

Introduction

National Lottery Project Grants

We will ask you questions about different parts of your activity:

- Some basic details about your project – when it's happening, what it's called
- What you want to do, why, and what you want it to achieve
- Who your project will engage, and how they'll engage with it
- How you will manage the project
- The budget for the project

We will use the information you give us in this application to decide whether we will offer you a grant.

The first few screens are autofilled with information you have already provided in your applicant profile. If you need to make any amendments, go back to the 'Applicants' section and edit your applicant profile.

Throughout Grantium, any questions marked with an asterisk (*) must be answered otherwise you won't be able to submit your form.

All our text boxes have a character limit. Please stick to this character limit as any additional text won't be saved.

Please note that currently decisions for National Lottery Project Grants applications for up to £30,000 will take up to 9 weeks. Decisions for National Lottery Project Grants applications for £30,000 and over will take up to 14 weeks.

Feasibility and risk

This section helps us to understand how you will successfully deliver your project.

We need to know your plans for managing the project, what your budget is and how you will respond to any risks or challenges.

You don't need to have managed a project before, but you need to be able to demonstrate that you have given consideration to how you will manage the project, the budget, and any risks/challenges, and that you or your project partners have the skills to ensure it is delivered successfully.

When we look at your answers to the questions in this section we will think about:

- whether the budget is appropriate for the scale and type of activity?
- how appropriate are the areas of income and spending?
- whether all items in the budget are relevant and reasonable [are fees or wages appropriate to the context? Have quotes for assets/equipment been appropriately researched for any purchases?]
- whether the activity is attracting income from other sources; - is any other income confirmed? If not, are your potential income sources realistic?
- if appropriate financial controls are in place - Do you or the people you're working with have the necessary skills to manage the budget?
- if the activity is realistic and well-planned, and if you have demonstrated that you or the people you are working with are able to deliver the project

Project timeline

Project dates

Tell us the start and end dates for your project.

Please allow enough time to plan your project and for us to process your application, as well as enough time for us to make a payment before your start date if your project is successful. See our How to apply guidance for more details.

The dates you give here should be the dates for the full project you’re asking us to fund.

Please note that currently decisions for National Lottery Project Grants applications for up to £30,000 will take up to 9 weeks.

Project start date: 01/10/2023
Project end date: 15/12/2024

Please use the tool below to list the main stages and tasks of the project from the start date onwards, and to show who will lead on each element of the project. Please add each project stage in order. You must enter at least one stage.

To create the table, click the 'Add new item' icon on the left of the screen to add a project stage. To add more than one stage, use the 'Save and Add another' button.

The table at the bottom of the page will populate with the information you enter about the stages of your project.

Budget - Income

Income table

Please complete the income table below with all your cash income, as well as any support in kind you will receive. (By support in kind we mean goods or services that you would otherwise have to pay for, but are being provided for free.)

Remember:

- Your budget must balance. This means your total income needs to be the same amount as your total expenditure.
- Only include income that relates specifically to this project.
- Do not include personal access costs in the income table. These are automatically included in the total amount you are requesting from us.
- For any earned income you should include how these amounts have been calculated in the description field, for example:
Ticket sales (7 dates @ 60% of 100 capacity x £8 ticket price) £3,360

To add an income line

To add each income line, click the 'Add new item' icon on the left of the screen. To add more than one line of expenditure, use the 'Save and Add another' button.

Confirmed Income; the following project income contribution is secured & confirmed, highlighting demand for this work:

- Curiosa has confirmed private investment from its reserves of £3000
- St George's (venue for October Symposium) contribution to wkshp & performance fees; value of £1,700. St George's is confirmed & will be in place prior to the intended start date of the project.

SIK:

-generous support in kind from a mix of key project stakeholders including St George's, TIALT (human-centred research & evaluation) & programme facilitators to the combined value of £9,160, adds robust financial support to this project. Securing a wide range of support for project activities & organisational development.

Expected Income:

- earned income from ticket sales (based on previous events) from the coming October Symposium performance & wkshps, expected to raise £2,452.

The group will match any drops in expected income from company reserves.

Budget - Expenditure

Expenditure table

Please complete the expenditure table below with all your cash expenditure.

