabilities contracted before he or she ceases to be a member;

7.2 payment of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up; and

DIRECTORS

DIRECTORS' POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

8. Directors' general authority

Subject to the Articles, the Directors are responsible for the management of the Company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the Company.

9. Members' reserve power

9.1 The members may, by special resolution, direct the Directors to take, or refrain from taking, specific action.

9.2 No such special resolution invalidates anything which the Directors have done before the passing of the resolution.

10. Chair

The Directors may appoint one of their number to be the chair of the Directors for such term of office as they determine and may at any time remove him or her from office.

11. Directors may delegate

11.1 Subject to the Articles, the Directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the Articles or the implementation of their decisions or day to day management of the affairs of the Company:

- a. to such person or committee;
- b. by such means (including by power of attorney);
- c. to such an extent;
- d. in relation to such matters or territories; and
- e. on such terms and conditions;

as they think fit.

11.2 If the Directors so specify, any such delegation of this power may authorise further delegation of the Directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated.

11.3 The Directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

12. Directors to take decisions collectively

Any decision of the Directors must be either a majority decision at a meeting or a decision taken in accordance with Article 18. In the event of the Company having only one Director, a majority decision is made when that single Director makes a decision.

13. Calling a Directors' meeting

13.1 Two Directors may (and the Secretary, if any, must at the request of two Directors) call a Directors' meeting.

13.2 A Directors' meeting must be called by at least seven Clear Days' notice unless either:

- a. all the Directors agree; or
- b. urgent circumstances require shorter notice.

13.3 Notice of Directors' meetings must be given to each Director.

13.4 Every notice calling a Directors' meeting must specify:

- a. the place, day and time of the meeting; and
- b. if it is anticipated that Directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.

13.5 Notice of Directors' meetings need not be in Writing.

13.6 Notice of Directors' meetings may be sent by Electronic Means to an Address provided by the Director for the purpose.

14. Participation in Directors' meetings

14.1 Subject to the Articles, Directors participate in a Directors' meeting, or part of a Directors' meeting, when:

- a. the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the Articles; and
- b. they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.

14.2 In determining whether Directors are participating in a Directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any Director is or how they communicate with each other.

14.3 If all the Directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.

15. Quorum for Directors' meetings

15.1 At a Directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.

15.2 The quorum for Directors' meetings may be fixed from time to time by a decision of the Directors, but it must never be less than two, and unless otherwise fixed it is [two].

15.3 If the total number of Directors for the time being is less than the quorum required, the Directors must not take any decision other than a decision:

- a. to appoint further Directors; or
- b. to call a general meeting so as to enable the members to appoint further Directors.

16. Chairing of Directors' meetings

The Chair, if any, or in his or her absence another Director nominated by the Directors present shall preside as chair of each Directors' meeting.

17. Decision-making at meetings

17.1 Questions arising at a Directors' meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes.

17.2 In all proceedings of Directors each Director must not have more than one vote.

17.3 In case of an equality of votes, the Chair shall have a second or casting vote.

18. Decisions without a meeting

18.1 The Directors may take a unanimous decision without a Directors' meeting in accordance with this Article by indicating to each other by any means, including without limitation by Electronic Means, that they share a common view on a matter. Such a decision may, but need not, take the form of a resolution in Writing, copies of which have been signed by each Director or to which each Director has otherwise indicated agreement in Writing.

18.2 A decision which is made in accordance with Article 18.1 shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting duly convened and held, provided the following conditions are complied with:

- a. approval from each Director must be received by one person being either such person as all the Directors have nominated in advance for that purpose or such other person as volunteers if necessary ("the Recipient"), which person may, for the avoidance of doubt, be one of the Directors;
- b. following receipt of responses from all of the Directors, the Recipient must communicate to all of the Directors by any means whether the resolution has been formally approved by the Directors in accordance with this Article 18.2;
- c. the date of the decision shall be the date of the communication from the Recipient confirming formal approval;
- d. the Recipient must prepare a minute of the decision in accordance with Article 32.

19. Conflicts of interest

19.1 Whenever a Director finds himself or herself in a situation that is reasonably likely to give rise to a Conflict of Interest, he or she must declare his or her interest to the Directors unless, or except to the extent that, the other Directors are or ought reasonably to be aware of it already.

