Your project

What do we mean by 'project'? For us, a project is something that has:

- A start and end date
- Clear things you want to achieve in that time
- Ways for people to experience or take part in creativity or culture (either as part of the project or in the future)

This section of the application form helps us to understand what you want to do.

It allows you to think about how your project could help to bring creativity and culture to people in England.

When is your project going to happen?

Tell us the start and end dates for your project.

Remember:

- To allow enough time to deliver all the stages of your project
- The dates you give us here should cover the whole project period you're applying for
- We need eight weeks to process applications for £30,000 and under, your start date must be more than eight weeks from the date you submit your application
- To allow enough time for us to make a payment before your start date, if your application is funded

Project start date: 25/04/2024

Project end date: 03/09/2024

Responding to any Time limited priorities

Your project is responding to the following Time limited priority:

Selected priority: - Not applying against any Time Limited Priority -

The project comprises; music workshops, focus groups, feedback sessions, professional mentorship, studio time & a final album live-music showcase.

If you had to explain the focus of your project to someone, what single words or short phrase would you use?

Up to 100 characters

- You can be as broad or as specific as you like; it's your project
- You might think about this as your project's 'key words' or 'tags'
- Use a maximum of 5 key words or short phrases
- We won't use this response when deciding which applications to fund. It's so we can learn from how you see your project.
- Examples could be: singing; photography; digital work in libraries; South Asian dance; participatory arts; children's theatre; interactive gaming; dynamic collections work; changing business models; environmental theme; writing with older people; etc

Queer Asian Pop Artist; Album Recording; ESEA Community; Indie Singer-Songwriter

Our Strategy, Let's Create

Let's Create explains how we want our funding to make a difference. It includes three Outcomes. These Outcomes are what we want to achieve through the projects we fund, so together we can make a difference.

You don't need to read our Strategy to make an application for £30,000 and under.

Telling us what your project focuses on helps us to decide which of the Outcomes your project will make a difference towards.

What does your project mainly focus on?

- this gives us a good sense of how you see your project
- you need to select only one option
- your project may include activity to do with more than one option; we want to know where you feel the main focus is
- the descriptions below are a guide to help you decide
- don't worry if you're not sure – we'll check we agree with the option you've selected when we look at your application

Jason Kwan is a queer-Asian singer-songwriter establishing his presence on the UK pop scene. He now draws on his commercial success to record & release an 10-track album that bravely pioneers LGBTQ+ ESEA representation within pop culture; sustaining & elevating his creative career.

Jason is classically trained in piano, has opera vocal training, & creates dark indie pop (Glam-Rock Opera) drawing from his classical teaching. His style exemplifies queer culture in its essence & draws on:

- disco
- dance music
- techno
- queer club culture.

Set to authentically capture & platform an LGBTQ+ ESEA experience, Jason draws on:

- his own life experiences; exploring the intersectional queer-Asian path he has walked, & subsequent themes like: parent-child relationships, attitudes to queer identities, coming out, & immigration.
- stories & feedback from the queer/Asian communities; broadening the scope of Jason's content, to incorporate collective stories, diversify LGBTQ+ ESEA representation, & demystify the creative process for underrepresented groups starting professional careers of their own.

Jason's music making & marketing comprises:

- 10 writing & recording sessions with Michelangelo Dousis, then 2 mixing & mastering sessions with Angus Luke; sustaining queer/Asian run studios & refining Jason's artistic pop excellence
- 5 Marketing & Mentoring sessions with marketing consultant Ange Joe, & project consultation with Sasolo; aligning industry opps & developing artistic/career potential
- Consultation with ESEA Music on workshop building; drawing on co-founder Tiger Reid's success connecting ESEA artists to the industry
- 4 rehearsals with the band (keys, guitar & drums); preparing for final showcase performance & ensuring artistic excellence
- Final album showcase at Moth Club, Hackney; Jason's fans, collaborators & industry professionals experience live album material
- YouTube livestream of Moth Club show; overcoming geographical boundaries to participation.

Reaching his target audiences, Jason delivers:

- 13 (in person & online) music listening feedback sessions; prioritising minority voices in the feedback process; decentering the white lens ensures that LGBTQ+ ESEA responses are mindfully received as influential feedback in artistic decision-making
- 4 focus groups (10 online participants) for queer/Asian individuals; providing spaces for community process, & gathering stories to incorporate creatively, broadening representation
- 4 music workshops (16 in person participants) for queer-Asian musicians via The Bitten Peach (queer Asian performing collective); upskilling artists & giving opps to start creative industry careers in tandem with Jason's elevation.

