Your project

What do we mean by 'project'? For us, a project is something that has:

- A start and end date
- Clear things you want to achieve in that time
- Ways for people to experience or take part in creativity or culture (either as part of the project or in the future)

This section of the application form helps us to understand what you want to do.

It allows you to think about how your project could help to bring creativity and culture to people in England.

When is your project going to happen?

Tell us the start and end dates for your project.

Remember:

- To allow enough time to deliver all the stages of your project
- The dates you give us here should cover the whole project period you're applying for
- We need eight weeks to process applications for £30,000 and under, your start date must be more than eight weeks from the date you submit your application
- To allow enough time for us to make a payment before your start date, if your application is funded

Project start date: 10/09/2024

Project end date: 30/06/2025

Responding to any Time limited priorities

Your project is responding to the following Time limited priority:

Selected priority: - Not applying against any Time Limited Priority -

At a glance

In your own words, give a short, clear overview of your project:

Up to 500 characters

- Be as clear as you can about what you want to do using Project Grants funding
- It's better if this is written as a full paragraph
- It will be available to the public on our website if your application is funded.

ESEA Music supports 400+ UK-based East & Southeast Asian (ESEA) music industry professionals & artists. They will deliver a programme of co-devised music writing camps with high-profile mentors; record & release 1 EP + 2 singles, & platform their members through a live performance at Southbank Centre's ESEA Festival in May 2025; sustaining the careers of under-represented artists in the music industry; developing a unique co-devising practice & weaponising their power as a collective.

If you had to explain the focus of your project to someone, what single words or short phrase would you use?

Up to 100 characters

- You can be as broad or as specific as you like; it's your project
- You might think about this as your project's 'key words' or 'tags'
- Use a maximum of 5 key words or short phrases
- We won't use this response when deciding which applications to fund. It's so we can learn from how you see your project.
- Examples could be: singing; photography; digital work in libraries; South Asian dance; participatory arts; children's theatre; interactive gaming; dynamic collections work; changing business models; environmental theme; writing with older people; etc

Emerging ESEA musicians, Co-devising, Collective power, New music writing, EP release & performance

Our Strategy, Let's Create

Let's Create explains how we want our funding to make a difference. It includes three Outcomes. These Outcomes are what we want to achieve through the projects we fund, so together we can make a difference.

You don't need to read our Strategy to make an application for £30,000 and under.

Telling us what your project focuses on helps us to decide which of the Outcomes your project will make a difference towards.

What does your project mainly focus on?

- this gives us a good sense of how you see your project
- you need to select only one option
- your project may include activity to do with more than one option; we want to know where you feel the main focus is
- the descriptions below are a guide to help you decide
- don't worry if you're not sure – we'll check we agree with the option you've selected when we look at your application

My project is about the public taking part

My project is about the public taking part in creative activity, either during the project or in the future.

- This means a project that gives the public the opportunity to take an active part in creative activity.
- An active part might be making, learning or contributing to creating something.
- The public includes anyone who isn't working professionally in the cultural sector, and covers all ages from early years to older people.
- Examples could be delivering workshops to the public, the public participating in an event or teaching the public..
- People might be trying something for the first time, or developing their skills and experience.
- It could be that you're developing workshop content that you'll deliver to the public in the future.
- This isn't about the public attending an event as an audience member or visitor to an exhibition.

This matches our Outcome 1: Creative People

My project is about making a difference to a place or community

My project is about making a difference to a place or community, either during the project or in the future.

- This means working in a way that is focused on a specific place or community.
- Often working in a place will mean working with other partners in that place to shape and deliver a project.
- Projects could involve making, showing or performing work that responds to what a particular community is interested in.
- Examples could include a locally developed cultural festival, engaging the community in research and development for a new programme, work or event, or touring an exhibition with support from local partners.
- Projects might connect to or help to deliver existing local strategies or support local partnerships.
- It could also mean touring work into places where there is local demand. .

This matches our Outcome 2: Cultural Communities

My project is about developing professional creative or cultural practice

My project is about developing professional creative or cultural practice, either during the project or in the future.

X

- This means activity which makes a difference to an individual's, group's, or organisation's creative or cultural practice, or a difference to the wider cultural sector. Examples could be:
- Developing or showing new work or new ideas, including with partners from inside or outside the cultural sector
- Using new technologies to create or distribute work.
- Developing new skills to help those at the beginning of their careers or to help others sustain careers
- Bringing work, publications or collections from abroad to audiences in England.
- Developing international partnerships to do research or to create and present new work

This matches our Outcome 3: A Creative and Cultural Country

ESEA MUSIC is a collective of 400+ UK-based East & Southeast Asian (ESEA) musicians/artists & industry professionals from a diverse range of musical backgrounds inc. pop, RnB, hip-hop, electronic/dance, alt/indie, classical, jazz & more. ESEA artists are severely underrepresented in the music industry & face compounded issues of tokenism, invisibilisation & lack of resources. In this project, ESEA MUSIC will increase ESEA representation in the music industry by :

- developing a support system for marginalised musicians who would otherwise be isolated & navigating the music industry alone
- visibilising & uplifting their unique stories & creative output.

