A 50-word summary:

Up to 300 characters

Platformed & co-produced as part of the Ambassadors Theatre Group (ATG) Premieres Season at the Studio Theatre in Wimbledon in Oct 2022; K Squared's new play, "Turning the Screw" examines whether society can value artistic endeavours even if the artist is morally ambiguous or unsettling.

Then:
A more detailed description of your project:
We want to understand what your project involves; what is it about and what will happen

Up to 800 characters

"Turning the Screw" centres on the creation of Benjamin Britten's opera, "The Turn of the Screw". Based on real events, it depicts Britten, who chose a 12-yr-old choirboy, David Hemmings to be his star & tensions arose over his infatuation with him. Many scholars draw parallels between Britten's opera, "Death in Venice" & this infatuation.

ATG's annual competition selects 3 new plays as part of their Premieres Season. K-Squared (KS) are contracted to deliver 11 performances, & have engaged director Tim McArthur & designer Gregory Donnelly.

The show orients around societal tropes & the impact of cancel culture. It uses the story of Britten & his music to investigate morality, societal norms & creates a platform for the reclamation & promotion of LGBTQ+ narratives in theatre.

Feasibility and risk

This section helps us to understand how you will successfully deliver your project.

We need to know your plans for managing the project, what your budget is and how you will respond to any risks or challenges.

You don't need to have managed a project before, but you need to be able to demonstrate that you have given consideration to how you will manage the project, the budget, and any risks/challenges, and that you or your project partners have the skills to ensure it is delivered successfully.

When we look at your answers to the questions in this section we will think about:

- whether the budget is appropriate for the scale and type of activity?
- how appropriate are the areas of income and spending?
- whether all items in the budget are relevant and reasonable [are fees or wages appropriate to the context? Have quotes for assets/equipment been appropriately researched for any purchases?]
- whether the activity is attracting income from other sources; - is any other income confirmed? If not, are your potential income sources realistic?
- if appropriate financial controls are in place - Do you or the people you're working with have the necessary skills to manage the budget?
- if the activity is realistic and well-planned, and if you have demonstrated that you or the people you are working with are able to deliver the project

We need eight weeks to process applications for £30,000 and under.

Budget - Income

Income table

Please complete the income table below with all your cash income, as well as any support in kind you will receive. (By support in kind we mean goods or services that you would otherwise have to pay for, but are being provided for free.)

Remember:

- Your budget must balance. This means your total income needs to be the same amount as your total expenditure.
- Only include income that relates specifically to this project.
- Do not include personal access costs in the income table. These are automatically included in the total amount you are requesting from us.

Expenditure table

Please complete the expenditure table below with all your cash expenditure.

Remember:

- Your budget must balance. This means your total expenditure needs to be the same amount as your total income.
- Only include expenditure that will be spent between the start and end date of your project.
- The table already includes any Support in kind you added on the Income screen so you do not need to add this.
- Breakdown your expenditure so we can understand your costs, for example: Artist fee (2 x Creative specialists @ £150 per day for 10 days = £3,000)

Expenditure questions

How have you worked out the costs of the artistic spending included in your budget?

Up to 1500 characters

The artistic fees:

- Based on the show costs & remuneration for similar scale iteration that KS took to The Brighton Fringe in May 2019; using the same director & have agreed the fee with him. He has introduced the designer who he has worked with on plays set in the 1950s & KS have agreed the fee with him
- The actors, stage manager & lighting operator fees are based on the ITC fees for Fringe Performances
- All freelance costs are considered with relation to industry standards in the wider sphere & finalised in consultation with past contributors & partners, artistic, technical, production & delivery freelancers
- KS receive quotes from quality artists & practitioners for all costume, props, set items & the budget for each is based on commensurate previous work & a quote from each designer for the brief
- Salaries have been broken into rehearsal & performance schedules for clarity.

Overall artistic spending is calculated by experienced directors. The small team has delivered similar work & agree the expenditure in advance. The producer monitors expenditure, forecasts cash flow, receives invoices & make payments for the production, with the support of a general manager, ensuring that the calculation & setting of professional fees is consistent.