The creation of this album gives Jason agency to carve a career path that is uniquely his own; to spotlight his personal life stories, & bring awareness to the many underrepresented voices that his album amplifies.

What's led you or your organisation to do this project now?

Up to 1500 characters

- What ideas or experiences have led you or your organisation to this point?
- Is this project helping you or your organisation learn or try new things?
- If you've done something similar before, how is this different?
- You can write this in full paragraphs or in bullet points

Jason moved to the UK (age 14) on a music scholarship, & became a full-time musician in 2019. As a queer, non-binary, artist from Hong Kong (HK), he has faced inclusion challenges.

Leslie Cheung, queer pop icon from HK, is THE only example of HK queer rep that exists to date. Cheung had a formidable career, but the stigma of being openly gay led to his suicide in 2003. Jason's career now presses Jason to re-write legacy & envision a path of his own; one which actualises his full artistic expression, & personal safety & wellbeing.

Jason has rapidly outgrown the underground music & cabaret scenes that developed his dark indie pop style. His 5 singles to date amass a total 129,000 Spotify streams & he has completed a new EP (Feb 2024 release.)

An enigmatic performer, Jason's live stage theatrics are part of his artistry. He has opened for Rina Sawayama (only current mainstream east Asian artist in the Western world) & has ft. on BBC 6 Music & BBC Intro.

His fanbase has grown through SM, DSPs, & festivals, inc:

- Glasto, & Southbank Meltdown (2022)
- National Prides, inc. Ldn, UK Black Pride, Brighton, Manchester, B.ham, & Mighty Hoopla (2022-2023)

Jason now applies new creating methods; receiving influential feedback from LGBTQ+ ESEA communities in the making process. His project raises social & cultural capital for representative cohorts; sustaining his own career & improving career sitelines for underrepresented emergent artists to start creative careers too.

How will you know if you've achieved what you set out to do?

Up to 1500 characters

- Are there opportunities for learning and reflection during your project?
- How will you know what difference the project has made?
- What steps will you take to understand what people thought of the project?
- You can write this in full paragraphs or in bullet points

By placing feedback & evaluation at the heart of his process, Jason innovates his artistic approach. Throughout, he will reflect on:

- his musical quality & career trajectory
- participants' & partners' experience
- the success of his album release.

Achievements will be marked by:

- the completion of 10 tracks; mixed, mastered & released (digital platforms)
- 180+ tickets sold for the album showcase, with celebratory feedback on his work
- 20 press/industry professionals attending showcase; leading to elevated career opps for Jason inc. bookings, management & further collabs
- 16+ participants positively impacted by the creation process; feeling creatively motivated & accurately represented by Jason's work.

Progress & impact will be tracked via:

- reflection sessions with producer after every 3-4 studio sessions; ensuring production goals are met
- 5 mentoring sessions with Ange Joe; for Jason's personal reflections on the pursuits of commercial success
- direct feedback via sessions & focus groups, & post-event form feedback to capture the longer-term effects of facilitation
- ongoing coms with key partners; The Bitten Peach & event co-facilitators
- creative counselling & mentorship with sasolo.

Livestream footage of the final showcase will be used to reflect on Jason's performance & the audience's response. Select footage will be repurposed for future promotion; the conclusion of this project marks the beginning of a new era; queer-Asian pop.

Inclusivity and Relevance

What steps are you taking to make your project inclusive and relevant?

Up to 3000 characters

Inclusivity

- How will you make sure the communities you want to reach are able to access your project, and feel included and welcomed?
- What things might stop people experiencing or accessing your project, and how will you address them?

Relevance

- How have you involved the people you want to reach in the design and planning of your project?
- What information or data do you have on the place or community your project involves? How have you used this to shape your project?

Creative Diversity Network's reporting states that ESEA representation in the UK is the lowest ethnicity represented in the media, with such low numbers that data has been redacted. According to a data report issued by ACE, only 9% of artists within the industry openly identify as LGBTQ+.

Jason represents an extreme minority within pop. He uses the creation process as a vehicle to:

- platform LGBTQ+ ESEA communities
- evolve pop culture by presenting new themes & visuals
- challenge the stereotypes about Asian men in pop culture eg. K-pop.

This album supports:

- Jason Kwan; to advance in his career, with an authentic message that contrasts the industry's dominant white & hetero-normative narratives
- LGBTQ+ ESEA focus group & feedback participants; to feel included & relevant in a project that represents their own life experiences
- queer-Asian music workshop participants; to accelerate in skills development & carve a career for themselves in the industry; Jason elevates others as well as himself
- Audience members & listeners; to feel heard & seen by the album material, using it to normalise difficult conversations that might not otherwise be had.

