

Introduction

National Lottery Project Grants

We will ask you questions about different parts of your activity:

- Some basic details about your project – when it's happening, what it's called
- What you want to do, why, and what you want it to achieve
- Who your project will engage, and how they'll engage with it
- How you will manage the project
- The budget for the project

We will use the information you give us in this application to decide whether we will offer you a grant.

The first few screens are autofilled with information you have already provided in your applicant profile. If you need to make any amendments, go back to the 'Applicants' section and edit your applicant profile.

Throughout Grantium, any questions marked with an asterisk (*) must be answered otherwise you won't be able to submit your form.

All our text boxes have a character limit. Please stick to this character limit as any additional text won't be saved.

Please note that currently decisions for National Lottery Project Grants applications for up to £30,000 will take up to 9 weeks. Decisions for National Lottery Project Grants applications for £30,000 and over will take up to 14 weeks.

Feasibility and risk

This section helps us to understand how you will successfully deliver your project.

We need to know your plans for managing the project, what your budget is and how you will respond to any risks or challenges.

You don't need to have managed a project before, but you need to be able to demonstrate that you have given consideration to how you will manage the project, the budget, and any risks/challenges, and that you or your project partners have the skills to ensure it is delivered successfully.

When we look at your answers to the questions in this section we will think about:

- whether the budget is appropriate for the scale and type of activity?
- how appropriate are the areas of income and spending?
- whether all items in the budget are relevant and reasonable [are fees or wages appropriate to the context? Have quotes for assets/equipment been appropriately researched for any purchases?]
- whether the activity is attracting income from other sources; - is any other income confirmed? If not, are your potential income sources realistic?
- if appropriate financial controls are in place - Do you or the people you're working with have the necessary skills to manage the budget?
- if the activity is realistic and well-planned, and if you have demonstrated that you or the people you are working with are able to deliver the project

In recognition of ADX's rise to prominence in the national calendar, this year The Place are co-producing; offering a confirmed £2000 fee, free use of the theatre space & studio space plus access to their extensive direct marketing & PR reach.

This amounts to a substantial £6116 of confirmed revenue & support in kind. The extensive reach of The Place means the capacity for audience development is increased & establishes ADX firmly as the leading African Diasporic dance conference in the UK.

A further offer to split the door take improves ADX's financial prospects, with a conservative estimate & 50% portion used to calculate a risk free approach to programming.

Expected income from:

- Wkshps is based on 12 previous iterations & is a very confident prediction of £1790 - calculated as described in breakdown
- T Shirt sales (Stock of 24 x @£15 each) £360.

SIK, confirmed:

- Theatre at The Place - free use for performance & all tech: £3,500.00
- Studio space - free use for launch & wkshps: £616.00.

Expenditure questions

How have you worked out the costs of the artistic spending included in your budget?

Up to 1500 characters

Budget growth:

- 2023 sees the showcase programme sustained at a larger capacity to accommodate demand with larger platform at The Place & accompanying costs
- Additional professional & amateur focused wkshps are programmed to accommodate the interest from dance schools & YP established by piloting scholarship programme over the last 2 yrs
- Video/photographer support digital showcase, broadcast & in show digital submissions edit process
- Launch event with discussion & 2022 documentary/ short film show to support the networking & embedding of traditional/modern African dance in the London Black theatre/dance/arts ecology.
- ADX has evolved greatly over the last 12 years & Carolyn has adapted her accountancy accordingly
- Salaries for teachers, performers & musicians have been based on a combination of 12 yrs agreed rates & industry standards
- Flights, diems & accommodation all based on internet quotes & 2023 prices for comparable costs in ADX 2022
- Each musician & dancer has agreed the fee in advance & will be contracted at that rate, paid in arrears as per standard invoicing procedures of 28 days.

The artist's programming has developed organically, now able to attract the best musicians & dancers from the Diaspora to London for the annual symposium. Fees have been standardised & are representative values for talented artists. All figures have been further calibrated against industry norms.

How have you worked out the costs of making your work accessible included in your budget?

Up to 1500 characters

Scholarship for students studying dance; 6 @£150 each - dance students from across the devolved triage network are invited to the entire symposium & gifted entrance to the show as well as the student focused wkshps each day. This enables yng ppl to participate fully - in return they will write a short piece for the evaluation to investigate their learning journey.

