Your project

What do we mean by 'project'? For us, a project is something that has:

- A start and end date
- Clear things you want to achieve in that time
- Ways for people to experience or take part in creativity or culture (either as part of the project or in the future)

This section of the application form helps us to understand what you want to do.

It allows you to think about how your project could help to bring creativity and culture to people in England.

When is your project going to happen?

Tell us the start and end dates for your project.

Remember:

- To allow enough time to deliver all the stages of your project
- The dates you give us here should cover the whole project period you're applying for
- We need eight weeks to process applications for £30,000 and under, your start date must be more than eight weeks from the date you submit your application
- To allow enough time for us to make a payment before your start date, if your application is funded

Project start date: 15/08/2024

Project end date: 20/12/2024

Applicant: Helen Wilson-Roe

Responding to any Time limited priorities

Your project is responding to the following Time limited priority:

Selected priority: - Not applying against any Time Limited Priority -

At a glance

In your own words, give a short, clear overview of your project:

Up to 500 characters

- Be as clear as you can about what you want to do using Project Grants funding
- It's better if this is written as a full paragraph
- It will be available to the public on our website if your application is funded.

Hidden Heroes increases participation in high-quality creative activities for marginalised voices (KS3 & 4 PP pupils & refugee women) in Bristol by using the underrepresented story of Henrietta Lacks & her instrumental contribution to science.

Black female artist, Helen Wilson-Roe uses Lacks' story to centre the voices of CYP & refugee women via creative activities where they identify their personal hidden heroes & create visual artworks inspired by them.

If you had to explain the focus of your project to someone, what single words or short phrase would you use?

Up to 100 characters

- You can be as broad or as specific as you like; it's your project
- You might think about this as your project's 'key words' or 'tags'
- Use a maximum of 5 key words or short phrases
- We won't use this response when deciding which applications to fund. It's so we can learn from how you see your project.
- Examples could be: singing; photography; digital work in libraries; South Asian dance; participatory arts; children's theatre; interactive gaming; dynamic collections work; changing business models; environmental theme; writing with older people; etc platforming marginalised voices, hidden heroes, dispelling racial tropes, disruptive pedagogy

Our Strategy, Let's Create

Let's Create explains how we want our funding to make a difference. It includes three Outcomes. These Outcomes are what we want to achieve through the projects we fund, so together we can make a difference.

You don't need to read our Strategy to make an application for £30,000 and under.

Telling us what your project focuses on helps us to decide which of the Outcomes your project will make a difference towards.

What does your project mainly focus on?

- this gives us a good sense of how you see your project
- you need to select only one option
- your project may include activity to do with more than one option; we want to know where you feel the main focus is
- the descriptions below are a guide to help you decide
- don't worry if you're not sure – we'll check we agree with the option you've selected when we look at your application

Hidden Heroes (HH) is led by Helen Wilson-Roe, the 1st Black female artist commissioned to create the UK's 1st public sculpture of a Black woman, Henrietta Lacks whose cancer cells changed modern medicine. Taken without her consent, they were the 1st human cells to ever survive & multiply outside the body. Helen's statue visibilised the wider issue of medical racism & repositioned Lacks as a heroine for her contribution to science.

HH creative framework:

- Helen revisits her sculpture & the story of Lacks to develop participation for a cohort of Global Majority, Pupil Premium CYP (KS3 & 4) from Two Mile & Fairfield Schls & Refugee Women of Bristol (RWoB)
- Participants spotlight their hero/heroine & translate this into an artwork that will be exhibited
- Helen develops a pedagogy with the support of Guy Reid-Bailey; an important figure in the exploration of Bristol's colonial history & historian, Katherine Smal, Bristol Uni.

Creative Outputs:

- x 6 artmaking wkshps; x 12 KS3 PP pupils, x 12 KS4 PP pupils, x 8 women at RWoB
- x 3 field trips to the statue of Lacks, in collab with Breathing Fire theatre. Actors create an immersive experience highlighting the historical significance of Lacks cells
- participants' showcase their hero artworks to their communities in a 5 day exhibit at The Merchant Quarters; connecting to Bristol's arts ecology.