Platforming Jason in mainstream pop revolutionises mainstream music, foregrounding the intersection of LGBTQ+ /ESEA, rarely (if ever) seen in UK pop culture. The inherent challenges that Jason has faced through his career, are overcome through the existence of this album. His album visibilises not only Jason as an artist, but the messages that his music amplifies: his own, & wider LGBTQ+ ESEA narratives.

By including queer & Asian individuals to participate in focus groups, workshops & feedback sessions, Jason creates a safe space for stories to be explored. Trained in safeguarding, Jason will lead these events with the support of 2 co-facilitators (1 online & 1 in person). Jason & both co-facilitators (Abdul Hasan & Alisa Morris) have safeguarding training & extensive experience engaging LGBTQ+ participants. Jason & his team reflect the target demographics as queer/trans/Asian.

The Bitten Peach, workshop hosts & project partner, have worked with over 70 performers of Asian descent, spanning a variety of cabaret art forms both on & off stage. Bitten Peach's workshops will be located at Studio West End, a Central London venue with wheelchair accessibility.

32 Free showcase tickets will be given to for workshop/ focus group participants & collaborators; sharing network & access to industry professionals gives opps for emerging artists to network & open up career sitelines

This album serves as a conduit for healing & transformation for LGBTQ+ ESEA minority experiences. It will forge a pathway for difficult & sensitive conversations to be had. As such, the effect of Jason's music is revolutionary & essential for the inclusion & upliftment of every person who speaks Jason's message; that queer-Asian voices deserve to exist in the culture of UK pop music.

Your planning

You've told us what you want to do and what you hope to achieve. We now need to understand how this will come together to be successfully delivered.

We need to know:

- Your project plan – what you're going to do and when
- Your plans for managing the project – you don't need to have managed a project before, but you need to show you've thought about what you'll do or who will support you
- Who you'll work with and how they'll contribute
- What your budget is and how you've worked it out, including paying everyone fairly
- How you will respond to challenges you might encounter

Project timeline

Project End Date: 03/09/2024

You've told us the start and end date of your project. We need to know what will happen during your project. Creating a timeline shows the key tasks that your project is made up of.

We understand that plans can change over the life of a project, but we need to see that you have a plan in place to deliver your project.

To create the table, click the 'Add new item' icon on the left of the screen to add a project stage. To add more than one stage, use the 'Save and Add another' button.

The table at the bottom of the page will populate with the information you enter about the stages of your project.

Budget: How much are you applying to us for?

We need to know how much money you are applying to us for.

We'll ask you to tell us how much money you'll have to spend on the project (the income) and what you will spend it on (the expenditure). We'll also ask you to think about any challenges for your project and explain how you will respond to these.

Whilst we understand that budgets can change over the life of a project, this information allows us to see how you've planned your budget and how realistic it is that your project will deliver what you want it to.

Please read the Budget section of our Guidance for Applicants for help on completing your budget.

Please tell us the total amount you are applying to us for, including any personal access costs (£): £29,210

*If you, or any of the core team of people you are delivering the project with, experience barriers because you identify as:

- D/deaf or disabled

there may be extra costs relating to your access needs. These would be to:

- help you deliver the project; or
- for the online management of your grant.
- Some examples are: a BSL interpreter, a notetaker, or specialist tutor for admin support, or counselling costs.

Costs can only be for the project period (between your project start date and end date).

Costs for caring responsibilities or costs for making your activity accessible to the people experiencing your project, including participants, can be included as part of your project budget but should not be included as personal access costs.

Only include personal access costs that you will have if your application is successful. This does not include costs relating to preparing, planning and submitting your application.

You can find more about personal access costs, and more about how we can support you to submit an application, in our Access Support information sheet.

If your personal access costs take your request over £100,000 we will still treat your application as an application for £30,001 and over

Moth Club Music Venue as a capacity of 300. Jason shares a confident estimate 60% in attendance, with expectations for a higher turnout given industry support & promo partnerships. In the event that sales are lesser, a contingency is factored into the budget.
(60% of 300 capacity is 180 x £12/ticket = £2,160)

Streams & Downloads:

- 10 tracks x 1000 streams per track = 10000 (£0.002 each) = £20
- 500 downloads (£0.02 each) = £10

IN KIND

- Ange Joe will mentor Jason across 5 sessions valued at £250 each.

Risks and challenges

There are risk and challenges to any project. Our funding can support you to take more risks than you might normally be able to. It may allow you to try new creative or cultural ideas, despite the unknowns and the possible financial or reputational risks.

Taking creative or cultural risk is important because it means that creativity and culture are always growing and changing.

