

Introduction

National Lottery Project Grants

We will ask you questions about different parts of your activity:

- Some basic details about your project – when it's happening, what it's called
- What you want to do, why, and what you want it to achieve
- Who your project will engage, and how they'll engage with it
- How you will manage the project
- The budget for the project

We will use the information you give us in this application to decide whether we will offer you a grant.

The first few screens are autofilled with information you have already provided in your applicant profile. If you need to make any amendments, go back to the 'Applicants' section and edit your applicant profile.

Throughout Grantium, any questions marked with an asterisk (*) must be answered otherwise you won't be able to submit your form.

All our text boxes have a character limit. Please stick to this character limit as any additional text won't be saved.

Please note that currently decisions for National Lottery Project Grants applications for up to £30,000 will take up to 9 weeks. Decisions for National Lottery Project Grants applications for £30,000 and over will take up to 14 weeks.

Responding to Project Grants Priorities

Your project is responding to the following priority:

Selected priority: - Not applying against any Time Limited Priority -

Essential information

In this section we'll ask you some basic details about you and your project.

What do we mean by 'project'?

- A series of activities or a piece of work.
- A project has a start and an end date
- A project has a set of measurable aims that you'd like to achieve in that time.

Amount requested

Tell us the total amount you are applying to us for, including any personal access costs* (£): £24,994

How much of this request is for your / your collaborators' personal access costs?* (£): £700

*If you, or the people you are working with, are:

- deaf or disabled,
- neurodivergent,
- experience learning difficulties,
- have a mental health or
- long term health condition,

there may be extra costs relating to your access needs. These could be to help you deliver the project, or for the online management of your grant.

Some examples are a BSL interpreter, a notetaker or specialist tutor for admin support, counselling costs during your project.

Do you, or does your organisation object to receiving National Lottery funding for religious reasons? No

Fair pay

Arts Council England is committed to ensuring proper and fair payment to artists and those who work in the creative industries. Please read the Fair pay section of our How to apply guidance for more information.

Have you used a recognised industry standard to work out how to pay artists and professionals involved in your project (including you)? Yes - If so, which one?

Please explain in more detail.

Up to 600 characters

Pepa Uberta has used A-n, Artist Union & Dance industry rates to work out how to pay artists & professionals involved in the project. For all other freelance contributors she has agreed upon fees prior to the development of work, to be carried out during the project.

If there are other people included in the delivery of my project, as workers or volunteers, I am aware of my responsibilities:

A more detailed description of your project:

We want to understand what your project involves; what is it about and what will happen

Up to 800 characters

Phase 1 (P1) of Pepa Uberta's (PU) R&D for TMOHD will:

- explore key research themes, re-thinking & collectively re-imagining the notion of 'progress'
- inform P2 of R&D
- build content for (confirmed) final premiere at Sadlers Wells East in 2025.

P1 will establish:

- TMOHD's overall vision
- creative & technological direction of CHARCO; the TMOHD integrated multi-dimensional performance installation, incorporating dance, interactive technology & sound
- residencies with: Institute of Creative Technology (ICT), Wainsgate Dances, Sadler's Wells, South East Dance.

P1 will further:

- premier CHARCO at Dreamy Place Festival, Brighton
- host, film & record community wkshps targeting older ppl via Three Score Dance, Fabric, St Hilda's to inform final presentation.

Who are you hoping will benefit from your project in the longer term, and how will they experience it?

Up to 800 characters

P 1 & 2 of TMOHD will culminate in a showcase of the developed work at Sadlers Wells East in 2025. Sadlers Wells East will be located in the rich cultural heritage of Stratford, opening in London's Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park (in 2024).

Sadler's Wells East will be a new kind of cultural destination with local roots, national impact & global perspectives. It will build the infrastructure for dance & make it accessible to more people.

TMOHD will be part of the newly launched programme & will be accessible to normative/non-normative dance audiences via the space's commitment to community outreach & via their engagement programmes. It will be showcased in their theatre that boasts 550 seats.

Where

Using the tool below, please enter the location(s) where activity is happening. To add a location, click the 'Add new item' icon on the left of the screen. To add more than one location, use the 'Save and Add another' button.

The location(s) you add to this list need to match what you've selected on the previous screen (Who and how) in answer to the question 'How will people experience your project'

If your project is not happening in a specific place, select 'Longer term public engagement in England' on the previous screen (Who and how) and delete any locations you have added to this list.

Feasibility and risk

This section helps us to understand how you will successfully deliver your project.

We need to know your plans for managing the project, what your budget is and how you will respond to any risks or challenges.

You don't need to have managed a project before, but you need to be able to demonstrate that you have given consideration to how you will manage the project, the budget, and any risks/challenges, and that you or your project partners have the skills to ensure it is delivered successfully.

When we look at your answers to the questions in this section we will think about:

- whether the budget is appropriate for the scale and type of activity?
- how appropriate are the areas of income and spending?
- whether all items in the budget are relevant and reasonable [are fees or wages appropriate to the context? Have quotes for assets/equipment been appropriately researched for any purchases?]
- whether the activity is attracting income from other sources; - is any other income confirmed? If not, are your potential income sources realistic?
- if appropriate financial controls are in place - Do you or the people you're working with have the necessary skills to manage the budget?
- if the activity is realistic and well-planned, and if you have demonstrated that you or the people you are working with are able to deliver the project

Project timeline

Project dates

Tell us the start and end dates for your project.

Please allow enough time to plan your project and for us to process your application, as well as enough time for us to make a payment before your start date if your project is successful. See our How to apply guidance for more details.

The dates you give here should be the dates for the full project you're asking us to fund.

Please note that currently decisions for National Lottery Project Grants applications for up to £30,000 will take up to 9 weeks.

Project start date: 29/09/2023

Project end date: 14/12/2023

Please use the tool below to list the main stages and tasks of the project from the start date onwards, and to show who will lead on each element of the project. Please add each project stage in order. You must enter at least one stage.