How have you worked out the costs of developing your organisation included in your budget?

Up to 1500 characters

Areas of development embedded are:

- 1-2-1 Dramaturgy session - a facilitated 2 hour session to provide detailed analysis of the content, discussion about the strengths of the piece, the areas that may require further development, & the process to approach any further work
- Trip to Aldeburgh: 5 Cast, director, designer, stage manager, producer, donor
- train (10x£27=£270), taxis £150, diems £250), to build enrichment into the dramatic process & broaden the scope of the work.

How have you worked out the costs of marketing and developing audiences included in your budget?

Up to 1500 characters

Marketing Spend:

- Print Design (direct quote) £600
- Printing £600 (direct quote for all print work)
- Digital Marketing - Facebook Ads - £1000 - 10 x targeted demographic posts
- Additional 2nd push £500 (as previous)
- Programmes £150.

All are direct quotes from trusted suppliers, based on previous iterations using commensurate levels of product/output.

How have you worked out the costs of the overheads included in your budget?

Up to 1500 characters

- General Management: to include admin/evaluation - 12days @£175 - this is included to support sufficient time for evaluation, partnership review, artistic experience collation, to embed learning as well as time for admin & general production support.
- Transport/Travel: Van Hire for movement of set & props - 1st cost is for movement of equipment/set etc during rehearsal period (based on quote for duration from local company)
- Transport/Travel: Van Hire for movement of set & props - performances (as above)
- Launch Party, to cover venue, diems, incidentals etc.

How have you worked out the costs of expenditure listed as 'other' in your budget?

Up to 1500 characters

Contingency - 4%, to enable cover for fluctuations in costs or small downturn in tickets sales. Ticket sales are confidently pitched, but a small contingency prevents any disruption to cash flow.

How much of your total project budget is being spent on International costs (such as visas, carnets, freight, travel, accommodation, per diems)? £0

Name: Britten Pears Arts

Main contact (if organisation): Sarah Bardwell

Email address: sbardwell@brittenpearsarts.org

Role in project: Executive Director & engaged with the play since 2017 - Britten Pears Arts is a pioneering cultural charity based in Suffolk. The organisation has a long history dating back to when Britten and Pears founded the Aldeburgh Festival in 1948 and moved into the Red House in Aldeburgh in 1957. It became Britten Pears Arts in April 2020 when Snape Maltings, formerly Aldeburgh Music, and the Britten-Pears Foundation, that ran Britten and Pears' estate, merged. They are one of only a very few musical organisations worldwide with such a rich heritage and history. They embody all that Britten and Pears stood for, from their values and beliefs to their music and their lives as a gay couple when all homosexual activity was illegal in the UK. The original organisation emerged from the determination of composer Benjamin Britten and his partner, singer Peter Pears, to ensure that everyone could enjoy and experience music. Britten Pears Arts aims to continue their legacy to develop talent, celebrate their heritage and engage with communities. They use music to transform people's lives, to bring communities together and enhance daily life. They want the arts to effect powerful positive change in, and for, society; or, as Britten himself would have put it, making the arts "useful." Their vision is to be both a locally relevant and internationally recognised cultural organisation. They recognise their value to the local community as an organisation firmly rooted in the Suffolk countryside. In many ways, they are one of a kind. They offer innovative learning and training in music and heritage, opportunities to experience world-class performance, and work with freelance musician and artists to deliver outstanding experiences.

Name: London Playwrights Workshop
Main contact (if organisation): Kimberley Andrews
Email address: londonplaywrightsblog@gmail.com