Remember:

- Your budget must balance. This means your total expenditure needs to be the same amount as your total income.
- Only include expenditure that will be spent between the start and end date of your project.
- The table already includes any Support in kind you added on the Income screen so you do not need to add this.
- Breakdown your expenditure so we can understand your costs, for example: Artist fee (2 x Creative specialists @ £150 per day for 10 days = £3,000)

Name: The Well - Global Vocal Improvisation Network

Main contact (if organisation): Chiara Cortez

Email address: thewellvocal.info@gmail.com

Role in project: Bringing an international network to the autumn
Up to 2000 characters streamed panel discussion and survey result presentation. The Well is a global network that supports and inspires vocal improvisation practices that incorporate collaboration, self-inquiry and human connection, creating spontaneous music with the voice and body. The Well: ""We are performers, teachers and students, choir directors and members, composers, sound healers, music therapists, nature collaborators, community organisers, folk and Indigenous music holders who bring the essential qualities of vocal improvisation to our work. Vocal improvisation can take so many forms that we cannot name or define them all. It might be practised solo, in small groups, or within large gatherings. With or without leaders, roles, rules, or facilitation. It may or may not include words, groove, harmony. It may or may not involve movement. It might focus on musicality, spirituality, self- expression, social bonding - the possibilities go on and on. We believe that vocal improvisation has been an integral part of human expression and music-making since ancient times, a spontaneous practice woven into oral traditions from around the world. It is an art form pertaining to humanity itself; connecting vibrant global communities such as those originating from Brazil's Música do Círculo, Rhiannon's Vocal River curriculum, Denmark's Vocal Painting, France's Chant pour Tous, Bobby McFerrin's Circlesongs School at Omega Institute and in California, USA.

Role in project: Partner for the sharing of the national Vocal Improv survey and inviting artists from a Black Caribbean background to the June Artist Residency. A network of Black writers, artists, academics, Immakers, musicians, scientists, lawyers, entrepreneurs, theatre-makers, students and professionals. We are members of the African and Caribbean diaspora. We are of all ages, ancestries, genders, disabilities and identities. We are diverse yet united as we share a common goal: to elevate Black creativity through community with an unprecedented all-Black UK network for the arts. Their aims: Connect Black professionals to the creative and cultural industries to increase career opportunities. Connect Black creators with politicians, policy makers and funding to realise our ideas and increase opportunities for future generations. Create space for increased collaboration between Black creatives through partnerships, community and the mentoring and development of new talent. Celebrate and archive the contribution of Black creatives to the arts through live events. The annual Foundation Festival and the rst ever Black British Arts and Culture Symposium are designed to better support the charitable work of our community by organisations such as The Black Cultural Archives, Stephen Lawrence Charitable Trust and The Midi Music Company.

Name: Aisha Ali

Main contact (if organisation):

Email address: aisha.ali.compositions@gmail.com

Role in project: Aisha will be running an EDI workshop for us, we chose them because of their existing link with vocal improvisation as a theatre maker & facilitator. Aisha: "I am a Non-Binary, Queer, South Asian Vocal Artist, Improviser, Composer, Producer and Workshop facilitator. As a performer, I love to work in an improvised way whether it is vocally or physically and I have trained with Holly Stoppit in the art of Fooling and with various teachers learning the magic of Collaborative Vocal Improvisation (CVI). I thrive on the rawness and authenticity of playing with the present moment - it's so risky but equally so alive. I think the body is capable of telling stories words cannot convey so easily as it takes you to a different level of perception and interpretation. I have experience performing on theatre stage, festivals and unusual outdoor bespoke settings. I have 7 years' experience as a somatic counsellor and see the world through a political lens. I am passionate about Radical Inclusion and decolonising practises in the Arts, which is why I set up Kiota. I can tailor the workshop to suit your needs, running more general workshops to cover the basics or more in-depth ones focussing specifically on certain areas such as race."

Name: Hawkwood College - Centre for Future Thinking
Main contact (if organisation): Penny Gundry
Email address: venue@hawkwoodcollege.co.uk

Role in project: The venue for the June Artist Residency, chosen for accessibility, facilities as well as the focus on creativity and innovation. Hawkwood Centre for Future Thinking is set in a beautiful, sustainably run estate. As a charity, we bring together people and organisations from many backgrounds in support of creative endeavour, a flourishing community and a sustainable environment. We aim to encourage people to make a considered difference to today's society and to our future, and our place provides an ethical, peaceful and inspirational environment to enable individuals and organisations to grow and develop. We aim to be a beacon of sustainability both in the way we work and how we manage our land. The estate occupies forty-two acres and is run along biodynamic lines. Twenty acres are leased to Stroud Community Agriculture, a community-supported agriculture collective which ensures a sustainable organic approach to land management. We believe there has never been a more important time for the arts/cultural sector to join forces with environmental/sustainability & wellbeing sectors and our connection across sectors is what makes us unique. The environment is fast becoming a key area of focus in most organisations. Hawkwood has extensive experience of facilitating the connection between arts and the environment through our programmes but also through our place and is now able to work closely with artists and arts organisation to support their work in this area, breaking down barriers between sectors and creating a melting pot of debate and creativity between sectors.

