National Lottery Project Grants

We will ask you questions about different parts of your activity:

An inter-continental (Africa/India) collaboration of 2 virtuoso musicians. Both outstanding young pioneers of folkloric excellence; cultural custodians producing zeitgeist material to enrich the UK music ecology through a series of recording, performance & masterclass opportunities.

The collaboration will support Sura Susso (UK/Gambia - Kora) & Debasmita Bhattacharya (UK/India - Sarode) with:

- Sergio Serra, Spanish cellist
- Qing Du, Guzheng, Chinese harpist
- Malcik Mbengue, percussion.

The project will create:

- unique music that fuses the history of 2 great oral traditions from Africa & India
- a new collaborative / diasporic idiom that investigates the fertile meeting ground between the kora's Griot heritage & rich musical tradition of the Senia Shahjahanpur Gharana.

A testament to the creative fertility of the UK, it produces:

- an album of new music, recorded & produced here
- pre tour, accessible listening opportunity
- 3 masterclasses (Bristol/London/Hastings); singing & instrumentation for BIPOC/tertiary level & YP.

Feasibility and risk

This section helps us to understand how you will successfully deliver your project.

We need to know your plans for managing the project, what your budget is and how you will respond to any risks or challenges.

You don't need to have managed a project before, but you need to be able to demonstrate that you have given consideration to how you will manage the project, the budget, and any risks/challenges, and that you or your project partners have the skills to ensure it is delivered successfully.

When we look at your answers to the questions in this section we will think about:

- whether the budget is appropriate for the scale and type of activity?
- how appropriate are the areas of income and spending?
- whether all items in the budget are relevant and reasonable [are fees or wages appropriate to the context? Have quotes for assets/equipment been appropriately researched for any purchases?]
- whether the activity is attracting income from other sources; - is any other income confirmed? If not, are your potential income sources realistic?
- if appropriate financial controls are in place - Do you or the people you're working with have the necessary skills to manage the budget?
- if the activity is realistic and well-planned, and if you have demonstrated that you or the people you are working with are able to deliver the project

Name: Surahata Susso
Main contact (if organisation):
Email address: surasusso@gmail.com

Role in project: Lead artist. Sura Susso was born in The Gambia, into a family of griots. Griots, referred to in Mandinka as Jali, are cultural figures in society across West Africa who carry the cultural knowledge and identity of the people. This hereditary legacy stretches back hundreds of years. Traditionally, the knowledge and history surrounding the kora are passed on from father to son. Griots are orators, lyricists and musicians who are also respected as a source of advice and spiritual guidance. They have an important role in key ceremonies such as naming ceremonies, and marriages. Sura started his lifelong study of the Kora, and a range of other percussion instruments at the age of four. His father, Mamudou Susso, is a renowned kora player in The Gambia, and his late mother, Fatou Bintu Cissokho, originally from the Casamance region of Senegal, was a formidable singer and percussionist. The family household including many brothers, sisters, cousins, uncles, aunts, and elders was constantly filled with music. This musical immersion in such a natural environment as a child provided the solid foundations for Sura's musical development. Sura's debut album 'Sila Kang' was released on KuliMarow Music on the 20th of June 2011. Sila Kang, meaning 'on the road', was a reflection on his journey as young musician. Infused with passion and youthful vigor yet contemplative, the album received extensive airplay and critical acclaim in national publications in the UK. His second album 'Tila Saba' was released on 26 March 2021. The name, which is from a Mandinka adage, is symbolic of the transition of time and the transient nature of the world. The album embodies this concept as it explores the past, draws inspiration from the present and contemplates the future through the Kora and its journey across centuries.

Role in project: Lead artist. Born into a musically rich environment in West Bengal, Debasmita is one of India's finest young Sarode players, representing the rich musical tradition of the Senia Shahjahanpur Gharana. Debasmita's musical journey began at the tender age of 4. She first started learning from her father and guru, Sarode maestro Pandit Debasish Bhattacharya. Consequently, she entered into the tutelage and guidance of the late Sarode virtuoso, legendary Padma Bhushan Pandit Buddhadev Dasgupta of the Senia Shahjahanpur Gharana. Debasmita attended the ITC Sangeet Research Academy (Kolkata) until 2017, under the constant vigil of her guru Pandit Buddhadev Dasgupta. During her tenure as a scholar in the academy, she had the good fortune of being closely associated with eminent musicians and gurus like Smt. Girija Devi ji, Ustad Abdul Rashid Khan, Pandit Ajay Chakraborty and Pandit Ullas Kashalkar to name a few. As an "A" – grade scholar of the prestigious Academy, Debasmita is fortunate to have shared the stage with the great maestros during ITC SRA Music Festivals, organised across India and abroad. She has performed in Kolkata & other parts of West Bengal, Mumbai, Varanasi, Vadodara and Bangladesh. Under the strict, yet affectionate guidance of her guru, Debasmita slowly bloomed into a very able disciple. This has led to her development and growth as a promising and competent performer of the young generation. She is well rooted in the foundations of her guru's knowledge and teachings of the Senia Shahjahanpur Gharana, which has enabled her the ability to explore music, raga and the many shades of human emotion through her own expressions and idiosyncrasies. Along her journey, Debasmita has received numerous accolades and awards as an acknowledgement of her enthusiasm and dedication to the art. Internationally, she marked her debut with a solo performance in Sweden, 2014. Since then she has performed world over including major countries like UK, USA, Australia, Middle- East