Role in project: Providing feedback on the early drafts - The London Playwrights Workshop was founded as a Blog in 2013 by A.C Smith and Kimberley Andrews. As emerging writers, they created the blog to offer the support and advice they often found so hard to find! Since then, they have supported thousands of writers in developing their craft and building their careers. LPW is a non-profit company that supports writers in supporting each other. They believe that opportunities for artistic growth should be available to people regardless of background, geography, age, ethnicity, or education. Their goal is a new golden age of playwriting, and they like to dream big, and this is only the beginning. The London Playwrights' Workshop is still run by working writers who are experiencing the joys and challenges of building a career as a playwright first hand. Their ethos relies on people coming together work collectively, and the organisation is supported by a wide range of people donating their skills, time, and talents. They offer a range of support for emerging writers. They run workshops on a variety of artistic and practical topics, offer script consulting, and in 2016 launched the Dark Horse Festival at London Writers' Week, with support from Arts Council England. Their blog is still at the core of their information sharing activities, and every Friday we publish our Opportunities Weekly Roundup, sharing all the open opportunities for writers in London and beyond. Since developing their membership scheme, they have been able to create an ever-growing selection of resources, including online courses, a digital book club, online writing challenges – and, of course, there is more to come.

Delivering the Outcomes

Your Project and the Outcomes

Our strategy sets out three outcomes; Creative People, Cultural Communities and A Creative and Cultural Country. We do not expect every project to address all three outcomes, but we do want projects to align to at least one and to set out in detail how particular components are being addressed.

You can read about our three outcomes here: <https://www.artscouncil.org.uk/outcomes-0>

When we look at your answers to the questions in this section, where relevant we will think about:

- How your project is supporting people at all stages of their lives to design, develop and increase their participation in high quality creative activities
- If your project focuses on children and young people:
 - If your project reaches families from a wide range of backgrounds
 - If you are widening and improving opportunities for children and young people to take part in creative activities outside schools
 - if your project is supporting children and young people to develop their creative skills and potential
- If you are working with communities to better understand and respond to their needs and interests, resulting in increased cultural engagement and the wide range of social benefits it brings
- If your project is exploring new types of creative practice, new forms of cultural content and new ways of reaching new and existing audiences and participants
- If you are collaborating with other cultural organisations and/or with the commercial creative industries and/or with further and higher education that focuses on innovation, research and development and training, especially in relation to the use of new technologies
- If your project is strengthening the international connections of cultural organisations and creative and cultural practitioners, including co-production and touring
- If your project is bringing world-class culture to audiences in England
- If your project helps to ensure people have opportunities to sustain their careers and fulfil their potential in the creative industries, especially those who are currently under-represented
- If your project is connecting people and places, nationally and internationally

How will your project contribute to the delivery of at least one of our Outcomes, including which, if any, of the Outcome components?

Cultural Communities: Villages, towns and cities thrive through a collaborative approach to culture, Creative People: Everyone can develop and express creativity throughout their life

Please click the 'Save' button below after you have answered the question.

Britten & Pears were one of the few "celebrity" gay couples in the UK in the 1950s - everyone knew they were gay but they never confirmed this by actions or words until the 1970s following the partial decriminalisation of homosexual relationships. KS will tell the story of their relationship against the prevailing landscape of deep hostility to their sexuality, in order to respond to feedback from many younger LGBTQ+ ppl who have no sense of the struggles of those earlier generations. KS are platforming hidden histories, KS will:

- Offer widely publicised (through apposite partners), open auditions, in response to positive feedback in previous iterations
- Seek wide rehearsal/script feedback to ensure the writing is strong, & emerging from the ppl it represents, discussing the script with a dramaturg, outside eyes such as LPW, Tim McArthur & WYAC & wkshping the script in rehearsals, embedding learning & redrafting before final performances
- Offering a placement to a WCoA student to ensure the yng LGBTQ+ lens informs the process
- Embed learning in shared write ups of wkshps with WYAC & rehearsals
- Be local, in an accessible space, meaning families, LGBTQ+ communities, yng actors & fans of opera, Britten, & those new to the theatre alike can develop a better understanding of hidden histories through theatrical repertoire; building open & visible routes to cultural consumption & participation in the Q&A, wkshps, auditions etc.

Workforce

- If you're engaging a team of people to work on your project, or are working in partnership with other individuals or organisations, tell us:
- How you will ensure they reflect the communities you wish to reach
- How you will ensure access to opportunities are open and accessible
- If you're not working with anyone else on your project you should explain why and consider how working with others would help you to reflect the communities you wish to reach.