Email address: trish.brown@stgeorgesbristol.co.uk

Role in project: The venue for the October Symposium, panel talk and performance. Curiosa have performed there in May 2022 as part of this year's Festival of Voice. St George's Bristol is a world-class, independent music venue in the heart of Bristol. Their concert hall was converted from a 200-year-old Georgian church, and is a truly special space where we welcome the finest performances from the world's greatest artists. Their hall also has what Sir Simon Rattle called 'the best acoustic for chamber music in Europe' – meaning you can experience every note, riff, song, or symphony with perfect clarity (and often, no amplification at all!) As well as a space for music, they're a space for performance, learning and ideas. They even offer a philosophy season, lots of events for children and families, lunchtime concerts, plus author talks and comedians.

Name: Kiota Collective

Main contact (if organisation): Aisha Ali

Email address: aisha.ali.compositions@gmail.com

Role in project: Kiota Collective will provide consultancy on diversity and inclusion (D&I) within the UK vocal improv community. Founded in 2018, Kiota Bristol was started by Spoken Word Poet Shagufta Iqbal and Vocal Artist, Improviser and Producer, Aisha Ali. It was borne out of a conversation around the alienation created by often being the only Person of Colour in Theatre and Arts Spaces in Bristol. Shagufta talked about her experience with the Bristol Black Writers, whose support radically transformed her art and changed her voice as a Poet as she no longer was catering to a white audience and had amazing mentors. Aisha felt they were constantly having to explain their experience to the people they worked with and wanted a space to grow as an artists where that wouldn't be necessary. They were also very struck by the racial divide in Theatre Spaces in Bristol and wanted to tackle that. With the support of The Wardrobe Theatre, Kiota Bristol had its first show in February 2019 with great reception. The various performances and panel discussion tackled racism, issues of identity and the pain of assimilation. It was abundantly clear that this space was very much needed in Bristol. Kiota Bristol now have quarterly showcases at The Wardrobe Theatre and are passionate about decolonising Arts Spaces in Bristol.

Main contact (if organisation): Claire Sivier

Email address: contact@tialt.org

Role in project: TIALT (There is another way) will manage the project evaluation, from start to finish, helping to gather data & understand impact. They will conduct 3 workshops with the team and create a closing report. TIALT designs creative research tools for positive social impact. They do human-centred research and evaluation and develop theory-based creative and participatory tools and methods. They produce engaging visual and multimedia outputs and support a community to discuss and develop these ideas and tools further. TIALT: "We want the research process to be engaging and transformative, having a positive impact on everyone who takes part. We believe that people can better understand each other and the world when they can explore questions together in creative ways. We think that a lot of useful theory about how humans could interact in more compassionate and pro-social ways is not being used. We want people to participate in exploring these ideas in ways they will enjoy. We are a social enterprise, investing surplus income in people and projects that maximise our social impact. This allows us to develop the tialt Toolkit and to be flexible in who we work and collaborate with."

Role in project: Karen Wise will be a partner in helping to hire the survey analyst, as well as sharing the survey with singers throughout the UK. Dr Karen Wise is Research Fellow and joined the Guildhall School in 2013. She is a psychologist, teacher and classical mezzo soprano. She has published on the psychology of singing, with a particular focus on singing difficulties in untrained and 'non-singing' or self-defined 'tone deaf' adults. The other major area of her work is in the psychology of performance in professional and student musicians, from practising and creativity to audience-performer relationships. Her work at the Guildhall School has included collaborative research projects with Britten Sinfonia and English Touring Opera. Karen teaches on the Guildhall School's doctoral programme, providing research training and supervision, and is a psychology tutor for the MA in Music Therapy. She is a Fellow of the Higher Education Academy, a member of the British Psychological Society, and serves on the committee of the Society for Education and Music Psychology Research (SEMPRE). Karen is Principal Investigator on the AHRC-funded project 'Finding a voice: The art and science of unlocking the potential of adult non-singers', having been awarded an Early Career research grant in collaboration with Professor Andrea Halpern (Bucknell University, USA). The 33-month project, beginning in April 2016, investigates the ways in which adults who believe themselves unable to sing can best be supported to develop their skills and participate in musical activities. With a team of vocal teachers, a composer-animateur and an app developer, it brings together research and practice to understand adults' singing journeys and development.

Guillermo is a member of the UK Vocal Improv Collective, and a part of the wider team organizing the UK Vocal Improv Festival Retreat. He is involved in designing the thinking behind how to grow the UK Vocal improv community. "I have had a successful career as a Jazz/World music performer; specialising in Argentine Folk / Argentine Tango, singing with my band, Rioplatenses; one of first bands to bring South American music to UK audiences (WOMAD, SouthBank centre, City of London Festival etc). I have facilitated in the community sector for WEA, Yorkshire Arts, Live Music Now, Breathe Easy, The Choir with No Name & many others & pioneered national research into choir singing & COPD with Sydney De Haan Dept. Guillermo: "Arriving here in 2000, I took a MMus-Masters in Ethnomusicology (2005) at SOAS. Interested in the interface between improvisation & composition, I investigated proto-music & the linear trace through folkloric modalities. This led to my extensive study of vocal improvisation in Indian, Middle Eastern, African & Native North & South American music. Inspired by a performance by Bobby McFerrin, one of the world's leading vocal improv protagonists, I began experimenting with circlesong & am now a recognised Circlesong leader & have collaborated with Rhiannon (Bobby McFerrin's Voicestra), Joey Blake, Roger Treece & more. In 2019 I launched a collaborative vocal improv project, Anthropos: Songs of Humanity; a reimagining of pre-language music making, & explored vocal improv in duet with Jaka Skapin. Whilst performing together for a funded series of improvised movement & music workshop/performances for people with dementia & Alzheimers through Jewish Care, we pioneered virtual composition / improv techniques; which led to digital performance/Q & A's, at the Vocal Leadership Festival Rotterdam & Poplar Union Festival."