To create the table, click the 'Add new item' icon on the left of the screen to add a project stage. To add more than one stage, use the 'Save and Add another' button.

The table at the bottom of the page will populate with the information you enter about the stages of your project.

Budget - Income

Income table

Please complete the income table below with all your cash income, as well as any support in kind you will receive. (By support in kind we mean goods or services that you would otherwise have to pay for, but are being provided for free.)

Remember:

- Your budget must balance. This means your total income needs to be the same amount as your total expenditure.
- Only include income that relates specifically to this project.
- Do not include personal access costs in the income table. These are automatically included in the total amount you are requesting from us.
- For any earned income you should include how these amounts have been calculated in the description field, for example:
Ticket sales (7 dates @ 60% of 100 capacity x £8 ticket price) £3,360

Budget - Expenditure

Expenditure table

Please complete the expenditure table below with all your cash expenditure.

Remember:

- Your budget must balance. This means your total expenditure needs to be the same amount as your total income.
- Only include expenditure that will be spent between the start and end date of your project.
- The table already includes any Support in kind you added on the Income screen so you do not need to add this.
- Breakdown your expenditure so we can understand your costs, for example: Artist fee (2 x Creative specialists @ £150 per day for 10 days = £3,000)

Expenditure questions

How have you worked out the costs of the artistic spending included in your budget?

Up to 1500 characters

PU has extensive experience managing small & large-scale performance/project budgets. Artistic costs based on a solid understanding of the process & performance needs.

Fees for PU, £250/day reflect her role as project lead:

- Collaboration with sound artist x 2 days
- Residency at ICT x 3 days
- Wainsgate x 5 days
- Sadlers Wells x 5 days
- Production week & CHARCO performance x 7 days
- Community wksp; Fabric Nottingham x 1.5 days
- South East Dance Brighton x 1.5days
- Craig Applbey consultation x 4 days
- Martin Hargreaves consultation x 4 days
- St Hilda's x 1.5days
- Hoxton Hall Event x 1 day
- Sasolo evaluation x 3 days.

- Production manager fee, £200/day equity with producer's rate
- Freelance fees for creative team (inc. sound & light artists, dancers, costume designer) agreed upon using An-n & Artist Union rates
- Dramaturgy (Martin) & Technologist (Craig) fees to specifically support the development of CHARCO @ South East Dance
- Per diems are based on standard rates
- Travel costs based on estimates from thetrainline.com
- Accommodation based on Airbnb
- The technical equipment hire at South East Dance has been confirmed with Artistic Director, Cath James.

Visual documentation of community wksp is essential in the development of TMOHD: footage & sound recordings from P1 wksp will be used in the final performance at Sadler's Wells East. Rosie & PU have agreed on a rate that is representative of the creative work needed to capture PU's vision.

How have you worked out the costs of developing your organisation included in your budget?

Up to 1500 characters

Sasolo is an art strategy & consulting firm. They will provide:

- evaluation support on the project
- gather relevant data & information to inform P2 of R&D
- support development towards the final showcase of TMOHD at Sadlers Wells East in 2025.

How have you worked out the costs of marketing and developing audiences included in your budget?

Up to 1500 characters

Documentation of the Dreamy Place premier of CHARCO is essential for marketing purposes. It will encourage engagement with the project from the preliminary stages (P1), build the project's legacy & encourage accessibility by enabling online audiences to view the performance; essential development & collaboration of TMOHD, which will form the overall work to be presented in 2025.

PU has agreed used industry rates for working with videographer & editor Genevieve Reeves to document the public sharing of CHARCO at Dreamy Festival Brighton.

PU has used industry rates for working with Photographer Henri Kisielewski to document the public sharing of CHARCO at Dreamy Festival Brighton.

PU has allocated £200/day for x 2 days = £400 to manage the social media for the public presentation of CHARCO at Dreamy Festival Brighton. This will subsequently be used to promote P1 of TMOHD & will be shared with all project partners & collaborators to promote via their social channels.

How have you worked out the costs of expenditure listed as 'other' in your budget?

Up to 1500 characters

A contingency of 5% of the overall budget is included to prevent a shortfall in income from interrupting cash flow.

How much of your total project budget is being spent on International costs (such as visas, carnets, freight, travel, accommodation, per diems)? £3,695

What experience do you have of managing a project budget of this size? I have managed a project budget of this size or larger before

Name: Institute Of Creative Technologies De Montfort University

Main contact (if organisation): Sophy Smith

Email address: ssmith05@dmu.ac.uk

Role in project: The Institute of Creative Technologies (ICT) is a home for new ideas, risky play and rapid prototyping. By bringing together technologists, creative practitioners and researchers across discipline areas they develop truly innovative transdisciplinary creative technologies practice and research. Thanks to Jim Hendley one of Fabric's producers in Nottingham, Pepa met Sophy Smith whilst in residency there. Pepa hosted an event as part of her residency where she shared her desire to work with technology. A few months later she organised a meeting at the Institute of Creative Technology in De Montfort University in Leicester to meet six technologists and find out if she could collaborate with any of them. In this meeting, Pepa connected with Craig Appleby. She discovered he will be a great collaborator as they have similar artistic research ideas with questions about the relationship between humans and technology. This residency will focus on working on the technological side of the project for the performance of CHARCO in Brighton. The ICT will support Pepa's project by providing space, access to equipment and technical and artistic support through their creative technology practice researchers. ICT includes expertise across cybernetics, artificial intelligence and machine learning and immersive environments (including VR/AR/XR), making them flexible enough to respond to the R&D process. Pepa will be part of their community of practice, extending out from the University's Undergraduate and Postgraduate community, across their regional, national and international networks, continuing their ongoing support for sector development in performance and creative technologies. Since its foundation in 2006, the ICT has continued to support ambition and excellence in innovative approaches to performance practice, welcoming a range of artists including Motionhouse Dance Theatre, Royal Shakespeare Company and Gibson-Martelli.