How have you worked out the costs of developing your organisation included in your budget?

Up to 1500 characters

Young dancers emerging from London UK dance colleges are able to explore some of their first professional contracts with ADX. The resident choreographer (David Blake) & other new & returning artists deliver new choreographies working with these dancers to create real opportunities for young dancers, often exploring their own dance heritage (see attached documentary). This builds stability at the emergent end of the ecology & enables young black dancers to work with high profile black choreographers.

- Digital submissions - 2 @ £500; flat rate paid to new choreographers from international parts of the Diaspora or from Africa itself, bring incredible new pieces to the UK ecology.

-20 Dancers performing live 1 show @£80 each

-10 Young dancers performance @£75 each (mentoring programme performances e.g. Artistry Yth +1)

-Mentoring - one to one & group mentors; 2 ppl, 15hrs x 2 grps @£30 per hour.

How have you worked out the costs of marketing and developing audiences included in your budget?

Up to 1500 characters

PR costs are largely removed due to the co-production with The Place. However the budget accommodates:

- Design Artwork Fliers @£225 (based on prior usage)

- Social Media promotion @£500

- Timeout promo - direct quote @£500.

How have you worked out the costs of expenditure listed as 'other' in your budget?

Up to 1500 characters

Contingency at a conservative £1000 as costings based on 12 yrs of experience.

How much of your total project budget is being spent on International costs (such as visas, carnets, freight, travel, accommodation, per diems)? £10,800

What experience do you have of managing a project budget of this size? I have managed a project budget of this size or larger before

Risks and challenges

What are the main risks and challenges to your project meeting its aims?
What will you do to manage these risks?

Up to 1500 characters

Transition to new venue & co-production:

- Carolyn Lily has managed the budget for ADX for the last 12 yrs inc. 2017-22 all funded by the Arts Council. Carolyn has an MBA in business administration & has managed the accounts & production for all the workshops & events she has produced or promoted in the last 20 years, both here & abroad. She has managed many projects other than ADX with large scale budgets. The transition to a co-production for the showcase & the inclusion of specific wkshps for young people, the panel selection for international / local submissions, & the launch night event are all elements that have emerged in a timely, organic fashion & respond to demand.

- The event management time is well costed & is supported by an experienced assistant & panel, The Place offer a new horizon for FOH & marketing & bring all the knowledge & experience of delivering large scale productions for many yrs.

Managing the digital content & partnerships:

- In 2018 Carolyn added confirmed partner schools bringing a massive new level of support, marketing & student involvement. This has led to the scholarship scheme.

- Working with Ada Cotton who specialises in storytelling for the screen enables the digital submission elements of the showcase to be well managed, & offer a valuable legacy asset to both ADX & the emergent artists submitting work

- Mentorship for new companies to appear for the 1st time is offered by highly experienced choreographic mentors.

Delivering the Outcomes

Your Project and the Outcomes

Our strategy sets out three outcomes; Creative People, Cultural Communities and A Creative and Cultural Country. We do not expect every project to address all three outcomes, but we do want projects to align to at least one and to set out in detail how particular components are being addressed.

You can read about our three outcomes here: <https://www.artscouncil.org.uk/outcomes-0>

When we look at your answers to the questions in this section, where relevant we will think about:

- How your project is supporting people at all stages of their lives to design, develop and increase their participation in high quality creative activities
- If your project focuses on children and young people:
 - If your project reaches families from a wide range of backgrounds
 - If you are widening and improving opportunities for children and young people to take part in creative activities outside schools
 - if your project is supporting children and young people to develop their creative skills and potential
- If you are working with communities to better understand and respond to their needs and interests, resulting in increased cultural engagement and the wide range of social benefits it brings
- If your project is exploring new types of creative practice, new forms of cultural content and new ways of reaching new and existing audiences and participants
- If you are collaborating with other cultural organisations and/or with the commercial creative industries and/or with further and higher education that focuses on innovation, research and development and training, especially in relation to the use of new technologies
- If your project is strengthening the international connections of cultural organisations and creative and cultural practitioners, including co-production and touring
- If your project is bringing world-class culture to audiences in England
- If your project helps to ensure people have opportunities to sustain their careers and fulfil their potential in the creative industries, especially those who are currently under-represented
- If your project is connecting people and places, nationally and internationally

How will your project contribute to the delivery of at least one of our Outcomes, including which, if any, of the Outcome components?