Risks and challenges

What are the main risks and challenges to your project meeting its aims?
What will you do to manage these risks?

Up to 1500 characters

Risk:

Ensuring meaningful engagement & collaboration with communities that are currently not represented or engaged with the UK Vocal Improv Festival Retreat.

Mitigation:

-numerous strategic partners onboarded to the project who will collaborate on outreach, in particular to engage Afro-Caribbean & South Asian artists who already practise, or are interested in Vocal Improv
-partners include: Bristol based Diverse Artists Network, Leeds based South Asian Arts, London based Black Association for Arts.

Risk:

Ensuring the wider national vocal improv community is reached & represented through the survey.

Mitigation:

-survey co-designed with representative artists, streamlined & made user friendly to ensure it is accessible & approachable for all targeted respondents
-dissemination in conjunction with trusted & experienced partners as well as national network (via UK Vocal Improv newsletter) to reach Global Majority participants
-appropriate evaluation of survey results & design & creation of final evaluation report demonstrating true picture of current UK Vocal Improv landscape; partnering with some of the leading improvisation researchers & academics, inc. John Sloboda, David Dolan & Karen Wise from the Guildhall School of Music & Drama & Lauren Stewart from Goldsmiths University.

Delivering the Outcomes

Your Project and the Outcomes

Our strategy sets out three outcomes; Creative People, Cultural Communities and A Creative and Cultural Country. We do not expect every project to address all three outcomes, but we do want projects to align to at least one and to set out in detail how particular components are being addressed.

You can read about our three outcomes here: <https://www.artscouncil.org.uk/outcomes-0>

When we look at your answers to the questions in this section, where relevant we will think about:

- How your project is supporting people at all stages of their lives to design, develop and increase their participation in high quality creative activities
- If your project focuses on children and young people:
 - If your project reaches families from a wide range of backgrounds
 - If you are widening and improving opportunities for children and young people to take part in creative activities outside schools
 - if your project is supporting children and young people to develop their creative skills and potential
- If you are working with communities to better understand and respond to their needs and interests, resulting in increased cultural engagement and the wide range of social benefits it brings
- If your project is exploring new types of creative practice, new forms of cultural content and new ways of reaching new and existing audiences and participants
- If you are collaborating with other cultural organisations and/or with the commercial creative industries and/or with further and higher education that focuses on innovation, research and development and training, especially in relation to the use of new technologies
- If your project is strengthening the international connections of cultural organisations and creative and cultural practitioners, including co-production and touring
- If your project is bringing world-class culture to audiences in England
- If your project helps to ensure people have opportunities to sustain their careers and fulfil their potential in the creative industries, especially those who are currently under-represented
- If your project is connecting people and places, nationally and internationally

How will your project contribute to the delivery of at least one of our Outcomes, including which, if any, of the Outcome components?

A Creative and Cultural Country: England's cultural sector is innovative, collaborative and international, Cultural Communities: Villages, towns and cities thrive through a collaborative approach to culture, Creative People: Everyone can develop and express creativity throughout their life

Please click the 'Save' button below after you have answered the question.

Creative people:

How will your project contribute to this outcome?

Up to 1500 characters

Led by Curiosa/the UK Vocal Improv Festival Retreat (VIFR) team, the project will:

- widen access to Vocal Improv via new public symposium
- improve access for children/YP/ families to quality creative activities
- develop skills in singing, somatic & embodied use of voice, collaboration, & presentation of cultural identity/folkloric idioms.

Achieved via a fully accessible event, in the centre of Bristol, at the weekend, with outreach targeting Global Majority communities, inc:

- symposium at St. George's Bristol with family wkshps for 160 ppl (new to Vocal Improv)
- co-devised wkshps with local partners, Diverse Artist Network (DAN) & Kiota Collective (KC) that embed/share Vocal Improv modalities & collaborative skills in accessible sessions aimed at children, YP & families
- evening performance, showcasing representative vocal artists, encouraging non-normative & diverse yng/family/local audiences into the space.