Here, ESEA MUSIC increases artist capacity & breaks institutional & systemic barriers, via:

1) WRITING CAMP; hand hold 12 emerging artists & producers at a critical stage of their career; upskilling in self-production & release tactics. The writing camps build a template for change; modelling an “anti-label” practice of supporting grassroots talent, challenging the extreme hierarchies & predatory, extractive relationships in mainstream music. Over 4 days of collective songwriting with producers, session musicians & songwriters, the offer will:

- encourage experimentation, boundary-pushing & incubate artistic growth; nurturing vital skills in writing & collaboration
- provide mentorship from high-profile ESEA artists & established industry professionals, e.g. Rina Sawayama (Pop artist), Mutya Buena (Sugababes) & Stacey Tang (Senior exec at RCA), empowering nascent artists to better navigate the industry & overcome gatekeeping
- offer 2 days recording at Sony Music Studios; releasing 2 collective singles (1 per camp) in 2025, with pro PR, creating brand identity & image / work agency.

2) ESEA SOUNDS EP; supported by Warner Music & Eastern Margins with a release party, 5 previously recorded demos (released in September 2024 for ESEA Heritage Month) are remixed/mastered. The release event provides opps. to network; de-silos artists (impacted by intersectional finance/support/opportunity poverty) & elevates the collective's public profile as producers of world-class music & EDIB leaders.

3) SOUTHBANK PERFORMANCE SHOWCASE; ESEA Festival, May 2025; platforms 12 writing camp participants & EP artists, supporting early & mid-stage creative careers. Invitees inc. multiple gatekeepers; e.g. 3 x talent management co's, 3 x A&R managers, & multiple reps from streaming platform's Spotify & Apple Music. Writing camp participants are enabled/upskilled in a 360 creative & business development journey; weaponizing their talent to leverage collective power & redesign their own ecology by taking control & overcoming barriers to success.

A disruptive paradigm is introduced; writing & producing music in a modality that centres artists vs. the extractive norms of the commercial music sector, building the skills & GSO's needed to fulfil creative potential & sustain careers for marginalised artists.

What's led you or your organisation to do this project now?

Up to 1500 characters

- What ideas or experiences have led you or your organisation to this point?
- Is this project helping you or your organisation learn or try new things?
- If you've done something similar before, how is this different?
- You can write this in full paragraphs or in bullet points

ESEA MUSIC was founded by Tiger Hagino Reid & Hiroki Shirasuka in 2021 with 10 members. Their unsuccessful attempts to diversify corporate music lead to the collective formation.

They received €50K from The Supporting Act Foundation & Wetransfer in 2022 to pilot the writing camps & commission qualitative RnD into the experiences of ESEA artists. The success of the pilot & evidence from the artist survey indicated a need for:

- regular iterations of the writing camps
- supported/collective releases of recorded demos.

The writing camp pilot benefited emerging artists ready to level up their careers; a previously released song, I LUV MY LIFE accelerated growth via digital platforms, with streams/downloads up 6555% across the artist's portfolio; the offer is designed to significantly boost the profiles & audience reach of participating artists.

In this 2nd iteration, a 360 offer co-devised in 1st iteration, sees artists benefit from exponential growth with additional mentorship, longitudinal support & comprehensive PR/marketing; exiting with individual EPK kits, experiencing pro PR cycles for the 1st time; creating long term digital support vehicles as the EPK's are interactively reviewed & renewed.

This project evolves 1st iteration camps & compliments ESEA MUSIC's release strategy; adding ambitious performance opps, guaranteed release of co-devised tracks, increased longitudinal support (post event impact sessions), & quality checks (+ mentors).

How will you know if you've achieved what you set out to do?

Up to 1500 characters

- Are there opportunities for learning and reflection during your project?
- How will you know what difference the project has made?
- What steps will you take to understand what people thought of the project?
- You can write this in full paragraphs or in bullet points

Theory of Change:

By increasing connectivity b/w emerging/mid-career artists, ESEA dismantle gatekeeping through collective action. Centring inclusivity & comprehensive support through mentorship forms a unique co-creation modality, with songwriting, recording & music release aspects. Scaling up with larger cultural institutions/venues (Southbank Centre, 2200 capacity) will increase creative confidence, capacity & skills in the collective & core team, leading to more performance opps. better release stats & a de-codified ecology.

Evaluation processes inc.:

- bi-monthly core team meetings; ensuring synergy across all areas of operation
- 1-2-1 & focus group feedback sessions with the collective & mentors
- the creation of a permanent creative stakeholder board with participants, peers & external partners (Warner, Sony, RCA Records) to offer longitudinal evaluation support & professional critique extending beyond the project duration

KPIs/Quantitative Metrics:

- ticket sales to Southbank Centre & Eastern Margins EP Release party; 60-70% turnout used as a measure of audience interest
- ambitious growth in social media metrics & EP performance on digital streaming platforms;
- increased bookings from venues/festivals/event hosts, increasing paid creative opportunities for ESEA MUSIC's membership.