Outcomes:

- Participants develop awareness of Lacks legacy; visiting the statue to learn from actors & academics about the relevance of Lacks' medical history; exploring social justice via conversations & experience
- by exploring the notion of hero/heroine; centering representation & equity in painting their hidden heroes; supported by a local & representative artist, marginalised grps build skills, confidence & de-colonise Bristol's complex history through creative practice
- by sharing & reflecting on the colonial narrative & personalising the notion of hero, the legacy of marginalisation & cultural/bodily theft is diminished to improve engagement in those traditionally excluded from science & the arts in the colonised anthropocene; self-confidence & belief in artmaking for cultural change is embedded.

Connectivity & longitudinal assets:

- A catalogue with statements from each cohort; with exhibition text by Prof Shawn Sobers
- A professional artist film to support Helen's longitudinal development as a Black female artist platforming underrepresented voices; shared via her website & Bristol Uni
- Building of creative skills & confidence in participants who traditionally lack representation in mainstream culture; their heroes are not on the walls of galleries & museums
- Pedagogical reclamation of heroism as a tool to build cultural connectivity & social cohesion; dismantling historic bias/tropes.

What's led you or your organisation to do this project now?

Up to 1500 characters

- What ideas or experiences have led you or your organisation to this point?
- Is this project helping you or your organisation learn or try new things?
- If you've done something similar before, how is this different?
- You can write this in full paragraphs or in bullet points

Helen is a sculptor, painter & installation maker. Her work addresses social & cultural issues concerning disenfranchised & culturally diverse communities whose voices & stories are rarely told in mainstream art spaces. Helen's statue of Henrietta Lacks was erected at Bristol Uni (2021), it is a public art conduit for social change.

Helen completed a DYCP grant (2023) to democratise & amplify the central conceits of her work by creating x 2 portraits of hidden heroes:

1. Sir Guy Reid-Bailey; a hero of the civil rights movement in the UK
2. Marvin Rees, the first Mayor of African heritage elected by Bristol (2016).

HH is a continuation of her commitment to dispelling racist tropes & amplifying underrepresented voices. HH marks a step change in her practice; introducing peripatetic teaching to her repertoire; focusing on working with marginalised groups. With support from project partners, she will devise an educational wkshp pedagogy for CYP (KS3 & 4) via identified schools & refugee women; inviting them to explore the notion of heroes' by educating on & sharing Henrietta's story.

HH will be the 1st time Helen platforms so many underrepresented voices by:

- developing the wkshp pedagogy with support from academics & historians
- curating a group exhibition of all wkshp participants artworks
- creating (inc. directing) a professional artist film; using the project & her journey to evidence her professional development.

How will you know if you've achieved what you set out to do?

Up to 1500 characters

- Are there opportunities for learning and reflection during your project?
- How will you know what difference the project has made?
- What steps will you take to understand what people thought of the project?
- You can write this in full paragraphs or in bullet points

HH KPI's inc:

- minimum 15 pupils attend wkshps with school partners & 5 refugee women attend wkshps via RWoB
- minimum 100 audience attendance at HH exhibition
- cross pollination between wkshp participants at HH exhibition; creating new hyper-local community ties
- increased confidence in participants through a safe space to share personal stories of heroes via creative expression
- professional artist film created; spotlighting the importance of the project for Helen's development as an artist.

Learning & reflection methods:

- wkshp pedagogy development with Historian Katherine Smal & Guy Bailey
- feedback on delivery of wkshps with partners
- monthly project development support from Prof Shawn Sobers
- opp for exhibition participants to share 5 min presentation on their work; who their hero is & why
- final evaluation & feedback sessions with all project partners; reviewing success of HH.

