Your project

What do we mean by 'project'? For us, a project is something that has:

- A start and end date
- Clear things you want to achieve in that time
- Ways for people to experience or take part in creativity or culture (either as part of the project or in the future)

This section of the application form helps us to understand what you want to do.

It allows you to think about how your project could help to bring creativity and culture to people in England.

When is your project going to happen?
Tell us the start and end dates for your project.

Remember:

- To allow enough time to deliver all the stages of your project
- The dates you give us here should cover the whole project period you're applying for
- We need eight weeks to process applications for £30,000 and under, your start date must be more than eight weeks from the date you submit your application
- To allow enough time for us to make a payment before your start date, if your application is funded

Project start date: 27/09/2024

Project end date: 28/03/2025

Responding to any Time limited priorities

Your project is responding to the following Time limited priority:

Selected priority: - Not applying against any Time Limited Priority -

At a glance

In your own words, give a short, clear overview of your project:

Up to 500 characters

- Be as clear as you can about what you want to do using Project Grants funding
- It's better if this is written as a full paragraph
- It will be available to the public on our website if your application is funded.

The Unknown Soldier is a fully developed interdisciplinary/dance performance piece; examining contributions of Black British War veterans who fought in WW1 & WW2. The project now: formalises the development of (Black focused) YP curriculums for young/aspiring performers in partnership with Black-E, & Peckham Theatre (Young Gifted & Black season), & tours UK theatres, arts venues, the RAF museum (re: Remembrance Sunday) & Swiss Cottage Library (re: Black History Month).

If you had to explain the focus of your project to someone, what single words or short phrase would you use?

Up to 100 characters

- You can be as broad or as specific as you like; it's your project
- You might think about this as your project's 'key words' or 'tags'
- Use a maximum of 5 key words or short phrases
- We won't use this response when deciding which applications to fund. It's so we can learn from how you see your project.
- Examples could be: singing; photography; digital work in libraries; South Asian dance; participatory arts; children's theatre; interactive gaming; dynamic collections work; changing business models; environmental theme; writing with older people; etc

Black British history; Caribbean/African UK war veterans; dance performance; theatre touring/wkshps

Our Strategy, Let's Create

Let's Create explains how we want our funding to make a difference. It includes three Outcomes. These Outcomes are what we want to achieve through the projects we fund, so together we can make a difference.

You don't need to read our Strategy to make an application for £30,000 and under.

Telling us what your project focuses on helps us to decide which of the Outcomes your project will make a difference towards.

What does your project mainly focus on?

- this gives us a good sense of how you see your project
- you need to select only one option
- your project may include activity to do with more than one option; we want to know where you feel the main focus is
- the descriptions below are a guide to help you decide
- don't worry if you're not sure – we'll check we agree with the option you've selected when we look at your application

My project is about the public taking part

My project is about the public taking part in creative activity, either during the project or in the future.

- This means a project that gives the public the opportunity to take an active part in creative activity.
- An active part might be making, learning or contributing to creating something.
- The public includes anyone who isn't working professionally in the cultural sector, and covers all ages from early years to older people.
- Examples could be delivering workshops to the public, the public participating in an event or teaching the public..
- People might be trying something for the first time, or developing their skills and experience.
- It could be that you're developing workshop content that you'll deliver to the public in the future.
- This isn't about the public attending an event as an audience member or visitor to an exhibition.

This matches our Outcome 1: Creative People

My project is about making a difference to a place or community

My project is about making a difference to a place or community, either during the project or in the future.

- This means working in a way that is focused on a specific place or community.
- Often working in a place will mean working with other partners in that place to shape and deliver a project.
- Projects could involve making, showing or performing work that responds to what a particular community is interested in.
- Examples could include a locally developed cultural festival, engaging the community in research and development for a new programme, work or event, or touring an exhibition with support from local partners.
- Projects might connect to or help to deliver existing local strategies or support local partnerships.
- It could also mean touring work into places where there is local demand. .

This matches our Outcome 2: Cultural Communities

My project is about developing professional creative or cultural practice

My project is about developing professional creative or cultural practice, either during the project or in the future.