Outputs:

- legacy assets of writing camps & revamped electronic press kits (EPKs) for participating artists, distributed to 10 industry partners.

Inclusivity and Relevance

What steps are you taking to make your project inclusive and relevant?

Up to 3000 characters

Inclusivity

- How will you make sure the communities you want to reach are able to access your project, and feel included and welcomed?
- What things might stop people experiencing or accessing your project, and how will you address them?

Relevance

- How have you involved the people you want to reach in the design and planning of your project?
- What information or data do you have on the place or community your project involves? How have you used this to shape your project?

ESEA MUSIC uses data from the recently published UK Music 2024 Workforce Diversity Survey & their internal research to inform their work. According to this data, ESEA professionals account for just 3.22% of the music industry & experience isolation from other minorities.

ESEA MUSIC diversify audiences & audience tastes; breaking racist stereotypes & tropes about ESEA people & allowing for heterogeneity within their representation. Through giving artists agency over their storytelling & self-identification, they challenge gatekeeping, the proliferation of harmful stereotypes such as the model minority myth & gendered stereotypes of Asian men & women within the music industry.

ESEA MUSIC embed inclusivity into their work & remove barriers to participation by:

- creating safe workspaces by disseminating artistic & EDIB policy; briefing all stakeholders on intersectionality within ESEA MUSIC's manifesto (denouncing colourism & classism within Asian culture, centring solidarity with other marginalised groups, etc.)
- meeting mental health & neurodiversity needs by designating a quiet space within the recording studio & Southbank Showcase; offering a safe space to commiserate & share experiences/stories
- locating writing camp & recording at accessible central London spaces for ease of access & transport for artists & participants
- facilitating first connections b/w high profile mentors, industry gatekeepers & artists, removing social barriers to success
- offering artists paid co-devising, writing, recording, release & performance opportunities with fees informed by Musician's Union; modelling ethical labour practices in the music industry & removing financial barriers to participation.

The direct participants & wider collective directly shape the structure of the writing camps & ESEA MUSIC as an organisation through feedback surveys, consultation & ongoing conversation in a large membership group chat. The 2022 pilot of the writing camps included 30+ musicians & producers; their feedback shapes this iteration & future iterations of co-devising & music release strategies, e.g, working with music lawyer Cordelia Lam to co-develop ethical royalty & release agreements.

The ESEA SOUNDS EP will be released in Sept 2024, during ESEA Heritage Month & the 2 writing camp singles will be released on Lunar New Year 2025 for maximum relevancy, leveraging cultural holidays to reach audiences both nationally & internationally; raising the profile of participating artists in the UK, Asia & North America. Their mission & music transcend language & cultural differences between the Asian diaspora; ESEA MUSIC pursues its ambition of reaching national & international significance through this project.

Marginalised artists are de-siloed & empowered through working with the collective; building solidarity & support into their practices & modelling alternative, non-extractive ways of producing music.

Your planning

You've told us what you want to do and what you hope to achieve. We now need to understand how this will come together to be successfully delivered.

We need to know:

- Your project plan – what you're going to do and when
- Your plans for managing the project – you don't need to have managed a project before, but you need to show you've thought about what you'll do or who will support you
- Who you'll work with and how they'll contribute
- What your budget is and how you've worked it out, including paying everyone fairly
- How you will respond to challenges you might encounter

Project timeline

Project Start Date: 10/09/2024

Project End Date: 30/06/2025

You've told us the start and end date of your project. We need to know what will happen during your project. Creating a timeline shows the key tasks that your project is made up of.

We understand that plans can change over the life of a project, but we need to see that you have a plan in place to deliver your project.

To create the table, click the 'Add new item' icon on the left of the screen to add a project stage. To add more than one stage, use the 'Save and Add another' button.

The table at the bottom of the page will populate with the information you enter about the stages of your project.

Managing your project

What experience do you have of managing a project? I have managed projects like this before

Who will be working with you to deliver your project

For example this might be:

- A team of people (tell us who they are, and about their role and skills:...)
- A particular artist, practitioner or group (tell us: ...)
- A particular specialist(s) (tell us: ...)
- Other organisation(s) as collaborators, coproducers etc (tell us...)
- Other organisation(s) helping you to manage the project (tell us...)

How will they help you to deliver your project?

Up to 1500 characters

- What skills will they bring?
- If some people's involvement isn't confirmed yet, do you know what you'll do if they can't be involved?