It's important that you've thought about what the risks or challenges are. If they happen, you're then able to manage them and still deliver your project successfully.

If you want to understand more about risk, including the different types of risk, you can have a look at our Practitioners guide to identifying and managing risk information sheet.

What are the main risks and challenges to your project meeting its aims?

Up to 2000 characters

- What could go wrong?
- What might happen differently?

R1: Lack of interest/attendance: due to the sensitive, challenging & personal nature of LGBTQ+ ESEA stories being explored, community members may feel resistance to participating in focus groups, workshops, & feedback sessions

R2: Timeline difficulties: technical &/or creative challenges during the recording process leading to delays in album completion

R3: Potential backlash: with a growing fanbase & non-normative image, Jason may receive criticism or online harassment from individuals or groups opposed to LGBTQ+ / ESEA representation in mainstream pop culture affecting Jason Kwan's morale & wellbeing

R4: Industry professionals: difficulty in securing press, industry professionals & mainstream connections to attend at the album showcase

R5: Trauma awareness: workshop & focus group participants may experience severe emotional or psychological responses to the themes explored in the project, such as trauma or distress, due to the challenging nature of minority lived experiences being brought to light.

R6: Maintaining momentum: Jason & partners may experience difficulty in maintaining momentum & engagement with the project over its duration

What will you do to manage these risks?

Up to 2000 characters

- What plans have you put in place?
- Have these actions worked before?

Mitigation 1: Lack of interest/attendance: Jason & partners will be intentional in the message & marketing, making sure that events are conveyed as a safe & welcoming to target cohorts

M2: Timeline difficulties: At regular intervals through the creative project, Jason & Michelangelo will review & reflect on the process, & plan for the next 3-4 sessions. With this they ensure to stay on track & implement effectively, according to the deadlines set

M3: Potential backlash: Jason surrounds himself with minority representatives who can relate to his queer-Asian experience. He will develop a robust communication strategy to address & manage any criticism, focusing on, & emphasising the positive impact & importance of LGBTQ+ representation

M4: Industry professionals: personalised invitations & follow-up communication will be sent to press representatives & industry professionals, highlighting the unique value of the album showcase, & requesting rsvp for predictable numbers

M5: Trauma awareness: facilitators are representative of & experienced in working with Jason's target cohorts. Events will prioritise participant well-being & safety by implementing trauma-informed approaches. Small groups will mean it is possible to maintain the intimacy required to traverse such subjects

M6: Maintaining momentum: Jason & partners will foster open dialogue & consistent reflection throughout the process, prioritising creative alignment & keeping enthusiasm high.

You acknowledge that safeguarding is important in all projects working with the public. You acknowledge that if your project is funded you must sign up to Terms and Conditions that require you to have appropriate policies and procedures in place – and to put them into effect where needed – to support the safe delivery of the project.

About you / your organisation

We use all of this information in an anonymised way to help us see a clear picture of who we are supporting through Project Grants, and how this might need to change to ensure that, over time, the grants we make reflect the diversity of contemporary England.

We also use some of the information to help us make funding decisions.

Sometimes we prioritise supporting people and organisations who share characteristics that are underrepresented in recipients or beneficiaries of National Lottery Project Grants funding, so it helps us to know the characteristics of the individual or the organisation applying.

We believe that the creativity of each of us should be valued and given the chance to flourish, and every one of us should have access to a remarkable range of high-quality cultural experiences.

Equitable access to arts and culture funding is an important part of this. We believe the spread of who and what we invest in should reflect the makeup of the wider country we live in.

This is about us delivering on our Equality Objective:

We will ensure a more equitable distribution of our investment to improve opportunities for everyone, especially those with under-represented protected characteristics and from disadvantaged socio-economic groups.

We know from our data that Black, Asian and ethnically diverse people and disabled people are underrepresented as recipients and beneficiaries of National Lottery Project Grants funding. If you choose to tell us, information about your ethnicity and whether you identify as a disabled person may be used as part of our decision-making process. (If you're applying as an organisation, we'll use the information you give us about the characteristics of your organisation's board and/or senior management.) We will use this information combined with information about who your project will work with, and all the other information you give us about your project.

We will never share this information with others, except in an anonymised way.

If you're not comfortable sharing any of this information with us for this purpose, you can select 'Prefer not to say'.

Monitoring information

We use the information in this section to report how we have spent our funding from the National Lottery.

In this section, you must answer all the questions. If you prefer not to provide some of the information, you can tick the 'Prefer not to answer' box. We may use this information to report to the Government or to monitor the different backgrounds of people who receive grants.