KS will:

- Record Vox Pops after the previews to get feedback from the audience on what they thought
- Continue to build in feedback from ScriptSpace on early drafts which was useful in helping to frame the arc of the play
- Build in feedback from the actors who participated in the Rehearsed Reading Workshop that took place on 14th March - that has been incorporated into the latest draft
- Arrange feedback from the London Playwrights Workshop & Theatre503 once the next draft is available during rehearsals to continue the skills building & collab strategy.

KS experience from previous work, "The Milkman's on His Way" was that the actors in the rehearsal room re-shape the play as they develop their own approach to the characters portrayed. This meant losing some scenes or dialogue & adding in some new ones. KS have devised a formal process to capture these changes as they occur & prepare the final production script before the first Preview performance.

The Premieres Season includes formal support from ATG & they will conduct a final review with KS to capture & evaluate the residency. Funding is required to build a more sustainable impact assessment that uses quantitative/qualitative data from the process, inc. a financial review, outputs & legacy journey, wider opportunities etc & cross references this data with the audience demographics to understand the KS ecological fit.

Developing Your Work

If this project aims to develop your skills (and those you work with) and contribute to your longer-term ambitions for strengthening the quality of your work, tell us about it here:

Up to 1500 characters

KS will:

- Combine words, music, design & rear-projection to create the atmosphere of the 1950s, a new approach using multimedia
- Work with directors/designers skilled in their respective fields in a collective venture
- Work with high-profile industry advocates (ATG), & with the involvement/mentorship of key specialists KS team will improve: stage direction, working with actors + aspects of stagecraft, musical direction & arrangements specific to musical theatre /opera, how to realise their work as dramatic art
- Build responsive script editing skills based on workshop rehearsals
- Cover industry standards & learn how to construct an immersive theatrical space.

Mentorship from a dramaturg from Theatre503 & widespread rehearsal/script feedback & learning reviews will deliver a detailed analysis of the content, & discussion about the strengths of the piece, areas that require development, & the process to approach any further work. This will help the playwright strengthen the “theatricality” of the play & any feedback will be incorporated. Building skills for future productions at the same time.

Further development:

- Actors: repertoire, stage skills & performance techniques
- Directors: key stage management/arts business skills
- Participants: stage skills, entry level arts performance with a high-profile production.

Measuring Your Progress

If you are setting out what good looks like for your project and know how you'll track how well you're doing and how well it's been received, tell us about it here:

X

Up to 1500 characters

Success measures:

- ATG are providing a weekly report on ticket sales, KS shall be monitoring this carefully to assess the impact of the marketing campaign - success = 70%+ capacity sales
- KS first production was ambitious in its scope & the lessons learnt are being used in this new production. The budget is tightly controlled so a key measure of what good looks like will be strict cash flow measures & controlled mission drift
- Adherence to production schedules with co-agreed scheduling that achieves all redrafts & rehearsal ambitions
- Identified key project milestones for capturing learning points from both the rehearsals & the production; allocated time in the plan for a formal Project "WashUp" activity to gather data from all of the creative participants in the form of lessons learnt, to feed into future work
- Diverse cast/audience with demographic capture against protected characteristics being used to identify success against targets, e.g. 40%+ LGBTQ+ cast/crew, 20% + LGBTQ+ audience
- Regular reviews of Box Office reports & Go/No Go decision points for funding additional print & digital funding - success is activating these correctly within the schedule
- Benjamin Britten doesn't appear in the Classic FM Hall of Fame 2022 & only features in 25 mins out of 170 hrs of music at the Proms; success = the revival of Britten as one of the greatest composers of the 20th Century, reclamation of LGBTQ+ narratives through popularisation & awareness building.

Dynamism

This Investment Principle is about being dynamic and able to respond to the challenges of the next decade.