Via feedback games at the end of wkshps, 50%+ PP pupils & refugee women report feeling more:

- confident to create art
- aware of similarities & differences between their personal stories around the notion of hidden heroes
- interested in finding out more about creative opps available in Bristol.

Quantitative success measures inc:

- 71% turnout at exhibition, with triage partners encouraging wkshp participants to attend with family members &/or their hero
- 40% increase in social handle engagement (IG & FB) for Helen.

Inclusivity and Relevance

What steps are you taking to make your project inclusive and relevant?

Up to 3000 characters

Inclusivity

- How will you make sure the communities you want to reach are able to access your project, and feel included and welcomed?
- What things might stop people experiencing or accessing your project, and how will you address them?

Relevance

- How have you involved the people you want to reach in the design and planning of your project?
- What information or data do you have on the place or community your project involves? How have you used this to shape your project?

Hidden Heroes uses the story of Henrietta's posthumous contribution to medical science to:

- visibilise & celebrate a significant Black women's life & legacy to champion underrepresented voices
- dispel racist tropes by platforming underrepresented voices via development & delivery of creative activities (wkshp model & exhibition)
- raise awareness & invite conversation around racial tropes & Bristol's colonial history
- democratise the arts by providing underserved & marginalised groups the opportunity to share their heroes with their communities & the wider Bristol community by creating artworks
- provide CYP & refugee women with a platform to exercise positions of cultural authority & creative autonomy.

HH Artistic development will:

- support Helen's longitudinal development as a black female artist with strong ties to Bristol & the story of Henrietta; repositioning her work to be commissioned on her terms; as the intention behind it is both understood & respected for its cultural importance & impact
- develop new, financially sustainable skills for Helen as a peripatetic teacher; delivering creative wkshps in schools & lecturing on her journey as a black female artist; working with themes that inc. Racism, Exploitation, Genocide, Bristol & the Transatlantic Traffic in Enslaved Africans.

HH increases participation in high-quality creative activities by:

- widening & improving access for x 24 PP CYP & x 8 refugee women to engage in creative opps in & outside of school/their familiar environments
- creating multi-cultural & generational connections between the PP pupils & refugee women + their families/communities via the exhibition/their experiences.

HH is sensitive to the needs of the PP pupils inc:

- sensory issues (neurodivergent/SEND needs accommodated via slow paced, repetitive & non pressured activities
- dissemination of knowledge (co-facilitators who know the pupils needs will be on hand to explain specific tasks).

HH is sensitive to the needs of the multicultural female refugees (e.g Somalia, Sudan, Iraq, Iran, Syria, & Gambia) inc;

- time of day; wkshps delivered during the day to ensure participants feel safe
- religious sensitivities (e.g women are offered separate work spaces if necessary)
- finance; free access for women to ensure no financial barriers.

HH builds access & removes barriers to participation by harnessing dynamic outreach tools inc. word of mouth, tight knit whatsapp, facebook grps & self-organised community flyering. It activates diaspora networks in Bristol via RWoB inc. Somalia, Sudan, Iraq, Iran, Syria, & Gambia & uses creatively engaging ways to connect wkshp participants with the project's themes e.g; creating artworks of who the participants see as their heroes, & getting them to talk/write about why.

Project: Hidden Heroes: Increasing participation in high-quality creative activities for marginalised voices through the story of Henrietta Lacks & her instrumental contribution to science to

By placing Helen in a position of cultural authority; sharing her journey as a black female artist facing barriers in the arts she acts as an accessible role model for participants.

Your planning

You've told us what you want to do and what you hope to achieve. We now need to understand how this will come together to be successfully delivered.

We need to know:

- Your project plan – what you're going to do and when
- Your plans for managing the project – you don't need to have managed a project before, but you need to show you've thought about what you'll do or who will support you
- Who you'll work with and how they'll contribute
- What your budget is and how you've worked it out, including paying everyone fairly
- How you will respond to challenges you might encounter

Project timeline

Project Start Date: 15/08/2024

Project End Date: 20/12/2024

You've told us the start and end date of your project. We need to know what will happen during your project. Creating a timeline shows the key tasks that your project is made up of.