Vocal Improv is reframed as an accessible, intergenerational activity with a diverse/representative set of facilitators, showcasing how singing can support cultural identity, through the use of particular rhythms, musical structures, language etc.

It further comprises:

- artist residency; offering 10 new to Vocal Improv artists (+ 30 online) 2 days of creative development; positive discrimination ensures min. 35% African Caribbean artists / South Asian artists to improve EDI metrics.

Cultural Communities:

How will your project contribute to this outcome?

Up to 1500 characters

Curiosa is working in partnership with Global Majority artists/communities to better understand & respond to their needs, resulting in increased cultural engagement & platforming of Vocal improv GLO/GSO outcomes, working with:

- Diverse Artists Network (DAN)
- South Asian Arts (SAA)
- Black Association for Arts (BAA)
- Kiota Collective (KC)
- St. George's
- Hawkwood College
- There Is an Alternative (TIALT)
- The Well (Global Vocal Improv Network).

This project platforms collab & cultural exchange as its core process:

- South Asian & African Caribbean vocal improv artists are integrated as a priority, via DAN, SAA & BAA
- Open call for the artists residency, removes geo barriers via online events; & works with The Well to disseminate globally
- Co-devised public facing symposium (with diverse facilitators) for 160 ppl; via DAN, KC & St George's + roundtable event, engages 120 in live performance.

Process leads to:

- better understanding of stakeholder needs
- integration of representative artists to the delivery team
- visibility for communities, who see themselves represented in positions of cultural authority
- improved cross sector, vol/cultural org collaboration
- improved local access to cultural activities that break down geo & socio-economic barriers.

A Creative and Cultural Country:

How will your project contribute to this outcome?

Up to 1500 characters

This project will offer international visibility, of a more diverse, representative & integrated iteration of the UK Vocal Improv Collective. It will:

- inc artist development sessions focussing on regenerative governance, sustainability & inclusion to sustain career prospects for integrated practitioners
- utilise zoom & streaming tech to enable a wider network of artists to participate
- enable R&D to expand UK Vocal Improv, connecting it to the international (European & American idioms which are thriving, where UK is currently lagging)
- use 1st national survey to capture data & insights & create eval report informing sector growth through improved impact reporting & dissemination at a hybrid in-person/digital event
- deliver an artistic development residency
- foster new pedagogical approaches & creative cultural experiences for the UK & global vocal improv community
- organise an exchange with the France based Enchanted Circle; facilitators coming to Oct Festival Retreat & members of Curiosa attending their event
- visibilise retreat/symposium via The Well, an emerging Global Vocal Improvisation Network
- engage with TIN Festival in Dusseldorf, & IFNL Festival in Nijmegen, collaborating on a skills exchange programme that includes sharing budgeting & events management experience.

Impact:

- a wider range of practitioner's careers sustained
- UK centred in innovative & multi-cultural Vocal Improv
- strengthened international connectivity.

The Investment Principles

Your Project and the Investment Principles

The Investment Principles are an important part of our strategy and we encourage you to use them to strengthen the planning and delivery of your project.

Our Investment Principles are:

- Ambition and Quality
- Dynamism
- Environmental Responsibility
- Inclusivity and Relevance

You can read about our Investment Principles here

In this section you can use the Investment Principles to build up a more in-depth picture of your project, which in turn will give us a stronger understanding of your intentions and plans, and how your project will contribute to delivering our Strategy.

- applications for £100,000 and under

You need to complete the section on Inclusivity and Relevance.

You can answer any of the other questions in this section to help you develop your own approach to adopting the Investment Principles. If you do answer any of the other questions we'll take that information into consideration when we make a decision on your application

When we look at your answers to the questions in this section, where relevant, we will think about:

- If the Investment Principles you have responded to are relevant to the scale of your project, and what you want it to achieve
- If you have used the Investment Principles to give an in-depth picture of your project
- If the target audiences for the activity are clearly identified
- If you have thought about how your project could help you to make a contribution to the Creative Case for Diversity
- how the activity might align with our Equality Objectives
- If there is meaningful engagement
- If the project will develop you and your work, or the work/skills of the people/organisations involved
- the quality of the experience for the people taking part in the project
- if the activity increases opportunities for people who don't currently get involved in the creativity and culture or are involved a little in creative and cultural activity
- if the activity increases opportunities for people already taking part in creative and cultural activity
- if plans to market the activity to audiences are well-defined, and are likely to achieve your aims
- if there is no immediate opportunity to involve people (for example, research and development), whether there is potential for the public to get involved in the future; and
- If you are you taking steps to improve the environmental responsibility of your project

All applicants need to complete the section on Inclusivity and Relevance.

Inclusivity and Relevance

This Investment Principle is about England's diversity being fully reflected in the organisations and individuals we support and the culture they produce through:

Communities

- Tell us who you want to reach with this project, how you have identified them, and how they have been involved in the planning and/or creative process
- Tell us about the steps will you take to make sure your project is open and accessible to people within the communities you plan to work with

Up to 1500 characters

This project has 2 distinct outreach mechanisms.