Role in project: Craig Appleby is a Creative Technologist with experience in performance, theatre and events. His research focus is the integration of performers with technology, and the impact this has on the creative process and practice. From the perspective of his previous research, where he explored synaesthesia, Craig will contribute to the project by exploring the cybernetic relationship between the performer and technological environment within live performance, with each affecting the other in a continuous loop. He will provide equipment including a selection of inputs/triggers and outputs, to read data from the performers/audience and process this through software to an output (audio/visual). Main contact (if organisation): Charlie Morrissey

Email address: wainsgatedances@gmail.com

Role in project: Wainsgate Dances is an internationally connected artist-led programme of world-class workshops, residencies, performances and other dance events based at Wainsgate Chapel in the heart of the rural South Penines in Yorkshire. The programme invites people of all ages from the local area to come together with others from across the UK and beyond, in a welcoming and inclusive space for generating and engaging with world-class dance activities that can usually only be accessed in urban centres. Wainsgate Dances in partnership with Sadler's Wells Theatre have offered a creation residency for CHARCO at Wainsgate Dances as part of the development of Pepa's Sadler's Wells commission for Sadler's Wells East in Summer 2025. Pepa will be working only with the dancers to focus on creating the choreography of the piece, working on the movement material as well as the initial dramaturgy. Wainsgate's residency programme sees a diverse selection of artists come to research and explore their work – often at a crucial early stage in its development. Wainsgate – located as it is, down a quiet track with views of the surrounding hills, offers a concentrated, peaceful and supportive space in which to begin a creative process away from the distractions and pressures of the city. Resident artists often share this work in informal showings to get a sense of how it feels to put some first ideas in front of friendly and curious eyes. Sharing the work in this way also gives local residents opportunities to engage with dance and choreographers as their work is being created, and offers a great window into how, why and for who dance work is made.

Robyn Cabaret is Sadler's Wells Senior producer. Robyn will be supporting Pepa during her residency with the organisation. Sadlers Wells have commissioned Uberta to present a work in the new Sadler's Wells East building in 2025. For this initial R&D stage, they are supporting the work by offering two residencies and £3000 commission fee. The first residency is at one of their studios in the main building and the other in collaboration with Wainsgate Chapel. For the second residency, they have also offered a commission fee to cover some of the residency costs. Sadler's Wells Theatre is one of the world's leading dance organisations. They have supported my work since 2016 when I curated a Wild Card night and resented my choreographic work at the Lilian Baylis Studios. A year later I had a premiere of one of my performances works at The Lilian Baylis studio. The premiere of this work was going to happen in 2020 but due to the pandemic the premiere kept being delayed and it will now be in the Spring of 2025. SW commissions artists to create new work, helping them develop ideas and provides resources such as rehearsal studios and technical expertise. SW supports artists at every stage in their careers, offering opportunities to develop their practice, seek out innovative ideas and collaborations, and present new work on their multiple stages. They give artists the opportunity to develop their practice, seek out innovative ideas and collaborations, and present new work. We offer a wide range of initiatives, designed to nurture the most exciting talent working in dance today, at every stage in their careers. SW believes dance has the power to build deep connections and break down barriers. And this belief inspires everything they do, from performances and workshops, films and festivals to creating new and exciting ways for everyone to experience dance. ADD SOME INFO ABOUT ROBYN

Main contact (if organisation): Cath JamesEmail address: cath.james@southeastdance.org.uk

Role in project: South East Dance (SED) is the main Dance House in the south east region. It supports dance artists and develops the infrastructure for dance whilst presenting bold new work and creating opportunities for more people to experience dance. Cath James is South East Dance Artistic Director. South East dance (SED) has commissioned CHARCO, an element of the TMHD, to be part of their Autumn program as part of Dreamy Place Festival (previously Brighton Digital Festival) a work using the digital arts and an immersive performance profile to imagine what the future could look like. They are also supporting with marketing on their website, thus creating a social media campaign to go alongside the work. Additionally, they have offered a production week ahead of the performance with technical support in the Weston Research Space and 2 days in kind space for the presentation of the work in the Jamie Watton Creation Space. The opportunity to present the work in this context represents a strategic moment in the timeline of the project as it is a platform to invite potential co-producers for the larger work that will be presented at Sadler's Wells in 2025. In November, Pepa will be hosting community engagement workshops with one of their local community groups in Brighton, Three Score Dance Company. In 2000 SED became a member of the UK Dance Network and an Arts Council England Regularly Funded Organisation, extending their role to work nationally and internationally. Since then they've continued to support dance artists, creating opportunities for more people to experience dance and see what it can mean for them. All of their projects share and reflect excellence, creativity, risk, collaboration, openness and the importance of community. For more than 12 years they have been advocating and building support for a dedicated home for dance in the South East: The Dance Space.

Up to 2000 characters Hoxton Hall is a performance arts theatre and community centre in the Hoxton area, in the London Borough of Hackney. Hoxton Hall is a charity run by a board of trustees and a staff team, supported by our volunteers. Their hard work and dedication keep the organisation alive throughout the year. Pepa has been facilitating dance sessions for their youth groups and choreographed performances for their trimestrial shows since Jan 2023. They have recently asked Pepa to support them in a national event they are working on and as part of this project, they would like me to share my artistic practice and strategies to work with social choreography in a community context thus offering me the hall in kind to create an event to engage with all the communities I will be engaging in the project that includes: Hoxton Hall, Brighton community and Nottingham. The development of Hoxton Hall's current community arts programme owes a sincere debt to the energy, compassion and creative thinking of May Scott, who joined Hoxton Hall during WWII and became warden in 1957. In the decades following the war, the hall was both a community resource with various classes and activities but gradually the music hall at the centre of the building started to reassert its influence. The 1960's saw the beginning of Shakespearian productions created and staged at Hoxton Hall and many individuals and groups found room here to experiment and grow.