19.2 If any question arises as to whether a Director has a Conflict of Interest, the question shall be decided by a majority decision of the other Directors.

19.3 Whenever a matter is to be discussed at a meeting or decided in accordance with Article 18 and a Director has a Conflict of Interest in respect of that matter then, subject to Article 20, he or she must:

- a. remain only for such part of the meeting as in the view of the other Directors is necessary to inform the debate;
- b. not be counted in the quorum for that part of the meeting; and
- c. withdraw during the vote and have no vote on the matter.

19.4 When a Director has a Conflict of Interest which he or she has declared to the Directors, he or she shall not be in breach of his or her duties to the Company by withholding confidential information from the Company if to disclose it would result in a breach of any other duty or obligation of confidence owed by him or her.

20. Directors' power to authorise a conflict of interest

20.1 The Directors have power to authorise a Director to be in a position of Conflict of Interest provided:

- a. in relation to the decision to authorise a Conflict of Interest, the conflicted Director must comply with Article 19.3;
- b. in authorising a Conflict of Interest, the Directors can decide the manner in which the Conflict of Interest may be dealt with and, for the avoidance of doubt, they can decide that the Director with a Conflict of Interest can participate in a vote on the matter and can be counted in the quorum
- c. the decision to authorise a Conflict of Interest can impose such terms as the Directors think fit and is subject always to their right to vary or terminate the authorisation.

20.2 If a matter, or office, employment or position, has been authorised by the Directors in accordance with Article 20.1 then, even if he or she has been authorised to remain at the meeting by the other Directors, the Director may absent himself or herself from meetings of the Directors at which anything relating to that matter, or that office, employment or position, will or may be discussed.

20.3 A Director shall not be accountable to the Company for any benefit which he or she derives from any matter, or from any office, employment or position, which has been authorised by the

Directors in accordance with Article 20.1 (subject to any limits or conditions to which such approval was subject).

21. Register of Directors' interests

The Directors shall cause a register of Directors' interests to be kept. A Director must declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which he or she has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the Company or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by the Company which has not previously been declared.

APPOINTMENT AND RETIREMENT OF DIRECTORS

22. Methods of appointing Directors

22.1 Those persons notified to the Registrar of Companies as the first Directors of the Company shall be the first Directors.

22.2 Any person who is willing to act as a Director, and is permitted by law to do so, may be appointed to be a Director by a decision of the Directors.

23. Termination of Director's appointment

A person ceases to be a Director as soon as:

- (a) that person ceases to be a Director by virtue of any provision of the Companies Act 2006, or is prohibited from being a Director by law;
- (b) a bankruptcy order is made against that person, or an order is made against that person in individual insolvency proceedings in a jurisdiction other than England and Wales or Northern Ireland which have an effect similar to that of bankruptcy;
- (c) a composition is made with that person's creditors generally in satisfaction of that person's debts;
- (d) the Directors reasonably believe he or she is suffering from mental disorder and incapable of acting and they resolve that he or she be removed from office,
- (e) notification is received by the Company from the Director that the Director is resigning from office, and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms (but only if at least two Directors will remain in office when such resignation has taken effect); or
- (f) the Director fails to attend three consecutive meetings of the Directors and the Directors resolve that the Director be removed for this reason.
- (g) the Director ceases to be a member.

24. Directors' remuneration

24.1 Directors may undertake any services for the Company that the Directors decide.

24.2 Directors are entitled to such remuneration as the Directors determine:

- a. for their services to the Company as Directors; and
- b. for any other service which they undertake for the Company.
- c. for the avoidance of doubt, directors will be employees of the company, and will be entitled to retain all remunerations, and pension and/or other benefits, paid or provided to them in their capacity as employees of the company.

24.3 Subject to the Articles, a Director's remuneration may:

- (a) take any form; and
- (b) include any arrangements in connection with the payment of a pension, allowance or gratuity, or any death, sickness or disability benefits, to or in respect of that director.

24.4 Unless the Directors decide otherwise, Directors' remuneration accrues from day to day.

24.5 Unless the Directors decide otherwise, Directors are not accountable to the Company for any remuneration which they receive as Directors or other officers or employees of the Company's subsidiaries or of any other body corporate in which the Company is interested.