1. Artist residency will reach:

- vocal improvisers from African Caribbean & South Asian backgrounds
- vocal artists identified through previous iterations of the UK VIFR.

2. Public symposium (delivered after the residency to embed co-devised new approaches) targets:

- local Bristol families & YP through partner networks
- African Caribbean & South Asian community.

Access & devising:

- bursaries for disabled/economically challenged residency artists
- delivered by representative leaders
- free/low cost access
- devolved triage supported by targeted on the ground orgs with reach into stakeholder cohorts.

Process:

- attention to the historical use & importance of improvisation in South Asian & Afro-Caribbean musical traditions
- acclaimed British jazz vocalist Randolph Matthews & EDI consultant, Aisha Ali (non-binary, queer, South Asian vocal artist & facilitator), co-design artists retreat & outreach mechanisms
- embedded partners ensure inclusivity of tone, approach, content & locale
- access costs budgeted to ensure activities are open to those with disabilities
- artist callout published online, via newsletter, social media & partner networks
- alternative applications (phone/video) for ppl who cannot access online forms.

Workforce

- If you're engaging a team of people to work on your project, or are working in partnership with other individuals or organisations, tell us:
- How you will ensure they reflect the communities you wish to reach
- How you will ensure access to opportunities are open and accessible
- If you're not working with anyone else on your project you should explain why and consider how working with others would help you to reflect the communities you wish to reach.

Up to 1500 characters

This project is:

- positively discriminating (min 35%) to African-Caribbean & South Asian artists in the residency offer, to ensure representation that builds audiences & improves reach into stakeholder cohorts
- working with artists Randolph Matthews, Cleveland Watkiss, & EDI consultant Ashia to meaningfully engage with communities that are currently under-represented within the vocal improvisation network
- partnering with bespoke grassroots orgs to reach into target communities in Bristol & nationally (digitally) to ensure the survey & wkshp/symposium/performances reach the intended demographics, eg:
Diverse Artists Network (DAN)
South Asian Arts (SAA)
Black Association for Arts (BAA)
Kiota Collective (KC)
St. George's
Hawkwood College
- platforming existing, diverse (female, European, South American etc) Vocal Improv leaders from Curiosa collective.

The Oct symposium inc:

- 2 Global Majority performance artists
- 4 wkshp leaders (2 African Caribbean, 2 South Asian)
- 10 panel contributors from new collaborations developed through the June residency.

Some vocal artists are identified as important voices to bring in, others; currently outside the collective's network will be identified in process, to ensure a broader, more representative metric.

Creative Case

- Tell us how your project addresses the Creative Case for Diversity

Read about the Creative Case for Diversity here

Up to 1500 characters

This project addresses the Creative Case for Diversity as follows:

- the emerging core team & research group are predominantly BIPOC/Global Majority & female practitioners
- EDI inclusion consultant Aisha Ali has been onboarded to develop an apposite outreach strategy for the survey, artist residency call out & inclusive promotional material for the symposium
- partnerships with organisations such as DAN & KC (collective of BIPOC artists in Bristol passionate about de-colonising arts spaces & working towards Radical Inclusion) will enable direct work with & the creation of specific opportunities for African-Caribbean & South Asian artists to be part of the UK Vocal Improv Collective
- diaspora artists will co-design & co-lead activities during the residency, symposium & plans for 2025/26
- the pedagogy is co-devised & centres equity of access by removing financial, physical, social & linguistic barriers to participation
- bursaries make work free to access by those who are engaged but do not have the financial means
- the pedagogy is informed by global folkloric traditions
- the process centres vocal work, movement & musical activity that requires no previous skill
- access support is provided for any live events, & large print versions of the eval report
- the wkshp participation model requires no skill set or previous experience
- digital streaming to share pedagogy will include signing/captioning for the project presentation.

Environmental Responsibility

This Investment Principle is about leading the way in your approach to Environmental Responsibility.

You don't have to use this Investment Principle to tell us about your project, but if you think it is relevant to your project you can tick the box(es) below and tell us.

Any information you provide here we will use when making a decision on your application.

Using Data

Has your project been informed by your own or other environmental data? If so tell us about this here:

☐

Plan, Action and Change

If you plan to measure the environmental impact of your project, tell us about the data you will collect and how it will be used:

☐

Advocacy, Education and Influence

If you plan to develop your/your organisation's skills and knowledge on environmental responsibility, tell us about it here:

☐

Ambition & Quality

This Investment Principle is about organisations and individuals being ambitious and committed to constantly improving the quality of their work.

You don't have to use this Investment Principle to tell us about your project, but if you think it is relevant to your project you can tick the box(es) below and tell us.