We understand that plans can change over the life of a project, but we need to see that you have a plan in place to deliver your project.

To create the table, click the 'Add new item' icon on the left of the screen to add a project stage. To add more than one stage, use the 'Save and Add another' button.

The table at the bottom of the page will populate with the information you enter about the stages of your project.

Managing your project

What experience do you have of managing a project? I have managed projects like this before

Who will be working with you to deliver your project

For example this might be:

- A team of people (tell us who they are, and about their role and skills:...)
- A particular artist, practitioner or group (tell us: ...)
- A particular specialist(s) (tell us: ...)
- Other organisation(s) as collaborators, coproducers etc (tell us...)
- Other organisation(s) helping you to manage the project (tell us...)

How will they help you to deliver your project?

Up to 1500 characters

- What skills will they bring?
- If some people's involvement isn't confirmed yet, do you know what you'll do if they can't be involved?

Hidden Heroes partners will help to deliver the project eg ensuring wkshp participants feel safe & included;
 -RWOB is the only multi-ethnic, multi-faith org that specifically targets the needs of refugee women in Bristol, & is directly governed by women of the refugee & asylum-seeking community. Neget Hussien will use her connection with the women to ensure they feel safe & included (esp. religious sensitivities are acknowledged & respected).

-Two Mile & Fairfield will provide SEND need expert teachers who have long-term relationship with the PP pupils to mitigate any complex situations/can support Helen in facilitating/disseminating knowledge & instructions.

-Prof Shawn Sabers will offer his academic support & guidance rooted in personal narratives, hidden histories & untold stories to support Helen's devising & delivering of the wkshps.

-Breathing Fire will work with Helen to create an immersive performance for the field trips to Ms Lacks status & the exhibition; e.g actors will greet participants in costume & share the history & significance of Lacks cells.

-Guy Reid-Bailey will support Helen in devising the creative wkshps; using his experience as an activist & strong ties with Bristol's anti-slavery movement

-Society of Merchants Venturers; will use their strong ties with the city to support Helen by hosting her exhibition; the first 10-day public exhibition to be displayed in their building.

Budget: How much are you applying to us for?

We need to know how much money you are applying to us for.

We'll ask you to tell us how much money you'll have to spend on the project (the income) and what you will spend it on (the expenditure). We'll also ask you to think about any challenges for your project and explain how you will respond to these.

Whilst we understand that budgets can change over the life of a project, this information allows us to see how you've planned your budget and how realistic it is that your project will deliver what you want it to.

Please read the Budget section of our Guidance for Applicants for help on completing your budget.

Please tell us the total amount you are applying to us for, including any personal access costs (£): £27,832

How much of this request is for your/your collaborators' personal access costs (£)? £0

*If you, or any of the core team of people you are delivering the project with, experience barriers because you identify as:

- D/deaf or disabled
- neurodivergent

- for the online management of your grant.
- Some examples are: a BSL interpreter, a notetaker, or specialist tutor for admin support, or counselling costs.

Costs can only be for the project period (between your project start date and end date).

Costs for caring responsibilities or costs for making your activity accessible to the people experiencing your project, including participants, can be included as part of your project budget but should not be included as personal access costs.

Only include personal access costs that you will have if your application is successful. This does not include costs relating to preparing, planning and submitting your application.

You can find more about personal access costs, and more about how we can support you to submit an application, in our Access Support information sheet.

If your personal access costs take your request over £100,000 we will still treat your application as an application for £30,001 and over

Risks and challenges

There are risk and challenges to any project. Our funding can support you to take more risks than you might normally be able to. It may allow you to try new creative or cultural ideas, despite the unknowns and the possible financial or reputational risks.

Taking creative or cultural risk is important because it means that creativity and culture are always growing and changing.

It's important that you've thought about what the risks or challenges are. If they happen, you're then able to manage them and still deliver your project successfully.