A Creative and Cultural Country: England's cultural sector is innovative, collaborative and international, Cultural Communities: Villages, towns and cities thrive through a collaborative approach to culture, Creative People: Everyone can develop and express creativity throughout their life

- International submissions: each iteration introduces digital content from 2 dance artists living on the African continent, edited & replatformed by the ADX team, an exciting opportunity to blend continental & Diasporic work. Pieces are shown during the showcase. Hugely successful in 2021/22
- Live showcase event; produced in collaboration with The Place reaches new audiences & builds further opportunities for leading & emergent BIPOC dancers/choreographers by increasing the visibility of the event
- As the wkshps now support professional & student level - tickets are sold across Europe & the UK attracting ever wider audiences to the UK dance scene
- Working with international artists coming to the UK, connects ADX to current African, American & European trends & attracts a network of artists' followers & students. This builds international visibility for the event
- ADX digital submission panel curate work from an open call (for mentored submission to perform) to a large network of traditional & modern African / diasporic choreographers formed over 12 yrs, & the wider network of dancers & artists attracted by strong social media profiling for the event. This builds innovative, cross-modality pipelines for choreographers/dancers to work internationally.

When we look at your answers to the questions in this section, where relevant, we will think about:

- if the activity increases opportunities for people who don't currently get involved in the creativity and culture or are involved a little in creative and cultural activity
- if the activity increases opportunities for people already taking part in creative and cultural activity
- if plans to market the activity to audiences are well-defined, and are likely to achieve your aims
- if there is no immediate opportunity to involve people (for example, research and development), whether there is potential for the public to get involved in the future; and
- If you are you taking steps to improve the environmental responsibility of your project

All applicants need to complete the section on Inclusivity and Relevance.

Inclusivity and Relevance

This Investment Principle is about England's diversity being fully reflected in the organisations and individuals we support and the culture they produce through:

Communities

- Tell us who you want to reach with this project, how you have identified them, and how they have been involved in the planning and/or creative process
- Tell us about the steps you will take to make sure your project is open and accessible to people within the communities you plan to work with

Up to 1500 characters

12 yrs of open forum, discussion panels, evaluation & networking has informed & continuously redefined ADX's output; it is built on the advice & interaction of:

- professional/community dancers
- network of triaged dance schools
- International panel of experts (ADX board)
- audience/community feedback.

This year's Q&A forum will focus on diversification & inclusion of new modalities under the Diasporic umbrella in direct response to 2022 feedback to extend to South/Latin American modalities. It will further include the development of a mentoring scheme - in response to dancer feedback; in the showcase, dancers perform with renowned choreographers & will now have the chance to perform their own work under their mentorship.

ADX continues to tackle under representation by articulating the impact of Black dance to empower modern protagonists. Communities of interest developed over 12 yrs of programming ensures accessibility to:

- Black professional dancers in modern & traditional genres in choreography, performance & participatory roles
- Emergent dancers from colleges across the UK
- Amateur dancers, eg. those interested in Afro fusion, Afrobeat - exploring & finding more about the diasporic genres that grew from traditional styles through classes with international dancers from the Diaspora
- Black consumers of culture in the metropolitan area, accessed through support from The Place.

Workforce

- If you're engaging a team of people to work on your project, or are working in partnership with other individuals or organisations, tell us:
- How you will ensure they reflect the communities you wish to reach
- How you will ensure access to opportunities are open and accessible
- If you're not working with anyone else on your project you should explain why and consider how working with others would help you to reflect the communities you wish to reach.

ADX is entirely black led, produced & performed. It creates a direct line from Africa to the Diaspora by platforming digital submissions from international artists. ADX is:

- Collaborating with The Place to develop the production standard & ability to attract new audiences whilst evolving the ADX platform to a level commensurate with classical dance traditions
- Showing forms that have a linear relationship - from Africa to the Caribbean & South America
- Introducing new modalities & teachers who celebrate folkloric customs, & encourage inclusivity, often with forms that accommodate older, less able & diverse bodies & abilities
- Using LGBTQ+ teachers; ADX supports the integration of minority bodies into a black space, fighting the impact of intersectionality
- Reaching Black cultural consumers, attracted through connections with Black Theatre Awards & new networking launch event; showcasing black cultural excellence & reaching into theatre & wider performance ecologies
- Hosting a symposium that unites 4 leading BIPOC choreographers with dancers at every stage of their career.