ESEA MUSIC's core team consists of 7 key members:

- Tiger Hagino Reid; Co-Founder & Executive Producer
- Kityiu Yuen; Artists & repertoire (A&R), development of recording artists & songwriters
- Hiroki Shirasuka; Co-Founder, governance & new partnerships
- Lucy Tun; A&R
- Peu Cheung; project management during recording & release process
- Elaine Zhao; stage manager & event producer for Southbank Centre
- Cordelia Lam; ESEA MUSIC's Laywer

The writing camp's participants include indie artists, emerging producers & session musicians that will experience maximum benefit from the writing camp; early stage in their career with 1-2 major releases, ready for a level-up.

ESEA MUSIC's writing camps leverage the networks & expertise of high profile mentors:

- Rina Sawayama; Brit-Nominated Japanese-British pop artist
- Mutya Buena; Filipino/Irish singer from Sugababes
- Stacey Tang; Managing Director at RCA records
- Drew Lam; A&R team leader at Platoon & Apple.

The project relies heavily on well triaged, experienced contributors who will leverage & navigate the minefield of music marketing & PR. (Toast PR) Professional artworkers/designers to design promotional material.

Sony Music Studios to provide studio & recording space for the writing camps. Southbank Centre to provide venue hire/stage & marketing support for ESEA MUSIC's showcase in 2025

Eastern Margins is an ESEA dance/techno/DJ group & club night collaborating with ESEA MUSIC for the EP release party.

Income Questions

Tell us more about the match funding for your project
Up to 1500 characters

- How have you worked out the earned income you expect to receive during the project?
- How likely are you to secure your expected income?
- How will your project meet its aims if you receive less income than expected?

ESEA MUSIC have confirmed fees from their live performances with Eastern Margins (£500) & Southbank Centre (£2000). These cover the fees for performers, rehearsals & programming the stages.

This project has secured £5000 in match funding from Downtown Music Holdings; a global music company helping millions of creators & music stakeholders at every stage of their careers to manage their music as a business & get paid fairly for their work. This income is confirmed.

EXPECTED INCOME:

Streams & downloads from the EP (5 songs total) are calculated at 75% audience engagement of the previous release "I LUV MY LIFE" which reached 13k streams during it's PR & radio plugging run (6 weeks):

-£0.005/stream x 10,000 streams (£50)

-£0.05/download x 100 downloads (1% of streams, £5)

Streams & downloads of the 2 writing camp singles are more optimistic than EP streaming numbers due to increased marketing attention & higher-profile support from mentors. Streams & downloads are expected to reach:

-£0.005/stream x 10,000 streams/single (£100)

-£0.05/download x 100 downloads (1% of streams, £5)

ESEA MUSIC will sell scarves as merch throughout the project at the Eastern Margins event, on their website & at the Southbank Centre festival. Scarves retail at £25; a conservative estimate of 30 (£750)

Mentorship, studio hire at Sony Music Studios & rehearsal space at Southbank centre are all offered as support in kind.

Hiroki has 15 years of experience working as an artist manager with high-profile recording artists & is well-connected to organisations like Universal Music Japan & AEI ventures.

Hiroki is responsible for gathering artist feedback from the writing camps, distributing ESEA MUSIC's artistic policy & incorporating writing camp feedback into ESEA MUSIC's ongoing impact reporting. This budget also covers the development of artists' EPKs & the admin of distributing EPKs to A&R managers, PR companies & talent management.

The ESEA SOUNDS EP is given a budget of £500 for digital marketing; this covers social media posting across Instagram & tiktok.

A larger marketing budget is allocated to the 2 Writing Camps singles. This includes £1000 for Logo design, branding & the development of a brand kit for the Writing Camps; to be used for future iterations.

Risks and challenges

There are risk and challenges to any project. Our funding can support you to take more risks than you might normally be able to. It may allow you to try new creative or cultural ideas, despite the unknowns and the possible financial or reputational risks.

Taking creative or cultural risk is important because it means that creativity and culture are always growing and changing.

It's important that you've thought about what the risks or challenges are. If they happen, you're then able to manage them and still deliver your project successfully.

If you want to understand more about risk, including the different types of risk, you can have a look at our Practitioners guide to identifying and managing risk information sheet.

What are the main risks and challenges to your project meeting its aims?

Up to 2000 characters

- What could go wrong?
- What might happen differently?

Risk 1: Lack of reach - just because the first single did well, doesn't mean the 2 EPs will also do well. If the releases do not perform well, the impact on the artists will not be as pronounced for emerging, independent ESEA recording artists.

R2: Creative risk; cultural appropriation. Most of the modern music that the British ESEA diaspora & Asian Americans have grown up with is largely Black music. It remains a sticky, sensitive topic when ESEA artists dabble in Black-dominated & originated genres like rap, Hip-hop, RnB, particularly when the Asian cultures are historically anti-Black. The culture for ESEA people in Asia is still virulently anti-black & colourist. Cultural appropriation is understood differently to their diaspora counterparts in the UK & North America. The Korean & Japanese pop industry are guilty of heavily appropriating Black aesthetics, sounds & culture without respecting it's origins or offering solidarity. ESEA MUSIC's members create music that spans a wide range of genres - they must toe the thin line between cultural exchange & appropriation. There is a risk that their artistic output receives backlash for potentially crossing that line.

