

Introduction

National Lottery Project Grants

Arts Council National Lottery Project Grants is our funding programme for arts, museums and libraries projects. It is always open, so we can respond to people's good ideas.

Our Strategy, Let's Create

Let's Create is our ten-year Strategy 2020-2030. It explains how we want our funding to make a difference. It includes three Outcomes and their Elements, and four Investment Principles.

We recommend reading Let's Create before you apply. This is so you're familiar with the difference that we want projects to make (the Outcomes and their Elements). It will also help you to use the Investment Principles to shape and deliver a successful project.

We will ask questions in the application form which relate to the Outcomes, their Elements and the Investment Principles. We will tell you which questions these are.

Application form

In this application form we will ask you questions about:

- your project
- the people and communities who will experience your project
- your planning
- you or your organisation

When we read your answers we will think about how your project will help to make a difference using the Outcomes and Investment Principles. We will also think about how likely it is to achieve what you want it to.

The information you give us in this application form will help us decide which applications we will fund.

Remember

The first few screens are already completed with information you've provided in your applicant profile. If you need to make changes to these screens, go back to the 'Applicants' section and you can edit your applicant profile.

Throughout the application form, any questions marked with an asterisk (*) must be answered to allow you to submit the form.

The text boxes have a character limit which includes letters, numbers, symbols and spaces. Please stick to this character limit as any additional text won't be saved.

Your project

What do we mean by 'project'? For us, a project is something that has:

- A start and end date
- Clear things you want to achieve in that time
- Ways for people to experience or take part in creativity or culture (either as part of the project or in the future)

This section of the application form helps us to understand what you want to do.

It allows you to think about how your project could help to bring creativity and culture to people in England.

When is your project?

Tell us the start and end dates for your project.

Remember:

- To allow enough time to deliver all the stages of your project
- The dates you give us here should cover the whole project period you're applying for
- We need 12 weeks to process applications for £30,001 and over, your start date must be more than 12 weeks from the date you submit your application
- To allow enough time for us to make a payment before your start date, if your application is funded

Project start date: 03/06/2024

Project end date: 30/10/2024

Responding to any Time limited priorities

Your project is responding to the following Time limited priority:

Selected priority: - Not applying against any Time Limited Priority -

At a glance

In your own words, give a short, clear overview of your project:

Up to 500 characters

- Be as clear as you can about what you want to do using Project Grants funding
- It's better if this is written as a full paragraph
- It will be available to the public on our website if your application is funded.

Wooden Roots Experience Phase 2 (WRE2) leverages the impact, learning & legacy of the ACE funded 2023 iteration to connect the cultural & creative roots of west African drum & dance to a framework of outreach, partnership & education. A festival event that marries genre fundamentals & folkloric lineage with internationally sourced, exemplar artists in a world class venue.

If you had to explain the focus of your project to someone, what single words or short phrase would you use?

Up to 100 characters

- You can be as broad or as specific as you like; it's your project
- You might think about this as your project's 'key words' or 'tags'
- Use a maximum of 5 key words or short phrases
- We won't use this response when deciding which applications to fund. It's so we can learn from how you see your project.
- Examples could be: singing; photography; digital work in libraries; South Asian dance; participatory arts; children's theatre; interactive gaming; dynamic collections work; changing business models; environmental theme; writing with older people; etc

International connectivity, west African drum and dance, org dev, local impact, Black led work

WRE2 is a 3 day west African music & dance symposium; platforming the best in diasporic artistry. This 2nd iteration is supporting quality, participation & a theory of change framework to sustain impact, partnered by Britten Pear Arts (BPA).

The 2nd WR Experience is:

1. Promoting creative opportunities (...) at all stages of their lives, via:
 - 32 high calibre wkshps with multiple entry points - beginner to professional level classes & (new) fundamentals of drumming for dance classes
 - subsidised offer for local Global Majority students/marginalised audiences (as per racial/economic demography) to remove barriers
 - a CYP led programme at the festival that extends existing ACE funded WR learning journeys for local KS2 CYP
 - a traditional Dununba Celebration in the theatre (Mandé custom) with students selected to perform
 - a bursary programme supporting 6 x rural YP, 6 x inner city YP & 6 x asylum seekers from Eritrea, inc (free) performance tix
 - extended learning pathways for WR's existing national/adult/community/student/refugee cohorts; ensuring local / longitudinal engagement is fertilised by global horizon experiences.

These initiatives signpost new/existing ACE funded participants from WR programmes in rural areas & sustain/elevate the involvement of those suffering rural & demographic intersectionality.