Risks and challenges

What are the main risks and challenges to your project meeting its aims?
What will you do to manage these risks?

Up to 1500 characters

1. Not Engaging Audiences / Communities

John Crosby / Anna Sandford will ensure wide coverage for the listening party & album launch, maximising confirmed pre-sales. Liaison with St. George's & all 3 confirmed wkshp venues will ensure wider/new/yngr audiences for the soft launch & develop a platform for the collaboration.

Targeting for wkshps will be aimed at each partners engaged networks of community stakeholders who attend events / regular workshops at each venue - reaching into BIPOC/rural/urban/west African & Indian communities to reflect the key artists. By offering free tickets for the final event, the project fosters local/BIPOC interest in creative futures, sitting them alongside industry gatekeepers.

2. Management: not holding the schedule/working practice tight to accommodate the KPI's

Sasolo, Anna Sandford & John Crosby will work together to ensure timely, appropriate & scaled actions. Sasolo are employed to ensure the work produces a public facing impact report that focuses on the potential for their collaboration in the commercial, public & private sectors. A (digital) booklet will be produced to accompany the EPK, so that gatekeepers/promoters & orgs can align with proposed developments for Sura & Debasmita. A spreadsheet & workflow scheme managed on Google drive will oversee this, & a shared Slack channel.

Delivering the Outcomes

Your Project and the Outcomes

Our strategy sets out three outcomes; Creative People, Cultural Communities and A Creative and Cultural Country. We do not expect every project to address all three outcomes, but we do want projects to align to at least one and to set out in detail how particular components are being addressed.

You can read about our three outcomes here: <https://www.artscouncil.org.uk/outcomes-0>

When we look at your answers to the questions in this section, where relevant we will think about:

- How your project is supporting people at all stages of their lives to design, develop and increase their participation in high quality creative activities
- If your project focuses on children and young people:
 - If your project reaches families from a wide range of backgrounds
 - If you are widening and improving opportunities for children and young people to take part in creative activities outside schools
 - if your project is supporting children and young people to develop their creative skills and potential
- If you are working with communities to better understand and respond to their needs and interests, resulting in increased cultural engagement and the wide range of social benefits it brings
- If your project is exploring new types of creative practice, new forms of cultural content and new ways of reaching new and existing audiences and participants
- If you are collaborating with other cultural organisations and/or with the commercial creative industries and/or with further and higher education that focuses on innovation, research and development and training, especially in relation to the use of new technologies
- If your project is strengthening the international connections of cultural organisations and creative and cultural practitioners, including co-production and touring
- If your project is bringing world-class culture to audiences in England
- If your project helps to ensure people have opportunities to sustain their careers and fulfil their potential in the creative industries, especially those who are currently under-represented
- If your project is connecting people and places, nationally and internationally

How will your project contribute to the delivery of at least one of our Outcomes, including which, if any, of the Outcome components?

A Creative and Cultural Country: England's cultural sector is innovative, collaborative and international, Creative People: Everyone can develop and express creativity throughout their life

Inclusivity and Relevance

This Investment Principle is about England's diversity being fully reflected in the organisations and individuals we support and the culture they produce through:

Communities

- Tell us who you want to reach with this project, how you have identified them, and how they have been involved in the planning and/or creative process
- Tell us about the steps will you take to make sure your project is open and accessible to people within the communities you plan to work with

Up to 1500 characters

MAC will be free to access for all participants, & use devolved triage to ensure the programme connects to the stakeholders via orgs who are open, accessible, local & best fit. It will involve:

- Yng music students interested in folkloric music from the diasporas, reached by Raw Material as part of their Co-Lab programme; involving early career artists, who are actively overcoming barriers & have articulated what they want to explore, musically
- Mid-career artists, peers, agents, promoters & ecological supporters through targeted invites to the listening party; to improve touring potential
- Vulnerable adults & yng ppl KS2-4 in collab with Barefoot Opera via outreach with Seaview Centre & local schls
- Established artists, who have nevertheless identified limits in their trajectories stemming from an under representative music space & inflexible sector, eg. the supporting artists who are keen to invest time in the collab to explore new ways of overcoming tropes re classical/tribal/folkloric, to build new audiences & spaces
- West African community - kora players, descendants of & 1st gen immigrants, connecting to their culture & retaining Griot traditions in the diaspora.