R3: Creative risk: The writing camps involve input from a multitude of artists & avoid a hierarchical, top-down approach. This could result in creative clashes during writing sessions between artists & producers; derailing the writing camp, delay timelines, create conflict & compromise the quality of music & artistic output.

R4: Logistical risk; lack of availability of Sony Music Studios. If a high-profile, high-paying booking comes along, the writing camp may need to find a different studio.

R5: Organisational risk; ESEA MUSIC core members & leadership all have full-time jobs outside of ESEA MUSIC. Running the organisation on top of professional/freelance work & child care increases the risk of burnout & communication failure.

What will you do to manage these risks?

Up to 2000 characters

- What plans have you put in place?
- Have these actions worked before?

Mitigation 1: ESEA MUSIC's team have extensive experience managing artists & navigating the commercial music industry. This project leverages 6 partners with expertise across PR, radio plugging, digital marketing (social media) graphic design & artworking to ensure the EP & 2 singles meet their audience reach potential, supporting emerging under-represented artists & sustaining careers.

M2: ESEA MUSIC co-founder Tiger Hagino Reid recently completed a Masters in Culture Diaspora Ethnicity from Birkbeck University of London. Her education & experience in diversity work embeds Black-Asian solidarity into ESEA MUSIC's values. Their artistic policy includes an accountability system that encourages asking questions, researching the origins of musical forms/genres & prioritises cultural exchange built on a foundation of respect. Listening sessions with mentors will cover the possibility of cultural appropriation & how to navigate borrowing sounds & samples without engaging in cultural theft.

M3: Writing camps will be structured & facilitated; participants will be briefed on the non-hierarchical nature of collective devising to mitigate for conflict. ESEA MUSIC's existing artistic policy includes a process for conflict resolution; preserving professional relationships & avoiding personal discord.

M4: Metropolis Studios has provisionally agreed to be a backup recording studio should Sony Music Studios drop out.

M5: This project reduces the risk of burnout & delays by intentionally including 7 core team members to support with admin & organisational labour. By sharing the workload, the team can balance their professional, personal & creative lives, ensuring the project meets timelines & outcomes; producing world-class culture.

About you / your organisation

We use all of this information in an anonymised way to help us see a clear picture of who we are supporting through Project Grants, and how this might need to change to ensure that, over time, the grants we make reflect the diversity of contemporary England.

We also use some of the information to help us make funding decisions.

Sometimes we prioritise supporting people and organisations who share characteristics that are underrepresented in recipients or beneficiaries of National Lottery Project Grants funding, so it helps us to know the characteristics of the individual or the organisation applying.

We believe that the creativity of each of us should be valued and given the chance to flourish, and every one of us should have access to a remarkable range of high-quality cultural experiences.

Equitable access to arts and culture funding is an important part of this. We believe the spread of who and what we invest in should reflect the makeup of the wider country we live in.

This is about us delivering on our Equality Objective:

We will ensure a more equitable distribution of our investment to improve opportunities for everyone, especially those with under-represented protected characteristics and from disadvantaged socio-economic groups.

We know from our data that Black, Asian and ethnically diverse people and disabled people are underrepresented as recipients and beneficiaries of National Lottery Project Grants funding. If you choose to tell us, information about your ethnicity and whether you identify as a disabled person may be used as part of our decision-making process. (If you're applying as an organisation, we'll use the information you give us about the characteristics of your organisation's board and/or senior management.) We will use this information combined with information about who your project will work with, and all the other information you give us about your project.

We will never share this information with others, except in an anonymised way.

If you're not comfortable sharing any of this information with us for this purpose, you can select 'Prefer not to say'.

Monitoring information

We may use this information to report to the Government or to monitor the different backgrounds of people who receive grants.

We will not use this information to assess your application. For specific programmes, we may use this information as part of our decision-making process. Where this is the case, it will be stated in the Applicant guidance, and we will ask you to ensure this information is up to date before submitting your application.

If you do not know some of the information or you would prefer not to provide it, you can fill in the 'Not known/Prefer not to answer' box. Should a member of senior management also sit on your board/council, please only count them once.

1. That we will use this application form and the information you give to us, including any personal data as referred to in our Privacy Notice, for the following purposes:
 - a) To decide whether to give you a grant.
 - b) To provide copies to other individuals or organisations who are helping us assess and monitor grants, including local authorities, other lottery distributors and organisations that award grants. 4. Subsidy Control

The Subsidy Control rules are the new legal requirements that apply to the award of subsidies in the United Kingdom with effect from 11pm 31 December 2020. They have largely replaced EU State aid rules.