2. Working collaboratively (...) to support & involve communities in high-quality culture
 - 1st time performance at SNAPE from renowned artist, Sonja Diabarte (from the west African diaspora) in partnership with BPA; results from the enormous success of WRE1; now a co-devised programme which de-colonises existing audience perceptions; offering organisational development for WR & repositioning for BPA/Snape
 - a new 'culture board' reviews impact from 1st iteration & devises new work, WRE2 is the result of extensive partnership development between BPA & WR, with input from Sasolo, Morabe Music, Suffolk Music & Aspire Black Suffolk. Having established an artistic policy supporting the decolonising of programming in elite art environments, it explores new approaches to integrated participatory & performance work.

3. Ensuring people have opportunities to sustain their careers (...), especially those who are currently under-represented

WR is:

- programming 1st time offer of dance + music, with genre icons giving demos that articulate form & technique; showing the evolution of style from culture; how washing, fishing, & harvesting become choreographic motifs, & importantly the relationship to the music, improving partner/peer/participant understanding, thus building out programming opps
- supporting outstanding representative practitioners from the diaspora to teach & perform together at the Dundunba
- reclaiming 'gatekeeping' through fair pay, co-devised scheduling & content devising to ensure quality, & bringing national & international visibility to Black led work.

Ambition, Quality and Dynamism

The next two questions are about our Ambition and Quality and Dynamism Investment Principles. You can find more about them here.

What's led you or your organisation to do this project now?

Up to 1500 characters

- What ideas or experiences have led you or your organisation to this point?
- Is this project helping you or your organisation learn or try new things?
- If you've done something similar before, how is this different?
- You can write this in full paragraphs or in bullet points

After 6 years of assessing need & researching various events led by UK promoters, WR decided to provide an event that:
-offers more sustainable outcomes & authentic experiences for the community, artists, partners & WR
-leverages outcomes from both WRE1 in 2023 & their wider success with ACE funded participatory programmes in rural Suffolk.

WR, with BPA, are building 'a sustainable new audience segment that sees East Suffolk as a place where music of the African diaspora is not just alive & thriving but also embedded & ambitious' (BPA).

The sold out performance by Seckou Keita, Suntou Susso, & Sidiki Dembele in 2023 which concluded WRE1, shaped an 'artist as teacher/performer' pedagogical & performance integration model; & directly influenced BPA programming, with 3 African-led concerts in its Summer at Snape 2024 schedule, including the globally renowned Sona Jobarteh at the Wooden Roots Experience, something that Wooden Roots alone could never accomplish.

WRE2 embeds dance for the 1st time, introduces metropolitan & international artists (on a grander scale) to rural Suffolk, & creates visibility for Wooden Roots. Dance East, Aspire Suffolk, BPA, Snape Maltings, local schls & ecological partnerships are improved, strengthened & evolved by a WR culture board that has formed to curate & devise the work going forward, with an artistic policy that centres opportunity, decolonisation & reparational activities.

How will you know if you've achieved what you set out to do? Bespoke evaluation framework, Peer review, Impact and Insight Toolkit

Up to 1500 characters

- Are there opportunities for learning and reflection during your project?
- How will you know what difference the project has made?
- What steps will you take to understand what people thought of the project?
- You can write this in full paragraphs or in bullet points

Partnership 'culture board':

Sasolo, Aspire Black Suffolk, BPA, WR, & key artists, form a board that; devises content, meets to review the event, meets to plan further work & examines the connection between participation & performance in the long term, to ensure WR's work leverages both types of activity to secure improved outcomes.

Via co-devised KPI's they measure engagement & skills building for the Suffolk community; via tracking, video feedback, questionnaires & longitudinal engagement with Morabe Music & Aldeburgh Young Musician Programme. Impact on the quality of Black led work & improvements in national/international quality & visibility of west African culture through music & dance are curated & recorded formally through interview & tracking; KPI's around attendance to WR events, & local commissions through BPA, Dance East etc.

Quality framework

The Culture Board will support WR to create a theory of change document, planning outreach & flagship events around a new artistic policy that secures methodology, rationale & process that centres the autonomy of Black production & attention to representative practitioners, building connectivity for diasporic work outside of London & linking grassroots participation to highly visible performance spaces in order to decolonise the approach & democratise production.

Environmental Responsibility

This question is about our Environmental Responsibility Investment Principle.

You can read more about this in the Being environmentally responsible section of the Guidance Library.

What are you doing to make your project environmentally responsible? Audience travel – for example collecting data on how people travel to events or encouraging sustainable travel, Training and development – for example climate literacy or mentoring, Production models - for example concept touring or local casting

Please click the 'Save' button below after you have answered the question.