- KS production team are better placed to work with internationally significant producers, directors & actors having collaborated here in a residency that offers visibility & understandability to an LGBTQ+ led work that advocates for tolerance & the reclamation of hidden narratives
- Working with a dramaturg & leading director/designer builds new skills & a multimedia approach, using projections & staging to build an immersive experience for the audience
- Collaborating with a music festival producer introduces cross sector working to the team but also embeds knowledge, as Anthony worked with Benjamin Britten as part of the Aldeburgh Festival & also knew David Hemmings
- Working with Britten Pears Arts; a pioneering cultural charity based in Suffolk that embody all that Britten & Pears stood for, sustains a protest narrative within theatre, reclaiming the importance of pioneers in a time when all homosexual activity was illegal in the UK. Britten Pears Arts aims to continue their legacy to develop talent, celebrate their heritage & engage with communities by using music to transform people's lives. This partnership & their executive producer role builds connectivity between socially engaged practice, professional theatre & politicized art
- Working in silos plagues any cultural minority, the auditions, rehearsals & premiere season format offers a continuous, mutually supportive & unifying experience for all creatives & the KS team.

4. Subsidy Control

The Subsidy Control rules are the new legal requirements that apply to the award of subsidies in the United Kingdom with effect from 11pm 31 December 2020. They have largely replaced EU State aid rules.

Where a "Subsidy" is present as per the definition of subsidy set out in the Subsidy Control Act 2022 ("the Act") then it is necessary for the award to comply with requirements set out in the Trade and Cooperation Agreement with the EU (and in due course those further requirements set out in the Act).

A "Subsidy" only exists when the following cumulative characteristics are present (only tick those that apply):

- financial assistance which is given, directly or indirectly, from public resources by a public authority; and
- confers an economic advantage on one or more enterprises; and
- is specific, that is, is such that it benefits one or more enterprises over one or more other enterprises with respect to the production of goods or the provision of services; and

- has, or is capable of having, an effect on —
 - (i) competition or investment within the United Kingdom,
 - (ii) trade between the United Kingdom and a country or territory outside the United Kingdom, or
 - (iii) investment as between the United Kingdom and a country or territory outside the United Kingdom.

If awarded, do you believe that your request for public funding meets all the necessary criteria to be classed as a "Subsidy"? No

Where a "Subsidy" is declared you will be required to provide further information to establish whether the "Subsidy" would be considered lawful.

5. Tick the relevant box if any person involved in the project or writing the application:

I am happy to be contacted by Arts Council England, or by a third-party organisation on behalf of Arts Council England, for feedback to help evaluate the programme.

16. The Board of Directors may whenever they think fit convene a General Meeting or in default General meetings may be convened by such requisitionists, as provided by sections 303, 304 and 305 of the Act.
17. Fourteen days' notice in writing at the least of every General Meeting (exclusive in every case both of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given), specifying the place, the day and the hour of meeting, and in the case of special business the general nature of that business, shall be given in manner hereinafter mentioned to such persons (including the Auditors) as are under these Articles or under the Act entitled to receive such notices from the Company; but with the consent of all the members having the right to attend and vote thereat, or of such proportion of them as is prescribed by the Act in the case of meetings other than Annual General Meetings, a meeting may be convened by such notice as those members may think fit.
18. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of such notice by, any person entitled to receive notice thereof shall not invalidate any resolution passed, or proceedings at any meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

19. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at a General Meeting, and all that is transacted at an Annual General Meeting shall also be deemed special, with the exception of the consideration of the income and expenditure account and balance sheet, and the reports of the Board of Directors and of the Auditors, the election of members of the Board of Directors in the place of those retiring, and the appointment of, and the fixing of the remuneration of, the Auditors.

20. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to business. Save as herein otherwise provided 1/3 or 2 (whichever is the greater number) of the members shall be a quorum.
21. A meeting may be held by telephone or by televisual or other electronic or virtual means agreed by resolution of the members in which all participants may communicate simultaneously with all other participants.
22. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the holding of a General Meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of members, shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, or at such other place as the Board of Directors may determine, and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for holding the meeting the members present shall be a quorum.
23. The Chair (if any) of the Board of Directors shall preside as Chair at every General Meeting, but if there be no such Chair, or if at any meeting he or she shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the same, or shall be unwilling to preside, the members present shall choose some member of the Board of Directors, or if no such member be present, or if all the members of the Board of Directors present decline to take the chair, they shall choose some member of the Company who shall be present to preside.
24. The Chair may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time, and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than business which might have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. Whenever a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in the same manner as of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid, the members shall not be entitled to any notice of an adjournment, or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
25. At any General Meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, unless a poll is, before or upon the declaration of the result of the show of hands, demanded by the Chair or by at least three members having the right to vote at the meeting or a member or members representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at the meeting, and unless a poll be so demanded a declaration by the Chair of the meeting that resolution has been carried, or carried unanimously or carried by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority, and an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against that resolution. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.
26. Subject to the provisions of Article 27, if a poll be demanded in the manner aforesaid, it shall be taken at such time and place, and in such manner, as the Chair of the meeting shall direct, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
27. No poll shall be demanded on the election of a Chair of a meeting, or on any question of adjournment.
28. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded.
29. The appointment of a proxy shall be in such form as is usual or which the Directors may approve.

30. Unless the appointment of a proxy indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:

- 1) allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting, and
- 2) appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the members' general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

31. The appointment of a proxy and any authority under which it is executed or a copy of such authority in some way approved by the Directors may:

- 1) in the case of an instrument in writing be deposited at the registered office of the Company or at such other place within the United Kingdom as is specified in the notice convening the meeting or in any instrument of proxy sent out by the company in relation to the meeting at least 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote; or
- 2) in the case of an appointment sent by electronic means, where an address has been specified for the purpose of receiving documents or information by electronic means:
 - (i) in the notice convening the meeting, or
 - (ii) in any instrument of proxy sent out by the Company in relation to the meeting, or
 - (iii) in any invitation to appoint a proxy issued by the Company in relation to the meeting which is sent by electronic means,
 - (iv) be received at such address not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the appointment proposes to vote:
- 3) in the case of a poll taken more than 48 hours after it is demanded, be deposited or received as aforesaid after the poll has been demanded to the Chair or to the Secretary (if any) or to any Director;
 - (i) and any appointment of proxy which is not deposited, delivered or received in a manner so permitted shall be invalid.

32. An appointment of a proxy may be revoked by delivering to the Company a notice given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given. A notice revoking the appointment of a proxy only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates. Attendance by a member in person at a meeting automatically revokes any appointment of a proxy by that member.

DECISIONS WITHOUT A MEETING: WRITTEN MEMBERS' RESOLUTIONS

33. Subject to Article 34, a written resolution of the members of the Company passed in accordance with these Articles 33 to 38 shall have effect as if passed by the Company in a members' general meeting.

- 1) A written resolution is passed as an ordinary resolution if it is passed by a simple majority of the total voting rights of eligible members.
 - 2) A written resolution is passed as a special resolution if it is passed by members representing not less than 75% of the total voting rights of eligible members. A written resolution is not a special resolution unless it states that it was proposed as special resolution.
 - 3) In relation to a resolution proposed as a written resolution of the Company the eligible members are the members who would have been entitled to vote on the resolution on the circulation date of the resolution.
34. A members' resolution under the Companies Acts removing a Director or an auditor before the expiration of his or her term of office may not be passed as a written resolution.
35. A copy of the written resolution must be sent to every member together with a statement informing the member how to signify their agreement to the resolution and the date by which the resolution must be passed if it is not to lapse. Communications in relation to written resolutions shall be sent to the Company's auditors in accordance with the Companies Acts.
36. A member signifies their agreement to a proposed written resolution when the Company receives from him or her an authenticated document identifying the resolution to which it relates and indicating his or her agreement to the resolution.
- 1) If the document is sent to the Company in hard copy form, it is authenticated if it bears the member's signature.
 - 2) If the document is sent to the Company by electronic means, it is authenticated if it bears the member's signature.
37. A written resolution is passed when the required majority of eligible members have signified their agreement to it.
38. A proposed written resolution lapses if it is not passed within 28 days beginning with the circulation date.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

39. Subject as hereinafter provided, every member shall have one vote.
40. Save as herein expressly provided, no member other than a member duly registered, who shall have paid every subscription and other sum (if any) which shall be due and payable to the Company in respect of his or her membership, shall be entitled to vote on any question at any General Meeting.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

41. The number of the members of the Board of Directors shall never be less than 2 and, until otherwise determined by a General Meeting, shall not be more than 7.