Any information you provide here we will use when making a decision on your application.

Understanding What Others Think

If you are taking steps to understand what people (peers and/or the public) think about your work and how you make it, tell us about it here:

The project is devised to ensure the national survey is conducted early in the delivery schedule, to:

- develop understanding re: artists currently practising & interested in Vocal Improv
- learn about gaps & challenges.

Working with expert evaluators & an EDI consultant, the survey will be:

- designed & disseminated for max accessibility
- used to create baseline data to inform KPI's
- used to create an assessment framework for remaining project activities.

This will allow for insights & feedback capture, to measure qualitative & quantitative metrics, from:

- partner staff, inc. wkshp leaders/ facilitators & peers
- Vocal Improv artists inc. emerging / BIPOC artists
- wkshp ppts (children & yng ppl in Bristol, South Asian & African Caribbean families & artists).

This will determine a KPI framework for the national Vocal Improv network, leading to improved impact reporting. Thus creating a more inclusive & accessible national Vocal Improv community.

A follow-up survey will be shared to symposium ppts, post activity. The core team will provide channels for new facilitators to join the team & step into leadership roles. In this way the programming continues to be co-designed & implemented by artists, especially from community grps prev not included in the ecology.

Developing Your Work

If this project aims to develop your skills (and those you work with) and contribute to your longer-term ambitions for strengthening the quality of your work, tell us about it here:

X

Up to 1500 characters

Project development KPI's:

- org & individual dev informs long-term ambitions re: inclusive & knowledgeable core team
- management skills enable engagement with numerous national partners
- improved understanding improves engagement with Vocal Improv in the wider music ecology
- dispelled tropes of Vocal Improv as a trivial/elite modality means practitioners from South Asian & African Caribbean communities engage.

Project develops:

- collaborative, cross-cultural co-creation by artists from different backgrounds that expands artistic repertoires
- skills sharing incl. co-facilitation of sessions, co-presentation at the panel, & co-creation of symposium performance, thus improving ecological visibility.

Guest consultants offering development sessions incl:

- Jake Lawry, regenerative governance specialist who previously worked with the core team; This is a systemically transformative process that improves the impact & assessment capacity of the collective
- Aisha Ali, EDI expert who will facilitate a safe inclusive space for constructive dialogue on relevant issues that affect diverse artists, improving & developing long term ambitions to sustain the inclusivity of the work.

Measuring Your Progress

If you are setting out what good looks like for your project and know how you'll track how well you're doing and how well it's been received, tell us about it here:

X

Up to 1500 characters

KPI success metrics:

- 1st of its kind national survey on the UK Vocal Improv landscape collects data from practicing artists that leads to better understanding & engagement with the national Vocal Improv community

Data Protection and Freedom of Information

We are committed to being as open as possible. This includes being clear about how we assess and make decisions on Arts Council National Lottery Project Grants and how we will use your application form and other documents you give us. We are happy to provide you with copies of the information we hold about you.

We handle any personal data we receive in accordance with the United Kingdom General Data Protection Regulation, the UK Data Protection Act 2018 and other applicable laws that regulate the use and privacy of personal data (Data Protection Law). For more information about the personal data that we collect, what we use it for, and your data protection rights, please refer to our Privacy Notice.

As a public organisation we also have to follow the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

You must read the Freedom of Information (FOI) guidance on our website (<https://www.artscouncil.org.uk/freedom-information#section-6>) before you sign your application.

By signing this application form, you acknowledge the following:

1. That we will use this application form and the information you give to us, including any personal data as referred to in our Privacy Notice, for the following purposes:
 - a) To decide whether to give you a grant.
 - b) To provide copies to other individuals or organisations who are helping us assess and monitor grants, including local authorities, other lottery distributors and organisations that award grants. After we reach a decision, we may also tell them the outcome of your application and, if appropriate, why we did not offer you a grant.
 - c) To hold in our database and use for statistical purposes.
 - d) If we offer you a grant, we will publish information about you relating to the activity we have funded, including the amount of the grant and the activity it was for. This information may appear in our press releases, in our print and online publications, and in the publications or websites of the Department for Digital, Culture, Media and Sport (DCMS) and any partner organisations who have funded the activity with us.
 - e) If we offer you a grant, you will support our work to campaign for arts and culture, contributing (when asked) to important publicity activities during the period we provide funding for. You will also give us, when asked, case studies, images and audio-visual materials that we can use to celebrate artistic and cultural excellence.
 - f) As an organisation that gives out public funds, we may carry out checks on the personal and financial information you provide us. If you provide false, fraudulent or inaccurate information in your application or at any point in the lifetime of any funding agreement we enter into with you, we may share the information about you with other National Lottery distribution bodies and relevant external bodies to prevent fraud and money laundering. If we identify or suspect fraudulent activity we will report this to the police and take appropriate action.

I confirm that, as far as I know, the information in this application is true and correct.