Up to 1500 characters

- What are the environmental actions or targets for your project?
- Are you testing any new approaches or ideas?
- How will you evaluate and share your environmental approach?

Wooden Roots built out its outreach & engagement related environmental policies in ACE funded project, Levels Up. WR are:

- setting minimum standards for all participatory & performance work to assess/reduce carbon output
- circulating guidance for participants regarding travel & creative ideas to improve carbon footprint.

The WR team are improving the company delivery scheme for performance in this project; using the Green Book resource it is setting clear KPI's for production inc. positioning Gemma as a Sustainability Champion & using their Carbon Calculators to redefine budgeting for travel, materials & inventory. Payments are made for travel on the basis of them being the most sustainable option, inc. trains over car, car sharing etc.

The WR performance policy will build on their portfolio of Green Knowledge developed through the Levels Up programme; it includes new policies re: green travel, green resourcing, green buildings & green delivery.

The WRE2 will work with BPA to assess key points of impact such as:

- material sustainability - lighting, sound and audio-visual equipment / ancillary products like gaffer tape etc.
- using modular equipment that is onsite & doesn't need transport
- sustainable transport for participants, teachers, performers; using public transport.

All impact will be measured via the Green Tools method to ascertain/publish net carbon footprint of WR activities by 2025.

Website: new website with over 2k viewers per week on average. WR regularly promote the projects on the website.

BPA/Snape Maltings: national reach, co-producing offers huge visibility to the event; approximately 50% of the concert audience live outside Suffolk. BPA is a tier 3 Arts Council NPO, & a member of The Suffolk Coast DMO, which is a key marketing partner.

Ipswich Museum & Library will assist via their website. Promotional leaflets & posters posted around the various museum sites in Ipswich bring people's attention. Public libraries reach a strongly diversified audience particularly in terms of ethnicity & age which Wooden Roots are eager to tap into.

BBC Radio Suffolk/Felixstowe Radio & Rendlesham Radio will promote the Wooden Roots Experience on the airwaves. BBC Suffolk's Friday night show with Angelle Joseph brings people together from different cultures and communities and many people know of Wooden Roots through this show which they have been on several times.

Social Media: Wooden Roots reach is over 30k followers across Facebook, TikTok, Instagram, Twitter, Linked In & Google. By using carefully selected stills, composite imagery & video content & by collaborating with trusted partners expect to reach well over 100k targeted audience.

Dance East: will be endorsing public participation at WRE & expect at least 10% student attendance on top of regular ticket sales.

Inclusivity and Relevance

This question relates to our Inclusivity and Relevance Investment Principle.
You can find more about it here

What steps are you taking to make your project inclusive and relevant?

Up to 3500 characters

Inclusivity

- How have you embraced a wide range of diverse influences and practices in bringing your project together?
- How will you make sure the communities you want to reach are able to access your project, and feel included and welcomed?
- What things might stop people experiencing or accessing your project, and how will you address them?

Relevance

- How have you involved the people you want to reach in the design and planning of your project?
- What information or data do you have on the place or community your project involves? How have you used this to shape your project?
- If it's relevant, how will the project team reflect the people and communities your project will reach?

WR delivers & evaluates regular community classes, professional development experiences & partner devised services in the wider Suffolk & South East region.

WRE1 responded to feedback from ACE funded Power of Stories (POW) & Tell Your Story - the WR, LCEP funded, Ipswich Opp Area project, where schls connected with Cultural Education Providers & where WR now delivers ACE funded Levels Up across the region. WRE2 builds on WRE1 & extends the learning journeys of both adult/CYP/regional/national participants & repositions west African music in Suffolk.

WR uses the national curriculum to shape programmes that are dual purpose; responding to the hyperlocal need of schls with high PP cohorts & wider community/national interests; building quality & agency for west African artist led events.

WR ensured this WRE2 programme links to CYP through embedded pedagogy which includes non-verbal communication, stories & rhythm pedagogies; plus practical skills & enrichment from folkloric repertoires. To further develop WRE2 they have collated feedback from these extensive programmes & WRE1.

To remove financial barriers to participation in WRE2 they are delivering work in fully accessible spaces with 40 subsidised & 18 bursary tickets for target cohorts (BIPOC/young/economically deprived), plus 45 free tix to final event to integrate local families & volunteers.

WRE2 is also designed by & for the current drumming communities of UK & Europe (through extensive participant consultation & online platform feedback across Europe). To ensure constant development in WRE2, they have added Sasolo, BPA, ABS & Morabe Music to a consulting group that examines the long term impact & advises on design to ensure it is as responsive & inclusive as possible.