42. The Board of Directors may from time to time and at any time appoint any member of the Company as a member of the Board of Directors, either to fill a casual vacancy or by way of addition to the Board of Directors, provided that the prescribed maximum be not thereby exceeded. Any member so appointed shall retain his or her office only until the next Annual General Meeting, but he or she shall then be eligible for re-election.
43. No person who is not a member of the Company shall in any circumstances be eligible to hold office as a member of the Board of Directors.

POWERS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

44. The business of the Company shall be managed by the Board of Directors who may pay all such expenses of, and preliminary and incidental to, the promotion, formation, establishment and registration of the Company as they think fit, and may exercise all such powers of the Company, and do on behalf of the Company all such acts as may be exercised and done by the Company, and as are not by statute or by these Articles required to be exercised or done by the Company in General Meeting, subject nevertheless to any regulations of these Articles, to the provisions of the statutes for the time being in force and affecting the Company, and to such regulations, being not inconsistent with the aforesaid regulations or provisions, as may be prescribed by the Company in General Meeting, but no regulation made by the Company in General Meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Board of Directors which would have been valid if such regulation had not been made.
45. The members for the time being of the Board of Directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body; provided always that in case the members of the Board of Directors shall at any time be or be reduced in number to less than the minimum number prescribed by or in accordance with these Articles, it shall be lawful for them to act as the Board of Directors for the purpose of admitting persons to membership of the Company, filling up vacancies on their body, or of summoning a General Meeting, but not for any other purpose.

SECRETARY

46. The Secretary may be appointed by the Board of Directors for such time, at such remuneration and upon such conditions as they may think fit, and any Secretary so appointed may be removed by them. The provisions of sections 270 and 274 of the Act shall apply and be observed.

DISQUALIFICATION OF MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

47. The office of a member of the Board of Directors shall be vacated:
- 1) If a receiving order is made against him or her, or he or she makes any arrangement or composition with his or her creditors.
 - 2) If he or she in the written opinion, given to the company, of a registered medical practitioner treating that person, has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a Director and may remain so for more than three months.
 - 3) If he or she ceases to be a member of the Company.

- 4) If by notice in writing to the Company he or she resigns his or her office.
- 5) If he or she ceases to hold office by reason of any order made under the Company Directors Disqualification Act 1986.
- 6) If he or she is removed from office by a resolution duly passed pursuant to section 168 of the Act.
- 7) If he or she fails without reasonable excuse to attend three consecutive meetings of the Board of Directors.

ROTATION OF MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

48. One-third of the members of the Board of Directors for the time being, or if their number is not a multiple of three then the number nearest to one third, shall retire from office either –
 - 1) at the first Annual General Meeting and at the Annual General Meeting to be held in every subsequent year or;
 - 2) if no Annual General Meeting is held at the meeting of the Directors at which the accounts of the Company are adopted.
49. The members of the Board of Directors to retire shall be those who have been longest in office since their last election or appointment. As between members of equal seniority, the members to retire shall in the absence of agreement be selected among them by lot. The length of time a member has been in office shall be computed from his or her last election or appointment. A retiring member of the Board of Directors shall be eligible for re-election.
50. The Company may, at the meeting at which a member of the Board of Directors retires in manner aforesaid, fill up the vacated office by electing a person thereto, and in default the retiring member shall, if offering himself for re-election, be deemed to have been re-elected, unless at such meeting it is expressly resolved not to fill such vacated office, or unless a resolution for the re-election of such a member shall have been put to the meeting and lost.
51. No person not being a member of the Board of Directors retiring at the meeting shall, unless recommended by the Board of Directors for election, be eligible for election to membership of the Board of Directors at any General Meeting, unless within the prescribed time before the day appointed for the meeting there shall have been given to the Secretary or administrator notice in writing, by some member duly qualified to be present and vote at the meeting for which such notice is given, of his or her intention to propose such person to be proposed and of his or her willingness to be elected. The prescribed time above mentioned shall be such that, between the date when the notice is served, or deemed to be served, and the day appointed for the meeting there shall be not less than four nor more than twenty-eight intervening days.
52. The Company may from time to time in General Meeting increase the number of members of the Board of Directors, and determine in what rotation such increased number shall go out of office, and may make the appointments necessary for effecting any such increase.