The open call for choreography commissions from emerging artists is supported by ADX & publicised by The Place & the Board. Artists have been selected for excellence & to showcase the breadth of work based on Ancestral Rhythms, supporting West African - Latin American transposed heritage.

- Articulating (documentary/open call/commissions) & improving (showcase/Q&A/networking) the challenges faced by BIPOC dance culture inc. erasure, theft, cultural othering & limited career pipelines leading to roles that tokenise the immense impact of the African dance Diaspora on all modern dance forms
- Breaking barriers to participation through scholarships & affordable workshops
- Improving visibility for older, Black, female directors - Carolyn Lilly
- An engaged network of 26 dance schools ensures scholarship applications from students outside of London
- Panel curation / launch event discussions: a spotlight on musicians / music as an integrated aspect of understanding the evolution of traditional African dance cultures ensures the work is contextualised in an international spectrum of development.

ADX has begun a journey with environmental monitoring; in 2023 ADX will:

- create guidance for participants regarding travel, inc. ideas to improve carbon footprint inc. links to local travel networks
- measure the impact of international travel (flights etc) & investigate carbon offsetting for future iterations.

ADX is planning to capture & modify participation & performer behaviour in the 2023 iteration, & improve company knowledge by:

- investigating Creative Green resources & examining the Creative Green certification framework
- investigating Arts Council England Environmental reporting methodology.

ADX will aim to have in place by 2025:

- sustainable methods of energy resource for digital submission or equivalent offsetting
- sustainable transport for participants, teachers, performers; using public transport & working with venues who have sustainability policies & checks.

All impact will be eventually be measured via the Green Tools method to ascertain net carbon footprint of ADX activities by 2025.

ADX measures the impact of each iteration on its key stakeholder communities; participants, peers(artists) & partners (The Place/Dance Schls). It investigates each year, new ways to articulate the BIPOC dance experience for black dancers/audiences/choreographers.

This will be considered through:

- Review of Panel commissions of short intro pieces from each new choreographic company
- Reviews from scholarship students of their learning journey
- Feedback from participants & audiences (digital/F2F)
- Q&A document
- Docu short & showcase film (including edited digital submissions).

Growth/impact statements will be issued to articulate:

- Yng dancers - access & pipelines
- Emergent dancers - futures & other offers received
- Choreographers - international connectivity & visibility.

Evaluation is the heart of ADX & Carolyn redesigns each year's programme to respond to the feedback. The docu shorts act as a library of change & evolution for the symposium.

The impact/feedback of the digital submission / open call, wkshps & showcases will be considered through filmed, anecdotal comments & experiences, curated & added as a visual narrative to the docu short.

Digital feedback forms are downloadable from a hyperlink on the webpage & FB page.

Co-production with The Place, cross sector advocacy (via Black British Theatre network) & hybrid PR from The Place strengthens the sustained ambition of ADX to be the leading symposium for African Diasporic dance & cultural education, performance & experience in the UK. Platforming the highest calibre of international artists, & supported by the UK's finest sectorial dance & music artists ADX are:

- Re-positioning the symposium by collaborating with The Place - first fee paying host partner, demonstrating growth curve of the event
- Collaborating with international dance artists to continue to foreground the democratisation of Diasporic arts & align global dance pedagogy with classical traditions & associate audiences
- Embedding a 2 fold Bursary Programme - scholarships with extended, devolved triage & mentoring for emergent local dance companies which for the scholars includes travel, per diem & carer/parent expenses. Ensuring access for the most marginalised, but talented non-metropolitan dancers.

British based dance artists are supported by the dispelling of tropes associated with BIPOC dance; othering & tokenism are minimised as ADX pioneers the international connectivity & ergo future pipelines for producers, choreographers & performers are improved with clearer EDI optics informing future programming.

- Maintain a partners network of referral schools for the scholarship programme
- Develop 4+ new choreography & performance pieces
- Platform 2 new pieces via digital in the showcase & introduce new work to the UK
- Encourage dancers outside the London community to engage & audiences to approach for the first time (feedback forms)
- Sustain, post Covid, the work of world class artists alongside emergent international artists
- 6 yng associates awarded scholarships
- Digital version of the event archived