WR are co-producing the wkshp/performance event in order to improve the connectivity of arts & culture networks in Suffolk; extending representation, agency, & opportunities for UK based Black musicians & encouraging internationally respected musicians to the area. The event includes wkshps led by Black & Female drummers from Europe & USA, to integrate international ecologies & attract yng Black drummers into their folkloric traditions. It also platforms Aida Diop for the 1st time in Suffolk & connects her to Dance East for future development.

Working in partnership with BPA offers a social prescription platform for external orgs such as Job Centre Plus, & Ipswich Library & Museum to pipeline communities of interest; BIPOC families (Aspire Black Suffolk), refugees & asylum seekers (Suffolk Music, Museum/Library service), those in socioeconomic deprivation & geographical isolation (schls), underrepresented artists.

BPA are providing full use of their recital buildings & collaborating to fill their 850 seat capacity world famous concert hall; this amplifies the diasporic teachings throughout the wknd. This visibility builds WR outreach to offer more sustainable, multiple entry points to culture for both marginalised & excluded ppl. Working with Aldeburgh Young Musician programme will enhance their

Western style of learning.

Platforming 10+ student drummers, identified during wkshps in the professional Dununba Celebration, centers local CYP in a professional arts experience, raising ambitions & allowing students to develop agency in an iconic & traditional celebration from Guinea, West Africa.

Your planning

You've told us what you want to do and what you hope to achieve. We now need to understand how this will come together to be successfully delivered.

We need to know:

- Your project plan – what you're going to do and when
- Your plans for managing the project – you don't need to have managed a project before, but you need to show you've thought about what you'll do or who will support you
- Who you'll work with and how they'll contribute
- What your budget is and how you've worked it out, including paying everyone fairly
- How you will respond to challenges you might encounter

Project timeline

Project Start Date: 03/06/2024

Project End Date: 30/10/2024

You've told us the start and end date of your project. We need to know what will happen during your project. Creating a timeline shows the key tasks that your project is made up of.

We understand that plans can change over the life of a project, but we need to see that you have a plan in place to deliver your project.

To create the table, click the 'Add new item' icon on the left of the screen to add a project stage. To add more than one stage, use the 'Save and Add another' button.

The table at the bottom of the page will populate with the information you enter about the stages of your project.

Managing your project

What experience do you have of managing a project? I have managed projects like this before

Who will be working with you to deliver your project

For example this might be:

- A team of people (tell us who they are, and about their role and skills:...)
- A particular artist, practitioner or group (tell us: ...)
- A particular specialist(s) (tell us: ...)
- Other organisation(s) as collaborators, coproducers etc (tell us...)
- Other organisation(s) helping you to manage the project (tell us...)

How will they help you to deliver your project?

Up to 1500 characters

- What skills will they bring?
- If some people's involvement isn't confirmed yet, do you know what you'll do if they can't be involved?

With the continued backing of BPA, Suffolk Music service & Sasolo, WR have become an important player in the Suffolk arts ecology.

BPA has provided a great team for 2024;

- Maciej Kassak (producer) will have the overview of the weekend
- Olivia Kersey (producer) is producing the Sona concert
- Kiera Pipe (assistant)
- Fraser Wilson (head of performance & public engagement).

Suffolk Music has offered extra volunteer staff. They were so impressed with how the event was run in 2023 they want to ensure its kept to the same standard or better for 2024 & realise that volunteer staff are pivotal to this continued success.

Elma Glasgow PR & Consulting, founder of Aspire Black Suffolk works on inclusive marketing, global majority community engagement & decolonisation. Elma has won awards such as "Radical Changemaker" for her work which helped to tell more local Black stories while improving representation and engagement.

Lead drum/dance artists:

Aida Diop

Aida is the UK's leading West African Dance teacher & is known for her authentic tuition & sets a the high standard. She has created AiDANCE, a community dance project that has offered weekly traditional dance classes with live drumming in central London for over a decade, as well as an annual ACE funded festival.

Babara Bangoura

From Guinea, Babara is a protege of Grand Master drummer Mamady Keita who globally has been the most influential, & promoted West African drumming.

Income Questions

Tell us more about the match funding for your project
Up to 1500 characters

- How have you worked out the earned income you expect to receive during the project?
- How likely are you to secure your expected income?
- How will your project meet its aims if you receive less income than expected?

The huge suite of support in kind from BPA demonstrates the commitment to the project & the commitment to WR & the mutual development of west African music & culture in Suffolk.