53. In addition and without prejudice to the provisions of section 168 of the Act, the Company may by Extraordinary Resolution remove any member of the Board of Directors before the expiration of his or her period of office and may by an Ordinary Resolution appoint another qualified member in his or her stead; but any person so appointed shall retain his or her office so long only as the member in whose place he or she is appointed would have held the same if he or she had not been removed.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

54. The Board of Directors may meet together for the dispatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit provided that they meet at least 4 times a year, and determine the quorum necessary for the transaction of business, provided that the quorum for meetings of the Board of Directors shall never be less than 1/3 or 2 (whichever is the greater number) of the members of the Board of Directors. Questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In case of an equality of votes the Chair shall have a second or casting vote.
55. A member of the Board of Directors may, and on the request of a member of the Board of Directors the Secretary or administrator shall, at any time, summon a meeting of the Board of Directors by notice served upon the several members of the Board of Directors. A member of the Board of Directors who is absent from the United Kingdom shall not be entitled to notice of a meeting.
56. The Board of Directors shall from time to time elect a Chair who shall be entitled to preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors at which he or she shall be present, and may determine for what period he or she is to hold office, but if no such Chair be elected, or if at any meeting the Chair be not present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting and willing to preside, the members of the Board of Directors present shall choose one of their number to be Chair of the meeting.
57. A meeting of the Board of Directors at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all the regulations of the Company for the time being vested in the Board of Directors generally.
58. The Board of Directors may delegate any of their powers to committees consisting of such member or members of the Board of Directors or others as they think fit, and any committee so formed shall, in the exercise of the powers so delegated, conform to any regulations imposed on it by the Board of Directors. The meetings and proceedings of any such committee shall be governed by the provisions of these Articles for regulating the meetings and proceedings of the Board of Directors so far as applicable and so far as the same shall not be superseded by regulations made by the Board of Directors. Any such committees shall report to the Board of Directors on any decisions taken as soon as possible. No such committee shall incur expenditure on behalf of the Company except in accordance with a budget which has been approved by the Board of Directors.
59. All acts bona fide done by any meeting of the Board of Directors or by any committee of the Board of Directors, or by any person acting as a member of the Board of Directors, shall, notwithstanding it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment or continuance of office of any such member or person acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed or had duly continued in office and was qualified to be a member of the Board of Directors.
60. The Board of Directors shall cause proper minutes to be made of all appointments of officers made by the Board of Directors and of the proceedings of all meetings of the Company and of the Board of Directors and of committees of the Board of Directors, and all business transacted at such meetings, and any such minutes of any meeting, if purporting to be signed by the Chair of such meeting, or by the Chair of the next succeeding meeting, shall be sufficient evidence without any further proof of the facts therein stated.

61. A resolution in writing signed or approved by letter, fax or email or other electronic means by all members for the time being of the Board of Directors or of any committee of the Board of Directors who are entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the Board of Directors or of such committee shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a duly convened and constituted meeting of the Board of Directors or such committee (as the case may be).
62. A meeting may be held by telephone or by televisual or other electronic or virtual means agreed by resolution of the Directors in which all participants may communicate simultaneously with all other participants.

ACCOUNTS

63. The Board of Directors shall cause proper books of account to be kept with respect to:
 - 1) all sums of money received and expended by the Company and the matters in respect of which such receipts and expenditure take place;
 - 2) all sales and purchases of goods by the Company; and
 - 3) the assets and liabilities of the Company