If you want to understand more about risk, including the different types of risk, you can have a look at our Practitioners guide to identifying and managing risk information sheet.

What are the main risks and challenges to your project meeting its aims?

Up to 2000 characters

- What could go wrong?
- What might happen differently?

Risk 1: Field Trip - Helen will organise for each cohort of wkshp participants to attend a field trip to the statue & gardens of Henrietta Lacks at Bristol University:

1. pupils might feel overwhelmed being taken out of the familiar school environment. Pupils may become over excited/stimulated & disrupt the immersive performance by Breathing Fire/Helen's sharing of Ms Lacks' story 2. Sharing the story of Ms Lacks: wkshp participants may find it difficult to connect with the story of Ms Lacks via the immersive experience presented by Breathing Fire as it is not a familiar way for them to receive information.

R2: Logistics: Helen will be managing all administrative tasks alongside her role as artist & creative facilitator. This workload could lead to overwhelm & impact her creative outputs.

R3: Filming: Helen will be creating an artist film to accompany the project & will need to make sure anyone who is in this has given consent.

R4: Child Protection & Safeguarding Concerns: HH will involve working with x 12 (KS 3 & KS4) CYP:

1: lack of proper supervision may expose children to potential risks
2: unsecured physical environments: inadequately secured event space may pose safety risks for CYP.
3: Parental consent & information sharing: inadequate consent processes & information sharing with parents or guardians.

R5: Complex themes: Hidden Heroes uses the story of Henrietta Lacks; a black woman whose DNA was taken without her consent as an important talking point around platforming underrepresented voices. HH works with refugee women & Global Majority CYP who might find it difficult to share their own experiences of displacement/discrimination.

What will you do to manage these risks?

Up to 2000 characters

- What plans have you put in place?
- Have these actions worked before?

Mitigation 1:

1. Both schools will have experienced teaching assistants who will have been working with the PP pupils since the beginning of term. They will be able to mitigate unforeseen circumstances; e.g removing a student from the immediate event to calm/reassure them
2. Breathing Fire are an established theatre company working with trained actors to help create exciting, engaging & immersive environments for audiences & participants.

M2: Helen will have monthly mentorship support from Guy Baily & Shean Stubbs to ensure she is having regular check-ins on her creative development. She will also be working with historian, Katherine Small who will provide expert guidance around the workshop model she creates.

M3: Helen has consulted the schools & RWoB to flag there will be filming during the field trips, workshops & exhibition opening. If any parent of refugee woman does not wish to be included, Helen & the videographer will be notified.

M4:

- 1: Schools have confirmed support from TA’s with DBS checks valid for under one year & take on responsible supervision role;
- 2: Thorough safety inspection of the classrooms will be carried out to Implement appropriate measures, such as securing access points & addressing potential hazards;
- 3: appropriate consent from parents or guardians for image use, clearly communicate wkshp /event details, safety measures & emergency contacts to parents or guardians.

M5: As a black woman & artist, Helen has first-hand experience of discrimination & racism. Because of this, she can relate & share her own experiences to inspire those she is working with.

You acknowledge that safeguarding is important in all projects working with the public. About you / your organisation

We use all of this information in an anonymised way to help us see a clear picture of who we are supporting through Project Grants, and how this might need to change to ensure that, over time, the grants we make reflect the diversity of contemporary England.

We also use some of the information to help us make funding decisions.

Sometimes we prioritise supporting people and organisations who share characteristics that are underrepresented in recipients or beneficiaries of National Lottery Project Grants funding, so it helps us to know the characteristics of the individual or the organisation applying.

We believe that the creativity of each of us should be valued and given the chance to flourish, and every one of us should have access to a remarkable range of high-quality cultural experiences.

Equitable access to arts and culture funding is an important part of this. We believe the spread of who and what we invest in should reflect the makeup of the wider country we live in.