The commissioning fee for the final event from BPA with Sona Jobarteh (the overall expenditure & income from which, is dealt with by BPA & not in this application) recognises WR's central role in the production, visibilisng & curaiton of artists for the event which is essential to build the legacy of both the WR festival events & understanding & contextualising of the artists platformed on the Sunday night finale. Free tix are offered from BPA to 40 vols & supporters of WRE 2, free tix for bursary CYP & subsidised price points for triaged participants & local ppl.

The expected income is a conservative view on festival sales given that the 2023 iteration sold out, the confirmed sales are at point of application & are likely to sell out before the event. In case of failure to hit targets, reserves will be accessed.

Wooden Roots reserves & Rowan Energy sponsorship are in place.

Expenditure table

Please complete the expenditure table below with all your cash expenditure.

Remember:

- Your budget must balance. This means your total expenditure needs to be the same amount as your total income.
- Only include expenditure that will be spent between the start and end date of your project.
- The table already includes any Support in kind you added on the Income screen so you do not need to add this.
- Include example breakdown for expenditure, for example: Artist fee (£300 per day x 30 days) £9,000

Risks and challenges

There are risk and challenges to any project. Our funding can support you to take more risks than you might normally be able to. It may allow you to try new creative or cultural ideas, despite the unknowns and the possible financial or reputational risks.

Taking creative or cultural risk is important because it means that creativity and culture are always growing and changing.

It's important that you've thought about what the risks or challenges are. If they happen, you're then able to manage them and still deliver your project successfully.

If you want to understand more about risk, including the different types of risk, you can have a look at our Practitioners guide to identifying and managing risk information sheet.

What are the main risks and challenges to your project meeting its aims?

Up to 2000 characters

- What could go wrong?
- What might happen differently?

1. Not engaging audiences/participants:

- Gemma Brown is working with current partners Aspire Black Suffolk, BBC Radio Suffolk, Ipswich Library, Ipswich Museum, DanceEAST, & Suffolk County Council to ensure wide coverage for the The Wooden Roots Experience.

- Confirmed pre-sales & WR network liaison means Britten Pears Arts will reach wider audiences through their channels for the performance (& workshop) weekend. Sales for weekend packages have already started; demonstrating considerable interest for the event.

2. Non-diverse audiences at Snape performance event:

- By targeting schls & adult community grps with WR regular drumming enthusiasts & fans, & networks connected to each of the lead drum artists (London/regional/international) through branded digital content, meet the artist pre-event & targeted bespoke FB boosted posts, adverts, PR & radio content via community shows; a huge list of new contacts for Britten Pear Arts is generated to improve/diversify audience demographics at Snape Maltings.

3. Not developing the working practice:

- WR will engage (again) with management mentorship from Sasolo, an experienced arts strategy consultant & producer, to ensure the project is fit for purpose, improvements are noted, & scalability & reach into appropriate communities is reviewed for 2024 & the future.

4. Artists not able to arrive:

- Although WR make sure all visa's & paperwork are current and checked to make sure that all artists are fit & healthy, issues can occur out of their control. WR supporting artists are also qualified to teach & step in when needed. Snape is able to provide a blanket visa for all artists to avoid any issues and costs here. All of the supporting artists are also from West Africa & are competent in teaching authentically. WR will have a pool of approx 10 other artists who could potentially fill in as needed; as well as several other top UK based players who have studied for many years.

What will you do to manage these risks?

Up to 2000 characters

- What plans have you put in place?
- Have these actions worked before?

5. Safeguarding & at risk groups:
- Teams of qualified chaperones will be in place for ages 8-16 attending the event & they will move as a pack, sticking together throughout the event. If a child does not have a chaperone they will have a parent with them. The same will apply for adults at risk who will be attending as part of the bursary programme. WR also have gender specific toilets as well as children's toilets.
6. Visibility/agency & autonomy for marginalised groups; adjustments for neurodiverse/D/deaf/disabled artists & participants/audiences:
- At the 2024 event WR will have an interpreter (French - English) as one of the artists is Guinean & speaks very little English. At the 2023 event WR had a participant with impaired vision who requested to sit next to the workshop leader for best learning results. This same person had a carer who was admitted free to the event so he could be guided to each of his workshops successfully. Having an accessibility officer helps to triage any needs WR may need to make adjustments for prior to the event. If WR were to have deaf students sign up for example, they could consider getting a BSL interpreter - from contingency funding (as yet they haven't).
7. Organisational risks/partner liaison/development/management issues
- This project begins the scaling of WR's policy framework & 'outside eye' approach to its quality, programming & delivery schemes. Working in this way stretches the administrative functions. In order to capture progress WR are working with key stakeholders to ensure the journey to embedded work & possible NPO application in the future is backed by clear aims & ambitions within a framework of artistic policy, KPI setting, theory of change & the 'culture board'. This is costed within the WR admin & offered SIK from the stakeholder board who recognise the mutual benefit. This extra support will steer development more smoothly & enable the framework to grow to match the delivery.