Where a "Subsidy" is present as per the definition of subsidy set out in the Subsidy Control Act 2022 ("the Act") then it is necessary for the award to comply with requirements set out in the Trade and Cooperation Agreement with the EU (and in due course those further requirements set out in the Act).

A "Subsidy" only exists when the following cumulative characteristics are present (only tick those that apply):

- financial assistance which is given, directly or indirectly, from public resources by a public authority; and
- confers an economic advantage on one or more enterprises; and

- is specific, that is, is such that it benefits one or more enterprises over one or more other enterprises with respect to the production of goods or the provision of services; and
- has, or is capable of having, an effect on —
 - (i) competition or investment within the United Kingdom,
 - (ii) trade between the United Kingdom and a country or territory outside the United Kingdom, or
 - (iii) investment as between the United Kingdom and a country or territory outside the United Kingdom.

If awarded, do you believe that your request for public funding meets all the necessary criteria to be classed as a "Subsidy"?

Where a "Subsidy" is declared you will be required to provide further information to establish whether the "Subsidy" would be considered lawful.

5. Tick the relevant box if any person involved in the project or writing the application:

I am happy to be contacted by Arts Council England, or by a third-party organisation on behalf of Arts Council England, for feedback to help evaluate the programme.

ESEA – Every Sound Every Action.

4. DIRECTORS' GENERAL AUTHORITY

Subject to the articles, the directors are responsible for the management of the Company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the Company.

5. MEMBERS' RESERVE POWER

5.1 The members may, by special resolution, direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.

5.2 No such special resolution invalidates anything which the directors have done before the passing of the resolution.

6. DIRECTORS MAY DELEGATE

6.1 Subject to the articles, the directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the articles:

- a) to such person or committee;
- b) by such means (including by power of attorney);
- c) to such an extent;
- d) in relation to such matters or territories; and
- e) on such terms and conditions; as they think fit.

6.2 If the directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated.

6.3 The directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.

7. COMMITTEES

7.1 Committees to which the directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the articles which govern the taking of decisions by directors.

7.2 The directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees, which prevail over rules derived from the articles if they are not consistent with them.

8. DIRECTORS TO TAKE DECISIONS COLLECTIVELY

8.1 The general rule about decision-making by directors is that any decision of the directors must be either a majority decision at a meeting or a decision taken in accordance with article 8.

8.2 If:

- a) the Company only has one director, and
- b) no provision of the articles requires it to have more than one director, the general rule does not apply, and the director may, subject to articles 9(3) and 16 take decisions without regard to any other of the provisions of the articles relating to directors' decision-making.

9. UNANIMOUS DECISIONS

9.1 A decision of the directors is taken in accordance with this article when all eligible directors indicate to each other by ally means that they share a common view on a matter.

9.2 Such a decision may take the form of a resolution in writing, copies of which have been signed by each eligible director or to which each eligible director has otherwise indicated agreement in writing.

9.3 References in this article to eligible directors are to directors who would have been entitled to vote on the matter had it been proposed as a resolution at a directors' meeting.

9.4 A decision may not be taken in accordance with this article if the eligible directors would not have formed a quorum at such a meeting.

10. CALLING A DIRECTORS' MEETING

10.1 Any director may call a directors' meeting by giving notice of the meeting to the directors or by authorising the Company secretary (if any) to give such notice.

10.2 Notice of any directors' meeting must indicate:

- a) its proposed date and time;
- b) where it is to take place; and
- c) if it is anticipated that directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.

10.3 Notice of a directors' meeting must be given to each director, but need not be in writing.

10.4 Notice of a directors' meeting need not be given to directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the Company not more than 7 days after the date on which the meeting is held. Where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it.

11. PARTICIPATION IN DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

11.1 Subject to the articles, directors participate in a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, when:

- a) the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the articles, and
- b) they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.

11.2 In determining whether directors are participating in a directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other.

11.3 If all the directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.

12. QUORUM FOR DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

12.1 At a directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.

12.2 The quorum for directors' meetings may be fixed from time to time by a decision of the directors, but it must never be less than two, and unless otherwise fixed it is two.

12.3 If the total number of directors for the time being is less than the quorum required, the directors must not take any decision other than a decision:

- a) to appoint further directors, or;
- b) to call a general meeting so as to enable the members to appoint further directors.

13. CHAIRING OF DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

13.1 The directors may appoint a director to chair their meetings.

13.2 The person so appointed for the time being is known as the chairman.

13.3 The directors may terminate the chairman's appointment at any time.

13.4 If the chairman is not participating in a directors' meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating directors must appoint one of themselves to chair it.

14. CASTING VOTE

14.1 If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal are equal, the chairman or other director chairing the meeting has a casting vote.

14.2 But this does not apply if, in accordance with the articles, the chairman or other director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes.

15. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

15.1 If a proposed decision of the directors is concerned with an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement with the Company in which a director is interested, that director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes.

15.2 But if paragraph (3) applies, a director who is interested in an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement with the Company is to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum and voting purposes.