4. Subsidy Control

The Subsidy Control rules are the new legal requirements that apply to the award of subsidies in the United Kingdom with effect from 11pm 31 December 2020. They have largely replaced EU State aid rules.

Where a "Subsidy" is present as per the definition of subsidy set out in the Subsidy Control Act 2022 ("the Act") then it is necessary for the award to comply with requirements set out in the Trade and Cooperation Agreement with the EU (and in due course those further requirements set out in the Act).

A "Subsidy" only exists when the following cumulative characteristics are present (only tick those that apply):

- financial assistance which is given, directly or indirectly, from public resources by a public authority; and
- confers an economic advantage on one or more enterprises; and

☐

- is specific, that is, is such that it benefits one or more enterprises over one or more other enterprises with respect to the production of goods or the provision of services; and
- has, or is capable of having, an effect on —
 - (i) competition or investment within the United Kingdom,
 - (ii) trade between the United Kingdom and a country or territory outside the United Kingdom, or
 - (iii) investment as between the United Kingdom and a country or territory outside the United Kingdom.

If awarded, do you believe that your request for public funding meets all the necessary criteria to be classed as a "Subsidy"? No

Where a "Subsidy" is declared you will be required to provide further information to establish whether the "Subsidy" would be considered lawful.

5. Tick the relevant box if any person involved in the project or writing the application:

I am happy to be contacted by Arts Council England, or by a third-party organisation on behalf of Arts Council England, for feedback to help evaluate the programme. X

Letter of Support: Curiosa ACE NPLG application

03/07/2023

Bristol, UK

To whom it may concern,

I am writing to express my support for the organisational development of Curiosa/UK Vocal Improv Festival Retreat. I am a Non-Binary, Queer, South Asian vocal artist, improviser, composer, producer and workshop facilitator based in Bristol. I am a board member of the Diverse Artists Network and the founder of Kiota: A Collective of Creatives from the Global Majority.

I will be consulting on the project, assisting in the sharing of the national survey of vocal improvisers, and running an inclusion workshop at the artists' residency in June. I have 7 years' experience as a somatic counsellor and see the world through a political lens. I am passionate about radical inclusion and decolonising practises in the arts and facilitate safe inclusive spaces for constructive dialogue on relevant issues that affect diverse artists.

As a representative of Kiota Collective and Diverse Artists Network, I feel it is important to support this project as we want to be a partner in improving diversity and inclusion in the UK vocal community. As a vocal improviser myself, I have witnessed how vocal improv can provide spaces for leadership, autonomy, and empowerment. The practice is built on values of collaboration, exchange, and respect for difference. I feel passionately about making this practice more inclusive, and reaching its potential for creating connections across barriers.

I am excited to work with the UK Vocal Improv Festival Retreat team to tackle the challenge of building a more inclusive organisation that provides spaces for diverse artists to feel heard, included, and empowered. The team has already done great work creating two successful events, and I am impressed by their proactive commitment to self reflection, and to completing the deep work of creating an inclusive foundation for future events that support and grow the UK vocal improvisation community in a way that honours the practices' diverse roots.

Yours faithfully,

Aisha Ali

Dear Sir/Madam,

Cleveland Watkiss MBE; vocalist, actor, composer; professor of Jazz Voice at Trinity Laban Conservatoire of Music and Dance; co-founder of BAFA UK - Black Association for Arts

For me, vocal improvisation is a natural phenomenon. It represents rediscovering our true nature as explorers and incorporates all dimensions of language and the human voice. It can be used as a launchpad to develop anyone's communication skills as a speaker, narrator, storyteller.

As children, we're all exquisite natural improvisers. For some adults, it takes a good coach, someone that hasn't lost this innate creative ability to bring out a certain kind of playfulness and ability to adapt and fully relate in the present moment. This process sometimes puts people on "the spot", a good kind of spot that enables them to express more of their true essence and find confidence in their use of voice and body.

I find that vocal improvisation attracts people of all backgrounds, so improving access to the art form and presenting different modes of practice, performance and teaching that exist within the national community is of the utmost importance if we want to reach as many people that want to find out more and join in.

Personally I find that the modality of vocal improvisation that exists within the Afro-Caribbean community is accent led, following the intonation from our cultural upbringing. This represents a unique way of expressing through vocality that infuses all of my artistry, and can of course also meet anyone else's unique perspective in meaningful and fruitful musical conversation.

The proposed project by Curiosa/UK Vocal Improv Festival Retreat team is to my knowledge the first collective effort that would bring together the different practitioners of vocal improvisation in the UK and engage in the larger conversation of what our interests and needs are as a diverse national community.

I am happy to take part in this project as a performer, as well as share the survey and artist opportunities through my networks and look forward to connecting and sharing through the universal language of improvisation.

Yours sincerely,
Cleveland Watkiss MBE