Safeguarding

You acknowledge that safeguarding is important in all projects working with the public. You acknowledge that if your project is funded you must sign up to Terms and Conditions that require you to have appropriate policies and procedures in place – and to put them into effect where needed – to support the safe delivery of the project.

About you / your organisation

We use all of this information in an anonymised way to help us see a clear picture of who we are supporting through Project Grants, and how this might need to change to ensure that, over time, the grants we make reflect the diversity of contemporary England.

We also use some of the information to help us make funding decisions.

Sometimes we prioritise supporting people and organisations who share characteristics that are underrepresented in recipients or beneficiaries of National Lottery Project Grants funding, so it helps us to know the characteristics of the individual or the organisation applying.

We believe that the creativity of each of us should be valued and given the chance to flourish, and every one of us should have access to a remarkable range of high-quality cultural experiences.

Equitable access to arts and culture funding is an important part of this. We believe the spread of who and what we invest in should reflect the makeup of the wider country we live in.

This is about us delivering on our Equality Objective:

We will ensure a more equitable distribution of our investment to improve opportunities for everyone, especially those with under-represented protected characteristics and from disadvantaged socio-economic groups.

We know from our data that Black, Asian and ethnically diverse people and disabled people are underrepresented as recipients and beneficiaries of National Lottery Project Grants funding. If you choose to tell us, information about your ethnicity and whether you identify as a disabled person may be used as part of our decision-making process. (If you're applying as an organisation, we'll use the information you give us about the characteristics of your organisation's board and/or senior management.) We will use this information combined with information about who your project will work with, and all the other information you give us about your project.

We will never share this information with others, except in an anonymised way.

If you're not comfortable sharing any of this information with us for this purpose, you can select 'Prefer not to say'.

Monitoring information

We may use this information to report to the Government or to monitor the different backgrounds of people who receive grants.

We will not use this information to assess your application. For specific programmes, we may use this information as part of our decision-making process. Where this is the case, it will be stated in the Applicant guidance, and we will ask you to ensure this information is up to date before submitting your application.

If you do not know some of the information or you would prefer not to provide it, you can fill in the 'Not known/Prefer not to answer' box. Should a member of senior management also sit on your board/council, please only count them once.

4. Subsidy Control

The Subsidy Control rules are the new legal requirements that apply to the award of subsidies in the United Kingdom with effect from 11pm 31 December 2020. They have largely replaced EU State aid rules.

Where a "Subsidy" is present as per the definition of subsidy set out in the Subsidy Control Act 2022 ("the Act") then it is necessary for the award to comply with requirements set out in the Trade and Cooperation Agreement with the EU (and in due course those further requirements set out in the Act).

A "Subsidy" only exists when the following cumulative characteristics are present (only tick those that apply):

• financial assistance which is given, directly or indirectly, from public resources by a public authority; and

• confers an economic advantage on one or more enterprises; and

• is specific, that is, is such that it benefits one or more enterprises over one or more other enterprises with respect to the production of goods or the provision of services; and

- has, or is capable of having, an effect on —
 - (i) competition or investment within the United Kingdom,
 - (ii) trade between the United Kingdom and a country or territory outside the United Kingdom, or
 - (iii) investment as between the United Kingdom and a country or territory outside the United Kingdom.

If awarded, do you believe that your request for public funding meets all the necessary criteria to be classed as a "Subsidy"? No

Where a "Subsidy" is declared you will be required to provide further information to establish whether the "Subsidy" would be considered lawful.

5. Tick the relevant box if any person involved in the project or writing the application:

I am happy to be contacted by Arts Council England, or by a third-party organisation on behalf of Arts Council England, for feedback to help evaluate the programme.

2.2. Such a decision may take the form of a resolution in writing, where each eligible director has signed one or more copies of it, or to which each eligible director has otherwise indicated agreement in writing.

4. Quorum

4.2. If there is only one eligible director, due to a director's conflict, the quorum for such a meeting shall be one.

- a. to appoint further directors; or
- b. to call a general meeting so as to enable the shareholders to appoint other directors.

5. Casting vote

If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal at a meeting of directors are equal, the chairman or other director chairing the meeting shall have a casting vote (unless the chairman or other director is not an eligible director for the purpose of the meeting – in which case, this clause 5 shall not apply).