X

- This means activity which makes a difference to an individual's, group's, or organisation's creative or cultural practice, or a difference to the wider cultural sector. Examples could be:
- Developing or showing new work or new ideas, including with partners from inside or outside the cultural sector
- Using new technologies to create or distribute work.
- Developing new skills to help those at the beginning of their careers or to help others sustain careers
- Bringing work, publications or collections from abroad to audiences in England.
- Developing international partnerships to do research or to create and present new work

This matches our Outcome 3: A Creative and Cultural Country

Alison Ray Dance Company (ARD) has fully developed The Unknown Soldier (TUS); a dance performance that examines the contributions of Black British war veterans who fought in WW1 & 2; highlighting the often-forgotten women who served.

Having now fully-developed TUS (through 3 successful NLPG grants), ARD delivers a Black History Month touring programme, to dev:

- the reach of TUS; diversifying audiences with a focus on engaging the Black/military communities that TUS represents
- a proof of concept modular curriculum for young/aspiring performers; starting/inspiring creative careers with a focus on the UK's Black/YP.

ARD is a Black British dance company, lead by female choreographer/dancer Alison Ray. Forced to forge their own pathway in a white-dominant, elitist ecology, ARD's existence & work challenge whitewashed versions of history that erase the Black experience. They now leverage their years of establishing ARD's voice, to dev early-career opps for Black/YP.

ARD delivers workshops & performances nationally, inc:

- 2 YP programmes with Black-E Theatre, Liverpool, & Theatre Peckham (yng gifted & black season); integrating YP into the curtain raiser for TUS live performances, & formally developing a modular curriculum for future nationwide delivery
- an opening performance for a Swiss Cottage Library installation; exhibiting images of Black servicemen/women who served in WW1 & 2
- intro workshops on the Black war veterans with CYP at: St George's Primary (Enfield), Oak Hill Primary, & Thorpe Hall Primary schools
- The Library at Willesden Green (Priority Place); combatting socio-economic barriers to participation for a demographically relevant area through a free/hyperlocal show
- the RAF Museum; in commemoration of Remembrance Sunday
- Albany Theatre, Coventry
- Hat Factory Arts Centre, Luton; one of the UK's most ethnically diverse places
- Trinity Theatre, Bristol; as part of their BHM programme

Longitudinally, ARD's YP curriculum will be delivered in collab with arts orgs nationwide; supporting Black/YP to:

- engage in professional dev opps; contextualising the life of a working performer through immersion
- learn/perform international, non-normative Black pedagogies (Guinean Ballet, Lindy Hop, Afrobeat etc.) that directly reflect & contextualise Black heritage & culture; diversifying the ideologies of what dance styles are considered respectable/professional
- perform in professional settings, co-platformed with ARD's world-class professionals; offering experience that can be leveraged when pursuing further opps.

The dev of YP programmes alongside TUA shows extends ARD's legacy; as an active representation for marginalised artists; supporting the next generation to see themselves in professional, Black-created/performed stage contexts.

What's led you or your organisation to do this project now?

Up to 1500 characters

- What ideas or experiences have led you or your organisation to this point?
- Is this project helping you or your organisation learn or try new things?
- If you've done something similar before, how is this different?
- You can write this in full paragraphs or in bullet points

Alison Ray is a professional choreographer, movement director, director, teacher & lecturer. She:
-completed her MA of Choreography at the Laban Center of Movement & Dance (now Trinity Laban Conservatoire of Music and Dance)
-has worked professionally for various choreographers from Europe, Africa and the UK, inc: Peter Badejo (OBE), Koffi Koko, George Momboye, Maurice Bejart, Craig Revel Horwood (for Eurodisney's "Legend of the Lion King" first cast.)
-orchestrates schl assemblies & workshops to foster greater curiosity for the Black British experience in the UK
-established Alison Ray Dance Company in 2017.

Between 2020 - 2023, through 3 successful NLPG grants, ARD has developed a full-hour multi-disciplinary/dance performance show; The Unknown Soldier. She worked in collaboration with Donald Campbell, Black war veteran, & CEO of 'The Forgotten Generations' charity; accounting stories of veterans who served in WW1 & 2. The show has impacted thousands of audience members, performed nationally, in partnership with metropolitan & rural venues, inc: Bernie Grant Theatre, Tacchi Morris Arts Centre, & Army @ The Fringe.

ARD now further-develops TUS audiences in a BHM touring prgrmme, & develops a proof of concept (in collaboration with Black-E, & Peckham Theatres) for an immersive CYP prgrmme; "passing the torch" by upskilling & educating the next generation of aspiring artists; creating an uptick towards ACE's Outcomes; starting/sustaining creative careers.