15.3 This paragraph applies when:

- a) the Company by ordinary resolution disapplies the provision of the articles which would otherwise prevent a director from being counted as participating in the decision-making process;
- b) the director's interest cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest; or
- c) the director's conflict of interest arises from a permitted cause.

15.4 For the purposes of this article, the following are permitted causes:

- a) a guarantee given, or to be given, by or to a director in respect of an obligation incurred by or on behalf of the Company or any of its subsidiaries;
- b) subscription, or an agreement to subscribe, for shares or other securities of any of the Company's subsidiaries, or to underwrite, sub-underwrite, or guarantee subscription for any such shares or securities; and
- c) arrangements pursuant to which benefits are made available to employees and directors or former employees and directors of the Company or any of its subsidiaries which do not provide special benefits for directors or former directors.

15.5 For the purposes of this article, references to proposed decisions and decision-making processes include any directors' meeting or part of a directors' meeting.

15.6 Subject to paragraph (7), if a question arises at a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors as to the right of a director to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chairman whose ruling in relation to any director other than the chairman is to be final and conclusive.

15.7 If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the chairman, the question is to be decided by a decision of the directors at that meeting, for which purpose the chairman is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes.

15.8 Where the number of non-conflicted directors is less than the quorum for the purposes of approving a resolution authorising any situation or transaction constituting a conflict as anticipated by the Companies Acts, the quorum shall be all the disinterested directors.

15.9 When all the directors of the Company are conflicted, the Company shall pass the conflict to the Company's members for approval by ordinary resolution.

16. RECORDS OF DECISIONS TO BE KEPT

The directors must ensure that the Company keeps a record, in writing, for at least 10 years from the date of the decision recorded, of every unanimous or majority decision taken by the directors.

17. DIRECTORS' DISCRETION TO MAKE FURTHER RULES

Subject to the articles, the directors may make any rule which they think fit about how they take decisions and about how such rules are to be recorded or communicated to directors.

- a) by ordinary resolution, or
- b) by a decision of the directors.

18.2 In any case where, as a result of death, the Company has no members and no directors, the personal representatives of the last member to have died have the right, by notice in writing, to appoint a person to be a director.

18.3 For the purposes of paragraph (2), where 2 or more members die in circumstances rendering it uncertain who was the last to die, a younger member is deemed to have survived an older member.

19. TERMINATION OF DIRECTOR'S APPOINTMENT

A person ceases to be a director as soon as:

- a) that person ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of the 2006 Act or is prohibited from being a director by law;
- b) a bankruptcy order is made against that person;
- c) a composition is made with that person's creditors generally in satisfaction of that person's debts;
- d) a registered medical practitioner who is treating that person gives a written opinion to the Company stating that that person has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a director and may remain so for more than three months;
- e) by reason of that person's mental health, a court makes an order which wholly or partly prevents that person from personally exercising any powers or rights which that person would otherwise have;
- f) notification is received by the Company from the director that the director is resigning from office, and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms.

20. DIRECTORS' REMUNERATION

20.1 Directors may undertake any services for the Company that the directors decide.

20.2 Directors are entitled to such remuneration as the directors determine:

20.4 Unless the directors decide otherwise, directors' remuneration accrues from day to day.

- b) the directors have approved the application.

23. TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

23.1 A member may withdraw from membership of the Company by giving 7 days' notice to the Company in writing.

23.2 Membership is not transferable.

23.3 A person's membership terminates when that person dies or ceases to exist.

24. ATTENDANCE AND SPEAKING AT GENERAL MEETINGS

24.1 A person is able to exercise the right to speak at a general meeting when that person is in a position to communicate to all those attending the meeting, during the meeting, any information or opinions which that person has on the business of the meeting.

24.2 A person is able to exercise the right to vote at a general meeting when:

- a) that person is able to vote, during the meeting, on resolutions put to the vote at the meeting, and
- b) that person's vote can be taken into account in determining whether or not such resolutions are passed at the same time as the votes of all the other persons attending the meeting.

24.3 The directors may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending a general meeting to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it.

24.4 In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more members attending it are in the same place as each other.

24.5 Two or more persons who are not in the same place as each other attend a general meeting if their circumstances are such that if they have (or were to have) rights to speak and vote at that meeting, they are (or would be) able to exercise them.

25. QUORUM FOR GENERAL MEETINGS

The quorum for a general meeting shall be determined according to section 318 of the 2006 Act and no business other than the appointment of the chairman of the meeting is to be transacted at a general meeting if the persons attending it do not constitute a quorum.

26. CHAIRING GENERAL MEETINGS

26.1 If the directors have appointed a chairman, the chairman shall chair general meetings if present and willing to do so.

26.2 If the directors have not appointed a chairman, or if the chairman is unwilling to chair the meeting or is not present within ten minutes of the time at which a meeting was due to start:

- a) the directors present, or
- b) (if no directors are present), the meeting,

must appoint a director or member to chair the meeting, and the appointment of the chairman of the meeting must be the first business of the meeting.