Name: Cool Company

Main contact (if organisation): Deane McQueen

Email address: deane.mcqueen@gmail.com

Role in project: Cool Company will work with Pepa to facilitate the community workshops in Nottingham as part of TMOHD P1 development. Cool Company was established as a rolling programme of sessions based at Nottingham Contemporary, as a dance improvisation ensemble for people aged 60+, inviting participants to come together to experience how to imagine, watch, think, share, and move in our everyday lives. Participants needed no prior dance or movement experience to join. Taking inspiration from Nottingham Contemporary's exhibitions, everyday movements are refashioned from the 'ordinary' to the extraordinary using a wide variety of simple exercises, imagination and humour. Although radical in method and approach, the key to each session is the integration of social and creative elements whilst enabling participants to support each other, working together to include everybody's experiences and value differences. The majority of the group has been female, however, there are some men who also come along, and the mix is interesting in terms of everyone's background and experience.

Email address: classes@threescoredance.com

Role in project: Three Score Dance will work with Pepa to facilitate the community workshops in Brighton as part of TMOHD P1 development. Three Score Dance Company: their purpose is to enable older people to create and perform contemporary dance – work that engages, entertains and captures the imagination. With professional choreographers, they explore the potential for artistic expression by older people through the art form of contemporary dance. In doing so they aim to change perceptions and challenge expectations about ageing. Based in Brighton & Hove, TSDC was set up in 2012 by Saskia Heriz and Christina Thompson with support from South East Dance. Their vision of a contemporary dance group for older men and women was inspired by The Company of Elders at Sadler's Wells and the work of legendary choreographer Pina Bausch. Since then they have created a reputation for the quality of work and a strong group identity. They have created new audiences, inspired participation in dance, and fostered inter-generational projects.

Risk:

Participants & Safeguarding

PU will be working with older/vulnerable individuals & communities as part of her community engagement who might not feel totally comfortable engaging with movement/group discussion.

Mitigation:

PU has experience working with older/vulnerable individuals as a choreographer & facilitator. She is well-equipped to support individuals to feel at ease & comfortable within a group setting.

R:

Some of the participants PU engages within the community workshops may have access needs.

M:

PU will collect necessary & sensitive data to ensure all requirements are met for participants & collaborators working alongside organisational partners.

Creative aims & successful development of project:

To ensure that the work is developing in a way that is sustainable, realistic & adaptive, PU will engage in early conversations & studio explorations with potential collaborators to examine technical ambitions & will work closely with producers & the production manager

PU will organise a live/streaming event with community wkshp members & all project collaborators to prompt discussion around TMOHD developments & to capture relevant/necessary feedback

Sasolo will provide evaluation & feedback support to ensure the project is fit for purpose, improvements are noted, & scalability & reach into appropriate communities for P2 of R&D are clear, to support the final preview in 2025.

Delivering the Outcomes

Your Project and the Outcomes

Our strategy sets out three outcomes; Creative People, Cultural Communities and A Creative and Cultural Country. We do not expect every project to address all three outcomes, but we do want projects to align to at least one and to set out in detail how particular components are being addressed.

You can read about our three outcomes here: <https://www.artscouncil.org.uk/outcomes-0>

When we look at your answers to the questions in this section, where relevant we will think about:

- How your project is supporting people at all stages of their lives to design, develop and increase their participation in high quality creative activities
- If your project focuses on children and young people:
 - If your project reaches families from a wide range of backgrounds
 - If you are widening and improving opportunities for children and young people to take part in creative activities outside schools
 - if your project is supporting children and young people to develop their creative skills and potential
- If you are working with communities to better understand and respond to their needs and interests, resulting in increased cultural engagement and the wide range of social benefits it brings
- If your project is exploring new types of creative practice, new forms of cultural content and new ways of reaching new and existing audiences and participants
- If you are collaborating with other cultural organisations and/or with the commercial creative industries and/or with further and higher education that focuses on innovation, research and development and training, especially in relation to the use of new technologies
- If your project is strengthening the international connections of cultural organisations and creative and cultural practitioners, including co-production and touring
- If your project is bringing world-class culture to audiences in England
- If your project helps to ensure people have opportunities to sustain their careers and fulfil their potential in the creative industries, especially those who are currently under-represented
- If your project is connecting people and places, nationally and internationally

How will your project contribute to the delivery of at least one of our Outcomes, including which, if any, of the Outcome components?

A Creative and Cultural Country: England's cultural sector is innovative, collaborative and international, Creative People: Everyone can develop and express creativity throughout their life

Please click the 'Save' button below after you have answered the question.

PU uses dance to engage with ppl of all ages; to unite & enrich communities in a creative, sensitive & safe way.

PU's work orients around the creative notion that society privileges youth. To encourage positive discrimination, PU will centre elders in P1 research for TMOHD, exploring & curating their knowledge & experience in response to the key research question: "What does progress mean for the body, for society & for the environment?"

PU will facilitate group wksps in partnership with community groups oriented around encouraging creativity via dance & self-expression for older ppl.

PU will use the wkshps to re-imagine & access the creativity of the older ppl through the lens of dance, asking participants to explore the key theme by using their bodies.

PU will encourage participants to engage with:

-improvisation

-movement

-dance

-open conversation around the notion of progress.

By exploring movement, dance, collective thinking & discussion PU will engage, entertain & capture the imagination of older ppl, to inspire future creative interaction with dance & movement within a community environment.

The participants' creative responses are essential to the Sadlers Wells East 2025 final performance. The reflection & feedback event at Hoxton Hall will enable the community groups to connect. It will:

-encourage creative discussion & connection between groups of older ppl

-offer an opp to showcase their creative responses to the key research theme.

A Creative and Cultural Country:

How will your project contribute to this outcome?

Up to 1500 characters

PU's choreographic work challenges social structures, using social choreography to:

- encourage citizens & institutions to be experimental, dynamic & future facing
- facilitate the development of creative communal situations.

TMOHD will be PU's most ambitious piece to date as she adopts non-linear modes of narrative & disruption.

PU will pioneer innovation & experimentation within the UK's contemporary dance scene by:

- examining, questioning & re-imagining the Western notion of progress in our society, environment, & bodies
- engaging with contemporary ideas around the decolonisation of academia & the emergence of the Global South to re-think & re-imagine the notion of progress
- integrating creative technology, sound & light into her performance work CHARCO, part of the TMOHD vision
- bringing world-class inter-disciplinary work to audiences in the UK, premiering CHARCO at Dreamy Place Festival + future iteration at Sadlers Wells East, 2025
- connecting older ppl in community wkshps to the national conversation: groups will meet (online & in person) at the Hoxton Hall reflection & feedback event; a unique opportunity for elders from different cities in the UK (London, Nottingham & Brighton) to form new networks & connections; encouraging future engagement between the community groups & organisations.

TMOHD will ensure sustainable & fertile ground for PU's future career as an experimental & socially informed choreographer.

The Investment Principles

Your Project and the Investment Principles

The Investment Principles are an important part of our strategy and we encourage you to use them to strengthen the planning and delivery of your project.

Our Investment Principles are:

- Ambition and Quality
- Dynamism
- Environmental Responsibility
- Inclusivity and Relevance

You can read about our Investment Principles here

In this section you can use the Investment Principles to build up a more in-depth picture of your project, which in turn will give us a stronger understanding of your intentions and plans, and how your project will contribute to delivering our Strategy.

- applications for £100,000 and under

You need to complete the section on Inclusivity and Relevance.

You can answer any of the other questions in this section to help you develop your own approach to adopting the Investment Principles. If you do answer any of the other questions we'll take that information into consideration when we make a decision on your application

When we look at your answers to the questions in this section, where relevant, we will think about:

- If the Investment Principles you have responded to are relevant to the scale of your project, and what you want it to achieve
- If you have used the Investment Principles to give an in-depth picture of your project
- If the target audiences for the activity are clearly identified
- If you have thought about how your project could help you to make a contribution to the Creative Case for Diversity
- how the activity might align with our Equality Objectives
- If there is meaningful engagement
- If the project will develop you and your work, or the work/skills of the people/organisations involved
- the quality of the experience for the people taking part in the project
- if the activity increases opportunities for people who don't currently get involved in the creativity and culture or are involved a little in creative and cultural activity
- if the activity increases opportunities for people already taking part in creative and cultural activity
- if plans to market the activity to audiences are well-defined, and are likely to achieve your aims
- if there is no immediate opportunity to involve people (for example, research and development), whether there is potential for the public to get involved in the future; and
- If you are you taking steps to improve the environmental responsibility of your project

All applicants need to complete the section on Inclusivity and Relevance.

Inclusivity and Relevance

This Investment Principle is about England's diversity being fully reflected in the organisations and individuals we support and the culture they produce through:

Communities

- Tell us who you want to reach with this project, how you have identified them, and how they have been involved in the planning and/or creative process
- Tell us about the steps will you take to make sure your project is open and accessible to people within the communities you plan to work with

Up to 1500 characters

P1 of TMOHD R&D will:

- center older ppl's voices; explored via choreography, discussion, exchange of experience & knowledge
- co-devise choreography with older ppl to explore the notion of progress for the body, society & the environment
- positively discriminate for older ppl by centring RnD on self-expression; working with community orgs & partner outreach: Cool Company x Fabric, Three Score Dance x South East Dance, St Hilda's x Hoxton Hall
- engage normative & non-normative arts & culture audiences by premiering CHARCO at Dreamy Place Festival in partnership with South East Dance
- deliver an access scheme; audiences pay by donation to ensure the event is accessible to all within Brighton & surrounding areas.

P1 R&D will:

- develop the essential vision for TMOHD to inform P2 & establish a framework for national scale engagement for TMOHD at Sadlers Wells East
- establish PU's community engagement wkshp model to inform P2 & 3 which will introduce new (diverse) voices from underrepresented communities, inc. BIPOC, Global Majority & yng ppl from complex socio-economic backgrounds
- document the Dreamy Place premier of CHARCO; essential for project's legacy & accessibility; enabling online audiences to view the performance development & curate wider feedback.

Workforce

- If you're engaging a team of people to work on your project, or are working in partnership with other individuals or organisations, tell us:
- How you will ensure they reflect the communities you wish to reach
- How you will ensure access to opportunities are open and accessible
- If you're not working with anyone else on your project you should explain why and consider how working with others would help you to reflect the communities you wish to reach.

Up to 1500 characters

TMOHD will work with:

x1 established tech partner, ICT, to develop the innovative transdisciplinary creative technology elements of CHARCO via a personalised residency. ICT will offer Craig Appleby's expertise to support PU x3 dance organisations via residencies to develop choreographic techniques, sound & lighting to inform CHARCO performance:

- Wainsgate Dances
- Sadlers Wells; will provide senior producer to support in the development during the residency
- South East Dance

x1 dance festival, Dreamy Place Festival, to present public performance of CHARCO

x3 community organisations & groups to ensure PU connects with senior citizens as part of P1 research into notions of progress:

- Cool Company (Nottingham)
- St Hilda's (London)
- Three Score Dance Company (Brighton)

Deane McQueen will provide valuable mentorship support in PU's approach to facilitating the community wksps given her experience working with senior citizens via her organisation, Cool Company.

A fundamental aim of P1 is to gather intersectional knowledge via collaboration with partners & community participation. This knowledge will be used to inform subsequent learnings & developments in P2 for TMOHD.

With the consent of the workforce, all content generated during P1 will be shared & discussed with current & future partners / collaborators in order to facilitate lateral knowledge exchange & to contribute to the creation of the work.

Creative Case

- Tell us how your project addresses the Creative Case for Diversity

Read about the Creative Case for Diversity here

Up to 1500 characters

P1 of TMOHD will explore different facets of knowledge, experience & creative vision from an intersectional feminist perspective to examine what progress means through an accessible lens.

P1 will:

- be female-led, produced, directed & managed
- fuse diverse pedagogies within tech & contemporary choreography to examine, question & re-imagine Western notion of progress in our society, environment, & bodies
- develop new, innovative & zeitgeist pedagogy
- utilise democratic methods of creating & collaborating to disseminate ideas & creative practices to partners, older ppl & subsequently audiences when premiered in 2025
- offer an accessible (donation only) public premier of CHARCO at Dreamy Festival Brighton.

P1 will:

- platform older ppl in positions of cultural authority
- articulate under-appreciated histories to reclaim narratives of older ppl
- represent a polyphony of voices across multiple locations with diverse ethnic & socioeconomic backgrounds.

Partner with:

- Hoxton Hall outreach programme at St Hilda's; whose current participants = 80% BIPOC & hyper local
- Cool Company: who place older ppl, their aspirations, sense of achievement, rights & choices at the centre, to change perceptions & challenge expectations about ageing
- Three Score Dance: who enable older ppl to create & perform contemporary dance that engages, entertains & captures the imagination.

Environmental Responsibility

This Investment Principle is about leading the way in your approach to Environmental Responsibility.

You don't have to use this Investment Principle to tell us about your project, but if you think it is relevant to your project you can tick the box(es) below and tell us.

Any information you provide here we will use when making a decision on your application.

Using Data

Has your project been informed by your own or other environmental data? If so tell us about this here:

Plan, Action and Change

If you plan to measure the environmental impact of your project, tell us about the data you will collect and how it will be used:

Advocacy, Education and Influence

If you plan to develop your/your organisation's skills and knowledge on environmental responsibility, tell us about it here:

Ambition & Quality

This Investment Principle is about organisations and individuals being ambitious and committed to constantly improving the quality of their work.

You don't have to use this Investment Principle to tell us about your project, but if you think it is relevant to your project you can tick the box(es) below and tell us.

Any information you provide here we will use when making a decision on your application.

Understanding What Others Think

If you are taking steps to understand what people (peers and/or the public) think about your work and how you make it, tell us about it here:

X

Up to 1500 characters

A fundamental aim of P1 of TMOHD is to gather & exchange knowledge via peers, partners & participants.

Peers will provide expertise & collaborative exchange to inform P1 development e.g:

- Craig Appleby: expertise across cybernetics, artificial intelligence, machine learning to inform R&D process of CHARCO
- Robyn Cabaret: to support & inspire development of CHARCO.

Partners:

- will provide expertise staff & feedback to support overall development of TMOHD & CHARCO

Participants (senior citizens via community wkshps) will inform overall development of TMOHD & how it is presented as a final piece in 2025.

PU will foreground a devolved triage model, inviting participants via community organisations to share their reflections, experiences & knowledge on progress. PU will convert this information into a language that informs the final work via film & sound recordings.

PU will invite all community wkshp participants to engage (online/in person) at the feedback & evaluation event. This will be used to understand how participants found the sessions.

P1 will generate essential learning, with the consent of all participants & collaborators, the content generated in P1 will be shared & discussed across groups in P2 of R&D in order to facilitate lateral knowledge exchange & to contribute to the creation of the premier in 2025.

PU will work with Sasolo to evaluate P1 & put in place framework for P2 of R&D.

Developing Your Work

If this project aims to develop your skills (and those you work with) and contribute to your longer-term ambitions for strengthening the quality of your work, tell us about it here:

X

Up to 1500 characters

P1 will examine progress from a somatic point of view, proposing choreographic thinking & practices of care where nature, human & non-human, redefine it as a pleasurable & nourishing way of co-existing together.

P1 is fundamental for the longer-term ambitions as part of the final presentation of in 2025 at Sadlers Wells East.

Qualitative success:

- creative experiences of dancers/musicians, sound artist, video artist
- creative impact re: foregrounding creative vision & continued artistic development to contribute to final phase
- live performance of CHARCO at Dreamy Place Festival
- Dee McQueen mentorship support
- Sasolo evaluation support
- community wkshp evaluation & feedback event for all project participants, collaborators & partners to share learnings & experience. To be used to support formation of P2 of R&D for TMOHD in 2024
- development of PU facilitation skills as a choreographer within a community/social setting
- development of PU skills in cross disciplinary working; with creative technologists (ICT).

Measuring Your Progress

If you are setting out what good looks like for your project and know how you'll track how well you're doing and how well it's been received, tell us about it here:

X

Up to 1500 characters

Micro:

x 4 residencies with creative & cultural partners to inform the technological & choreographic development of CHARCO:

-ICT

-Wainsgate Dances

-Sadlers Wells

-South East Dance.

x 1 live performance of CHARCO at Dreamy Place festival in partnership with South East Dance.

x 3 community workshops with senior citizens to gather invaluable knowledge to inform final work to be presented in 2025 via community partners

-Hoxton Hall x St Hilda's

-Three Score Dance x South East Dance

-Cool Company x Fabric

x1 live & streaming event at Hoxton Hall to invite all community wkshp participants & project collaborators / partners to connect, feedback & discuss P1 of TMOHD to inform P2 of R&D.

x4 mentorship sessions with Deane McQueen to provide community wkshp facilitation feedback & reflections / reviews on TMOHD developments.

x 2 days consultation from Technologist Craig Appleby: sharing knowledge & expertise on synthesising practice based research with pioneering advances in digital computing.

x 2 days consultation from Dramaturg Martin Hargraves on movement / choreography integrated with technological innovations developed with ICT.

Macro:

Upon completion of P1, TMOHD will be ready to move into P2 of R&D to inform the fully ACE supported & funded performance at Sadlers Wells East; which will support artist development & training, & the creation of new work; building the infrastructure for dance & making it accessible to more people in 2025.

Dynamism

This Investment Principle is about being dynamic and able to respond to the challenges of the next decade.

You don't have to use this Investment Principle to tell us about your project, but if you think it is relevant to your project you can tick the box(es) below and tell us.

Any information you provide here we will use when making a decision on your application.

The way you work

If you are testing your organisation's model or your individual practice to ensure you can account for change, or adjust when things do not go as planned, tell us about it here:

P1, 2 & 3 of TMOHD will develop PU's practice by:

- being her largest project to date - pushing her creative capabilities via technological experimentation
- working with new collaborators & partners; ICT, Wainsgate, Three Score Dance Company
- learning new skills to engage with a new way of creating & collaborating
- working on a larger scale with community groups via wkshp facilitation.