ARD systemically disrupts white/colonial norms in the arts; developing:
-TUS' audiences; furthering the reach of a vital show that illuminates forgotten/distorted Black histories
-a modular curriculum that upskills Black/YP in the arts/performance sector.

KPIs include:

- # of venues signing to re-book TUS for future programming, &/or providing referrals
- quality & quantity of social media engagement/reviews/testimonials provided to support TUS' online presence
- # of new followers on social media / visitors to ARD's website
- # of PR engagements aligned by agent
- # of YP engaged in the curriculum demonstrating/reporting an increase in creative & performance skills, &/or interest in pursuing creative careers
- # of YP eager for ARD to return with future iterations of the YP prgrmme
- cast cohesion in performances & wkshps
- # of schools providing referrals &/or positive testimonials for future promo purposes

ARD will:

- form a stakeholder board of core team, & peers; holding regular meetings throughout the process to track the project's progression, & key milestones
- hold regular team meetings to nurture cohesion among the cast & give room to internally reflect
- host zoom calls with YP & theatre teams at Black-E & Peckham; factoring feedback into the future-dev of the YP curriculum
- capture written & verbal feedback from partners
- document the project (photo & video) for reflection & future-promo purposes.

Inclusivity and Relevance

What steps are you taking to make your project inclusive and relevant?

Up to 3000 characters

Inclusivity

- How will you make sure the communities you want to reach are able to access your project, and feel included and welcomed?
- What things might stop people experiencing or accessing your project, and how will you address them?

Relevance

- How have you involved the people you want to reach in the design and planning of your project?
- What information or data do you have on the place or community your project involves? How have you used this to shape your project?

ARD's project is in conjunction with Black History Month (BHM), & Peckham Theatre's Young Gifted & Black season. BHM serves to offset the white-dominant, trope-filled narratives that invisibilise Black people, their stories, & their direct (academic, scientific & social/service) contributions to British society. The UK's deeply-embedded colonial conditioning, however, means that BHM is still largely postured towards & limited by white comfort:fragility & white taste:gatekeeping.

ADR's approach to BHM foregrounds the importance of instilling self-connection, confidence, & aligned dev opps that re-contextualise the Black experience; exploring Black war veterans (illuminating often-forgotten women); heroes whose stories & existence have been historically distorted/erased.

In the YP curriculum dev, ARD centres:

- Black educators; retaining autonomy & authenticity in the imparting of art & learning processes; avoiding distortion/invisibilizing/misrepresentation
- Black movement & music modalities; both folkloric, & modern; combatting the Western-elitism embedded in dance education & performance spaces
- Black/YP feedback in the post-delivery dev process; incorporating their voices into future iterations via written feedback & zoom calls.

Wkshps with primary schools, inc St George's Catholic Primary School (Enfield Priority Place) will offer an age-appropriate immersive experience, using dance, text & music to teach about Black war veterans. Subconscious biases towards white heroes are deeply embedded in British culture, with mainstream depictions of success being white-washed. These workshops serve as an early intervention; combatting the mindsets that enable the ongoing historical erasure of Black people.

ARD combats socio-economic barriers to participation by delivering:

- YP prgrmmes (Black-E & Peckham Youth) for free
- a free performance at The Willesden Green Library (Priority Place); making TUS geographically accessible & economically viable for local/Black communities
- RAF performances at a subsidised rate (£5), & free for Black veterans; increasing accessibility for those TUS celebrates & honours.

Project lead, choreographer/dancer Alison is a neurodivergent, Black, female. Platforming her work actively advocates for the representation of marginalised individuals & Alison's ability to sustain her professional career; supporting the continuation of her artistic contributions & the decisions embedded within TUS:

- to platform Black bodies, moving in ways that are culturally & historically relevant & authentic

- spotlighting the stories of unknown Black heroes; reviving forgotten legacies & honouring them

- re-educating audiences & participants; combatting the harmful repudiation of Black excellence that is deeply embedded within society & the arts.

ARD's existence is one of perseverance & legacy-impact; revering & visibilising marginalised veterans, & imparting artistic excellence & strength to future generations.

Your planning

You've told us what you want to do and what you hope to achieve. We now need to understand how this will come together to be successfully delivered.