25. Directors' expenses

25.1 The Company may pay any reasonable expenses which the Directors properly incur in connection with their attendance at:

- (a) meetings of Directors or committees of Directors;
- (b) general meetings; or
- (c) separate meetings of any class of members or of the holders of any debentures of the Company,

or otherwise in connection with the exercise of their powers and the discharge of their responsibilities in relation to the Company.

MEMBERS BECOMING AND CEASING TO BE A MEMBER

26. Becoming a member

26.1 The subscribers to the Memorandum are the first members of the Company.

26.2 Such other persons as are admitted to membership in accordance with the Articles shall be members of the Company.

26.3 Each member of the company shall be a Director.

26.4 No person shall be admitted a member of the Company unless he or she is approved by the Directors.

26.5 Every person who wishes to become a member shall deliver to the company an application for membership in such form (and containing such information) as the Directors require and executed by him or her.

27. Termination of membership

27.1 Membership is not transferable to anyone else.

27.2 Membership is terminated if:

- a. the member dies or ceases to exist;
- b. otherwise in accordance with the Articles; or
- c. a member ceases to be a Director.

DECISION MAKING BY MEMBERS

28. Members' meetings

28.1 The Directors may call a general meeting at any time.

28.2 General meetings must be held in accordance with the provisions regarding such meetings in the Companies Acts.

28.3 A person who is not a member of the Company shall not have any right to vote at a general meeting of the Company; but this is without prejudice to any right to vote on a resolution affecting the rights attached to a class of the Company's debentures.

28.4 Article 28.3 shall not prevent a person who is a proxy for a member or a duly authorised representative of a member from voting at a general meeting of the Company.

29. Written resolutions

29.1 Subject to Article 29.3, a written resolution of the Company passed in accordance with this Article 29 shall have effect as if passed by the Company in general meeting:

- a. A written resolution is passed as an ordinary resolution if it is passed by a simple majority of the total voting rights of eligible members.
- b. A written resolution is passed as a special resolution if it is passed by members representing not less than 75% of the total voting rights of eligible members. A written resolution is not a special resolution unless it states that it was proposed as a special resolution.

29.2 In relation to a resolution proposed as a written resolution of the Company the eligible members are the members who would have been entitled to vote on the resolution on the circulation date of the resolution.

29.3 A members' resolution under the Companies Acts removing a Director or an auditor before the expiration of his or her term of office may not be passed as a written resolution.

29.4 A copy of the written resolution must be sent to every member together with a statement informing the member how to signify their agreement to the resolution and the date by which the resolution must be passed if it is not to lapse. Communications in relation to written notices shall be sent to the Company's auditors in accordance with the Companies Acts.

29.5 A member signifies their agreement to a proposed written resolution when the Company receives from him or her an authenticated Document identifying the resolution to which it relates and indicating his or her agreement to the resolution.

- a. If the Document is sent to the Company in Hard Copy Form, it is authenticated if it bears the member's signature.
- b. If the Document is sent to the Company by Electronic Means, it is authenticated [if it bears the member's signature] or [if the identity of the member is confirmed in a manner agreed by the Directors] or [if it is accompanied by a statement of the identity of the member and the Company has no reason to doubt the truth of that statement] or [if it is from an email Address notified by the member to the Company for the purposes of receiving Documents or information by Electronic Means].

29.6 A written resolution is passed when the required majority of eligible members have signified their agreement to it.

29.7 A proposed written resolution lapses if it is not passed within 28 days beginning with the circulation date.

ADMINISTRATIVE ARRANGEMENTS AND MISCELLANEOUS

30. Means of communication to be used

30.1 Subject to the Articles, anything sent or supplied by or to the Company under the Articles may be sent or supplied in any way in which the Companies Act 2006 provides for Documents or information which are authorised or required by any provision of that Act to be sent or supplied by or to the Company.

30.2 Subject to the Articles, any notice or Document to be sent or supplied to a Director in connection with the taking of decisions by Directors may also be sent or supplied by the means by which that Director has asked to be sent or supplied with such notices or Documents for the time being.

30.3 A Director may agree with the Company that notices or Documents sent to that Director in a particular way are to be deemed to have been received within an agreed time of their being sent, and for the agreed time to be less than 48 hours.

31. Irregularities

The proceedings at any meeting or on the taking of any poll or the passing of a written resolution or the making of any decision shall not be invalidated by reason of any accidental informality or irregularity (including any accidental omission to give or any non-receipt of notice) or any want of qualification in any of the persons present or voting or by reason of any business being considered which is not referred to in the notice unless a provision of the Companies Acts specifies that such informality, irregularity or want of qualification shall invalidate it.