TMOHD will foreground a democratic way to share ideas & creative practices among all bodies, capacities & backgrounds. As a result of P1; P2 & 3 will:

- develop the TMOHD engagement programme for communities across UK cities
- develop tailored workshops involving movement, choreography, drawing, writing & open discussions
- continue to creatively research the question: progress in the body, society & the environment by working with diverse groups inc. young ppl, elderly groups, & communities across multiple ethnic & socioeconomic backgrounds.

P2 & 3 will:

- foreground different forms of knowledge, experience & creative force, reimagining ageist tropes, through an intersection of feminist & ecological frames
- incorporate participants' work into the final piece with stories & voices from across the wkshps forming part of the final dramaturgy & sound score presented at Sadlers Wells East in 2025.

Technology and Data

If you are using technology and/or data and evidence to deliver and develop your project and assess its impact, tell us about it here:

Up to 1500 characters

PU will work with the Institute of Creative Technology at De Montfort University (ICT) to explore the ways in which she can incorporate creative technology into the performance work, CHARCO in a 3-day residency at ICT; working alongside Technologist Craig Appleby, PU will explore how technology can access synaesthetic experiences between the body & technology to access recorded memories of nature in a audiovisual format. Craig will offer knowledge & expertise on synthesising PU's practice-based research via pioneering advances in:

- digital computing
- information technologies
- creative practice
- science & engineering.

Giving us a sense of your work: Attachment

If you would like to include a document or web link to give us a sense of your work you can do it here.

For example, this could be an image, a music file, a sample of your writing, a video, a link to an online portfolio or a review of your work.

You can only attach one (either a web link or a document). Your document can be up to 10MB and we accept PDF, MS Word, MS Excel, MS PowerPoint and JPEG files. If you'd like to send us a video or a sound clip, it's best to use a link.

If we have asked you for any mandatory attachments (for example, a permission letter) you should attach these at the end of the application.

THE MACHINE OF HORIZONTAL DREAMS

PEPA UBERA

CONCEPT

The Machine of Horizontal Dreams is an artistic platform and research that aims to examine, question and re-imagine the Western notion of progress in our society, environment, and bodies.

Contemporary ideas around the decolonisation of academia and the emergence of the Global South has led us to acknowledge a lack of multidimensional approaches to how progress can manifest. By engaging critically with these ideas, The Machine of Horizontal Dreams allows re-thinking and collectively re-imagining the notion of progress by experimenting with its different and potentially new forms.

This research aims to find the dialogue between sensualities of the human and non-human bodies. It will look at progress from a somatic point of view, proposing choreographic thinking and practices of care where nature, human and non-human, redefine progress as a pleasurable and nourishing way of co-existing together. Pepa Ubera will look at philosophies and practices of time as articulated in the Global South, particularly inspired by the work of aboriginal writers from the Australian context like Ambelin Kwaymullina. Ambelin Kwaymullina's work creates Non-Linear Modes of Narrative and disruption of time where everything on earth is interconnected and interrelated to survive.

The Machine of Horizontal Dreams will manifest in different forms: workshops with community members and audiences, a theoretical thesis and a performance installation. The public presentation will be a unique multidimensional performance installation that includes interactive technology, video art, live sound and lighting, performed in a circular space to remove any hierarchical structure, inviting audience participation which will also shape and shift the space.

The Machine of Horizontal Dreams will premiere at Sadler's Wells East 2025 opening season at the Olympic Park in Newham. The piece will be available for touring across the UK and internationally thereafter.

LEVELS OF PERCEPTION

There are three levels of perception in the Machine and even though in this document they are named in a linear order, they move in circular ways affecting one another and exploring notions of multiple temporality. Therefore the project embraces time in a non-linear way. Past, present and future will be entangled, allowing porosity and cross-pollination in the act of creating collective knowledge and experience.

‘To conceive time in a non-linear way is at once a great gift and a great responsibility. The responsibility is that our individual actions matter powerfully, radiating out across relationships and affecting all that might be thought of in a linear sense as past, present and future. But the gift is that the passage of linear time has never moved us so far that we cannot take meaningful action to heal the wounds of colonialism.’ (Kwaymullina, A. (2014). The interrogation of Ashala Wolf. Candlewick Press. Berndt, R. M., & Berndt, C. H. (1994).

1. Social Choreography - Present

A series of new collective rituals. A space-time to sharpen perception in a social context; to examine the power of collective thinking thus dreaming of co-operation and how it can be applied and re-imagined in social choreography.

2. CHARCO - Future

A future speculative scenario where all plant life has perished. A science fiction piece exploring the relationship between the organic and the artificial via video projections and kinesthetic relations.

3. The Recorded Machine - Past

A visual recording used as a way of allowing the past, present and future to flourish in a collective way.

SOCIAL CHOREOGRAPHY

The Machine of Horizontal Dreams is an artistic platform creating a space for audiences and communities to engage creatively with notions of social and ecological change. Through movement, dance, collective thinking and discussion, the project aims to help participants and artistic collaborators reimagine ideas of 'progress' within the body, in society and the environment.

As described by choreographer Steve Valk: “The strategy of ‘social choreography’ is an attempt to lure citizens and institutions out of their areas of control and familiarity and into dynamic, experiential, creative, existential and communal situations. Its aim is to ‘stake out’ new participatory and ‘transdisciplinary’ cultural territory”.

The Machine of Horizontal Dreams will deliver community programmes across East London, the Midlands and the South East of England to support groups to engage with artistic practice, to explore and access their own creativity and relationship to the subject of the work, answering the key research question: what does Progress mean for the body, for society and for the environment?

The project proposes to reveal different forms of knowledge, experience and creative force through an intersectional feminist and ecological perspective to expose what progress can mean in accessible and creative ways.