- We need to know:
- Your project plan – what you're going to do and when
 - Your plans for managing the project – you don't need to have managed a project before, but you need to show you've thought about what you'll do or who will support you
 - Who you'll work with and how they'll contribute
 - What your budget is and how you've worked it out, including paying everyone fairly
 - How you will respond to challenges you might encounter

Project timeline

Project Start Date: 27/09/2024

Project End Date: 28/03/2025

You've told us the start and end date of your project. We need to know what will happen during your project. Creating a timeline shows the key tasks that your project is made up of.

We understand that plans can change over the life of a project, but we need to see that you have a plan in place to deliver your project.

To create the table, click the 'Add new item' icon on the left of the screen to add a project stage. To add more than one stage, use the 'Save and Add another' button.

The table at the bottom of the page will populate with the information you enter about the stages of your project.

Managing your project

What experience do you have of managing a project?

I have managed projects like this before

Who will be working with you to deliver your project

For example this might be:

- A team of people (tell us who they are, and about their role and skills:...)
- A particular artist, practitioner or group (tell us: ...)
- A particular specialist(s) (tell us: ...)
- Other organisation(s) as collaborators, coproducers etc (tell us...)
- Other organisation(s) helping you to manage the project (tell us...)

How will they help you to deliver your project?

Up to 1500 characters

- What skills will they bring?
- If some people's involvement isn't confirmed yet, do you know what you'll do if they can't be involved?

Project producer & assistant, Deborah, is integral to TUS. A performer and choreographer in her own right, in the fields of jazz and African contemporary dance, Deborah opened Pyramid Dance Studio in London (1985); providing a launch pad for so many artists/companies.

'The West Indian Association of Service personnel' (WASP) have archived historical facts on West Indian & African servicemen/women who served in WW1 & 2. WASP has supported TUS throughout its years of dev; sharing historical information about soldiers, & donating in-kind rehearsal space. They are offering in-kind rehearsal space for this iteration.

Vikesh Godhwani is the producer at Theatre Peckham. He studied at King's College & was the Director of Battersea Arts Centre. He takes a hands-on approach to the delivery of prgrmmes at Peckham Theatre, & will orchestrate the youth prgrmmme as part of Peckham Theatre's Young Gifted & Black season, as well as the show.

The Black-E is the national participatory arts centre in Liverpool. For 50+ years they have demonstrated a commitment to artistic excellence & social transformation. They will host the 2nd of this projects' youth programmes & a performance; supporting ARD's development of the project's YP curriculum.

Vicki Hibbert is Head of Events and Catering at Royal Air Force Museum where she has worked for 2 decades+. Vicki will support in triaging outreach to military communities & veterans via their expansive database.

Budget: How much are you applying to us for?

We need to know how much money you are applying to us for.

We'll ask you to tell us how much money you'll have to spend on the project (the income) and what you will spend it on (the expenditure). We'll also ask you to think about any challenges for your project and explain how you will respond to these.

Whilst we understand that budgets can change over the life of a project, this information allows us to see how you've planned your budget and how realistic it is that your project will deliver what you want it to.

Please read the Budget section of our Guidance for Applicants for help on completing your budget.

Please tell us the total amount you are applying to us for, including any personal access costs (£): £32,924

How much of this request is for your/your collaborators' personal access costs (£)? £3,000

What do we mean by 'Personal access costs'?

*If you, or any of the core team of people you are delivering the project with, experience barriers because you identify as:

- D/deaf or disabled
- neurodivergent
- experience learning difficulties
- having a mental health condition
- having a long term health condition

there may be extra costs relating to your access needs. These would be to:

- help you deliver the project; or
- for the online management of your grant.
- Some examples are: a BSL interpreter, a notetaker, or specialist tutor for admin support, or counselling costs.

Costs can only be for the project period (between your project start date and end date).

Costs for caring responsibilities or costs for making your activity accessible to the people experiencing your project, including participants, can be included as part of your project budget but should not be included as personal access costs.

Only include personal access costs that you will have if your application is successful. This does not include costs relating to preparing, planning and submitting your application.

You can find more about personal access costs, and more about how we can support you to submit an application, in our Access Support information sheet.

If your personal access costs take your request over £100,000 we will still treat your application as an application for £30,001 and over

Risks and challenges

There are risk and challenges to any project. Our funding can support you to take more risks than you might normally be able to. It may allow you to try new creative or cultural ideas, despite the unknowns and the possible financial or reputational risks.