6. Transactions or other arrangements with the Company

Subject to sections 177(5) and 177(6) and sections 182(5) and 182(6) of the Act and provided they have declared the nature and extent of their interest in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Acts, a director who is in any way, whether directly or indirectly, interested in an existing or proposed transaction or arrangement with the company:

- a. may be a party to, or otherwise interested in, any transaction or arrangement with the company or in which the company is otherwise (directly or indirectly) interested;

- c. shall be entitled to vote at a meeting of directors (or of a committee of the directors) or participate in any unanimous decision, in respect of such contract or proposed contract in which they are interested;
- d. may act by themselves or their firm in a professional capacity for the company (otherwise than as auditor) and they or their firm shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if they were not a director;
- e. may be a director or other officer of, or employed by, or a party to a transaction or arrangement with, or otherwise interested in, any body corporate in which the company is otherwise (directly or indirectly) interested; and
- f. shall not, save as they may otherwise agree, be accountable to the company for any benefit which they (or a person connected with them (as defined in section 252 of the Act)) derives from any such contract, transaction or arrangement or from any such office or employment or from any interest in any such body corporate and no such contract, transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the grounds of any such interest or benefit nor shall the receipt of any such remuneration or other benefit constitute a breach of their duty under section 176 of the Act.

7. Directors' conflicts of interest

7.1. The directors may, in accordance with the requirements set out in this article, authorise any matter or situation proposed to them by any director which would, if not authorised, involve a director breaching their duty under section 175 of the Act to avoid conflicts of interest (Conflict).

7.2. Any authorisation under this article will be effective only if:

- a. the matter in question shall have been proposed by any director for consideration at a meeting of directors in the same way that any other matter may be proposed to the directors under the provisions of these Articles or in such other manner as the directors may determine;

- b. any requirement as to the quorum at the meeting of the directors at which the matter is considered is met without counting the director in question; and
- c. the matter was agreed to without their voting or would have been agreed to if their vote had not been counted.

7.3. Any authorisation of a Conflict under this article may (whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently):

- a. extend to any actual or potential conflict of interest that may reasonably be expected to arise out of the matter so authorised;
- b. be subject to such terms and for such duration, or impose such limits or conditions as the directors may determine; and
- c. be terminated or varied by the directors at any time.

This will not affect anything done by the director prior to such termination or variation in accordance with the terms of the authorisation.

7.4. In authorising a Conflict, the directors may decide (whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently) that if a director has obtained any information through their involvement in the Conflict otherwise than as a director of the Company and in respect of which they owe a duty of confidentiality to another person, the director is under no obligation to:

- a. disclose such information to the directors or to any director or other officer or employee of the company; or
- b. use or apply any such information in performing their duties as a director, where to do so would amount to a breach of that confidence.

7.5. Where the directors authorise a Conflict, they may (whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently) provide, without limitation, that the director:

- a. is excluded from discussions (whether at meetings of directors or otherwise) related to the Conflict;
- b. is not given any documents or other information relating to the Conflict; and
- c. may or may not vote (or may or may not be counted in the quorum) at any future meeting of directors in relation to any resolution relating to the Conflict.

7.6. Where the directors authorise a Conflict:

- a. the director will be obliged to conduct themselves in accordance with any terms imposed by the directors in relation to the Conflict; and
- b. the director will not infringe any duty they owe to the company by virtue of sections 171 to 177 of the Act provided they act in accordance with such terms, limits and conditions (if any) as the directors impose in respect of its authorisation.

7.7. A director is not required, by reason of being a director (or because of the fiduciary relationship established by reason of being a director), to account to the Company for any remuneration, profit or other benefit that they derive from or in connection with a relationship involving a Conflict that has been authorised by the directors or by the Company in general meeting (subject in each case to any terms, limits or conditions attaching to that authorisation) and no contract shall be liable to be avoided on such grounds.

8. Number of directors

8.1. Unless otherwise determined by ordinary resolution, the number of directors (other than alternate directors) shall not be subject to any maximum but shall not be less than one.

8.2. If and for so long as there is a sole director:

- a. the sole director may exercise all the powers conferred on the directors by the Articles and shall do so by written resolution under their hand; and
- b. Article 4 shall not apply to the Company.

9. Appointment of directors

In any case where, as a result of death or bankruptcy, the company has no shareholders and no directors, the transmittee(s) of the last shareholder to have died or to have a bankruptcy order made against them (as the case may be) have the right, by notice in writing, to appoint a natural person (including a transmittee who is a natural person), who is willing to act and is permitted to do so, to be a director .