The entire prog is free to access, the listening event will host a Q&A to ensure the proposed national tour supports the wkshp & performance template, bringing information, cultural enrichment, & equity of access to each region it visits.

Workforce

- If you're engaging a team of people to work on your project, or are working in partnership with other individuals or organisations, tell us:
- How you will ensure they reflect the communities you wish to reach
- How you will ensure access to opportunities are open and accessible
- If you're not working with anyone else on your project you should explain why and consider how working with others would help you to reflect the communities you wish to reach.

Up to 1500 characters

- Raw Material - ensure yng ppl from the represented diasporas, in urban locations, with an existing relationship to music - often using production & beat making, have the opportunity to connect to the folkloric roots of their current interests
- Barefoot opera - connect the wkshps to vulnerable adults & YP via existing programmes, to ensure that equity of access to all is centred in this project
- Kora Association Bristol - reaches not only kora players, but the wider families & communities from the West African diaspora, making sure that the project reaches those it represents musically & sustains the Griot repertoire & tradition of oral/cultural historians
- Working with Debasmita means the pedagogical wkshps that relate to each cohort (through pre-delivery discussions with each outreach partner) can tailor the work to each cohort, e.g. kora & sarode for the kora association, vocal work for Barefoot opera & a combination for the Raw Material musicians
- St. George's is the ideal location for the listening party, central to Bristol's thriving global music scene
- Each collaborative artist on the album creates music that reflects their cultural ambassadorship & excellence; ensuring the music created is woven through with tradition, idiomatic tuning, pattern, melody & phrasing to bring a new, innovative collab to life.

Creative Case

- Tell us how your project addresses the Creative Case for Diversity

Read about the Creative Case for Diversity here

Up to 1500 characters

- Developing agency & autonomy for Black & Brown people in music by creating networks, assets & spaces for them to lead, collaborate & platform excellence in folkloric work
- Diversifying 'gatekeeping' by re-codifying excellence & deepening the understanding of 'tribal' as classical, sharing heritage music to unpick modern narratives that then encourages more Black/Brown people to make music
- Changing what professional looks like by listening to & platforming artists from the diaspora, who bring new pedagogies to the UK ecology
- Supporting YP to undertake professional development, lead by representative artists
- Funding & hence visibilising with quality, new, exciting music to evolve traditional audiences
- Providing excellence in West African & South Asian music, to build resilience in the sector & connect to a thriving international scene
- Creating digital content to encourage international audience development & partnering with female led management & evaluation
- Promoting Griot culture to engage nuanced Wolof/Djola/Mandeng communities regionally
- The final event will also offer a discussion forum to examine the narrative of under representation & 'inter-continental fusion futures'.

Both lead artists play ancient instruments, which both have 21 strings, both come from a family of musicians & started playing aged 4, taught by their fathers. Both are interested in using this funding to explore the similarities, & meeting places of their work, & the vast possibilities of its differences. A Black man & a Brown woman, creating music, on a world stage, with world class possibilities. This project will:

- explore & articulate the resonance of their work
- investigate, record, devise, perform & document the incredible meeting place of these 2 cultural idioms
- create a tourable body of work
- release the duo's 1st album together, to launch a range of touring & recording possibilities
- unite Debasmita's influences; e.g. from Senia Shahjahanpur Gharana, (which has enabled her ability to explore music, raga & the many shades of human emotion through her own expressions & idiosyncrasies) with Sura's notably nuanced kora repertoire, which draws on a traditional Griot range, plus the idiomatic influences of a life lived in the diaspora
- create an opportunity to record vocals, & a unique instrumentation collab (Chinese harp, sarode, kora & cello)
- improve duo's profile
- build new pedagogical repertoire - teaching & working with YP, means developing sustainable wide reaching skills that offer resilience & flexibility
- release music videos & EPK to visibilise the project, using the assets to communicate the work internationally through multi platform launch.