Taking creative or cultural risk is important because it means that creativity and culture are always growing and changing.

It's important that you've thought about what the risks or challenges are. If they happen, you're then able to manage them and still deliver your project successfully.

If you want to understand more about risk, including the different types of risk, you can have a look at our Practitioners guide to identifying and managing risk information sheet.

What are the main risks and challenges to your project meeting its aims?

Up to 2000 characters

- What could go wrong?
- What might happen differently?

Risk 1: backlash/pushback from racist/elitist individuals; TUS reveals stories that can be disorienting for people who have succumbed to a whitewashed version of history. This may lead to confrontation.

R2: touring logistics: there are many moving pieces in the delivery of a touring show, especially when it involves performances & workshops.

R3: injury/sickness among the cast members: individuals may fall sick or become injured

R4: non-Black individuals feeling excluded from participating due to nature of the show being Black-focused/pro-Black

R5: difficulty engaging Black audiences who don't typically attend performance spaces and are generally more risk averse.

R6: TUS being perceived as less professional due to the movement modalities it engages.

What will you do to manage these risks?

Up to 2000 characters

- What plans have you put in place?
- Have these actions worked before?

Risk 1: TUS' promotion clearly depicts the themes it addresses; this supports viewers to anticipate what they may experience in the viewing of the show. Venues will triage public feedback, & safeguard the cast from not receiving unnecessary criticism, wherever possible.

M2: project producer, Deborah Baddoo, is highly experienced in project touring. She will liase with all project partners in advance, ensuring the smooth-running of ARD's tour.

M3: in the unfortunate event that cast members become sick or injured, ARD will call on a network of professionals who are familiar with TUS' material. They will substitute until the original cast member is well enough to return to the stage.

M4: marketing will emphasise that ARD holds an inclusive environment & that all are welcome. Whilst this project advocates for the centering of Black stories & people, it is not exclusive in its approach.

M5: ARD diversifies both the stages & audiences of theatres/ performance venues; & also understands the risk-averse nature of the UK's Black communities. A free performance at Willesden Green Library will serve to overcome socio-economic barriers to participation, & a portion of the PR campaign & marketing strategy will be aimed at engaging Black communities.

M6: ARD has worked hard to establish a professionally respected position within the dance sector, & delivering TUS as a world-class performance. ARD combats the trope-filled nature of the UK's dance ecology by delivering content that evidences the importance & value of platforming & elevating "alternative" movement styles.

Safeguarding

You acknowledge that safeguarding is important in all projects working with the public. You acknowledge that if your project is funded you must sign up to Terms and Conditions that require you to have appropriate policies and procedures in place – and to put them into effect where needed – to support the safe delivery of the project.

About you / your organisation

We use all of this information in an anonymised way to help us see a clear picture of who we are supporting through Project Grants, and how this might need to change to ensure that, over time, the grants we make reflect the diversity of contemporary England.

We also use some of the information to help us make funding decisions.

Sometimes we prioritise supporting people and organisations who share characteristics that are underrepresented in recipients or beneficiaries of National Lottery Project Grants funding, so it helps us to know the characteristics of the individual or the organisation applying.

We believe that the creativity of each of us should be valued and given the chance to flourish, and every one of us should have access to a remarkable range of high-quality cultural experiences.

Equitable access to arts and culture funding is an important part of this. We believe the spread of who and what we invest in should reflect the makeup of the wider country we live in.

This is about us delivering on our Equality Objective:

We will ensure a more equitable distribution of our investment to improve opportunities for everyone, especially those with under-represented protected characteristics and from disadvantaged socio-economic groups.

We know from our data that Black, Asian and ethnically diverse people and disabled people are underrepresented as recipients and beneficiaries of National Lottery Project Grants funding. If you choose to tell us, information about your ethnicity and whether you identify as a disabled person may be used as part of our decision-making process. (If you're applying as an organisation, we'll use the information you give us about the characteristics of your organisation's board and/or senior management.) We will use this information combined with information about who your project will work with, and all the other information you give us about your project.

We will never share this information with others, except in an anonymised way.

If you're not comfortable sharing any of this information with us for this purpose, you can select 'Prefer not to say'.

In this section, you must answer all the questions. If you prefer not to provide some of the information, you can tick the 'Prefer not to answer' box. We may use this information to report to the Government or to monitor the different backgrounds of people who receive grants.