10. Appointment and removal of alternate directors

Dear Sir/Madam

Support for "Wooden Roots Experience Round 2" funding bid application for 2024

Suffolk Music Education Hub (Suffolk County Music Service as Lead) is whole-heartedly adding its support for Wooden Roots' bid application for the event 'Wooden Roots Experience Round 2'.

Wooden Roots continues to be a unique voice within Suffolk and the Hub would like to see its musical authenticity and inspirational delivery continue to grow and offer opportunities to the young people of Suffolk and throughout our wider musical community. Following the very successful 'Wooden Roots Experience' weekend in 2023, the chance to develop this event further in 2024 and potentially reach new audiences is extremely important for the musical offer in Suffolk. The event in August 2023 was fabulous to be part of and the Hub was very proud of all it achieved – bringing together a large number of wonderfully diverse people with a myriad of musical experiences, and making the music-making and dancing opportunities accessible for all.

The success of the event in 2023 shows there is considerable appetite for this delivery within the locality and credit goes to Wooden Roots for delivering such an engaging and inclusive event.

For 3 delivery partners from within the Hub to be actively engaged in it as well, displays exactly the partnership working that we want to build on in our region. 'Round 2', in August 2024, would give us exactly this opportunity.

As the Lead organisation in the Suffolk Music Hub, Suffolk County Music Service will be delighted to provide 'in kind' support for this event by supplying instruments and staffing support and look forward to the development and delivery of this project.

Yours faithfully,

Letter of Support: Wooden Roots

To whom it may concern,

We are delighted to write in support of Wooden Roots' funding application for the 2024 Wooden Roots Experience.

This will be the second such event to take place here at Snape Maltings. The first, in August 2023, was a big bold brave happening which grew from their inspired imagination and which was delivered very successfully. It brought many people to Snape for the first time for an exceptional artistic experience, and feedback from audiences and participants showed the benefit of staging a hands-on participative event in the heart of a world-famous established music venue. The event was delivered in the kind and collaborative way that we have come to expect from our much-valued partners, and it further advanced our shared mission of making music useful, vital, and inspiring for people here in this corner of East Suffolk and beyond.

Wooden Roots brings its international reputation and artistic network to the service of our local and hyperlocal community here in East Anglia – an area of patchy arts provision, significant deprivation caused by rurality and inequality, and much need. Their journey from Los Angeles to Rendlesham makes perfect sense in the context of their commitment to community-building, building from the grassroots up, and entrepreneurial dedication to going where the need and the demand is greatest. They have been leading members of Aspire Black Suffolk, a number of Local Cultural Education Partnerships, and other groups that aim to increase connectivity and collaboration here. As musical activists who are determined to make music useful to the people around them, their mission closely mirrors ours at Britten Pears Arts, and so it is a pleasure for us to count them as close and committed strategic partners for both audience and artistic development.

In writing last year's letter of support I referred to Britten Pears Arts and Wooden Roots building together "a sustainable new audience segment that sees East Suffolk as a place where music of the African diaspora is not just alive and thriving but also embedded and ambitious". Thanks to the partnership this is still very much the case: it is a thriving element of our programme. The performance by Seckou Keita, Suntou Susso, and Sidiki Dembele which concluded the first Wooden Roots Experience sold out weeks ahead and was a once-in-a-lifetime gig. Our increasing confidence in this field sees us now programming three African-led concerts into Summer at Snape 2024, including the globally renowned Sona Jobarteh. We are deeply grateful to Wooden Roots for their support and championing of this vital strand of audience development.

This second Wooden Roots Experience builds on the exceptional experience of the first, adding dance as a second artform with a significant presence, expanding the number of places available, and embracing more of our site to create what will be a holistic experience for 200 participants, many of whom we expect to be first-time attendees at Britten Pears Arts. We are firmly committed to working with and supporting Wooden Roots in their ambitions for 2024. They are an ideal partner in terms of audience development and musical inclusion. We are providing a range of in-kind and subsidised support for the event, including venue hire at our cheapest "community" rate, a range of technical and logistics support, and preferential rates for on-site accommodation.

BRITTENPEARS ARTS

Of course we continue also to plan beyond the summer, aspiring that first-time visitors to Snape Maltings through the Wooden Roots Experience return for other parts of our programming, that they feel ownership of our spaces, and that they develop a sense of East Suffolk as a place where musics of all kinds are alive and thriving, and can be experienced and created with authenticity, integrity, and immense satisfaction.

For all that Wooden Roots brings to this community and this place, and for the vision and ambition of this second Wooden Roots Experience, we commend their application and the mission that it represents very highly.

Please contact us if you require any further information.