To represent a polyphony of voices, working with diverse groups is crucial: teenagers and older people (60+), and communities across multiple ethnic and socioeconomic backgrounds will engage in creative movement workshops.

A fundamental aim is for the intersectional knowledge generated to be unique and useful for participants' learning across 2023-25. With their consent, the content generated will be shared and discussed across groups in order to facilitate lateral knowledge exchange and to contribute to the creation of the work.

CHARCO

CHARCO (Spanish for puddle) is a performative space that explores relationships between the body, technology and ecology, interrogating our connection to the non-human world. The work is set in an imaginary future in which all plant life on earth has perished. Viewers encounter a group of figures exploring new entities, which are formed from the residues of long dormant technological and organic material. Set in a gallery space, CHARCO invites audiences to imagine 'cyborg landscapes', expansive spaces in which the moving body seeks out new relationships between infrastructure, ecology, and society.

The performance installation combines choreographic scores performed by a group of dancers, costumes, interactive technology, and a sonic landscape that includes text and poems.

CHARCO is an episode of The Machine of Horizontal Dreams and also exists as a stand-alone 40 min piece designed for a gallery space or a 5 hour durational performance installation. A new iteration of CHARCO will be presented with South East Dance at Dreamy Place Festival (previously Brighton Digital Festival) in Autumn 2023.

THE RECORDED MACHINE

An important part of the project is a video that will exist as a stand-alone piece as well as part of the performance installation. The footage includes videos that Pepa has been recording since 2019 in different countries including: Australia, Finland, Spain, UK, France and Chile. The footage entangles memories of nature, animals, bodies of air and water with images from collective human social interactions. It will also include video footage from the community encounters that Pepa has been exploring and will continue exploring in 2023.

In the live presentation the existing footage will be in relationship with live footage from the performance space, challenging the concept of video as a past tense and instead embracing multiple temporalities that engage with the work and audiences in real time.

ABOUT PEPA UBERA

Pepa Ubera is an artist and a performer originally from Madrid and based in London. Her choreographic work challenges social structures, questioning how the body behaves in the current context. In her interdisciplinary practice she has been exploring other media working with video, light, text, creating site-specific work and curating performance events.

She has twice been awarded a Dance Web Scholarship at the Impulstanz Festival Vienna, showing her work in collaboration with the Embassy of Spain. From 2013-2016 she was a core member of TripSpace projects where she curated nights of performance, including Limen festival in collaboration with the Hayward Gallery. She has presented work in the UK, Europe, Australia and Chile and performed in venues such as Arts Admin, Dance4, ICA, Barbican Botanic Gardens, Bluecoat in the UK, Matucana 100 in Chile, kampnagel in Germany and Critical Path and Tasdance in Australia.

She curated and performed in The Palest Light as a Wild Card event at Sadler's Wells Theatre (SW), signalling the evolution of a strong ongoing partnership from her time as a SW Summer University 2015-2018 artist. Ellipsis Land, one of her works in collaboration with Josefina Camus, was part of the Tate's Live exhibition Ten Days Six Nights and had two seasons at Sadler's Wells Theatre.

She started developing her current research before the pandemic in a residency at Critical Path in Sydney, Australia and TasDance Tasmania. In addition, Dance4 invited Ubera to be one of the UK delegates at DanceMassive Festival Melbourne and presented her research as part of Nottdance, International Festival in Nottingham.

She is currently undertaking an MA in Creative practice at Trinity Laban and working on her final thesis that correlates with the work developed for The Machine of Horizontal Dreams.

Her latest commission will be presented at Sadler's Wells East 2025 opening season at the Olympic Park in Newham.

To Whom It May Concern:

RE: Letter of Support for Pepa Ubera

This letter confirms Sadler's Wells' support of Pepa Ubera in her artistic endeavors, specifically in the next phase of creation for The Machine of Horizontal Dreams.

We met Pepa through Sadler's Wells Summer University (2015-18). In 2016 we invited Pepa to curate a Wild Card for the Lilian Baylis Studio. The following year, we presented Pepa's full-evening work Ellipsis Land. The artistic inception of The Machine of Horizontal Dreams has bubbled through this time, and it has been a joy to witness how the scale and ambition of this work has grown since we presented an initial intervention in a woodland clearing at Wilderness Festival (Oxford, UK), through its residencies at Critical Path (Sydney, Australia), TasDance (Tasmania, Australia), Teatros del Canal (Madrid, Spain) and Dance4 (Nottingham, UK). We are excited to offer dedicated support to CHARCO, a specific element of this large-scale production, leading up to performances with South East Dance as part of Brighton Digital Festival.

We have committed the following support:

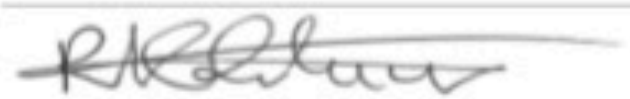

- £3k Commission.
- One week of in-kind space at Sadler's Wells, London in October 2023 with producing support in-kind.
- Week-long Wainsgate Dances x Sadler's Wells Artist in Residence at Wainsgate Dances, Hebden Bridge in September 2023 with studio hire, accommodation and management fee provided in-kind in addition to a cash contribution to both a daily stipend and travel costs for collaborators.

The Machine of Horizontal Dreams is an incredibly ambitious work, bringing together video art, technology, music, participatory performance, immersive experiences, and choreography. Given its scale and intricacy we wholeheartedly support the iterative approach to researching and creating specific elements of this project, in this case CHARCO. Even more so given this timely opportunity to have residencies in different contexts and production time leading up to a public performance, which will no doubt support the shape of this work in future.

This letter confirms Sadler's Wells commitment to supporting Pepa Ubera as a commissioning partner. We will present full length work, The Machine of Horizontal Dreams, in our new venue Sadler's Wells East in Stratford on dates to be confirmed in 2025. We are excited to be continuing this journey with Pepa and I strongly endorse Arts Council England's support for this project, Pepa's most ambitious and impactful work to date.

I remain available should you need further information.

Yours Sincerely,

Robyn Cabaret