This is about us delivering on our Equality Objective:

We will ensure a more equitable distribution of our investment to improve opportunities for everyone, especially those with under-represented protected characteristics and from disadvantaged socio-economic groups.

We know from our data that Black, Asian and ethnically diverse people and disabled people are underrepresented as recipients and beneficiaries of National Lottery Project Grants funding. If you choose to tell us, information about your ethnicity and whether you identify as a disabled person may be used as part of our decision-making process. (If you're applying as an organisation, we'll use the information you give us about the characteristics of your organisation's board and/or senior management.) We will use this information combined with information about who your project will work with, and all the other information you give us about your project.

We will never share this information with others, except in an anonymised way.

If you're not comfortable sharing any of this information with us for this purpose, you can select 'Prefer not to say'.

Monitoring information

We use the information in this section to report how we have spent our funding from the National Lottery.

In this section, you must answer all the questions. If you prefer not to provide some of the information, you can tick the 'Prefer not to answer' box. We may use this information to report to the Government or to monitor the different backgrounds of people who receive grants.

To whom it may concern,

I am writing this letter to express my enthusiastic support for Helen Wilson Roe and her 'Hidden Heroes Project 2024'. Helen's project encompasses vital themes such as representation, creativity, and community engagement, making it a valuable endeavour worthy of support and recognition.

It has been my pleasure to work with Helen for some years, leading to the unveiling of Henrietta Lacks' statue and accompanying landscape within the University's Royal Fort garden. Helen's background as a black female artist and her exploration of her journey as a creative practitioner, especially in the context of creating the sculpture of Henrietta Lacks, highlight her unique perspective and dedication to meaningful storytelling. Her ability to connect personal experiences with broader themes of heroism and empowerment resonates deeply, particularly with the Heritage and Public Art Committee (of which I am a member), University staff and students as well as young people, disadvantaged children, and refugee women.

The collaborative nature of Helen's project, involving key figures like Mr. Guy Reid-Bailey and organisations like Breathing Fire, demonstrates her commitment to inclusivity and diversity in storytelling and artistic expression. By engaging with schools such as Fairfield School and Two Mile Primary School, as well as partnering with Refugee Women of Bristol (RWoB), Helen ensures that her project reaches a wide audience and fosters meaningful dialogue across communities.

The workshop model and structure outlined by Helen, including visits to Henrietta Lacks's statue, interactive sessions with Breathing Fire, and creative workshops with participants, not only educate but also empower individuals to explore their notions of heroism and create meaningful art inspired by their experiences and beliefs.

I believe Helen's project has the potential to create a lasting impact and inspire positive change within the communities involved. Her dedication to storytelling, artistic expression, and community engagement reflects admirable values that align with our goals of promoting inclusivity, creativity, and empowerment.

I wholeheartedly support Helen Wilson Roe-Brief and her Hidden Heroes Project 2024 and am excited about the possibilities it holds for enriching lives and fostering meaningful connections.

Thank you for considering this letter of support.

Supporting letter for Helen Wilson-Roe
'Hidden Heroes' application

18th March 2024

Dear Sir / Madam,

As a fellow artist who has known Helen Wilson-Roe for over 25 years I am delighted to support this 'Hidden Heroes' application.

Helen is dedicated to exploring and uncovering untold stories. The project focusing on the notion of heroes and memorialisation is demonstrative of her dedication to social justice with communities and young people that are not readily engaged with the mainstream arts sector, or usually the subjects of art. Helen makes art relevant to them.

The long-standing and outstanding body of work Helen has created regarding Henrietta Lacks' story has culminated in local, national and international acclaim, including gratitude from the Lack family.

Helen is motivated to creating opportunities using her own initiative with autonomy on her art practice and her own story. I applaud her commitment to ensure our own stories, as black women are represented and told through art, while mentoring and championing next generations of artists so they can be encouraged into professional spaces with self-assurance and resilience.

It is beyond doubt that this project will be of significant success, and of great value to all those taking part and benefitting. I am wholeheartedly pleased to support this application

With regards