32. Minutes

32.1 The Directors must cause minutes to be made in books kept for the purpose:

- a. of all appointments of officers made by the Directors;
- b. of all resolutions of the Company and of the Directors (including, without limitation, decisions of the Directors made without a meeting); and
- c. of all proceedings at meetings of the Company and of the Directors, and of committees of Directors, including the names of the Directors present at each such meeting;

and any such minute, if purported to be signed (or in the case of minutes of Directors' meetings signed or authenticated) by the chair of the meeting at which the proceedings were had, or by the chair of the next succeeding meeting, shall, as against any member or Director of the Company, be sufficient evidence of the proceedings.

32.2 The minutes must be kept for at least ten years from the date of the meeting, resolution or decision.

33. Records and accounts

The Directors shall comply with the requirements of the Companies Acts as to maintaining a members' register, keeping financial records, the audit or examination of accounts and the preparation and transmission to the Registrar of Companies and the Regulator of:

33.1 annual reports;

33.2 annual returns; and

33.3 annual statements of account.

33.4 Except as provided by law or authorised by the Directors or an ordinary resolution of the Company, no person is entitled to inspect any of the Company's accounting or other records or Documents merely by virtue of being a member.

34. Indemnity

34.1 Subject to Article 34.2, a relevant Director of the Company or an associated company may be indemnified out of the Company's assets against:

- (a) any liability incurred by that Director in connection with any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the Company or an associated company;
- (b) any liability incurred by that Director in connection with the activities of the Company or an associated company in its capacity as a trustee of an occupational pension scheme (as defined in section 235(6) of the Companies Act 2006); and
- (c) any other liability incurred by that Director as an officer of the Company or an associated company.

34.2 This Article does not authorise any indemnity which would be prohibited or rendered void by any provision of the Companies Acts or by any other provision of law.

34.3 In this Article:

- (a) companies are associated if one is a subsidiary of the other or both are subsidiaries of the same body corporate; and
- (b) a "relevant Director" means any Director or former Director of the Company or an associated company.

35. Insurance

35.1 The Directors may decide to purchase and maintain insurance, at the expense of the Company, for the benefit of any relevant Director in respect of any relevant loss.

35.2 In this Article:

- (a) a "relevant Director" means any Director or former Director of the Company or an associated company;
- (b) a "relevant loss" means any loss or liability which has been or may be incurred by a relevant Director in connection with that Director's duties or powers in relation to the Company, any associated company or any pension fund or employees' share scheme of the company or associated company; and
- (c) companies are associated if one is a subsidiary of the other or both are subsidiaries of the same body corporate.

36. Exclusion of model articles

The relevant model articles for a company limited by guarantee are hereby expressly excluded.

SECTION B: Community Interest Statement – Activities & Related Benefit

Please indicate how it is proposed that the company's activities will benefit the community, or a section of the community. Please provide as much detail as possible to enable the CIC Regulator to make an informed decision about whether your proposed company is eligible to become a community interest company. It would be useful if you were to explain how you think your company will be different from a commercial company providing similar services or products for individual or personal gain.

Activities (Tell us here what the company is being set up to do)	How will the activity benefit the community? (The community will benefit by...)
Create, organise, and manage a festival (Harambee Pasadia Festival) and yearlong programme showcasing music, dance, fine art, crafts, theatre, drama, and film of the African and Pan-African Diaspora.	• Provide a unique platform spotlighting both emerging and established artists whose music extends from the African and Pan-African diaspora. • Work with the local community to ensure that the festival provides elements and resources that address their concerns and interests. • Act as advocates and provide support and training for emerging and established artists and Volunteers in the wider region by building relationships that will help create resources, networks and more sustainable creative activity. • Create a diverse and ambitious programme where attendees feel safe to participate in workshops and activities.
Provide opportunities for volunteering, training, and employment within the creative industries.	• Specialist advice for those who aspire to a career in the creative industries. • Upskilling local workforce • Professional development and networking opportunities • Increase self-confidence, well-being and skills of people from marginalised groups
If the company makes any surplus it will be used for... Strengthening and enriching the quality and delivery of the programme, raising awareness of future programming, and investing in new equipment for delivery of work all which in turn benefit the communities within which we work.