26.3 The person chairing a meeting in accordance with this article is referred to as 'the chairman of the meeting'.

27. ATTENDANCE AND SPEAKING BY DIRECTORS AND NON-MEMBERS

27.1 Directors may attend and speak at general meetings, whether or not they are members.

27.2 The chairman of the meeting may permit other persons who are not members of the Company to attend and speak at a general meeting.

28. ADJOURNMENT

28.1 If the persons attending a general meeting within half an hour of the time at which the meeting was due to start do not constitute a quorum, or if during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the chairman of the meeting must adjourn it.

28.2 The chairman of the meeting may adjourn a general meeting at which a quorum is present if:

- a) the meeting consents to an adjournment, or
- b) it appears to the chairman of the meeting that an adjournment is necessary to protect the safety of any person attending the meeting or ensure that the business of the meeting is conducted in an orderly manner.

28.3 The chairman of the meeting must adjourn a general meeting if directed to do so by the meeting.

28.4 When adjourning a general meeting, the chairman of the meeting must:

- a) either specify the time and place to which it is adjourned or state that it is to continue at a time and place to be fixed by the directors, and 28.5 If the continuation of an adjourned meeting is to take place more than 14 days after it was adjourned, the Company must give at least 7 clear days' notice of it (that is, excluding the day of the adjourned meeting and the day on which the notice is given):

- a) to the same persons to whom notice of the Company's general meetings is required to be given, and
- b) containing the same information which such notice is required to contain.

28.6 No business may be transacted at an adjourned general meeting which could not properly have been transacted at the meeting if the adjournment had not taken place.

29. VOTING

A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is duly demanded and acted upon in accordance with these articles and sections 321 and 322 of the 2006 Act.

30. ERRORS AND DISPUTES

30.1 No objection may be raised to the qualification of any person voting at a general meeting except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid.

30.2 Any such objection must be referred to the chairman of the meeting whose decision is final.

31. POLL VOTES

31.1 A poll on a resolution may be demanded:

- a) in advance of the general meeting where it is to be put to the vote, or

31.2 A poll may be demanded by:

- a) the chairman of the meeting;
- b) the directors;

c) two or more persons having the right to vote on the resolution; or

a) states the name and address of the member appointing the proxy;

b) identifies the person appointed to be that member's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;

c) is signed by or on behalf of the member appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the directors may determine; and

d) is delivered to the Company in accordance with the articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate.

32.2 The company may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.

32.3 Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.

32.4 Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:

a) allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting, and

b) appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

33. DELIVERY OF PROXY NOTICES

33.1 A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the Company by or on behalf of that person.

33.2 An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the Company a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.

33.3 A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.

33.4 If a proxy notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointor's behalf.

b) the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the chairman of the meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution.

34.2 A special resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution, if:

- a) the chairman of the meeting proposes the amendment at the general meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed, and
- b) the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution.

34.3 If the chairman of the meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the chairman's error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution.

35. MEANS OF COMMUNICATION TO BE USED

35.1 Anything sent or supplied by or to the Company under the articles may be sent or supplied in any way in which the 2006 Act provides for documents or information which are authorised or required by any provision of that Act to be sent or supplied by or to the Company.

35.2 Every notice convening a general meeting shall comply with the provisions of section 307 and 325 of the 2006 Act as to the length of notice required for the meeting and the giving of information to members in regard to their right to appoint proxies; and notices of and other communications relating to any general meeting which any member is entitled to receive shall be sent to the directors and to the auditor for the time being of the Company.

35.3 Any notice or document to be sent or supplied to a director in connection with the taking of decisions by directors may also be sent or supplied by the means by which that director has asked to be sent or supplied with such notices or documents for the time being.

39. RULES

such rules or bye laws regulate:

- (a) the admission and classification of members of the Company (including the admission of organisations to membership) and the rights and privileges of such members, and the conditions of membership and the terms on which members may resign or have their membership terminated and the entrance fees, subscriptions and other fees or payments to be made by members;

- (e) generally, all such matters as are commonly the subject matter of company rules.

39.2 The Company in general meeting shall have power to alter, add to or repeal the rules or bye laws and the directors shall adopt such means as they think sufficient to bring to the notice of members of the Company all such rules or bye laws, which shall be binding on all members of the Company. Provided that no rule or bye law shall be inconsistent with, or shall affect or repeal anything contained in, the Memorandum or the Articles.

40. PROFITS NOT TO BE DISTRIBUTED

The income and property of the Company shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the Company's objects and activities and no part shall be paid or transferred, directly or indirectly, by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise by way of profit, to members of the Company, and no Director shall be appointed to any office of the Company paid by salary or fees or receive any remuneration or other benefit in money or money's worth from the Company: Provided that nothing in this document shall prevent any payment in good faith by the Company:
